DENTON, MARYLAND:

THURSDAY MORNING:::::::August 12, 1869.

NECESSITY COMPELS IT.

We enclose in each subscriber's paper today the amount of his indebtedness to this office, and hope to receive a prompt response from every one indebted. Necessity has forced us to this plan, and we want all to hearken to our appeal for aid. As we were about finishing last week's edition, our newspaper press was broken so seriously that it cannot be mended with any assurance of future usefulness. We shall, therefore, have to purchase a new press. Not having a sufficient amount of money at our command just now for this purpose we make our appeal to our numerous delinquents and ask that they assist us in this matter. We have born with them long and patiently and we do hope they will now come forward to our assistance like men. The amounts are small, yet the whole of them are ample to make the purchase.

If you cannot come in person and settle, send the amount by a friend; but if you cannot find any one coming then send by mail. Send at once. After the 1st of September no discounts on bills will be allowed.

The Late Elections and Their Moral with Reference to Maryland.

The elections just held in Virginia and Tennessee contain a moral which it would be well for the Republicans in Maryland to carefully study. We are in a like situation with the Republicans of those States, so far as party management is concerned, and it behooves us to exercise great caution lest the same fate overtakes us which overtook them. Our party organization is no more of an unit than was theirs, let who will proclaim it.—Disaffection and distrust is spread throughout our ranks, and it is useless to try to dissemble it. One set of men are trying to pull this, way and another that, and the same bane which cursed the party in Tennessee and Virginia curses the party in Maryland—the bane of office.

Now, we do not wish to be understood as saying that office, in itself, is a curse and an evil; but we do say, and most emphatically, too, that the prostitution of office to selfish motives and ignoble purposes is an unpardonable evil and disgrace to those thus using it. More especially so to the Republican party. Its past history has been a most glorious one, and every page is illumined with some great and noble deed accomplished. During the few years of its existence it has been the safeguard of liberty and with fostering care has preserved our Republican institutions alike from foes without and within.

And can it consent now to be rent and torn by the petty feuds and hates of aspiring politicians and ambitious demagogues? With no greater degree of safety to the nation than at its birth. Its mission is not yet accomplished. It still has some great victories to achieve. Even now we are on the eve of witnessing a triumph which will be as grand and glorious as that which liberated from the galling yoke of servitude the four millions of human beings in the South. Soon the end will be reached, and history will record it as the greatest moral revolution ever yet accomplished.

The Republicans in Maryland have no less a duty to perform than the Republicans of the country, and party harmony and unity is as much needed here as elsewhere. And without harmony we can accomplish nothing. We cannot displace our opponents, although the tide of popular opinion is setting strongly in our favor. The people are becoming heartily tired of their present rulers, and the opportune moment for us to strike will soon be at hand. But if the time should arrive and we are found quarrelling among ourselves where will be the hope of reform?—Assuredly not in that party which has rendered relief in the past. We shall be so weakened that we will be powerless to do or dare anything. We are already losing prestige, and the continuation of the warfare by gentlemen professing the same faith shakes the confidence of the public in us.

Then why continue it longer? Why not now attempt to heal up the breaches already made? It will not be as easy six months hence as now. Day by day the warefare increases in bitterness, and the two factions become more and more averse. Adding fuel to the flames with the hope of one being able to consume the other is a poor expedient. No one man, nor a dozen men, can manage a party to his entire satisfaction, nor yet so enlist its smypathies as to side with him in redressing imaginary wrongs. Party bickerings always have existed and always will exist so long as office is distributed by the people, but they should, in each instance, be overlooked, and no open rupture be allowed. Men who who will persist in creating divisions are demagogical in their ways and without the interest of the party at heart. Office is the only thing which binds them to the party, and when this is removed they at once make war upon it.

We sincerely hope the originators and continuators of this feud will study carefully the moral furnished by Virginia and Tennessee, and will suffer peace and harmony to again prevail among the Republicans of Maryland.

WITH THE AMOUNTS due us we can purchase a new press, and on this press we can enlarge our paper and thus increase it in interest. We therefore call upon every man who owes us, and who wants a larger and better paper, to come forward and pay at once.

