Local Intelligence.

The Orphans Court of Caroline county will sit on Tuesday, August 27th, 1867.

Water Melons

Have made their appearance in town and command pretty good prices.

Camp Meeting.

The Concord camp meeting commences on Saturday next. Every arrangement has been made to make this a first class camp, and it promises to be a large one.

The Corn Crop.

The corn crop in this county is very heavy on high lands. In the low lands no crops will be raised at all, they having been killed by the heavy rains of this spring and summer.

New Dwelling.

Mr. Wm. G. Horsey has under course of construction a large and well-arranged dwelling on his lot just outside of town. It fronts on the Potter's Landing road.—The frame was raised on Saturday.

The Peach Crop.

The peach season has now actually commenced and the crop is a large one. Hundreds of crates now leave this county for the Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York markets. Prices are declininng owing to glutted markets.

Taking Medicine

To cure diseases occasioned by a deficiency of Iron in the Blood, without restoring it to the system, is like trying to repair a building when the foundation is gone!—Peruvian Syrup (a protoxide of Iron) supplies this deficiency and builds up an iron constitution.

The Maryland Farmer.

This excellent agricultural monthly for August is on our table. It is well filled with matters of interest to the farmer, horticulturist, stock raiser and housekeepers, and should be in every family. Published by S. Sands Mills & Co., Baltimore, at $1.50 per year.

Denton Bridge.

Those who have occasion to pass over this bridge cannot fail to notice the sad and dangerous condition in which it now is. It is really unsafe for heavily-laden vehicles to travel over. The planks are worn into large holes, and carriage wheels frequently break through. We hope that our County Commissioners will see that it is properly repaired.

Medical Examiner.

Dr. H. C. Kemp has been appointed medical examiner for this county under the Militia law of this State. He will be at Denton on Saturday, the 17th of August, at which time all those in this district claiming exemption from militia duty must appear before him. The law requires that those applying for exemption must pay to the examiner one dollar.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, Quinsy, and the numerous as well as dangerous diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs, prevail in our changeable climate at all seasons of the year: few are fortunate enough to escape their baneful influence.—How important then to have at hand a certain antidote to all these complaints. Experience proves that this exists in Wistar's Balsam to an extent not found in any other remedy: however severe the suffering, the application of this soothing, healing and wonderful Balsam at once vanquishes the disease and restores the sufferer to wonted health.

MR. JOHN BUNTO,

OF BALDWIN, CHEMUNG COUNTY, N. Y., writes:

"I was urged by a neighbor to get one bottle of the Balsam for my wife, being assured by him that in case it did not produce good effects, he would pay for the bottle himself. On the strength of such practical evidence of its merits, I procured a bottle. My wife at this time was so low with what the physicians termed Seated Consumption as to be unable to raise herself from the bed, coughing constantly and raising more or less blood. I commenced giving the Balsam as directed, and was so much pleased with its operation that I obtained another bottle, and continued giving it. Before this bottle was entirely used, she ceased coughing and was strong enough to sit up. The fifth bottle entirely restored her to health, doing that which several Physicians had tried to do but had failed.

Prepared by Seth W. Fowle & Son, 18 Tremont St., Boston, and sold by Druggists everywhere.

ACROSTIC.

DR. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP.

This great medicine cured Dr. J. H. Schenck the proprietor, of Pulmonary Consumption, when it had assumed its most formidable aspect, and when speedy death appeared to be inevitable His physician pronounced his case incurable, when he commenced the use of this simple but powerful remedy. His health was restored in a very short time, and no return of the disease has been apprehended, for all the symptoms quickly disappeared, and his present weight is more than two hundred pounds.

Since his recovery, he has devoted his attention exclusively to the cure of Consumption, and the diseases which are usually complicated with it, and the cures effected by his medicines have been very numerous and truly wonderful. Dr. Schenck makes professional visits to several of the larger cities weekly, where he has a large concourse of petients, and it is truly astonishing to see poor consumptives that have to be lifted out of their carriages, and in a few month healthy, robust persons. Dr. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC, and MANDRAKE PILLS are generally all required in curing Consumption. Full directions accompany each, so that any one can take them without seeing Dr. Schenck, but when it is convenient it is best to see him. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer his fee is three dollors.

Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the Doctor—one when in the last stage of Consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health—are on the Government stamp.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers. Price $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. Letters for advice should always be directed to Dr. Schenck's Principal Office, No. 15 North 6th Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

☞ A YOUNG LADY returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the City, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the CIRCASSIAN BALM, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any Lady's toilet. By its use any Lady or gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful. Past experience induces me to say that I can give you as good a fit, and as much for the money, as any in the trade. If you will take the trouble to compare prices, I am sure you will give me a trial. As respects a fit, no one need hesitate; none shall go away without entire satisfaction. I would rather lose the sale of a garment, than a customer should hold me in unfavorable remembrance every time he puts it on. This is no humbug. Those who know me well will subscribe to what I say. My first object is to promote my own interest; the second, yours. Come and realize the fact. Persons furnishing their own goods can have them made and trimmed in good style.
