Town and County Intelligence.

THE Orphans' Court for Caroline county will sit on Tuesday, March 9, 1869.

READ the advertisement of Stouffer's Patent Egg Preserver.

SALE OF A FARM.—Mr. Thos. W. Fisher has sold his farm, near Denton, to Mr. Thomas Benscota of Luzerne county, Pa.

NEW POST OFFICE.—A post office has been established at Goldsborough, on the Md. & Del. Railroad, and Mr. Isaac Reid been appointed post-master.

EUGENE EGGLESTON, or The Robber's Retreat is the title of another charming story we have received from a citizen of this county. Due notice of its commencement will be given.

WHARF AT "HOG ISLAND."—Mr. Aaron Conrad, of Wilmington, Del., who recently purchased the "Hog Island" farm, is building a steamboat wharf thereon. Mr. Jack Jewell, of this town, is "boss of the job."

TWIN CALVES.—A cow owned by Mr. W. T. Williams, residing in Delaware, near Burrsville, gave birth to two fine calves on Thursday last. They are both perfectly developed, and have a very healthful appearance.

NEW CHURCH.—The Methodists of Potter's Landing neighborhood have at last determined to build themselves a Church. It is to be located on the "Tanyard Lot," and of a sufficient capacity to accommodate the people of that neighborhood.

I. O. OF G. T.—The next meeting of the Kent county (Delaware) Association of Good Templars will be held in Marydel, at which time there will be an out-door mass meeting. The third Wednesday in May is the time designated. The public is invited to attend.

IN SEARCH OF LAND.—Nineteen persons arrived at Ridgely last week in search of land. Others were expected on Tuesday.—The Mancha Brothers are working with great energy to turn immigration hither, and if they but receive the co-operation of our citizens they will be successful in a great degree.

COURT.—Under the old arrangement, Monday next would have been the appointed time for the sitting of the Circuit Court. It will be remembered, however, that at the last summer term a change was made, and the court will not sit this spring till the first Monday in April, which, this year, is the 5th day.

DECLINED.—"Observer's" communication is respectfully declined. Our columns are under constant pressure and we cannot exclude other matter to gratify those who desire to wage a war of words over trifles. If you have any local news or articles upon agricultural, literary or scientific subjects worthy of publication send them on and we will endeavor to make room for them.

STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS.—The friends of Mr. Jos. Pearson, in this county and elsewhere, will learn with deep regret of his present precarious condition. About two o'clock on Saturday morning he was found in his bed with his left side paralyzed and himself speechless, except in monosyllables. No visible change for the better has since taken place. He had been enjoying his usual health up to Friday night when he retired.

WITHOUT A CHURCH.—Whilst the extra meetings were in progress at Federalsburg, some persons from Chincoteague Island, Va., paid a visit to that town and were converted. At the request of these persons, Revs. Messrs. McCarter and Kenney went over to the Island, and in four or five days over thirty of the Islanders embraced religion. They have no church of their own, although they number 1,500 souls.

THE GOOD TEMPLARS AT HILLSBOROUGH.—The Lodge of Good Templars lately instituted at Hillsborough promises to be very large and useful. It already numbers thirty members, and fifteen new ones were elected at the last meeting. Among this number are some of the most wealthy and influential citizens of that town and Tuckahoe Neck.—The organization of the Lodge seems to have awakened the people to a realizing sense of the follies of drunkenness, and a great moral reform is being worked there. We trust it will not be permitted to stop until every person addicted to intemperance may be reclaimed to family, friends and respectability.

U. S. INTERNAL REVENUE.—It will be seen by reference to the advertisement of the Assistant Assessor (published in its proper place) that the time for returning incomes, gold and silver plate, &c., and for making application for special taxes, has been set in March, for this year. This county being without a resident assessor, it will be necessary for persons in the 2nd District to meet Mr. Tharp in Denton on Monday and Tuesday, the 15th and 16th inst., or otherwise seek him in his office in Easton. Persons in the 1st District will meet him in Greensborough on Wednesday and Thursday, the 17th and 18th inst. These are the only days he will be in this county, and we advise all to meet him here at the appointed time.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE ORPHANS' COURT.—The Orphans' Court was in session on Tuesday, and transacted the following business:

Pere Kilson, administrator of Joshua Kilson; William Wilson, administrator of Marcellus Plummer; Jas. and Geo. Mulliken, administrators of Phillip Mulliken, and Jonathan Evitts, administrator of Laura V. Williams, passed final distribution, and the estates are now ready for dividend among the creditors.

Richard C. Carter, administrator of Wm. Roe, dec'd, who was executor of J. H. Jump, also dec'd, prayed the court for an arbitration that the estates might be closed. The Court granted the prayer, and appointed A. P. Sorden and James E. Hignutt as the arbitrators.

William C. Jump, administrator of Robert Faulkner, deceased, presented inventory of sales which the Court approved and granted an order to sell the personal estate.

Chas. Peters presented indentures of Edward F. Dukes, an apprentice, which were approved.

RETURN OF WINTER.—Those who had been felicitating themselves over the departure of winter and the early advent of Spring were suddenly brought to realize the fact that the reign of the ice king had not been broken up to Friday last. Early on that morning it began to snow, and by noon the ground was covered to the depth of one or two inches. In the afternoon the sun shined out brightly, and the snow left us as quickly as it came. Since then (till Monday) the weather has been quite cool, and the river was frozen completely over—the first time since December. The ponds have been frozen over for several days, though not of a sufficient thickness for housing purposes.—Old Boreas is in his death agony, and his convulsive throes indicate his speedy dissolution.

BURNED TO DEATH.—A little child of a colored man named Matthews, residing on Mr. Jos. Pearson's farm, near Denton, was burned to death on Sunday last. She had been out in the yard, and being chilled with the cold she rushed to the fire-place, where her clothes soon caught fire. Discovering her condition, she fled precipitately into the yard again, where the wind accelerated the flames, and entirely consumed her clothing. Her parents, out at the barn at the time, were attracted to the house by her screams, but arrived too late to be of any service.—She lingered until about 2 o'clock in the afternoon when death relieved her of her sufferings. She was about five years of age.

INDIVIDUAL ENTERPRISE COMPANY.—This company, which has so long been known by our people, has abandoned its old name and is now known as the Maryland Steamboat Company. All their steamers have been thoroughly overhauled and handsomely refitted, and will soon be ready for their routes. The Champion—best known to this community—has had her boiler changed and put below, making the room above almost double its former size. She is at present running in the place of the Highland Light, as a night boat between Easton and Baltimore. We are unable to state when she will begin her trips to this place.

$1200 AND ALL EXPENSES PAID.—See advertisement of American Shuttle Sewing Machine, in our advertising columns. ‡

Marriages.

EATON—WILLIAMSON.—On the 18th ult., by Rev. Wm. R. McFarlan, at Boonville, Mr. Robert C. Eaton and Miss A. V. Williamson, both of this county.

SWANN—PIPPIN.—At the residence of the bride's father, James Pippin, on same day, by same, Mr. William T. Swann and Miss Mahala A. Pippin, both of this county.

Deaths.

[PUBLISHED BY SPECIAL REQUEST.]

At her father's residence, near Preston, Mary E. Adams, colored, aged 26 years, four months and eight days.

[As her life was amiable, virtuous and religious, her death was peaceful and triumphant "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord."]
