THURSDAY MORNING:::::::::::Oct. 24, 1867.

OUR TICKET.

Nominated on the Grant-Rawlins Platform.

FOR PRESIDENT IN 1868,

General Ulysses S. Grant,

OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

Hon. John A. J. Creswell,

OF MARYLAND.

Subject to the Decision of the National Union Republican Nominating Convention.

Maryland State Ticket.

Governor:
HUGH LENNOX BOND,
of Baltimore.

Attorney General,
HENRY H. GOLDSBOROUGH, of Talbot.

Comptroller of Treasury,
FREDERICK SCHLEY,
of Frederick.

Superintendent Labor and Agriculture,
CAPTAIN RANDOLPH JONES,
of St. Mary's.

Clerk Court of Appeals,
WILLIAM L. W. SEABROOK, of Anne Arundel.

The Orphans Court of Caroline county will sit on Tuesday, the 5th of November.

WE conclude the publication of the levy list this week, and next week hope to present our usual quantity of reading.

LIFE has few charms for the Dyspeptic which is not to be wondered at when we take into account the amount of bodily and mental suffering that this distressing malady generates. The Peruvian Syrup (a protoxide of iron) has cured thousands who were suffering from this disease. *

WE raise at our head this morning the nominations of the Republican party of Maryland for the various State offices made vacant by the wholesale decapitation by the Democrats in their late Convention. The claims of these gentlemen to these offices are more deserving the consideration and support of the people of Maryland, especially at this time, for the gallant and patriotic services they rendered their State and country in the late unholy war. To some of them we are indebted for the salvation of our State from the horrors that befel Virginia, and the establishment of a military government over us in order that the war might not prove a failure, and the blood of loyal millions might not have been shed in vain. The issue presented is a clear one and such as cannot but be understood by every rational, thinking being. It is simply this—shall we reward loyalty or treason? The nominations of the Republicans are thoroughly loyal, and we beg that the people of Caroline will reflect long and well ere they cast their votes on the 5th prox. If they will do this, or success is sure.

THE corner stone of the new M. E. Church in Denton will be laid on Thursday next, the 31st inst. The Masonic Fraternity will assist in the ceremonies of the occasion. Temple Lodge, No. 128, A. F. & A. M., and visiting lodges will meet at the Masonic Hall at 9 1-2 o'clock where procession will be formed, to move from the hall at 10 o'clock, for the location of the new Church, where with interesting and varied ceremonies the corner stone will be laid by the ancient Fraternity, assisted by visiting clergy, after which appropriate orations will be delivered by eminent speakers. The occasion will doubtless be one of great interest, and will afford the community an opportunity of witnessing a demonstration rarely to be enjoyed. The Masonic Brotherhood and the citizens generally are respectfully invited to attend. After the ceremonies of the occasion and the orations are concluded, a sumptuous dinner and refreshment table, provided by the enterprising ladies of Denton and vicinity, will be spread, to which all are invited. Tickets to dinner will be sold at a moderate charge. Persons in the country wishing to contribute are respectfully invited to do so. Anything in the way of edibles will be thankfully received. All such should be left at the store of Henry Blackiston. Further notice that may be necessary will be given in due time.

OBITUARY

On the death of JACOB CHARLES, who died at Federalsburg, on the 15th inst.

The deceased was born in Dorchester county in 1780 and resided there during early manhood. Fifty-two years ago he removed to Federalsburg and engaged in merchandizing, in which pursuit he continued for forty years, there closing a life of integrity and honor, without manifest disease, in the calm and assured peacefulness of the christian.

Reared in the society of Friends, it was not until about thirty years since that he connected himself with the Methodist Episcopal Church, in the bosom of which he passed away, full of years and honors to the Church above.

A widow, six surviving children, and more than a score of grand-children sorrow over the event which this obituary is intended to record.

The venerable citizen thus passed away from us was remarkable for quiet and unobtrusive virtues. Without ostentation, he was liberal to the Church, and the patron and friend of those struggling with limited means to achieve competence in business pursuits. Many who followed him to the grave remember his encouraging words in their business struggles, and his ready help of means in commencing their business career.

But it was in his domestic relations that the characteristic virtues of the deceased shone with conspicuous lustre. As husband and father, his affection and kindness wove the charm gathering around the early life of those who have families of their own.

In the peacefulness and faith in which he lived he died.

"These fade as fade the morning star
Which goes not down behind the darkened west,
Nor hides obscured in tempest burden'd clouds,
But melts away into the light of heaven.

J. M. McC.

SPECIAL NOTICE COLUMN.

TO THE VOTERS of CAROLINE COUNTY.

At the solicitation of a number of my friends I announce myself as an independent candidate for the office of Clerk of the Circuit Court for Caroline county.

oct10-te EDGAR PLUMMER.

DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries NO REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the numerous affections of the THROAT, LUNGS, and CHEST, as this long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

UNSOLICITED TESTIMONY.

From Rev. Francis Lobdell, Pastor of the South Congregational Church, Bridgeport, Conn.

"I consider it a duty which I owe to suffering humanity to bear testimony to the virtues of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. I have tried it—when I have had occasion for any remedy for Coughs, Colds, or Sore Throat—for many years, and never in a single instance has it failed to relieve and cure me. I have frequently been very hoarse on Saturday, and looked forward to the delivery of two sermons on the following day with sad misgivings, but by a liberal use of the Balsam my hoarseness has invariably been removed, and I have preached without difficulty.

I commend it to my brethren in the ministry and to public speakers generally, as a certain remedy for the bronchial troubles to which we are peculiarly exposed."

Prepared by SETH W. FOWLE & SON 18 Tremont St., Boston, and for sale by druggists generally.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE.

From Mr. E. TUCKER, Depot Master at Salisbury, Massachusetts.

"I have been troubled for years with a bad humor; sometimes outwardly and sometimes inwardly. During the past summmer it manifested itself more than usual outwardly, and I used your salve. All signs of it have since disappeared, without affecting me inwardly, indicating, I think, the eradicating nature of the salve.
