Town and County Intelligence.

THE Orphans' Court for Caroline county will sit on Tuesday, March 2, 1869.

Preparations are making to repair the steamboat wharf.

CLOSED.—The extra meetings at the M. E. Church have closed. About twenty persons have professed a change of heart.

WILMINGTON CONFERENCE.—This Conference meets in Wilmington, Del., on Wednesday, tenth day of March. Bishop Simpson is expected to preside.

THE HI LIVINGSTON.—This steamer was last week sold by Messrs. Samuel J. Soper & Co., Auctioneers, Baltimore for $5,600.—The Hi Livingston at one time made trips between Denton and Baltimore.

COMMITTED TO JAIL.—One day last week, James Edward Sudler was locked in the county jail under commitment issued by Esquire Melvin. His crime is that of stealing meat. He belongs in the neighbohood of Marydel.

L. T. VOSMUS, professor of vocal music, and a citizen of this county, has a class at Oxford, Talbot county. A concert was given in the M. P. Church in that town, on Saturday evening last, under the supervision of the teacher.

BLOWN DOWN.—During the prevalence of the high wind on Friday last, the frame of a small dwelling recently erected by Mr. Jesse Small was blown down. Very little damage was occasioned to the timbers by the fall and it has since been raised again.

IMPORTANT IF TRUE.—We hear it whispered around that several of the citizens of this town and vicinity are maturing plans for the building of a first class vessel for the route between this place and Baltimore.—We hope our information is correct, and that the enterprise will not miscarry.

FESTIVAL AT PRESTON.—A festival to raise funds to meet the deficit in the preacher's salary was held at Preston on Wednesday, the 17th inst. About one hundred dollars was realized, which is a goodly sum when the smallness of the village and the stringency of the money market is taken into consideration.

THE MEASLES.—The measles have broken out in our town and vicinity, and the disease seems to be spreading very rapidly. It is, however, not very serious when promptly and properly attended to. Parents should place their children in such a way that the contagion will spread to them, as the disease is attended with less danger to children than to adults.

THE WHEAT CROP.—The wheat crop in this county, so far as our own observation extends and from what we can learn from others, is looking exceedingly well for this season. We have seen a number of fields, and in all the wheat seems well set and of a very healthy color. The finest we have seen is on the farm lately occupied by Mr. George W. Taylor, in the Neck.

THE TWENTY-SECOND.—There was no observance whatever of the anniversary of the birth of Washington in this town. The stores and other places of business were kept open during the day, and we very much question whether the thought once entered the minds of our citizens that the 22nd was upon us. Have we ceased to venerate him who is the father of all our liberties?

HEAVY WIND.—At noon, on Tuesday, one of the heaviest gales of wind was felt that has ever been experienced in this community. It was sudden and spasmodic, and lasted only a few minutes, though a high wind prevailed during the remainder of the day and throughout the greater part of the night.—Considerable damage was done to property, and many trees were blown down. Three of the miniature steeples on the Church were blown over, as was also a part of the observatory on the top of Mr. Wm. G. Horsey's dwelling. A portion of the railing was also blown off the bridge, and fences were thrown to the ground. The suddenness and severity of the blow caused some alarm, but it abated with the wind.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SCHOOL BOARD.—A petition was presented from the citizens of Marydel, asking that an appropriation be made for the education of their children at the school-house in that village, which is under the control of Kent county, Del. The sum of $37.50 per quarter was ordered to be paid, commencing with the Spring term.

A petition was presented by T. T. Jarman, Robt. Jarrell and others, asking that their school be raised to a first grade school. It was so ordered; and Mr. Jarman, the teacher, was examined for, and received, a first-grade certificate.

The reports of the Commissioners of the respective districts were presented.

The Commissioners received funds sufficient to pay one-half of the amounts due the teachers on the winter term.

The Board adjourned to meet at notice of Treasurer, to be published after reception of returns from State fund.

ORPHANS' COURT ITEMS.—The following is a partial record of the proceedings of this Court on Tuesday:

R. W. Reynolds, administrator of Wm. L. Reynolds, deceased, presented account of sales; passed. Presented final account of administration; passed. Presented final distribution, which was also passed.

James and George Mulliken, administrators of Phillip Mulliken, deceased, presented final account of administration, which was passed by the Court.

The Court passed final account of administration of Aaron L. and Mary E. Gooding, administrators of James Gooding, deceased. The estate is now ready for distribution among the creditors.

Henry Mobray, guardian to Edward D. Stack, passed second guardian account.

Wm. Willoughby, guardian to Emily Blades, also passed second guardian account.

The Court passed special order for George A. Millington against the executors of Wm. Williams.

ROBBERY.—Some thief or thieves, one night last week, entered the meat house of Mr. Peter D. Phillips and stole therefrom the greater part of his supply of meat. There is no positive evidence as to who the guilty parties were, but Mr. P. entertains some well-grounded suspicions which may ultimately lead to their identity. From some cause, either the rigidity with which the law is enforced or the honesty of our people, but little thievery is practiced in this county, and we hope that these offenders will receive the punishment they so richly deserve.

$1200 AND ALL EXPENSES PAID.—See advertisement of American Shuttle Sewing Machine, in our advertising columns. ‡

Marriages.

FLETCHER—HIGGINS.—On Wednesday, 17th inst., at Salem M. E. Church, by Rev. Mr. Merrill, Mr. Jno. W. Fletcher and Miss Susie Higgins, all of Dorchester county.

[The happy couple have our best wishes for their kind remembrances. May peace and prosperity be their constant attendant as they tread life's devious pathway.]

Deaths.

HORSEY.—On Sunday morning last, Wm. Horsey, son of John H. Horsey, aged about 20 years.

FAULKNER.—At his residence, in Tuckahoe Neck, on Saturday last, Robert Faulkner, aged near 50 years.

BRADLEY.—At her residence, near Vernon, Del., on the 18th inst., Mrs. Jane Bradley, in the 79th year of her age.

KEMP—On the 10th inst., Annie A., daughter of Alfred and Lavenia E. Kemp, aged 3 years, 11 months and 15 days.
