Town and County Intelligence.

The Orphans' Court for Caroline county will meet on Tuesday, June 29th.

Court.—The Chancery or non-jury term of the Circuit Court commences on Monday next.

New Church.—A Methodist Episcopal Church is being erected in Marydell. It will be neat, but not very capacious.

Mr. Thos. C. Bailey, formerly of this county, has been promoted to the position of chief of the Paymaster's Division of the Second Auditor's office.

Religious.—Service will be held in the Court house, in this town, on Sunday afternoon next, at 4 o'clock, under the auspices of the P. E. Church, the Rector of Wye Parish officiating.

Early Corn.—Mr. Josiah White, residing near town, has a field of six acres in corn, which has been in tassel more than a week. It is of the Adams' Extra Early variety.—Can any one beat this corn?

The sum of $221 was realized at the late festival held in Greensboro'. We are assured by those who took an active part that this sum was large in comparison with the provisions made, and exceeded the expectations of even the most sanguine.

That Causeway.—Instead of levying a sum sufficient to rebuild the causeway the County Commissioners have determined to erect a plank footway over the portions usually submerged. Out with such close-fisted economy. The causeway must be repaired, and this effort to stave off the much needed work will only increase the amount of expenditure when the work is begun. Won't somebody donate our Board of County Commissioners a little second handed liberality?

Stricken with Paralysis.—Mr. Stephen Colescott, residing about six miles from town, was stricken with paralysis on Thursday last, and rendered perfectly helpless in his right side. Dr. Tarr was called in, who freely applied the usual medicines in such cases, but he has little hopes of his recovery. Mr. Colescott is a very old citizen, and one against whom the slanderer's dart will fall harmless. He is a peaceble, quiet and inoffensive citizen, and as such commands the respect of all who know him.

Land Sales.—The Mancha Bros., Ridgely, send the following as sales recently effected by them:

Isaac M. Haswell's farm, containing 113¾ acres, to Joseph Barthel, of Erie county, N. Y., for $35 per acre.

The "Wood Farm," near Ridgely, containing 98 acres, to Jacob Bowers, of Luzerne county, Pa., for $25 per acre.

Chas. A. Dunning's farm, 1½ miles from Denton, and adjoining his home farm, containing 60 acres, to Joseph Brooks, of Cataraugus county, N. Y., for $25 per acre.

Another Storm.—Another storm of wind and rain passed over this place on Monday evening last. Though a high wind prevailed it was not so violent as that of Sunday week, and did not do so much damage.—Very little rain fell. The only damage that we have heard of was the blowing down of a portion of that faithful old mulberry which stood sentinel beside the residence of Mr. Nehemiah Fountain, defying alike the storms and tempests of former years.

From farmers in town on Tuesday we learn that considerable damage was done by the prostration of the wheat. In one instance—that of Chas. A. Dunning—the wheat was blown down so badly as to preclude its being cut with cradles and a new reaper had to be purchased for this purpose.

Fall and Narrow Escape.—Mr. John Satterfield, residing near Burrsville, met with an accident in this town on Saturday, his escape from which is miraculous. He had gone up into the cabinet shop of Mr. E. Pritchett to look after his grain scythe and started to return, when he stumbled and fell against the railing, breaking it off and falling upon the pavement below. His right shoulder and side received the force of the blow, though the back of his head was also bruised. In the fall several of his ribs were broken, and himslf rendered speechless. Dr. Tarr freely applied iced water and soon restored him to consciousness. He is still suffering from his injuries (Monday), and their extent is unknown though there is no evidence of any internal disarrangement. He was very much intoxicated at the time the accident occurred.

Apart from his narrow escape by the fall, his situation was equally perilous from another source. Hanging upon the railing around the platform in front of the cabinet shop, and upon the end against which Mr. S. fell, were two scythes and cradles, and these fell with him, but, marvellous to relate, he did not receive a scratch from them. He seems to have fallen with greater velocity, or to have been started first, as they fell upon him after he reached the ground. Had they fallen together the probabilities are that he would have received such a wound as would have terminated his existence, His escape is most miraculous.

