THE AMERICAN UNION.

DENTON, MD.

THURSDAY MORNING::::::::::::Oct. 31, 1867.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

For President in 1868:
GENERAL ULYSSES S. GRANT.

For Vice-President,
HON. JNO. A. J. CRESWELL.
Subject to the Decision of the Republican National Convention.

MARYLAND STATE TICKET.

Governor:
HUGH LENNOX BOND,
of Baltimore.

Attorney General,
HENRY H. GOLDSBOROUGH, of Talbot.

Comptroller of Treasury,
FREDERICK SCHLEY, of Frederick.

Superintendent Labor and Agriculture,
CAPTAIN RANDOLPH JONES,
of St. Mary's.

Clerk Court of Appeals,
WILLIAM L. W. SEABROOK, of Anne Arundel.

THE ISSUE.

Citizens of Caroline, on Tuesday next you are required to fill your various State and county offices which the Democrats, at one fell swoop, have made vacant.—There are two separate tickets in the field claiming your consideration, each resting upon a platform with principles as wide and diverse as the poles. In order to ascertain what those principles are, it is only necessary to recur to our State history a few years back—a time within the memory of every man who now wields the ballot. Was the opposition ticket composed of men who, during our late bloody struggle for existence, were the advocates of the maintenance and perpetuity of the Union of our fathers, it would require but little effort to convince the people that they were deserving of their support. But when any man, or set of men, who were the bitter and uncompromising enemies of this free Government of ours—who directly or indirectly contributed of their means, either money or influence, to its attempted overthrow—come forward and ask your suffrages, we say to you that your own interests, the interests of your State and Government imperatively demand that you should give them such a rebuke as will convince them beyond a doubt that you are unwilling to reward traitors whose hearts are yet unpurged of their crimes, and whose hands are yet red the blood of martyred loyal heroes. Of just such men as these is the Democratic State ticket composed. The candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, James S. Franklin, was a soldier in the Rebel army, and helped fight for the dissolution of this Government and the establishment of an oligarchy upon the shores of this free continent in direct opposition and conflict with the principles for which our Revolutionary sires suffered and died.—The remainder of that ticket is constituted of men who were the open and avowed enemies of the Government—who remained at home professedly loyal, but all the while placing such obstacles in the way as would retard and hinder the the war for the suppression of the rebellion. At every Rebel triumph they rejoiced, and at every Union victory they shed crocodile tears. With such men as these in the field, is not the issue plain and unmistakable? Will you reward them for their treachery and infidelity to their Government in preference to those who were ever at her side ready and willing to meet her every responsibility? This is the issue, and if you vote the Democratic ticket next Tuesday you vote to render treason honorable and loyalty odious. It will be a virtual acknowledgement of the right of secession and the justness of the late rebellion. You have men in the field asking your support, one of whom at least was a soldier fighting the battles of his country, and the rest aiding and encouraging him whilst the whizzing bullet passed recklessly by him. At home, too, was an enemy to confront—these same men who now are candidates on the Democratic ticket being among the number. That enemy was equally as dangerous as were those men who shouldered their muskets and fought for that accursed Confederacy, for they both labored for the accomplishment of one and the same thing. And who, more than the candidates of the Republican party, helped nip treason in the bud in this State? Search the records of the Legislature of 1861, and find who it was that preserved our people from the ravages and desolation that befel Virginia as the crimson tide of war surged to and fro across her territory.—There you will find the name of Hon. H. H. Goldsborough prominent among the rest. And do you owe him nothing for the services rendered on that occasion? Will you reward his competitor for the benefits received at his hands? The rest of the Republican ticket were his friends and counsellors in that dreadful ordeal, and to them, too, you owe a debt of gratitude which ten thousand, aye ten hundred thousand votes will not discharge.—The issue, then, is plain. Vote rather to reward loyalty than treason and traitors.

The Duty of Republicans.

