Town and County Intelligence.

THE Orphans' Court for Caroline county will meet in special session on Wednesday, March 31st, for the trial of the case of Thos. H. Kemp vs. Thos. F. Garey, administrator of Wm. W. Medford.

YOUR SUBSCIPTION IS DUE. Come and settle it during court week.

THE STEAMBOAT.—The Champion will certainly resume her trips to this place on Saturday. So says Captain Griffith.

NEW CHENDELIER.—A handsome chendelier has just been put into the Protestant Episcopal Church at Hillsboro'. It cost fifty dollars.

RETURNED.—Jake Babes, who was sentenced to the penitentiary at the last March term of the court, for one year, for larceny, arrived in town on Saturday. We trust he has come back a wiser and better man.

M. E. CHURCH SOUTH.—This society of Methodists in Hillsboro is building a very neat frame church, fronting on the road which leads to the depot. It is thought it will be ready for dedication some time in May. Mr. A. J. Gadd is the builder.

BOAT BUILDING AT HILLSBORO'.—Captain David Dixon is building a small sloop at Hillsboro', of about twelve tons burthen, for the purpose, we are told, of trading between that town and Baltimore. The shallowness of the creek will not admit of a larger class vessel.

DEATH of A MINISTER.—Rev. Daniel George, who was upon this circuit several years ago, and who won the esteem of our people by his sociable qualties and exemplary christian life, died at Olney, Pa., his residence, on the 13th inst., aged about 35 years.

EXCURSION.—Dr. G. W. Goldsborough, the present efficient superintendent of the Md. & Del. R. R., writes us that he will make an excursion from Greensborough over the bridge at Tuckahoe creek and return on Saturday next. The trains will leave Greensborough and Ridgely on schedule time.

COLLAR-BONE BROKEN.—Two colored boys—Frank Cook and Charles Frazier—were wrestling on Thursday evening last, and by a fall the former had his collar-bone broken. Let this serve as a warning to the numerous other colored men and boys whom we see so often wrestling on our public streets.

THE PEACH PROSPECT.—We learn from Mr. Alex. P. Sorden, one of the largest and most experienced fruit-growers in this county, that the prospect for a crop of peaches in his immediate neighborhood is excellent, and that, should no unfavorable weather set in, the crop will be abundant. He has been in communication with fruit-growers throughout this and the lower portion of the Peninsula, and receives a favorable response from all.

THE RAILROAD.—A failure on the part of the sub-contractors to furnish the timber for the bridges will prevent the completion of the railroad to Easton within the stipulated time. Still, no efforts will be relaxed to finish the work at as early day as posssible.—The road, we believe, is nearly all graded; and when the work of laying the track is begun more progress will be made than is anticipated. Immense quantities of iron were shipped down the road for this purpose last week. All the workmen have been paid off, and everything progresses satisfactorily. We expect to be able to ride to Easton on the cars before the 1st of June.

ORPHANS' COURT ITEMS.—Letters of administration granted; on the estate of John Wright to Tamsey Wright and Saml. Trice; on the estate of Wm. W. Medford to Thomas F. Garey.

Guardian accounts passed: R. C. Carter, guardian to the Porter heirs, 8th account; Wm. H. Deweese, guardian to J. Anderson, 8th and 9th and final accounts.

Account of sales passed: Wm. C. Jump adm'r of Robt. Faulkner; Robt. Clendenning adm'r of Wm. Norriss, Jr.

Order for sale of personal property of the late Revel Horsey granted to Elizabeth Horsey, administratrix.

ACCIDENT.—A rather singular, and it is to be feared serious, accident befel Mr. Jas. H. Holmes, one of the presnt Board of County Commissioners, on Tuesday week last.—He had gone down to the river to look after the workmen on the Hog Island wharf, and the weather being cold he attempted to cover up his horse with his robe. In stooping to tie the robe under the horse, something (the spinal chord we suppose) suddenly gave way in his back, rendering him perfectly helpless. The workmen on the wharf asisted him to his carriage, when he was driven home and put to bed. Since then he has left the house but once, and then only to take a ride one pleasant day, during which time he was bolstered up on pillows. But the ride was too fatiguing for him. He proceeded only a short distance, when he was compelled to return and seek his bed. There he has been ever since, unable to turn over except by the assistance of his household or of a friend.

