Local Intelligence.

The Orphans Court of Caroline county will sit on Tuesday, the 12th of Nov.

THE NEWSLETTER.—The 'Preston Echo' has been revived in the "Newsletter" by J. F. Rowings, and is published weekly at Preston, Md. The editor says he has bargained for a new press and expects to present a twenty-four column newspaper.

FIRE IN THE COUNTRY.—On last Friday week, a house belonging to Dr. Ferrell, in the First Election District, and occupied by Mr. Peter Draper, was entirely consumed by fire. It originated from a defect in the chimney. Mr. D. lost all his household effects except his bedding and a few other articles. No insurance.

THE following is a list of the contents of the box placed in the corner-stone of the Church:

M. E. Hymn Book, Discipline M. E. Church, Minutes of Philadelphia Conference, "Christian Advocate," Methodist," "American Union," Denton Journal," list of members, contributors, trustees, building committee and ministers of the M. E. Church, and sundry pieces of coin.

THE CORNER-STONE LAYING ON THURSDAY.—Owing to the inclemency of the day, the number of persons present to witness the laying of the corner-stone of the new M. E. Church was not so large as was anticipated. The day dawned very unpropitiously, and showers of rain watered the earth rendering travel anything but pleasant; hence the absence of the several Masonic Lodges, and the choir of the M. E. Church of Greensborough, that expected to be present and participate in the ceremonies of the occasion. But notwithstanding all this, there was a goodly turnout of our own citizens. About noon the clouds dispersed, and the full light of an October sun lent its mild and genial rays to cheer and gladden the hearts of those who had congregated to witness the laying of the corner-stone.

At about 2 o'clock, the members of Temple Lodge, No. 128, A. F. & A. M. retired to their lodge room preparatory to their march. They there soon formed in procession, and then slowly and solemnly wended their way to the location of the Church. Arriving there, they formed in three sides of a hollow square around the corner-stone, when the lodge was opened in regular order, and prayer offered by Rev. B. F. Benson. The stone was lifted to its place, and the level, square and plumb appied by the proper Masonic officers and pronounced true and trusty — Corn, wine and oil were then poured upon it. The ceremonies throughout were of the most imposing character, and something never before witnessed by many of our citizens. The oration was delivered by Rev. John Hough, who, although called upon unexpectedly, did credit to himself by the appropriateness of his remarks.

There being not more than two hundred persons present, all told, it was expected that the amount of money raised would be very small, but before the crowd dispersed the Building Committee had the satisfaction of knowing that the sum subscribed exceeded even their most sanguine expectations. Nine hundred and ninety-six dollars was subscribed, and a large portion of that collected.

A festival was also held by the ladies of Denton and vicinity in aid of the cause. Everything calculated to supply the wants and requirements of the inner man was copiously prepared. A sumptuous dinner and supper was provided for the occasion, and those present did ample justice to the viands spread before them. But the refreshment table was the richest of all the rest. Carefully and artistically arranged by the ladies, its appearance was adapted to the tastes of all, and drew forth encomiums of praise and admiration in their behalf. Above the table hung festoons, and around the posts at its sides crept vines, of evergreens and flowers tastefully arranged, while on the wall, in the rear of the table and above the heads of the ladies, hung a large and very beautiful boquet. The table was loaded with rich and beautiful cakes of all kinds. In the centre stood a very fine pyramid cake, supported on either side by very large and magnificent ones, the gifts of persons in Baltimore and elsewhere.—And last, but not least, behind the table stood the fair ladies of Denton, looking bewitchingly handsome, and assisting by their presence and influence in disposing of the luxuries prepared. The festival was kept up till a late hour Thursday night, when our citizens retired to their homes to seek needed repose, well pleased with the days proceedings. On Saturday night, however, it was continued. The amount realized from this source was about two hundred and fifty dollars, making in all twelve hundred and forty-six dollars.

THE ladies, for their abundant labors and most gratifying success, will accept the grateful acknowledgments of the Building Committee and all others interested in the enterprise.

