Town and County Intelligence.

THE Orphans' Court for Caroline county will meet in special session to-day (Thursday) to consider the case of Thos. J. Earickson and Jno. T. Sangston vs. W. H. Comegys, executor of Cornelius Comegys.

Mr. H. BLACKISTON has received a supply of goods, fresh from the city, which he is offering cheap.

DON'T FORGET to meet the Assessor next week. He will be in the county but four days—two at Denton and two at Greensboro'.

ANSWER TO ENIGMA.—Wm. H. Alburger has furnished us with a solution of the enigma published in last week's UNION, viz:—Ulysses Sidney Grant.

VACANCY FILLED.—Governor Bowie has appointed Samuel T. Earle Chief Judge of the Orphans' Court of Queen Anne's county, vice John C. Ruth, deceased,

TEN NEW SUBSCRIBERS added their names to our list last week. This is encouraging; and we promise ere many more tens are added to it that they, in common with our old patrons, shall have the full benefit of their outlay. We intend to keep along with our business.

DESTROYED BY FIRE.—The dwelling of a colored woman, named Mary Jackson, near Potter's Landing, together with all its contents, was consumed by fire on Thursday last. Mary was absent at the time the fire occurred, and it is believed to have been the work of an incendiary.

WILMINGTON CONFERENCE.—This Conference assembles in Wilmington on the 17th inst., instead of the 10th as heretofore stated. The Sunday following is Rev. Mr. Hammersley's appointment at Concord, which appointment he will be unable to fill by reason of being in attendance at the Conference.

DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENT.—A dramatic entertainment will be given in the warehouse of Goslin, Bro. & Son, at Federalsburg, to-morrow (Friday) evening. Vigorous efforts have been put forth to make this a first-class entertainment, and it is but right that the entire population of that town should patronize it liberally.

LOST.—The schooner Francis J. Henry, owned by Capt. T. D. Case, was caught out in the bay in the storm of Saturday, and lost her yawl boat. She sustained no other loss.

Capt. Brown, of the Caroline Virginia reports having seen several vessels beached as he came down the bay on the day following the storm.

THE CAUSEWAY.—Is there nothing which will so move upon the hearts of our County Commissioners as to cause them to take some action with reference to the wretched condition of the causeway? It has been gradual-sinking and spreading for several years, and if something is not done speedily it will be quivalent to no causway at all. The Commissioners are not ignorant of the condition in which this avenue to our town is, for two of them pass over it every time they come to town. It is folly in them to postpone the work, thinking that thereby they will save any cost to the county. On the contrary, every day it is delayed only adds to the cost of repairs. The lower it sinks and the more it spreads the more earth will it take to rebuild it. Surely the Commissioners know this, and we once more urge the matter upon their immediate attention.

LAND SALES.—Mr. Henry P. Chambers, Land Agent, Federalsburg, sends us the following list of sales recently effected by him:

"Ship-yard Farm" of Mitchell Covey, of 134 acres, to William Ray, of Philadelphia, for $1,500.

Farm of Michael Hubbard's heirs, containing 190 acres, to Samuel Washburn, of Susquehanna county, Pa., for $2,000.

Dr. Atkinson's farm, of 80 acres, to G. S. Wilcox, of Luzerne county, Pa., for $4,400.

Twelve and a-half acres, near Federalsburg, with house, orchard, &c., to James R. Blaisdell, of Susquehanna county, Pa., for $750.

Jeremiah Dukes' farm, of 43¾ acres, to E. C. Washburn, of Susquehanna county, Pa., for $1,000.

Farm of J. F. Elliott, containing 198½ acres, to T. L. Gay and J. F. Smith, of Luzerne county, Pa., for $3,000.

Farm belonging to Wm. Stack and J. F. Elliott, of 267½ acres, to Bennett Dobbs, of Philadelphia, for $4,500.

Chas. R. Thompson's farm, containing 100 acres, to Rev. E. Butler, of Centre county, Pa., for $1,800.

—Mr. Chambers further informs us that there is a steady and increasing demand for land, and that a continual influx of immigrants may be relied on if the land owners do not hold up for too high figures.

—The Mancha Bros. send the following:

A portion of Capt. Saunder's farm, including the buildings and fruit, with 40 acres of land, to Isaac Beach, of Ulster county, N. Y., at $25 per acre.

Mary A. Dunning's farm, containing 80 acres, to Nathan and Jonas Park, of Tompkins county, N. Y., for $3,200.

EDITORIAL VISIT.—Our friend Leonard, of the Easton Journal, paid us a visit on Monday last. He was in fine health and buoyant spirits, and informed us that he was succeeding admirably well with his paper.—We trust he may continue to prosper.

OVERLAND TO RIDGELY.—Mr. Jno. Hickox started three horses from Burton, Ohio, on the 26th of January, for Ridgely, Md. They travelled over 600 miles, crossing the Alleghany mountains, and arrived at Ridgely on the morning of the 14th of February. Mr. Hickox and family arrived on the cars the day previous.

Messrs. James and Nathaniel Park left Thompkins county, N. Y., on the 15th of February, with three valuable horses and a light wagon, and arrived at Ridgely on Friday the 26th following. The rest of the family arrived the succeeding day.

Mr. Wm. Everard left Luzerne county, Pa., on the 1st day of March, with a two-horse team, and arrived at Ridgely on the 6th. His family arrived the day previous by rail.

Preston.

A very distressing accident occurred in our village on Friday morning. A little child of Mr. Frank Willis, whilst playing upon the floor, in some way fell, and in the fall caught its leg under him in such a manner as to cause the breaking of the thigh bone. Dr. Willis was immediately summoned to the aid of the little sufferer, and succeeded in setting the broken limb, but they fear for its welfare, the child being very small, and consequently difficult to keep quiet. We hope the little fellow will soon be up and about.

There are some doubts entertained in this vicinity of the peach crop. Some seem to think the recent cold weather has somewhat impaired the hitherto bright prospect, but we hope it has not. Money is scarce, and if there is a good yield of this fruit, it will help the farmers along amazingly. May their hope be realized.

Mr. Jno. L. Willis, though a long time about it, has at last sold out his stock of goods, and left our midst, for the purpose of entering upon the prosecution of the commission business in the city. He has our best wishes for success in this undertaking in his old age, though we are of the opinion he had better have tarried with us.

There is one thing our village is very much in need of—a shoe shop. If a good shoe-maker would come here, we are confident he could do a thriving business. The one that was here last year was constantly full of work, having to have an assistant a greater portion of his time. Who will come and try? JIMMIE.

$1200 AND ALL EXPENSES PAID.—See advertisement of American Shuttle Sewing Machine, in our advertising columns. ‡
