me withall. I dispose thereof in manner following,
Item. I give and bequeath unto my sister Polly Worthington's two daughters fifty pounds each of current money.
Item. I give and bequeath unto my nephew Francis Simpson one hundred pounds current money.
Item I give and bequeath unto Mrs Mary Ricketts fifty pounds current money.
Item, I give and bequeath unto my brother John Worthington and his Heirs forever, all my estate both real and personal, which I have or may hereafter be entitled to; my meaning is that my said brother John Worthington and his heirs forever shall inherit all my estate both real and personal which I now have, or may hereafter be in any manner intitled to except the legacies heretofore devised as above.
Item, I do hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my brother John Worthington to be my whole and sole Executor of this, my last will and testament, and that he acknowledge assets for payment of debts due from my estate, and that no part of my estate herein devised, nor any part whatsoever be Inventoried or Appraised or returned to the prerogative office, but that all my estate be settled as heretofore directed after the legacies left as aforesaid and my debts and funeral charges be paid, for which I do hereby direct my said Executor to pay of said legacies in two years after my death. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this twenty sixth day of December eighteen hundred and seven.

In the Name of God Amen. I Elizabeth Waters of Anne Arundel County in the state of Maryland, being sick and weak in body, but of sound disposing mind and memory, and considering the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time thereof, and being desirous to settle my worldly affairs, and thereby be the better prepared to leave this world when it shall please God to call me hence, do therefore make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following that is to say
First and Principally, I commit my soul into the hands of Almighty God, and my body to the earth to be decently buried at the discretion of my Executor herein after named, and after my debts and funeral charges are paid, I devise and bequeath as follows
Item, I give and bequeath to my son Charles Waters one negro man York to serve my said son two year, and at the end of two year my will and desire is that the said negro York shall go free.
Item, I give and bequeath to my son Jacob Waters one negro man called Adam to serve my said son five years, and at the end of five years, my will and desire is that the said negro Adam shall go free.
Item, I give and bequeath to my grand daughter Anne Waters all my tea ware and glasses, and also one trunk and one looking glass, and one side saddle to her and her heirs forever.
Item, I give and bequeath all the rest and residue of my estate to be equally divided between my two Sons Charles Waters and Jacob Waters to them their heirs and assigns forever in equal portion, share and share alike.
And Lastly, I do hereby constitute and appoint my two sons Charles Waters and Jacob Waters to be sole Executors of this, my last will and testament. Revoking and annulling all former wills by me heretofore made, ratifying and confirming this and none other to be my last will and testament. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this twenty third day of September eighteen hundred and eight.
