named within one month after my decease. It is to be understood that the devises and bequests to my said Wife of the property before mentioned, is to be in lieu of her thirds and dower of, in or to my real and personal Estate. Item. I devise and bequeath all the rest and residue of my Estate both real and personal to be equally divided among my children that is to say, one equal share or portion to my Son John Ridgely, his heirs, and assigns; one other equal share or portion to my son Charles Ridgely his heirs and assigns; one other equal share or portion to my son David Ridgely his heirs and assigns; one other equal share or portion to my Son Richard Ridgely his heirs and assigns; one other equal share or portion to my Daughter Elizabeth Worms Wife of James A. Worms her heirs and assigns; one other equal share or portion to my Daughter Kitty Ridgely her heirs and assigns; One other equal share or portion to my son Nicholas Ridgely his heirs and assigns; and one other equal share or portion to James Hooper, Nicholas Hooper and John Hooper children of my deceased Daughter Mary Hooper their heirs and assigns. And whereas I have from time to time advanced to and have claims against my sons in law James A. Worms and Nicholas Hooper, and sundry of my Sons and which at this time appear by my Books to be charged against them respectively to the following amounts; that is to say James A. Worms the sum of One thousand Dollars; Nicholas Hooper the sum of One Thousand Dollars; John Ridgely the sum of six hundred and seventy four Dollars; Charles Ridgely the sum of Thirteen hundred and Sixty three Dollars and David Ridgely the sum of One thousand Dollars: Now it is to be understood that the said respective sums and any other sum or sums, claim or claims which I may hereafter advance to or have against the said above mentioned persons or any other of my children at the time of my decease, shall be considered as so much paid of the share or portion to which such child or children shall be entitled out of my Estate, it being also understood that the advances so made or to be made to and claim against my son in law James A. Worms shall be considered as so much paid on account of the share or portion to which my Daughter Elizabeth shall be entitled out of my Estate; and that the advances so made or to be made to and claim against my son in law Nicholas Hooper shall be considered as so much paid on account of the share or portion to which my said Grand Children the children of my Daughter Mary shall be entitled out of my Estate: And it is also to be understood that no Interest shall be charged on any of the above sums so advanced or to be advanced as herein before mentioned unless where Bonds or notes have been or shall be taken therefor. I hereby vest my Executors hereinafter named, or the survivor of them with full power and authority to lease, release, sell and convey all or any portion of my real Estate not herein devised to my Wife; as may in their judgment appear most conducive to the interest and for the benefit of those concerned and I direct that my Executors hereinafter named shall at their discretion keep in repair such of my houses as shall require repairing. And Lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint my Sons John Ridgely and David Ridgely Executors of this my last Will and Testament; and in case of the death of either of them the other to act as sole Executor, revoking and annulling all former Wills by me heretofore made, ratifying and confirming this and none other to be my last Will and Testament. In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this fourteenth day of February in the year of Our Lord one Thousand Eight hundred and sixteen.

Signed, Sealed, published and declared by the above named Testator as and for his last Will and Testament in the presence of us, who at his request, in his presence and presence of each other have subscribed our names as Witnesses thereto.
