In the Name of God Amen I Rachel Warfield of Ann Arundel County in Maryland, being sick and weak in body, but of sound & disposing mind, memory & understanding, Do make & publish this Instrument of writing as and for my last Will and Testament in manner and form following that is, after my just debts & funeral charges are paid I give, devise and bequeath as follows.

To my Dear Wife who I wish to reside with my son Greenbury in my present Dwelling, I have considered that her right of Dower & legal share of of my personal Estate (which I wish her to have) will be amply sufficient to support her during the remainder of her life.

To my Son Allen during his natural life, I give & devise the use, possession & profits of the Plantation whereon he now resides together with all the land I own thereto attached and after his, my said son Allen's Death, then I give & devise the said Plantation and the land thereto attached to my two daughters Rebecca Warfield and Catharine Linthicum to them and their heirs for ever as tenants in common & not as joint tenants to be equally divided between them share & share alike.

To my Son Philemon Warfield and his heirs & assigns for ever I give and devise part of a tract of land called Good Range containing about Two hundred & fifteen acres Deeded to me by Nicholas Merriwether, Also a tract or parcel of land called "Exchange" Also all the land Deeded to me by Lancelot Dorsey & Darius Dorsey being part of a tract of land called Brother's Partnership & part of a Tract of land called Good Range. - except one hundred acres which I shall hereafter give to my daughter Catharine Linthicum.

To my three sons namely Lloyd Warfield, Joshua Warfield and Greenbury Warfield and their heirs & assigns forever as tenants in common & not as Joint tenants I give & devise the following land to Wit, - One tract or parcel of land called Mothers Care, One other tract called Brothers Love, one other tract called Small Land, one other tract called Intervene, part of a tract called Morehouse's Generosity, one other tract called Any thing, one other Tract called Every thing, part of a Tract called Dorsey's Addition to Thomas's lot, & that small part of Thomas's Lot, lying to or on the left hand side of the road leading from my Dwelling to the public road, all of which several tracts or part of tracts of land lie adjoining each other, to be equally divided between them as to quantity and as nearly so as to quality as the situation of the land will admit of, having regard to give each lot a due propotion of Wood land. The said division to be made by two disinterested men mutually chosen by my aforesaid three sons, and my son Lloyd's lot to include the plantation ~~where~~ on which he now resides, my son Joshua's lot to include the place or plantation on which Ely Gassaway formerly resided. And my son Greenbury's lot to include my dwelling plantation. I also give & bequeath to my son Joshua Warfield this his heirs the sum of Three hundred dollars to aid him in erecting some necessary buildings on the land given to him.

To my Daughter Rebecca Warfield and her heirs and assigns for ever, I give & devise all that part of a tract or parcel of land called Thomas's Lot which I own lying on the right hand side of the road leading from my dwelling to the main or public Road.

To my Daughter Catharine Linthicum and her her heirs and assigns for ever I give & devise one hundred acres of land being part of Brothers Partnership dividing the same by running a parallel line to the original divisional line of Brothers Partnership the said hundred acres to be laid off in a long square from one side of my part of said tract to the other and adjoining the said original division line of said tract. And Whereas I have lent some of my
