Local Intelligence.

The Orphans Court of Caroline county will sit on Tuesday, Sept. 10th, 1867.

COLORED CAMP.—The colored people are to hold a camp meeting in Meloney's woods, four miles from this place, commencing on Friday, 6th of September, next.

PERSONAL.—Hon. George P. Fisher, Judge of the Criminal Court of Washington city, D. C., has been on a visit for several days to Mr. Hiram W. McColley, a brother-in-law, at Greensborough, in the 1st district, in this county.

CHANGE OF HOURS.—The time-table of the Md. & Del. Railroad has again been changed. The cars now leave Greensborough at 10.45, A. M. This change is made to accommodate the peach growers, and will terminate with the close of the peach season.

A STARTLING TRUTH!—Thousands die annually from neglected coughs and colds which soon ripen into consumption or other equally fatal diseases of the lungs: when by the timely use of a single bottle of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry their lives could have been preserved to a green old age. *

MILL DAM BROKEN.—The dam of the Brick Mill, on the road leading from this place to Boonsborough, and belonging to Mr. James Bryan, was broken by the late storm. It has been broken several times before, but the loss sustained by the present break is said to exceed that of all previous ones.

FRESH SHAD.—The last fresh shad of the season was caught about two miles above this place on the 21st instant. We had it properly dressed for the table, but it was very unpalatable, and tasted as though it had been feeding for a fortnight in some man's onion patch. We turned him over to the canine species.

PERUVIAN SYRUP.—This valuable medicine has been silently making its way into public favor by the numerous remarkable cures it has performed. Its singular efficacy is owing to the protoxide of Iron, which remains unchanged in this preparation and is the only form in which this vital element of healthy blood can be supplied. *

PUBLIC MEETING.—The National Union Republican party of Caroline county will hold a County Convention at Denton on Tuesday next to select delegates to attend the Border State Convention to be held in the city of Baltimore on the 12th of September next. It is desired that every Republican, who can do so, will be present at the meeting.

CLOSE OF THE CAMP.—The M. E. camp meeting, held at Concord, eight miles from this place, closed on Saturday morning last. The wet weather partially destroyed the enjoyment of those in attendance and made it very unpleasant, yet good order was generally observed, and the labors of the ministers and the official members of the church was crowned with success. About forty persons embraced religion and joined the church.

THEFT AT CAMP MEETING.—On Sunday night, the 18th inst., at the Concord camp meeting, in this county, after the close of the exercises of the day, and after every one had retired for the night, a notorious character named Hezekiah Scott, alias Ky. Scott, with two others, entered the tents in the rear of the preacher's stand, while the inmates were asleep, and stole from different parties about one hundred dollars in money, two watches, and sundry articles of wearing apparel. The sufferers by these rogues were the Rev Andrew Manship, who lost fifty dollars in money, a silver watch, his vest, drawers and stockings; Rev. Nathan Gean lost his entire suit and was compelled to borrow apparel as he had not a change of clothing with him; Mr. Wm. Morgan lost fifty dollars in money and some small articles of wearing apparel; and Mr. R. J. W. Garey lost a valuable gold watch and an entire suit of clothes

One day last week Constable Beachamp arrested and brought to jail two young men named — Scott and Eugene Hubbard charged with being parties in the theft. On the person of young Scott was found the watch belonging to Rev. A Manship. The officers, while in pursuit of the thieves, came near catching Ky Scott, the leader, and pushed him so hard that he dropped one of the carpet sacks he had stolen, which, upon examination, was found to contain the clothing belonging to Mr. R. J. W. Garey. The officers are still on the lookout for Ky Scott, who is a worthless character, too lazy to work, and manages to subsist by stealing everything within his reach that is movable. He has been the inmate of some of the strongest prisons in the country, but has so far managed to escape from them.

