Town and County Intelligence.

THE Orphans' Court for Caroline county will meet on Tuesday, September 7th.

THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS will be in session, at their office, on Tuesday next.

PERSONAL.—George M. Russum, Esq., is now on a tour at the North. He went from Baltimore to Fall River, Mass., thence to Boston, and will return home via Niagara.

WE return our thanks to those of our patrons who have kindly responded to our appeals for aid and paid us the amounts due us. We would be still more thankful if the remainder would pay up also.

SCALDED.—Robert McNash, an employee on the Maryland & Delaware Railroad, was badly scalded in his left side, on Sunday last, whilst attempting to blow out an engine. His wounds were promptly dressed and he is recovering.

RELIGIOUS.—Right Reverend Henry C. Lay, Bishop of the Diocese of Easton, will preach at Greensborough on Sabbath morning next. In the afternoon, at 4 o'clock, he will preach in the Court House at Denton.—The public are invited.

FODDER SAVING.—The long continued drought has hastened the fodder-saving season, and many of our farmers are now engaged in their fodder fields. The fodder needs very little curing, as it has already withered in the sun.

THE BISHOP'S FUND.—An effort is being made to raise a fund of $50,000, to be permanently invested, and with the interest to pay the salary of the Bishop of the Diocese of Easton. Upwards of $40,000 of that amount have been subscribed.

EXCURSION.—An excursion train will be run over the Maryland & Delaware Railroad to Hill's camp meeting, near Kenton, on Sunday next. The train leaves Easton at 7 o'clock and Greensborough at 8 o'clock.—Fare from Ridgely $1.40.

CURTAILMENT OF MAIL ROUTE.—Mail route No. 3,020, from Federalsburg, in Caroline county, to Crotcher's Ferry, in Dorchester, has been curtailed six and a-half miles by the discontinuance of the post office at the latter place. The route now terminates at Harrison.

AS A RELIGIOUS MEETING, the Concord camp-meeting is pronounced a remarkable success. On the last morning of the camp, the names of those who had embraced religion were taken to the number of fifty. The popularly expressed opinion is that fully one hundred conversions were made during the week.

WE SOMETIMES WONDER for what purpose some of our down-the-Peninsula exchanges are published. They cannot be read, and, for the most part, are as dry as our Caroline soil at this dry time. The only interest we can find in them is in the effort to decipher their contents.

FREIGHT TRAIN TO EASTON.—On and after Wednesday (yesterday) the 1st inst., a freight train will be run to and from Easton, thus affording an outlet for the trade of that town and vicinity. We learn that a passenger train will be put upon the road so soon as it is well ballasted.

ARCHIMEDES once said that give him a place to put his fulcrum and he would lift the world. There is one thing, however, we know he could not "lift"—enough money from our delinquents to purchase a new printing press—even though his fulcrum was placed upon a foundation as strong and lasting as Jehovah himself.

THE DROUGHT.—Another week and still no rain of any consequence. A slight shower passed over here on Saturday night, but hardly in sufficient quantity to lay the dust. Monday was very threatening, but no rain. It had one good effect, however; the atmosphere has been cooled, and mint juleps and sich can be dispensed with.

MISFORTUNE rarely comes single handed. It seems so to us any way; for following close upon our broken press comes an increase in the price of our paper, caused by the great drought. We hope now that our friends will see the necessity of paying up promptly, and let us have what is due us.—We cannot get along without money.

FINE CORN.—Considering the long continuance of the drought and its blighting effect upon the growing corn, a very fine ear, a fair sample of a field of about twenty-five acres, has been left at the store of Rev. R. W. Todd. The grain is well formed and plump, and the cob is well filled. The corn was grown upon the farm of Mr. Todd, near town.

WHICH HAD YOU RATHER DO, delinquent, pay one dollar and fifty cents now, or two dollars with the costs of a suit added, at the end of the year. We had rather you would pay us the dollar and a-half now, for we are quite averse to legal processes, but shall adopt them as a last resort. Let this be a sufficient warning. We mean just what we say.

THE GENUINE EUREKA.—Mr. J. A. F. Neall, of Skipton, the agent for the sale of this well established fertilizer, desires us to announce that he will be in Denton on Tuesday next for the purpose of receiving orders from the farmers. All who purpose using this fertilizer this fall had better meet him here on that day and secure the genuine article. A sample may be seen at the post office.