POSTMASTER-GENERAL CRESWELL has returned to Washington.

TEN PER CENT. discount is allowed on all bills settled before September 1st, but after that date no discount will be allowed. A penny saved is a penny made.

SEVEN INMATES of the Baltimore City Jail effected an escape on Monday evening last by cutting through two walls, 18 inches thick. The Warden, it is alleged, was not as cautious as circumstances required.

DURING the next 18 days we will allow a discount of ten per cent. on all bills settled, but after that time many will find a heavier per cent. added, as we intend to enforce our terms to the lettter. So, look out, ye tardy ones.

GENERAL ROSECRANS has declined the nomination for Governor by the Democrats of Ohio, because, as he says, of the necessity of fulfilling duties "deemed sacred to his creditors and family." This man is too honest for a Democratic nominee. That party says repudiate.

Current Notes.

—The Camden camp-meeting is said to have been a failure as a religious occasion; but as a picnic, a great success.

—A Philadelphia paper says that fruit and vegetables are so cheap in that city as to cause producers to "gnash their teeth in agony."

—A young lady had her leg broken by a defect in the Cairo sidewalk, and threatens to sue for $100,000. A "dear" creature—when she gets it!

—The physicians who attended Judge Black when he broke his arm in a recent railway accident, have sent in a bill for $6500! "Who breaks, pays."

—The new Democratic war cry,—Millions for party votes; not one cent to pay off the national debt.

—A first-class funeral was broken up in Nashville, recently, by the corpse—getting up in the coffin and proclaiming himself alive.

—An old gentleman of seventy, living in an inland town of Massachusetts, who had been deaf for many years, awoke the other morning with his hearing completely restored.

—Great anxiety for the President's return is expressed by the politicians. They say it is too expensive to follow him round the country as he always stops at the best hotels.

—The Newark Courier thinks that to criticize a newspaper is an easy task, but to print one to please everybody is a difficult undertaking. Right.

—A reunion of the Union and Rebel officers met on the Gettysburg battle field on Wednesday, the 4th for the purpose of locating accurately the position of the armies during the engagement. Where will they locate the defeat?

—The Boonsboro' Odd Fellow says that the first mosquito of the season presented his "bill" to us last week. He, she, or it was singing: "I come, I come, with songs to greet you."—And might have added, "I've come expressly to eat you!" Not being very flush, we repudiated the bill.

[COMMUNICATED.]

FEDERALSBURG, Aug. 7th, 1869.

MR. EDITOR:—

The last issue of "The Union" contained a report of the colored people's "Harvest Home" Pic-nic, held in the vicinity of this place. I concur with the writer of the article in every particular, and must confess that it has never been my pleasure to witness such good order and behavior at so large a gathering of the colored people. There was quite a number of white persons present, the assemblage numbering several hundred of both colors, and the presence of a number of our fair sex added interest to the occasion. Everything passed off very quietly, and much credit is due the colored people for their well arranged plans. An extensive pole was raised, at the top of which was attached a large sheaf of wheat decorated with a large and beautiful boquet of flowers. They had provided two very extensive tables, one of which was prepared for their white friends who were present, a number of whom partook of one of the best dinners and suppers I have seen for years. They were very reasonable in their charges—too much so.—The small sum of fifty cents was all that was required for either dinner or supper. Ice cream, lemonade and confectionary in great variety was furnished them by Mr. E. R. Goslin, who took great interest in their behalf.

Rev. W. Phillips, colored, being called to preside over the meeting, Rev. J. L. Kenney opened with prayer, asking that the blessings of a kind Providence might rest on and guide the colored people in the discharge of their duties toward not only their Creator but their fellow man; and that the cause for which they had assembled might be of great benefit to those interested. At the close of Rev. M. Kenney's prayer, Col. McCarter was introduced, who delivered an able and eloquent address on Education.—Rev. Wm. Phillips then closed with a few well-timed remarks.

