Town and County Intelligence.

THE Orphans' Court for Caroline county meets to-day in adjourned session for the hearing of the case of T. J. Earickson & wife and Jno. T. Sangston & wife vs. Wm. H. Comegys, Ex'tr of Cornelius Comegys, dec'd.

THE entrance to our office will hereafter be by the lower door.

THE days and nights will be equal on the 20th inst. (Saturday.)

DOVER BRIDGE.—The work of repairing this bridge will be begun sometime next week.

THE DEEPEST SNOW.—The deepest snow of the season fell here on Friday last. It was about three inches deep.

RAILS for the Dorchester and Delaware Railroad have been delivered, and track-laying will soon be resumed.

LARGE HAUL.—One thousand and eight herrings were caught at a single haul by Mr. J. Boon Dukes on Monday morning last.

RECOVERING.—Mr. Joseph Pearson, we are pleased to state, is slowly recovering from his paralytic stroke, and has partially regained his speech.

THE schooner Caroline Virginia has been lying at her wharf for several days past, during which time she has been refurnished with new shrouds and a wire gib-stay.

NEW BARN.—Mr. Samuel E. Miller is building a very commodious barn, in Pennsylvania style, on his farm just below town. It is 36 x 30 feet. The work is being done under the supervision of Mr. T. P. Davis.

SALE OF A FARM.—Mr. Jas. W. Saulsbury has sold his farm, lying immediately on the Choptank river, and near Potter's Landing, containing about 200 acres, to a Mr. Dickerman, of New York, for $4,000.

TABLEAUX.—Crystal Fount Lodge, No. 8 I. O. of G. T., of Denton, are preparing for an entertainment, to come of about the 1st of May. The entertainment will consist of tableaux, charades, &c. Due notice will be given.

THE FIRST SHAD.—Shad were offered in our market on Friday, for the first time this year, and sold readily for twenty-five cents each. Three were caught that day by Geo. Hines, a colored man, on the "Cade Shore," below town.

THE GRECIAN BEND.—We have been creditably informed that a young lady, in a neighboring town, had the Grecian bend so badly, one night last week, as to cause her to faint. She didn't fall into her lover's arms, though.

ATTENTION, GOOD TEMPLARS.—All the members of Crystal Fount Lodge are requested to be present at their usual place of meeting to-morrow evening. Business will be submitted which requires the attention of each member.

NEW BOAT.—We learn that another boat is to be built at the shipyard this summer, and that the work will be begun as soon as the material can be collected. It is to be 120 tons burthen. Mr. Thos. S. Marvel is the projector and builder.

THE STEAMBOAT.—We hear it rumored around that the Champion will resume her trips to this place on Saturday next. Whether the report is true or not we are unable to say, we having received no notification to that effect. We have searched the Baltimore papers, but can find no such announcement. The rumor is given for what it is worth.

SUNK IN THE CANAL.—The schooner Dart, owned by the Messrs. Calloways, of Potter's Landing, sunk in the Chesapeake and Delaware canal, near Chesapeake City, on Thursday last, after colliding with a mud-scow whilst turning a bend in the canal. She had been to Philadelphia with a load of railroad ties for B. G. Stevens, and was on her return trip when the accident occurred.

THE FISHERIES.—The fisheries along the Choptank are beginning to do a tolerably fair busines. Herrings are becoming more plentiful, and are selling at $1.50 per hundred. Some persons entertain the opinion that this will be an unusually good fish spring.—Should this opinion prove correct, it will be the means of putting more money in circulation in this community thus partially relieving the money market of its stringency.

PURCHASE OF A BUILDING LOT.—Mr. P. W. Downes has purchased a building lot of Mr. Alex. Stewart, adjoining the residence of the latter, 14 ft. front and 36 ft. deep, for $150. We learn that he contemplates the erection of a building thereon during the summer. Thus will one of the vacant lots, caused by the fire, become once more the site of business houses, Mr. Hy. Blackiston having determined to put up a large building on the intervening space between the lot just purchased by Mr. Downes and the store of Mr. R. W. Todd. Two other unoccupied lots yet remain, in the very heart of the town. Will not some one purchase these and build upon them? They are suitable for either dwellings or business stands.

THE RIDGELY IMBROGLIO ABOUT TO BE SETTLED.—It was generally known, several weeks since, that large capitalists in Philadelphia were negotiating for the purchase of Mr. Thomas Bell's farm, upon which the proposed city of Ridgely is located, and that the transfer has been delayed owing to the uncertainty of the title. Matters are now becoming less complicated, and the expectations are that this spring will date a new birth for Ridgely. The whole tract, excepting a few lots heretofore deeded to purchasers, will be sold by the sheriff on the 3rd of April, and a clear and indisputable title be thus given. We see no reason why Ridgely should not become a city. Its surroundings are infinitely more inviting than Vineland, since that city is pitched in the heart of an extensive pine barrens. Should the new projectors of Ridgely possess a like degree of energy and enterprise with Mr. Landis, we shall soon expect to see Ridgely encroaching upon the surrounding country.

SOME people must certainly expect big things by mail. Evening after evening they send their children (or they go of their own accord, we don't know which,) to the post-office to the number of three and four after their mail matter. Beside these a lot of half-grown boys, who probably receive a letter once in six years, should their dear mamas chance to be absent from home, daily congregate in the post-office and indulge in behavior at once ill-bred and disgusting. They push, and crowd, and whistle, and laugh, and create a confusion sometimes worse than Babel confounded. We have seen some of our more quiet citizens leave the office in disgust at such conduct. Now, we think it about time this nuisance was abated. If parents won't learn their children good behavior, and self-respect don't compel them to desist from their annoying practices, then we counsel the post-master to summarily eject them from his premises. A repetition of such treatment would prove a wholesome corrective of the evil.

$1200 AND ALL EXPENSES PAID.—See advertisement of American Shuttle Sewing Machine, in our advertising columns. ‡