The Queenstown & Harrington R. R.—We have been informed through perfectly reliable sources that the survey of this road has been completed, its route located, and that the grading has been begun at the Harrington end of the road. The extent of the force employed we could not learn, but were told that an additional force of fifty men were daily expected. The route, as laid down, is as follows: commencing a little below Harrington, at a point in a line with the Junction & Breakwater R. R., from Houston to Harrington, it will be run in a direct line until it nears the river, when a curve will be made so as to cross at the Stakes, and thence on to Broad Creek, on Kent Island, crossing the Md. & Del. R. R. between Ridgely and Greensborough. This crosses about four miles above our town.

The parties who are constructing this road say that every dollar of stock is taken, and that no favors are asked of any one. Indeed, they act in the most independent manner.—With headquarters at Harrington, they go to their work in the morning, carrying dinner for themselves and teams, and accept the hospitalities of no one. Even when surveying the route of the road, and when miles away from headquarters, they pursued the same independent policy. This looks very much as though the road would be put through.

Thos. C. Hambly, one of the founders of Ridgely, is at Harrington superintending the work.

New Dwelling.—Mr. Geo. W. Richardson is building himself a very comfortable dwelling house, 16 x 36, with back-building, upon the tract owned by Mr. Jas. G. Redden, on the Neck road, and immediately adjoining the land of Rev. T. J. Quigley.

Played Out—Strawberries, much to the regret of the editor.

Another Railroad Connection.—On Saturday evening last, Mr. Owens, in the second branch of the city council, presented a petition from sundry citizens asking an appropriation of $300,000 to aid in the construction of a branch railroad to connect closely Baltimore city with the Delaware railroad, in order to secure the Eastern Shore trade, which other wise goes to Philadelphia. The connection proposed will start from near Elkton, Cecil county, and end at Massey's Cross Roads, by which Baltimore is placed nearer the Eastern Shore trade than Philadelphia. The difference in distance from the terminus of Delaware railroad, at present, is 28 miles to Baltimore. The proposed connection will make it about equal. The memorial was referred to a special committee, which has not yet been appointed.—Balto. Sun.

The Great Solar Eclipse.

A large number of scientific men are making preparations for the observation of the total eclipse of the sun, which is to occur on the 7th of August next. It will be a marked event. Since 1834 there has not been a total eclipse of the sun which could be observed in any considerable part of the country, and no other will be visible in America during the rest of the century. The belt of country where the eclipse will be complete is about one hundred and forty miles wide, stretching from the Atlantic coast across to Siberia, and including portions of North Carolina, Tennessee, Kentucky, Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska, Dacotah, Montana, British America, and Alaska. Des Moines, the capital of Iowa, will be directly under the central line of the shadow, and the most favorable locality for observations.

Astronomers, engineers of the army, the correspondents of the Smithsonian Institute, officers of the Coast Survey and thousands of amateur observers will watch this obscuration of the sun with eager interest. Their reports will give new and trustworthy data for the geographer, the astronomer, the mathematician and men of science generally.

Eminent New York and Philadelphia physicians claim that the Dubois Missisquoi Powder cures cancer. It is advertised in this issue.

THE KIDNEYS.

THE KIDNEYS ARE TWO IN NUMBER, situated at the upper part of the loin, surrounded by fat, and consisting of three parts, viz.: the Anterior, the Interior, and the Exterior.

The anterior absorbs. Interior consists of tissues or veins, which serve as a deposit for the urine and convey it to the exterior. The exterior is a conductor also, terminating in a single tube, and called the Ureter. The ureters are connected with the bladder

The bladder is composed of various coverings of tissues, divided into parts, viz.: the Upper, the Lower, the Nervous, and the Mucous. The upper expels, the lower retains. Many have a desire to urinate without the ability; others urinate without the ability to retain.—This frequently occurs in children.

