DENTON, MARYLAND:

THURSDAY MORNING:.....July 8, 1869.

The Republican Policy Vindicated.

Sad, indeed, must be the feelings of those whose overweening confidence in the Democratic party constrained them to unite "their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor" with that party as the only hope and salvation of the country. They plainy saw that the star of decline had arisen in the east and was slowly, but none the less surely, ascending towards the zenith, and that some master stroke of policy must be adopted ere the zenith be reached and the fate of the country be sealed. To them the fact was plainly perceptible that the co-ordinate branches of the Government were at variance, and that these differences would be continued until an open rupture ensued, unless some positive and decissive action was had. Hence, the plain and unmistakable issue in the late campaign was whether the one-man power represented by the Democratic party, should triumph over the will of the people as represented by the Republican party—whether the Executive should usurp the functions of the two other departments and establish a Cromwellian dynasty upon the shores of Free America—whether fraud and corruption should sit in high places whilst the revenue was prostituted to the base use of party, and whether our national obligations should be held sacred or not. Upon these issues the campaign was fought through, and victory was upon the side of the people.

Scarce four months have passed since the Republican party assumed to direct and control the affairs of this government, and yet we can say truthfully and positively that more good has been accomplished—the country been restored nearer to that desired degree of peace and prosperity which existed prior to the war—than had been done during the three years previous, under a Democratic administration. Nor can it be said that it was not in the power of that administration to have brought about that good feeling and harmony which now exists throughout the land. When Andrew Johnson, elected a Republican Vice-President, acceeded to the Presidential chair, he carried with him the well wishes and support of the party which had elevated him to that high position. It was ready and willing to assist him in his arduous duties, and make his ways "ways of, pleasantness and his paths paths of peace." It looked over his shortcomings, and with charitableness forgave his blunders, accrediting them rather to verdency in his high trust than wilful abuse of power, until he assumed to himself legislate back into the Union States which had forfeited their membership in the Federal compact. In this attempt he was met by an outraged and insulted nation, and for three years a continued war of principles was kept up—he to grasp more power to further his base ends—by Congress and the people to thwart his ignoble purposes. But notwithstanding this conflict, it was in the power of him, and those whom he had called around him, to honestly collect the revenue and apply it to the reduction of the national debt. It was in his power to preserve peace and order in the South. The Rebels had lain down their arms and were parolled by the Government, and it would have been very easy to have enforced that parole. It was also in his power to allay the excitement and ill-will engendered by his shameful course. But did he do it? No. To the contrary he contributed to keep the spark of discontent alive, and availed every opportunity to "add fuel to the flames."

But with the restoration of the Republican party to power, a new era dawned upon this agonized nation. The policy urged by Congress upon Andrew Johnson was immediately enforced, and now witness the marked difference in our National affairs. Peace has spread her benignant wings over the land, and Plenty has showered abundant riches from her "golden horn." At rest, the people have turned their attention to the requirements of domestic life and prosperity is beaming in every part of the land. The South is now no longer rent and torn by contending factions, and the avenging Ku-kluxes, like Othello, "have lost their occupation."—Dishonest officials have been removed and their places supplied by those who render unto "Cæsar the things which be Cæsar's." Supernumerary clerks have been dismissed from the departments at Washington until scarce enough are left to perform departmental duties. The most rigid economy is enforced everywhere, and the coffers of the treasury are filling up to repletion. And last, but by no means the least, the national debt is being reduced at a prodigious and marvelous rate. During the last four months it has been reduced upwards of thirty-six millions of dollars! Talk about retrenchment, of reform:—this case is unparalleled in the history of any Government, and abundantly illustrates our ability to pay off our national debt to the utmost farthing. For shame on you, ye skulking, sneaking repudiators! The country is now in safe hands, and the policy of the Government is honest and straightforward. The policy of the Government is the policy of the Republican party, begun away back in '65 but choked down by the foul weeds of rebellion, and the marked success of that policy during the last four months is a complete vindication of that policy as against that set up by Andrew Johnson and espoused by the Democratic party. Each had a fair trial and the advantage is undoubtedly in favor of the Republican policy.

Republican Economy—Secretary Boutwell's Honesty.

The great success of President Grant's financial policy, as carried out by Secretary Boutwell, attracts attention, and gives pleasure in all quarters. The Philadelphia Ledger, of Saturday, adds the following to its previous warm commendation:

"The finances of the nation seem to be steadily improving under the fair and outspoken action of the Secretary of the Treasury. He has not only cut loose from the Treasury ring by discarding secret sales of gold, but he has commenced a sinking fund by the purchase of the public securities in the open market. This latter he has been doing at the rate of a million per week, and the effect on the public credit has been so satisfactory, that he has determined to increase the amount, and has directed the U. S. Assistant Treasury at New York to receive proposals until 12 o'clock noon, to-day, for the sale to the Government of not exceeding $3,000,000 of United States bonds, the same to be held by the Treasury Department, subject to the future action of Congress. This is progressing in well doing, and will be well received. Every dollar by which the public debt is reduced, not only decreases the principal of the debt, but diminishes the burden of taxation. The Government is in every way strengthened, and the public welfare increased by the reduction of the debt. The amount of debt reduced since the 1st of March, as was mentioned yesterday is nearly thirty-six and a half millions."