M. P. APPOINTMENTS.—The M. P. Conference, which assembled this year in Georgetown, D. C., and which adjourned on Thursday last, made the following appointments for this county: Caroline Circuit, Rev. Mr. Ellegood; Choptank Mission, Rev. W. G. Holmes. Rev. B. F. Benson has been sent to Alexandria, Va.

COMPLETED.—The railroad bridge across the Tuckahoe is now completed, and the ties and rails are being laid over it. It is a most substantial structure, and one likely to withstand the freshets peculiar to that stream at this season of the year. The bridge at Lloyd's branch has been begun, and will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible.

ROAD SUPERVISORS.—The following is a complete list of the Road Supervisors in the two upper districts. The lists for the lower ones will be published as soon as the appointments are made.

A WHITE GIRL STOLEN BY A NEGRO MAN.—Mr. Alexander Carson, a respectable farmer living in Talbot county, near Hillsborough, came to Easton on Friday night, in search of his daughter, who had mysteriously disappeared from her father's house on Thursday night. We learn the following facts in connection with the matter. A mulatto man named John Hall sometime ago was lodged in jail by officer Dillen for gambling. Mr. Carson bailed him out, and took him to work on his farm. Since then his daughter, who is nearly grown, has been teaching him how to read, and write, in consideration for which service he has been practicing his arts on his innocent and unsuspecting preceptress, to induce her to leave her home and follow him to the city. On Friday, at noon, they both took passage at Miles River Ferry for Baltimore on the steamer Issac P. Smith. Whether he persuaded her off for the purpose of seducing or marrying her is not known. It is said that the negro's mother lives in Baltimore. It is needless to say, the young girl's family are in great distress about. It is seriously to be hoped that she may be rescued from the clutches of the black wretch who has persuaded her off. She is a bright, intelligent girl, and it is a great pity that she should be ruined in this disgraceful manner. —Easton Star.

[Mr. Carson is a former citizen of Delaware, having moved to Talbot about two years since. His daughter will be 13 years old sometime in April.—ED. UNION.]

TEMPERANCE LECTURES.—On Wednesday and Thursday evenings last, Col. H. S. Headley, of Morristown, N. J., who has been stopping in our town for several days, delivered a couple of temperance lectures which were edifying and entertaining in the extreme The evils arising from the use of intoxicating liquors were vividly portrayed in faithful delineations of examples which had come under the observation of the lecturer himself. He clearly established the the fact that the evil afflicted those who drank not as well as those who did. The lectures were delivered in a very graceful manner—without notes or manuscript—and abundantly evidenced the perfect conversance of the lecturer with the subject which he attempted to discuss. It has rarely, if ever, been our lot to listen to a superior lecture upon this subject.

Mr. Headley delivered two additional lectures on Sunday, his object being to explain the apparently conflicting and irreconcilable portions of scripture relating to the use of wine. Wines, he said, were of two kinds—the good wine and the bad wine, and while no distinction was made in our language, in the original they were represented by very different words. The good wine was the juice of the ripe grape pressed out and drank immediately—the bad wine was made by fermenting the juice and allowing it to stand for some time. The former was health-giving and harmless—the latter poisonous and injurious to the human system, in that it neutralizes the blood, which is the strength and man himself. Each of his lectures were well attended, and attentively listened to.

On Tuesday last, Mr. Headley returned to his home in New Jersey, bearing with him the well wishes of this community. During his stay here, he was conveyed to different parts of the county, and seemed well pleased with the appearance of the land and things generally. He is a fluent speaker, a ready and entertaining conversationalist, and deports himself as a perfect gentleman. He is possessed of great wealth, and is a partner of Hon. Simon Cameron in the iron business.