JOHN HOUGH, Ch'm.

TRAVEL SUSPENDED.—Travel over Denton Bridge has been suspended since Wednesday last. Carpenters are now repairing it, and it will be several weeks before it will be finished. A ferry supplies the place of the bridge, and business with the other side is not interrupted.

AS A TONIC AND APPETIZER, nothing can equal the effect of Dr. H. Anders' Iodine Water. Unlike all stimulants its effect is permanent, building up the body, and giving strength and vitality to all parts of the system. In old and chronic cases it may be used with almost a certainty of success. *

THEFT.—On last Wednesday night a box of boots was taken from the store porch of Mr. J. B. Fletcher, of this place, carried some distance, broken open, and left undisturbed. It is supposed that the thief on finding them small boots, and not being disposed to be troubled with stolen property that was of no use to him, he left them.—Preston Newsletter.

EXTRA MEETINGS.—For some time has a series of extra meetings been in progress at the new M P. Church in the Neck.—Many have learned to "know their Saviour," and many more are "seeking Him while He may be found." There is no abatement of interest in the meeting, we learn, although it has been protraced for several weeks

Also, at Wesley's M. E. Chapel have these meetings been held with very satisfactory results Great interest is manifested by both ministers and members, and their labors are being rewarded.

THANKS.—On behalf of those interested in the Church enterprise, we return thanks to Mr. Isaac Albertson, the gentlemanly proprietor of the Mansion House, corner of Fayette and St. Paul Sts., Baltimore, and who, by the way, is quite popular among the ladies of this place, for his kind remembrances of them as was evinced by the present of a very large and magnificent fruit cake, a most valuable contribution to the festival in aid of the M. E Church. Such a cake as this we seldom have the opportunity of feasting our eyes upon. It was made a present to Rev. Mrs. Hough, our citizens contributing liberally for its purchase.

Also, to Messrs. Jno. P. Kauffman and David G. Martin, of the Custom House, Baltimore, for a very handsome cake which they presented for the same purpose through Mrs. W. G. Nicholson.—This was made a present to Rev. Mrs. R. W. Todd.

THE ELECTION.—A Democratic election was held in this county on Tuesday last. The vote throughout the county is light, there being no opposition and no interest manifested on the part of any of our citizens, except the Democratic candidates who were anxious to lead their ticket and with tears in their eyes implored the Republicans to help them or they would be beaten by their own friends running on the same ticket. We are sorry to learn that some of our Republican friends yielded to their importunities. How any true Republican could so far forget himself and the wholesale calumny and bitter curses and abuse that these men have hurled against them and the Republican party as to vote for a single man placed upon the Democratic ticket, we are at a loss to know how to explain. We hope a bitter remorse of conscience may goad them, for this one act, for all future time.

Married.

DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries NO REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the numerous affections of the THROAT, LUNGS, and CHEST, as this long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

UNSOLICITED TESTIMONY.

From Rev. Francis Lobdell, Pastor of the South Congregational Church, Bridgeport, Conn.

"I consider it a duty which I owe to suffering humanity to bear testimony to the virtues of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. I have tried it—when I have had occasion for any remedy for Coughs, Colds, or Sore Throat—for many years, and never in a single instance has it failed to relieve and cure me. I have frequently been very hoarse on Saturday, and looked forward to the delivery of two sermons on the following day with sad misgivings, but by a liberal use of the Balsam my hoarseness has invariably been removed, and I have preached without difficulty.

I commend it to my brethren in the ministry and to public speakers generally, as a certain remedy for the bronchial troubles to which we are peculiarly exposed."

Prepared by SETH W. FOWLE & SON 18 Tremont St., Boston, and for sale by druggists generally.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE.

From Mr. E. TUCKER, Depot Master at Salisbury, Massachusetts.

"I have been troubled for years with a bad humor; sometimes outwardly and sometimes inwardly. During the past summmer it manifested itself more than usual outwardly, and I used your salve. All signs of it have since disappeared, without affecting me inwardly, indicating, I think, the eradicating nature of the salve.