It is the bounden duty of every Republican voter to be present at his usual voting place on Tuesday next. Because we have been beaten in former contests, it is no excuse that we should absent ourselves from the polls and give up all things as lost. It is mainly through the apathy of the Republican voters that the elections in this, and other States, have gone against us. There has been no political reaction. The crimes and inhumanities of the late rebellion are yet too fresh in the memory of every lover of his country to cause him to loose interest in her welfare. It will require perseverance and uncensing effort to overturn the galling yoke that is now upon us, but it will be done, and that shortly, if the men who stood by the Union in the hour of its peril will stand by it now. The situation is equally as dangerous as it was in 1860, when treason openly assumed its horrid guise, and the appeals of the nation for succor are equally as loud and pointed.—The usurper of the White House meditates mischief, and is only delaying it until the fall elections are over, and the fugitive Rebels in Canada are anxiously awaiting an opportunity to again deluge this fair land in blood. If all goes right, the President will put in execution his threat of openly resisting Congress. He expects Maryland to side with him, but let the Republicans bring out every available man and disappoint him; at least let us largely increase our vote over the last election, and make preparations to enter more determinedly into the Presidential contest next year. See to it, Union men, and bring out your friends on Tuesday.

Our County Roads.

One at a distance acquainted with Mr. Horsey's Road law, and yet unacquainted with the actual condition of our public roads, might be led to think that they far exceeded the pikes in Western Maryland. But this is not the case. Travel over any road you may, you will find broken down bridges, giving the appearance of inattention for years, and the carriage ruts worn into deep holes, sufficient to jolt one's insides terribly, or mar the pleasure of our young "enamoratas" as they seek to while the hours away in moonlight drives far from the scrutinizing and embarassing glances of the "old folks." Now, we protest against this, both because the law contemplates better things, and the wants and requirements of a travelling public demand that the roads and bridges should be kept in a better condition. The old law was much more effectual than the present one, but as it is stricken from the statute book, it is incumbent upon our road supervisors to carry out the provisions of the new one. Then let them go to work and repair the roads and bridges and keep them in better order. They have ample power to summon assistance and compel obedience to their summons. Let it be done, at least for the present, or until the Legislature convenes and the present odious Road law is repealed.

JESSEE D. BRIGHT, the expelled-for-treason Indiana Senator, very cogently expressed the ideas entertained by every leading Democrat in the land, at a public meeting in Kentucky recently. He declared "that the war was unconstitutional; Congress was an unconstitutional body; its acts are null and void; the national debt is not binding; slavery is not abolished; slaves must be returned to their masters; Southern men must be paid for all losses sustained during the war, and they must be governed by the principle of State rights." And he closes by advising the people "not to pay another dollar of taxes to the National Government."

Ponder these things well in your mind, citizens of Caroline, and if these sentiments agree with your own, vote the Democratic ticket; if not vote the Republican ticket.

IT will be much easier to deposit a ballot against Democracy and traitors on Tuesday next, than it will be to carry on another war. Then go to the polls and vote the Republican ticket. That war is inevitable if the Democrats can only be assured that the establishment of their now defunct Confederacy would be sure, is every day becoming more evident.—They are already jubilant, and this future course depends much on the November election.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON has appointed Thursday, the 28th of November, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer.

REPUBLICAN members of Congress arriving in Washington favor a continuous session until the expiration of Johnson's term.

Peninsular News.

The lung disease or "blind staggers," is very prevalent among the horses in Kent and Cecil counties, Md.

COL GEORGE GALE, of Kent county, Maryland, has been appointed an aid to the Governor, with the rank of Colonel.

Richardson & Robbins of Dover, Del., put up the present season 90,000 cans and 20,000 jars of peaches; 20,000 cans tomatoes and 20,000 cans of strawberries corn &c.

The libel suit, wherein Mrs. McConaguhy, editress of the Clayton Herald, is sued by one W. N. W. Dorsey, of Milford, for alleged defamation of character, comes off at Dover this week.

The formal opening of the Dorchester and Delaware Railroad took place at Cambridge on Wednesday last. Gov. Swann was present and was the first to turn the turf. He also availed himself of the occasion to deliver himself of one of his political harangues.

The doors of Somerset and Worcester Savings Bank, of Salisbury has been closed, and the effects have been sold at Bailiff's sale. As little or none of the money was in circulation in this county the majority of our citizens are not aware that such a bank was in existence. Its credit has never been good, and it has always been looked upon with suspicion.

A meeting was held at Smyrna, Del., on Saturday, last, for the purpose of re-opening the books of the Smyrna & Delaware Bay Railroad, and giving all parties interested in opening a new road through New Jersey to New York, an opportunity to subscribe to the stock. The friends of the Vineland Railroad in New Jersey have given assurances that they will build their share of the road required to make the connection between Delaware, South Jersey and New York at any time the Smyrna and Delaware Bay Company will signify their intention of doing their part of the work.—Clayton Herald.