EXTENSION OF THE MANSION HOUSE.—We last week stated that the Mansion House was to be enlarged. At the request of Mr. Bayzand, we make room for the following:

The two large brick houses in St. Paul street, above Fayette, opposite the City Court, (Old Masonic Hall,) were sold last week by Messrs. Wm. H. Bayzand & Co., real estate brokers, to Mr. Isaac Albertson, the proprietor and owner of the Mansion House, for $40,000 in fee. Mr. Albertson intends to remodel and put new fronts in the buildings, with the new style of French roof, and will attach the upper stories to his hotel, and have the lower part fitted up for law offices. The work of improvement has already been commenced. The front of these houses is about sixty feet. With them an objectional feature to those who have had to pass along St. Paul street will be removed, viz: the old style of high marble steps, just before you reach the Law Buildings, which reach within a foot almost of the curbstone, preventing two persons to pass each other on the pavement at that point. The property formerly belonged to Messrs. Geo. Appold & Co.

THE "EUREKA" FERTILIZER.—Mr. J. A. F. Neal, of Skipton, Talbot county, has been appointed agent for the sale of this—"the best fertilizer in the market"—in this county. As a crop producer it has no superior.—Counterfeits, however, are in circulation, and persons are cautioned against buying this fertilizer other than of a regularly appointed agent. Walker Dorsey & Co., 86 Spear's Wharf, Balto., are sole agents for this State and Virginia. ‡

SAID ANDREW JOHNSON at a serenade which was given him in Washington one night last week:

However in my politics, as in my religion, when my facts give out an my reasons fail me I draw pretty largely on my faith, and my faith is yet strong and unbroken.

Andrew Johnson's religion! This is capital. If he has any religion it must be pent up in a whiskey bottle, since there seems to rest his "faith" and from that he "draws" more "largely" than from anything else.

ANDY JOHNSON regards President Grant's administration a failure. All very natural. In fact, should he regard it in any other light we should feel suspicious concerning it.—Peace, plenty and prosperity—an honest and economical administration of the Government—and a reduction of the national debt, are to him incomprehensible things, and of course they are failures.

NOTICE TO PEACH GROWERS.—At the last meeting of the Peninsula Fruit Growers' Association the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

1. Resolved, That the executive committee be requested to make an arrangement with the railroad companies carrying the peninsula peaches to market, to instruct their agents to send, without delay, to their proper destinations, all baskets and crates left at their depots belonging to shippers or growers.

2. Resolved, The better to enable the railroad agents to carry the above resolution into effect, that each grower or shipper of peaches along the line of said roads or on the waters of the Delaware and Chesapeake Bays, be requested to send, without delay, to the Secretary of this Association, the name of his post office and shipping depot, and the marks of his baskets and crates; and that the Secretary be authorized to have a table of the same made out, printed, and sent to all said depots along said lines of railroads and on said waters.

The above resolutions are published for the information of peach growers interested; and they are all respectfully invited to send in their lists without delay, in order that the design of the Association may be carried out.

J. A. FULTON, Secretary.

CASE DECIDED.—The case of Riddle vs. Falls, Executor of Humphrey Riddle, has just been decided by the Court of Appeals.

The facts of the case were these: Humphrey Riddle died leaving a will, under which his widow, Mary A. Riddle, claimed, among other things, a carriage and a yoke of young oxen by virtue of a clause which gave to her whatever "personal property she might need to carry on farming with."

By order of the Orphans' Court, the Executor Falls sold the oxen and carriage, and held the money to the credit of the estate.

Mrs. Riddle then filed a petition in the Orphans' Court, asking that the money arising from their sales might be paid to her under the above clause in the will. The Orphans' Court refused her prayer. and dismissed her petition with costs. Mrs. Riddle then took an appeal to the Court of Appeals where she has succeeded in reversing the order of the Orphans' Court, and obtaining an order for the Executor to pay her the proceeds of the sale of said oxen and carriage, and also her costs of suit. Albert Constable, counsel for Mrs. Riddle; Wm. J. Jones, counsel for Falls.—Elkton Democrat.

Secretary Robeson is called the handsomest man in the Cabinet.

PENINSULAR JOTTINGS.

WORCESTER COUNTY.

Be Careful What Medicines You Take.

WHEN you are exhausted by over-work of head or hand, and feel the need of something invigorating, don't drink whiskey nor any intoxicating thing, whether under the name of Bitters or otherwise. Such articles give just as much strength to your weary body and mind as the whip gives to the jaded horse, and no more. Alcoholic stimulants are injurious to Nerve-health, and are ALWAYS followed by DEPRESSING REACTION.

DODD'S NERVINE AND INVIGORATOR

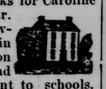

is a TONIC and GENTLE STIMULANT which is NOT attended by REACTION. What it gains for you it maintains. When it refreshes body or mind, it refreshes with natural strength that comes to stay. We are not recommending teetotalism in the interest of any faction; but long and extended observation teaches us that he who resorts to the bottle for rest or recuperation, will find, as he keeps at it, that he is kindling a fire in his bones which will consume like the flames of perdition. Turn from it. Take a tonic that will refresh and not destroy. Dodd's Nervine is for sale by all Druggists. Price One Dollar. See book of certificates that accompanies each bottle.

YOU ALL

HAVE HEARD OF

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1825.

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or anything like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for

Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys,
ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits,
All these indicate disease of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

Hoofland's German Bitters

is entirely vegetable, and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtues are extracted from them by a scientific chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

Hoofland's German Tonic

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in cases where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, they being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These Remedies are the best

Blood Purifiers

ever known, and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order; keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies and no disease will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action, in the system.

Yours truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES THOMPSON,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1868.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters," a valuable medicine in cases of Indigestion attacks of or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates street.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. The genuine have the signature of C. M. Jackson on the front of the outside wrapper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All others are counterfeit.
