Town and County Intelligence.

THE Orphans' Court for Caroline county will sit on Tuesday, February 23, 1869.

REPAIRED.—The building occupied by Mr. M. Chilton as a grocery has been repaired and is now in a more safe condition.

WE notice that Mr. J. W. Bryant is enclosing his lot, between his residence and the river, with a neat and substantial picket fence.

SALE OF A FARM.—Mr. Henry C. Fisher has disposed of his farm, near Denton, for $3,000. The purchaser was a Mr. Green, of Luzerne county, Pa.

PROGRESSING.—The railroad bridge across the Tuckahoe, at Hillsborough, is being pushed rapidly towards completion, and soon the iron steed will leap the broad chasm at that place.

THE FAILURE of the ice crop will affect this community but little, as very little is preserved even when most abundant. Sometime, perhaps, our people will learn to know the value of this luxury and will build more ice houses.

PERSONAL.—Rev. Jas. M. McCarter delivered a lecture in the M. E. Church, in Newtown, on Tuesday evening last, upon the subject, "The Life we Live when we Sleep."—He also recited an original poem entitled—"The Crowning of King Alcohol."

STILL AT LARGE.—Geo. C. Morton, the absconding agent of the Express Company from Ridgely is still at large, and not the least clue to his whereabouts can be ascertained. We learn that the reward for his apprehension has been increased to $500.

COMMENDABLE.—Some person, we know not whom to credit, has constructed a very substantial foot way for pedestrians across the intolerable mud hole at the foot of the hill. Our present most parsimonious board of County Commissioners can't afford to raise the causeway.

THE NEW MILL.—Work has not progressed so rapidly at the new mill as was at first anticipated. First one thing and then another has happened to delay the work, and the mill is not yet in running order. The dam is now about completed, and so soon as a race can be dug operations will be commenced.

HERRINGS.—The continuation of the mild weather has induced the herrings to seek the rivers, and our fishermen are catching them in much larger quantities. Fifty were taken above the bridge on Saturday. They are selling at four cents apiece. If this weather continues much longer we shall soon have shad offered for sale in our market.

MORE IMPROVEMENTS.—Mr. George Richardson is now busy at work hewing out the frame for a two-story dwelling to be erected on the Griffin lot, in this town.

Mr. James G. Redden contemplates the erection of a two-story dwelling, near his residence, in the spring. The frame is being prepared.

NEW WHARF AND GRANARY.—We learn that a new wharf and granary is to be built just below the shipyard, and that work upon the former has already been begun. The site selected is a most excellent one, and we doubt not that these improvements, when completed, will amply repay the projector—Mr. Jas. G. Redden—for his trouble and expense.

APPOINTED.—Mr. David Straughn, son of Henry Straughn, late of this county, but now residing near Ruthsburg, in Queen Anne's, has been appointed agent of the Adam's Express Company at Ridgely, and ticket agent. Mr. S. is a young man of strict integrity, and the Company did well in calling him to the position. His father is one of the finest old gentlemen of our acquaintance, and we believe his son is a "chip off the old block."

THE CASH SYSTEM.—We understand that one of our merchants has resolved to conduct his business in the future exclusively upon a cash basis, he preferring to let his goods remain on the counter to selling them on time. This is a sensible conclusion, and one which, had it been adopted by all our merchants years ago, would have had a tendency to greatly diminish prices. We hope Mr. Chilton will stick to his resolution, and that all the others will adopt a similar policy.

LENT.—The first day of this season commenced on Ash Wednesday, the 10 inst., and will last forty days, ending with Easter Sunday, which comes on the 28th of March.—During Lent all Catholics who have completed their twenty-first year, are, unless legitimately dispensed, bound to observe the Fast of Lent. They are to take only one meal a day, excepting Sundays. The meal allowed on fast days is not to be taken until about noon. At that meal, if on any day permission should be granted for eating flesh, both flesh and fish are not to be used at the same time, even by way of seasoning. A small refreshment, commonly called collation, is allowed in the evening; no general rule as to the quantity of food permitted at this time is or can be made.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.—We notice a statement going the rounds of our exchanges that a man named Rogers, who on the day the accident occurred had moved into a house in Greensborough from Philadelphia with his family, on Saturday week fell into the fireplace and burned his face into a crisp, besides burning out an eye. He was in the room alone, in the act of taking medicine, and fainted, it is supposed. Being a stout man, his wife was unable to pull him out, and had to call assistance before he could be extricated from his horrible condition. How much truth there is in the above we are unable to say. We have made dilligent inquiry concerning the affair of persons living in Greensborough, but no one had ever heard of it before.

Federalsburg.

A most glorious revival of religion is in progress in this town, and is attended with many conversions. Day meetings are held on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays, and are remarkably well attended. The meeting is conducted by Rev. J. M. McCarter.

There is connected with this meeting a little incident worthy of note. On Tuesday evening an aged lady was present, and became much concerned about her soul.—Whilst the meeting was in progress on Wednesday, she dispatched a messenger to ask the prayers of the Church in her behalf. A part of the brethren were then sent to her house, where they found her on her knees supplicating the throne of grace. The visitors joined with her in prayer, and ere she slept she was happily converted.

Potter's Landing.

Mr. Editor :—I noticed in your issue of the 4th, under the head of an occasional correspondent, a letter, the writer of which represents himself to be a resident of this place. I am not disposed to censure Mr. "Observer," but state that he is not known as a resident of Potter's Landing. Here we run no horse races, and have no grog shop; but in the vicinity of Pinetown, I am informed, there is such a shop, and that they do run horse races. It is true that school-houses and Churches here are scarce enough—probably owing to our not being loyal.

The people here attend to their own business. This winter they have been hauling spokes, ties and wood, and taking away lime and shells. Of the latter, over twelve hundred bushels have been landed on our wharves, and the most of them carted away. The weather has been quite favorable for work, and our farmers have been making good use of it. AJAX.

Soon a negro man and woman commenced plying their avocation and upon finding that they were discovered the former advanced upon Mr. B., at the same time rumaging in his pockets as if for a knife or pistol. Mr. B. warned him to advance no further, but as he still pressed on Mr. B. shot him in the legs. The thieves were sent to jail.