A terrible accident occurred on the Junction & Breakwater Railroad last week resulting in the instant death of one man and the crushing and mangling of others in a horrid manner. A construction train was returning to Milford, having on board the employees of the road and some rails, and when about one mile from Ellendale the front stanuchion of one of the cars gave way projecting one end of the iron rails into the ground, while with the other they swept off all who were seated on that side of the car. The train was running at a pretty rapid rate, but was stopped, and the wounded brought to Milford.

A sad case of poisoning occurred in Somerset county, on Saturday week last, whereby one child of Mr. Jos. E. Lynch died. It appears that Mr. L. was indebted to an old maiden lady named Priscilla S. Bradley, who lived with the family, in the sum of $325, and he having been discharged under the insolent laws, left but little chance of it ever being paid. Revenge, or a vague idea that the death of the family would secure the payment of the money is supposed to have been the incentive to the deed. She is a woman of weak mind and very penurious disposition. She is in jail at Princess Anne awaiting the action of the first grand jury in Wicomico.

The Elections.

Iowa returns 25,724 Republican majority for Governor (Col. Merrill,) in 72 counties. The present Republican Governor (Stone) had 16,375 majority in the whole State. Merrill's will exceed it by fully 10,000.

In consequence of an error in transcribing from the official records at Harrisburg, the Democratic majority in Pennsylvania was placed too high. The Telegraph has revised the figures, and settles the majority at 922, instead of 1,202. The losses from last year are in all 62,660, or 10 1-2 per cent., of which the Republicans lose 40,441 on the vote for Geary last October, or a little over 13 per cent. and the Democrats 22,217 on their vote for Clymer, about 7 2-3 per cent.

Gen. Hayes' majority for Governor of Ohio is 3,258—all but eight counties official. The Counties of Harden and Van Wert return a tie vote: Knox gives 3 and Washington 4 majority for Haves; Highland 4 and Madison 18 for Thurman. The vote is the heaviest ever cast in the State, though the great Republican strongholds like Ashtabula are not nearly polled out. A glance at the county returns will show that at least ten thousand Republican votes were unpolled, while every one that could be induced to go against us was made to vote.

BALTIMORE ELECTION.—The election held in Baltimore, on Wednesday last, was for Mayor and City Council, and for a Judge of the Court of Appeals, a Chief Judge of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, and four Associate Judges of the Supreme Bench.

The American says: It was the first election under the new Constitution, and the Democrats polled a full vote, the result showing that 23,513 votes were cast, which 18,530 were for Judge Bartol, on the Democratic ticket, and 4,983 for General Kenly, on the Republican ticket. The vote cast is about one-fourth short of the number of registered voters in the city.

ON the first Tuesday of November which is the fifth day of the month, elections will be held in the States of New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Illinois, Kansas, Missouri and Nevada. Some of these commonwealths vote for a Governor and State officers, but in others the ticket is only local.

[COMMUNICATED.]

Mr, Editor:—Business, a short time since, called me to the beautiful city of Wilmington, and during my stay there I had occasion to visit the store known in that city and country around as Wm. M. Kennard's Cheap Dry Goods House.

I admire the manner in which Mr. Kennard conducts his busines; everything is arranged in such perfect order. When the stock is placed upon the shelves, it is put there with as much care as if it never was to come down. He believes that no business can be successfully conducted without order. No person who has once visited this establishment can fail to be impressed with his one price system, enabling any person who sends an order to procure goods as cheap as if they were to go themselves.

In this establishment will be found the largest and finest stock of goods in the State, and surpassed only by a very few in the larger cities. He says his stock was never more complete than at present. He displays from his carpet room a beautiful all-wool ingrain carpet at $1 per yard, finest $1 25, superfine $1.50, extra supers $1.75, 3-ply $2 25; tapestry and brussels he is offering for $1.75 and $2. These goods are the finest English make. In his shawl department, he has on exhibition, he says, the largest stock of shawls he has ever offered to the public; among them, one case of all-wool plain and colored long at $4.50. These shawls sold last season at $7.50. He has a large lot of square shawls, the best goods manufactured at $5, and also a beautiful assortment of long and broche open centres from $10 to $40. But of all styles exhibited I saw none so novel and handsome as the Lady Washington, price $12. It is the handsomest shawl made in this country, and I am sure it will only have to reach the ladies to be appreciated. The dress room contains many new and desirable goods, such as merinoes, empress cloths, gay plaid poplins, and mourning goods of all kinds.—He has 100 dozen pairs of kid gloves, of his own importation, direct from Paris, which he is selling at $1 per pair; each pair warranted. His stock of domestic goods is larger than many wholesale houses in the larger cities. He is retailing an excellent print at 12 1-2 cts. per yard, warranted fast colors; best brown, one yd. wide, at 16 to 18 cents; bleached at 16 to 25 cents.