A proposition was then made to purchase the large and handsome cake which at that time decorated the table, and present it to Hon. Curtis Davis. It required but a very few minutes to obtain the amount of money necessary to make the purchase. They then selected Israel Collins, of their own color, to present it to Mrs. Rebecca Davis, wife of Hon. Curtis Davis, for him, and requested her to forward it to Mr. Davis (he being in the city of Baltimore attending to the duties of office.) This was done as a token of their appreciation of his valuable services rendered to their class during and since the rebellion—for his fearless course in advocacy of their rights to testify in the Courts, and their rights as men and citizens—the right of suffrage. They feel indebted to him for his untiring efforts to provide the necessary means whereby they might obtain an education—in several times visiting Washington city, using his influence to secure a sufficient amount of lumber, or its equivalent, to erect a comfortable school house for them and their children. I think his efforts did not prove fruitless, as time will show. The colored people look upon Mr. Davis as one of their best friends and would appreciate any favor which he may, in the future, have conferred upon him. There is not the least doubt but what he has a great influence with them in this county. Although Mr. Davis has, for years, advocated the rights of the colored people, yet he is not the only one (by many) who have stood up for their rights as citizens.

There is not much news in this part of the county. The camp-meeting season is upon us, which is the means of making business with our merchants more lively. Our enterprising and popular townmen, Messrs. E. F. Davis & Bro., are buying and shipping quite a lot of peaches to the New York market, and I hope with good results. Although we occasionally hear the shrill whistle of the "Iron Horse" passing through the lower end of our town, our citizens are deprived of the advantages they anticipated was in store for them long before this. They are compelled to wagon their trade of various kinds a distance of nine miles to the nearest point on the Del. R. R.

The feud which has for several weeks existed between our Rev. gentlemen and their friends has not as yet subsided. As it is an impossibility to give a correct statement of the particulars I will not here attempt it. I have heard too much of it already, and sincerely hope the quarrel will cease.

Our corn crops are likely to be cut short from the dry and cold weather. The late cold snap has been very injurious to corn and all vegetation.

I have occupied more space than I intended and will now close. You may at some future day hear more from the "Garden Spot" of the County.

Very respectfully your co-worker,
REPUBLICAN.

The Recreant Senators.

Those men who proved false to the country and to the Republican party, when called upon to punish the traitor, Andrew Johnson, are slowly but surely meeting the reward of their iniquitous conduct. Even the children of two of them have been influenced by the bad acts of their fathers. In New York a son of Senator Doolittle and a son of Senator Van Winkle, employed in the Custom House, have been arrested, charged with perpetrating frauds. In New Orleans, Perry Fuller, an intimate friend of Senator Henderson, appointed Collector of the Port, has allowed the most astounding frauds on the revenue to be perpetrated in his deparment. Van Winkle and Henderson have been superceeded, and it is not likely that one of the recreant Senators will ever be returned to the Senate. Unworthy motives prompted their action on the Impeachment trial, and they have forfeited the confidence of the people.

Great Fire in Philadelphia.

One of the most destructive fires that ever visited Philadelphia occurred on Wednesday night. It began with the falling of a portion of the bounded warehouses at Front and Lombard streets, owned by Col. Wm. C. Patterson. The building was stored with whiskey, which ran into the furnaces of the boilers, and caught fire, producing an explosion. The entire block of warehouses, eight in number, were destroyed, and at the time the morning papers went to press, the fire was extending to Pine street, and Front and Pine streets. About one million gallons of whiskey were stored in the building. The loss by the conflagration is several millions of dollars. It is believed to be covered by insurances. Several persons were injured during the fire.

YOU ALL

HAVE HEARD OF
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1825.

THEY CURED YOUR FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or anything like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys,
ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,

and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or

IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate disease of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

Hoofland's German Bitters

is entirely vegetable, and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtues are extracted from them by a scientific chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

Hoofland's German Tonic

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with pure Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in cases where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, they being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person. Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These Remedies are the best

Blood Purifiers

ever known, and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order; keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies and no disease will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find "Hoofland's German Bitters" to be an invigorating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action, in the system.

Yours truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES THOMPSON,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
PHILADELPHIA, April 23, 1868.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in cases of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial in those who suffer from the above causes.

Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates street.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. The genuine have the signature of C. M. Jackson on the front of the outside wrapper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All others are counterfeit.