GET REGISTERED.—If there are any persons who have not heretofore been registered we advise them to go forward at once and be registered. The officers of Registration in each election district will sit at the usual places of holding elections from the 4th until the 14th of September to register all persons who may apply for registration. Be sure and get registered or you cannot vote.

WE wish to call the attention of merchants, and business men generally, to the fact that we are prepared to execute fine printing in a neat and workmanlike manner, at short notice, and on the most reasonable terms. It is useless for them to send their work to the city when it can be done at home, and that, too, at less cost. Knowing their wants, we have procured the material and are ready to print billheads, due-bills, cards, and any other kind of work they may desire.

THE colored camp held in the neighborhood of Purnell's Shop, in the upper part of this county, closed on Monday morning last. The best of order was observed during the entire camp, which reflects great credit upon the colored race. We are glad to learn that they can meet together in large assemblies and conduct religious worship with order and decorum. These camp meetings conducted in the proper spirit will no doubt be the means of improvement to the colored people both mentally and spiritually.

SUICIDE.—Richard Greenwell, residing at Seaford, Sussex county, Del., committed suicide at that place on Thursday, August 15th, by drowning himself in the Nanticoke river. Quite a number of our readers are acquainted with this man Greenwell, he having sold beef in this market several years ago. He was also known here as one of the men implicated in the forcible entrance into the jail of this place, and the taking therefrom one James Wilson, (negro,) who was arrested, imprisoned and awaiting trial for the murder of a little girl in this county, and hung in the rear of the jail yard. After he was hung, shot, and throat cut, this same man Greenwell cut and carved him as though he were a beef, and then roasted and burned to ashes the pieces. He reserved the right hand of the negro and carried it home to Delaware with him, in which State he then resided.

But what a change has taken place since that Saturday night. Since then the fearful judgments of the Almighty seem to have visited him on all occasions. About a year after this transaction he lost his wife by the most agonizing of deaths —that of burning. Since the death of his wife, Greenwell lost his right hand by the cars passing over it and crushing it. On several occasions he came near losing his life by being thrown from his carriage, and two or three times was taken up as dead. Finally, on Thursday, the 15th inst., he remarked to some one that "God Almighty would not kill him and he would go and drown himself," which he did and put an end to his existence.

He was an Englishman by birth, and was said to be a desperate character before emigrating to this country. He was an infidel—did not believe in a God, or in a future state of existence. He would stand up with the open Bible in his hand and curse the God that made him—contend that blind chance formed the world, and fixed the planets in their spheres.—Awful, indeed, has been his end, and fearful must be the responsibility that meets him in that unknown future.

SPECIAL NOTICE COLUMN.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, Quinsy, and the numerous as well as dangerous diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs, prevail in our changeable climate at all seasons of the year: few are fortunate enough to escape their baneful influence.—How important then to have at hand a certain antidote to all these complaints. Experience proves that this exists in Wistar's Balsam to an extent not found in any other remedy: however severe the suffering, the application of this soothing, healing and wonderful Balsam at once vanquishes the disease and restores the sufferer to wonted health.

MR. JOHN BUNTO,

OF BALDWIN, CHEMUNG COUNTY, N. Y., writes:

"I was urged by a neighbor to get one bottle of the Balsam for my wife, being assured by him that in case it did not produce good effects, he would pay for the bottle himself. On the strength of such practical evidence of its merits, I procured a bottle. My wife at this time was so low with what the physicians termed Seated Consumption as to be unable to raise herself from the bed, coughing constantly and raising more or less blood. I commenced giving the Balsam as directed, and was so much pleased with its operation that I obtained another bottle, and continued giving it. Before this bottle was entirely used, she ceased coughing and was strong enough to sit up. The fifth bottle entirely restored her to health, doing that which several Physicians had tried to do but had failed.

Prepared by Seth W. Fowle & Son, 18 Tremont St., Boston, and sold by Druggists everywhere.

☞A YOUNG LADY returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the City, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the CIRCASSIAN BALM, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any Lady's toilet. By its use any Lady or gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful.
