First of all, I commit my Soul into the hands of Almighty God, my creator, my body to the ground to be buried,
Secondly, I give and bequeath all my property and estate whatsoever whereof I am or may be possessed or which in any manner I may be entitled to, to David Hanlon and Michael Curran of the city of Annapolis their Heirs or Executors, And it is the intention of this bequest that the said David Hanlon and Michael Curran shall have, hold, possess and enjoy the same in as full and ample manner as I myself could, as Tenants in common thereof, and not as Joint tenants, and it is further the meaning and intention of this bequest to pass unto the said David Hanlon and Michael Curran all my property in action as well as possession of what kind or nature soever to be equally divided between them; It is my Will and desire that the bequest above made shall not be considered as given and made in discharge of the debts or sum of money which may be due by me to the said David Hanlon and Michael Curran respectively or to either of them but shall be considered as a free and voluntary gift
Lastly, I do hereby constitute and appoint the said David Hanlon and Michael Curran Executors of this my last will and Testament hereby revoking and cancelling all and every other Will or Codicil heretofore by me made, In Testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my Seal this third day of April 1808