Mr. Kennard's facilities for purchasing goods are very extensive, his large business enabling him to purchase in quantities direct from the importers and agents, thus saving the jobbers' profit, and thereby allowing him to sell many goods at much less than the usual retail prices.

* C.

THERE are now full and official returns from two of the Southern States which have voted upon the proposition for Reconstruction. Louisiana gives 79,174 votes, which is more than a majority of the voters registered, out of 129,726 registered voters. The votes for a Convention were 75,083; against it, 4,000; blank votes, 8. The majority in favor of a Convention is, therefore, 71,075. In Alabama there were 156,289 registered voters. Of these, 87,572 voted for a Convention, and 5,685 against it, making the majority 81,987.

The Markets.

From the Balto. American of Tuesday.

BALTIMORE MARKET.

Wheat was active and firm. White wheat 245 to 280 cents; red 245 to 285 cents. Corn was also in good demand, white bringing 135 to 140 cents for old, and 115 to 120 for new, and yellow 137 to 140 cents. Rye sold from 155 to 165 cents, and oats ranged 68 to 75 cents.

PHILADELPHIA MARKET.

Superfine Flour $8.50a8.75; extra $10 50a10.75; fancy $13a14. Red wheat 2,60a265. Rye steady at 1,73a175.—Corn steady; yellow 1,43; Western 1,42. Oats 70a78 cents.

TO THE CITIZENS OF CAROLINE COUNTY.

Believing that I can no longer serve my Democratic friends as a candidate for the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Caroline county, I withdraw my name as a candidate for that position, leaving my friends to do as their consciences, honor and party fealty may dictate. Thanking those who so kindly extended me their confience and support, I now withdraw from the contest, and shall support the entire Democratic ticket.

PROOFS OF THE SUPERIOR QUALITY OF THE

AMERICAN WATCH, MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS.

The American Watch Company, of Waltham, Mass., respectfully submit that their Watches are cheaper, more accurate, less complex, more durable, better adapted for general use, and more easily kept in order and repaired than any other watches in the market. They are simpler in structure, and therefore stronger, and less likely to be injured than the majority of foreign watches, which are composed of from 125 to 300 pieces, while in an English Watch there are more than 700 parts. How they run under the hardest trial watches can have, is shown by the following letter:

PENN. RAILROAD COMPANY.
OFFICE OF THE GEN'L. SUPERINTENDENT, ALTOONA, PA., 15 Dec., 1866.

Gentlemen: The watches manufactured by you have been in use on this railroad for several years by our enginemen, to whom we furnish watches as part of our equipment There are now some three hundred of them carried on our line, and we consider them good and reliable time-keepers. Indeed, I have great satisfaction in saying your watches give us less trouble, and have worn and do wear much longer without repairs than any watches we have ever had in use on this road As you are aware, we formerly trusted to those of English manufacture, of acknowledged good reputation; but as a class they never kept time as correctly, nor have they done as good service as yours.

In these statements I am sustained by my predecessor, Mr. Lewis, whose experience extended over a series of years.

Respectfully,
EDWARD H. WILLIAMS,
General Superintendent.

American Watch Co., Waltham, Mass.

We make now five different grades of watches, named respectively as follows:

Appleton, Tracy & Co.,	Waltham, Mass.
Waltham Watch Co.,	Waltham, Mass.
P. S. Bartlett,	Waltham, Mass.
Wm. Ellery,	Boston, Maes.
Home Watch Company,	Boston, Mass.

All of these, with the exception of the Home Watch Company, are warranted by the American Watch Company to be of the best material, on the most approved principle, and to possess every requisite for a reliable timekeeper. Every dealer selling these Watches is provided with the Company's printed card of guarantee, which should accompany each Watch sold, so that buyers may feel sure that they are purchasing the genuine article. There are numerous counterfeits and imitations of our Watches sold throughout the country, and we would caution purchasers to be on their guard against imposition.

Any grades of Waltham Watches may be purchased of Watch Dealers throughout the country.