THE COLORED PEOPLE have been holding a camp-meeting in Mr. Jump's pine grove, adjacent to town, for several days. Bishop Wayman has been present during the meeting, and has taken a conspicuous part in the exercises. He has been assisted by a colored preacher named Peck. We are informed that Peck preached a very able sermon on Sabbath morning. Some more of the Bishop's "big guns," we suppose.

RESIGNATION AND APPOINTMENT.—Mr. Jas. M. Tharpe has resigned the position of chief engineer of the Maryland and Delaware railroad, which he has held during the present year, in addition to that of chief engineer of the Queen Anne's and Kent railroad which he still retains, and the position thus vacated has been offered to Gen. Jas. Fulton, of Wilmington, Del., who was chief engineer of the western division of the Northern Pacific R. R.

ROBBERY AT THE CONCORD CAMP.—A bold robbery of a horse and carriage was effected at the Concord camp-meeting on Wednesday night. The horse was the property of Mr. Wingate Neal, of this county, and the carriage of Mr. Klund, of Talbot. The carriage was the middle one of a row of three, and was standing in a public place at the time the theft was made. It was a new vehicle, of extra finish. A reward has been offered for its recovery.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—We return our most sincere thanks to Mr. Samuel M. Carter for a box of most beautiful peaches, left at our office on Friday evening. Being on the eve of a visit to New Jersey, we concluded to take them with us, and we can assure Mr. Carter that ample justice was done them in that land where peaches are almost strangers. They were the finest peaches we have seen this season, and more than one mouth evidenced a desire to taste them ere they had reached their destination.

MEETING OF THE DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CENTRAL COMMITTEE.—A meeting of the County Central Committe of the Democratic party was held at the Court House on Tuesday afternoon. Primary elections to select delegates to a County Convention to nominate a county ticket were called in the several districts for Saturday, the 18th inst.—The County Convention will meet the following Tuesday. At this writing it is impossible to tell who the candidates will be, but it seems to be a generally admitted fact that the "Conservatives" have "the inside track." We would not be at all surprised if the old-line Democrats were again compelled to take "back seats."

WE ARE LED to the belief that many of our subscribers desire the prosperity of our enterprise, and have promptly come forward to our assistance in the matter of a new press. Still we have not received one-fourth the amount it will require to make the purchase, although we sent out bills to twice the amount needed. If we do not receive the balance soon we shall be compelled to try patch work on our old press, and then it will be impossible to increase the size of our paper. We give timely warning to those holding back that we will get the amount some time, and they shall receive no benefit of our paper after it has been increased in interest, for their names will be stricken from our lists.

ORPHAN'S COURT PROCEEDINGS.—We could not obtain the proceedings of the Orphans' Court of Tuesday week in time for our last issue, but find room for them in this:

Jas. R. Colescott, administrator of Stephen Colescott, presented inventory, which was passed. The court granted unto the said administrator power and authority to sell.

Alexander Ridgaway, executor of Harriett Turner, presented receipt and final release from Rachael Dawson.

Also, interest account, list of spirit debts and 2d account of administration. Approved.

Letters of administration were granted to Isaac Lehman on the estate of Sarah Fafinger, deceased.

W. C. Maloney and W. H. Willey, administrators of Ed. Maloney, presented an additional account of sales.

The distribution of Francis L. Wooter's estate was presented and pass.

PECULIAR ADAPTABILITY.
Brandreth's Pills.

Their peculiar adaptability to all constitutions as cleansers of the bowels and the blood has established their great merit. They restore the liver, the spleen and even the heart to healthy action when other remedies have been used without producing any benefit. They do not expose those who use them to any danger being as safe as salutary.

Extract from a Letter to Dr. Brandreth, from C. J Fay, Esq., P. M., Hammonton, N. J.

"In 1838 I was in poor health, and my friends as well as myself supposed that my earthly voyage would soon terminate. But after taking one box of Brandreth's Pills, I began to feel better. Well, sir, when I used up twelve boxes I was a well, healthy man—my weight having gone from 131 pounds to 152 pounds. I then ordered a supply, and between that time and the present I have retailed three thousand dollars' worth of these invaluable pills, and am quite sure that I have thereby been instrumental in saving thousands of lives.

"Yours, truly,
C. J. FAY, P. M."

Sold by all Druggists. Observe my name in white letters in the government stamp.
