dealings wth the said Decd the Ballance appeared to be two Hundred Seventy four pounds and nine pence sterling. But the said John Falconar (for Account himself and others in Company) having shipt and consigned to ye said deceased severall Cargoes for wch the deceased had not Accounted. And upon Examining the books and papers of the Deceased relating to the sales of those Cargoes and Statement made by David Bell imployed for the same purpose he has represented and declared. In what Confusion the books and Accounts kept by the deceased did appear and that he found considerable parcells of the goods soe Consigned were wanting and not Charged in any the said Account Books. nor otherways Accounted for by the deceased.

In the whole Amounting to two hundred ninety seven pounds nineteen shillings and ten pence sterling prime Cost. all wch the said David Bell has Affirmed before publick Notary and the said Affirmation now produced by this Accountant. And the said John Falconar charges to proper Account of the deceased for the said deficiency wth forty p Cent for profitt and Advantage thereon Mending in the whole four hundred and seventeen pounds three shillings and ten pence sterling And gives Credit upon the said Account for the said two hundred and seventy four pounds and nine pence sterling ballance due upon Account rendred by the said John Falconar upon the proper dealings wth the said deceased as aforesaid. And makes the deceased indebted to himself and Company the sume of one hundred forty three pounds three shillings and one penny sterling. for that the money supposed to be in the hands of the said John Falconar is by him detained and Applyed to discharge the deficiencies of the severall Cargoes as aforesaid. And as the books and papers relating to those Cargoes and kept by the said Decd are unsettled much out of order and thereby severall the debts in danger to be lost. And the said John Falconar requiring a full and perfect Account of the severall Cargoes and the produce thereof which is not in the power of this Accountant to render. He may have further demands against the said deceased. This Accountant therefore humbly prays the directions of the Hono:ble Comrs Gen:ll In what manner the said Accountant ought to behave himself in respect to the said John Falconar. And whereas also the said Accountant having intrusted the decd wth the care and management of his Concerns in Kent and Cecill Counties upon Inspection into his Accounts and papers finds that severall of his debts have been received and other Effects made use of by the said deceased and no Account rendred nor kept. Whereby the said decd will be considerably indebted unto this Accountant. But as those Accounts are also Confused and unsettled this Accountant prays time to further Examine and Endeavour to reduce the same to some certainty and to be hereafter allowed for what the sd decd has received or made use of his debts and Effects as also prays to be allowed further time to Acc for what Effects and Estate belonging to the said Decd may hereafter appear and come to the hands of this Accountant.