To cure these affections, we must bring into action the muscles which are engaged in their various functions. If they are neglected, Gravel or Dropsy may ensue.

The reader must also be made aware, that however slight may be the attack, it is sure to affect the bodily health and mental powers, as our flesh and blood are supported from these sources.

Gout, or Rheumatism—Pain occurring in the loins is indicative of the above diseases. They occur in persons disposed to acid stomach and chalky concretions.

The Gravel—The gravel ensues from neglect or improper treatment of the kidneys. These organs being weak, the water is not expelled from the bladder, but allowed to remain; it becomes feverish, and sediment forms. It is from this deposit that the stone is formed, and gravel ensues.

Dropsy is a collection of water in some parts of the body, and bears different names, according to the part affected, viz.: when of the abdomen, Ascites; when of the chest, Hydrothorax.

Treatment—Helmbold's highly concentrated compound Extract Buchu is decidedly one of the best remedies for diseases of the bladder, kidneys, gravel, dropsical swellings, rheumatism, and gouty affections. Under this head we have arranged Dysuria, or difficulty and pain in passing water, scanty secretion, or small and frequent discharges of water; Strangury, or stopping of water; Hematuria, or bloody urine; Gout and Rheumatism of the kidneys, without any change in quality, but increase of color, or dark water. It was always highly recommended by the late Dr. Physick, in the affections.

This medicine increases the power of digestion, and excites the absorbents into healthy exercise, by which the watery or calcareous depositions, and all unnatural enlargements, as well as pain and inflammation, are reduced, and it is taken by men, women, and children. Directions for use and diet accompany.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 25, 1867.

H. T. Helmbold, Druggist:

Dear Sir—I have been a sufferer, for upward of twenty years, with gravel, bladder, and kidney affections, during which time I have used various medicinal preparations, and been under the treatment of the most eminent physicians, experiencing but little relief.

Having seen your preparations extensively advertised, I consulted with my family physician in regard to using your Extract Buchu.

I did this because I had used all kinds of advertised remedies and had found them worthless, and some quite injurious; in fact I despaired of ever getting well, and determined to use no remedies hereafter unless I knew of the ingredients. It was this that prompted me to use your remedy. As you advertised that it was composed of buchu, cubebs, and juniper berries, it occured to me and my physician as an excellent combination, and, with his advice, after an examination of the article, and consulting again with the druggist, I concluded to try. I commenced its use about eight months ago, at which time I was confined to my room. From the first bottle I was atonished and gratified at the beneficial effect, and after using it three weeks, was able to walk out. I felt much like writing you a full statement of my case at that time, but thought my improvement might only be temporary, and therefore concluded to defer and see if it would effect a perfect cure, knowing then it would be of greater value to you, and more satisfactory to me.

I am now able to report that a cure is effected after using the remedy for five months.

I have not used any now for three months, and feel as well in all respects as I ever did.

Your Buchu being devoid of any unpleasant taste and odor, a nice tonic and invigorator of the system, I do not mean to be without it whenever occasion may require its use in such affections.

Maxims for Business Men.

When a business man reaches the point where he thinks that he can not spare any time to examine sources of financial and commercial information, he may safely conclude that his business is not well managed.

When a business man finds himself in a financial situation so embarrassing that he can not afford to possess every publication that would throw more light upon his business transactions, he should not delay an hour, but arrange at once with an auctioneer to close out his stock to the highest bidder.

The above Maxims are taken from the columns of The New York Mercantile Journal which is the best as well as one of the largest mercantile newspapers published in the United States. Its market reviews and carefully revised list of jobber's prices, embracing almost every quotable article of merchandise, together with its judicious editorials, fill more than thirty-five (35) columns every week. The subscription price is only $5.00 per year, (less than 10 cents per week, and less than 1½ cents per day.)—Parties desiring to possess themselves of this valuable publication, should address The N. Y. Mercantile Journal Co., 300 Pearl Street, New York City.
