Town and County Intelligence.

THE Orphans' Court for Caroline county will meet on Tuesday, September 21th.

A BOOK CASE, in which to keep the books of the court, has been put in the main court room, at the direction of the Judges.

Rev. Geo. W. Kennedy, of Greensborough, is acting pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Smyrna, and has removed his family to that town.

HIGHLY INTERESTING.—The last issue of the Cumberland Civillian without a printed letter on its inside pages. We feel highly edified by its perusal.

COMMITTED.—Ezekiel Cannon was lodged in jail on Saturday evening by officer Green, of the 1st district, charged with unlawful intimacy with a little girl named Noblet, aged 16 years.

DEATH OF SECRETARY RAWLINS.—Gen. John A. Rawlins, Secretary of War, died at Washington city on Monday afternoon last. The funeral takes place at Washington today.

REOPENING OF THE SABBATH SCHOOL.—The Sabbath School in this town, which was closed during the camp-meeting season, was reopened on Sunday last, and quite a number of children were in attendance.

AT THE CONCLUSION of his sermon on Sabbath evening Rev. Mr. Fosnocht afforded an opportunity to those who felt their need of the Saviour to seek him, but as none presented themselves the usual extra meetings following the camp-meeting were dispensed with.

ACCIDENT TO THE "TILGHMAN."—An accident happened to the locomotive "Gen. Tilghman," of the Md. & Del. R. R. on Wednesday last which necessitated the sending of it to Wilmington for repairs. The "Easton" is now runing both trains, first drawing up the passenger and then returning for the freight.

A PAINFUL WOUND.—One day last week a colored woman living with W. S. Ridgely, Esq., in this town, stuck a needle in the upper part of the palm of her hand, it, passing between the bones and going nearly through when it broke off. Dr. Tarr was called in, who laid open the hand, and with great exertion succeded in extracting the broken needle.

RAIN.—After a season of unprecedented drought, we had two very refreshing showers on Tuesday last and still have a good prospect for more.

Although the drought has been severe and late crops are blasted—pastures parched up and the foliage from the trees are beginning to fall and our farmers have been compelled to commence feeding their cattle—still, some of our farmers say they have good crops of corn. We heard one of our most thrifty farmers say a few days since, he had the largest crop of corn he ever raised. He thinks he will get 40 bushels to the acre.

DECIDEDLY RICH.—A rich affair occurred in our streets on Monday last, which is too good to be lost. Our fellow townsman, Dr. Chas. E. Tarr, was arrested on the street by a burley fellow from the neighborhood of Potter's Landing, who desired him to meet in consultation with Dr. Hignutt over his wife, who was lying very ill. The Dr. plead pressing professional engagements and told him he could not possibly go. Still insisting that the Dr. should go with him and finding that his entreaties were futile he assumed an imperious attitude and in a commanding voice said: "You won't go eh? Well we'll see. I don't see any use of having public officers, if they ain't going to perform their duty. (Getting excited.) I'll sue you, this minute—I will—" but the balance was lost by the Dr.'s breaking with "you dirty puppy clear yourself. I would not go with you to save your life." The man skedaddled.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE ORPHANS COURT.—Michael Coulbourn administrator of Rebecca A. Coulbourn, Sr., deceased, presented list spirit debts, 1st and final account administration and final distribution. Passed.

Michal Coulbourn administration of Rebecca Coulbourn, Jr. decd., presented list spirit debts, 1st and final account of administration and final Distribution. Passed.

The will of David Blocksom, deceased, was admitted to probate. So far as his personal property is therein devised and ordered to be recorded.

Edward C. Carter administrator of Thos. I. Carter, deceased, presented interest account and 1st and final account of administration. Passed.

Letters of administration upon the estate of Henry H. Smith granted to Henry Wilson.

Letters of administration C. T. A. upon the estate of David Blocksom deceased, granted to Mary R. Blocksom and Robert J. Jump.

Letters of administration upon the estate of Thomas Webster, deceased, granted to Robert H. Smith, of Kent County, Delaware.

Michael Coulbourn acting Guardian to Jas. C. Coulbourn, minor, passed second guardian account.

SHOOTING AFFRAY.—A shooting affray between white men took place at the colored camp-meeting, at Moses' Chapel, near Greensborough, on Thursday night last, which resulted in the death of a man named William Cornish, better known as "big Bill Cornish." It seems that Cornish, in Company with several others, went to the camp on the evening in question with the determination to murder a colored man named Montgomery Gibson, and were chasing him around the ground when Mr. Wm. W. Medford ran into the tent where Gibson was and advised his friends to secret him somewhere. Cornish and his "crowd" stepped into the tent just in time to hear Medford's advice given, and demanded to know if he (Medford) took up for the d—d niggers?" Without awaiting an answer Cornish struck Medford with a stick he held in his hand and shoved him out of the tent on the ground. Whilst in a prostrate condition Cornish was about stamping Medford, when the latter drew a little single-barrelled brass pistol, loaded with shot, which he had in his pocket, and discharged it, the load taking effect in the jaw, breaking it in two places and cutting the tongue nearly into. Dr. Betson was called in and did all he could to relieve the man's sufferings, but he died on Sunday. No blame is attached to Medford; on the contrary, the expressed sentiment of this entire community is in commendation of the act. It was clearly self-defense. After the occurrence of the shooting, the managers of the camp armed themselves with clubs and drove the rioters from the ground.

Since the above was put in type, we learn that Cornish is still alive and likely to recover.

RIOT AT A COLORED CAMP.—A camp-meeting was held by the colored people at Tull's branch, near Federalsburg, last week, and during its progress was marked by a most shameful riot. There are many conflicting reports in circulation, and it is difficult to give a correct account of the affair; still we think the following will prove, in the main correct: On Tuesday a young colored man severely chastised a son of Mr. Thos Willoughby, residing near the camp, and so severely bruised him that his father procured a warrant for the arrest of the colored man. This seemed to greatly incense many of the colored people and threats were made but were not put into execution until the Friday following, and then through no fault of Mr. Willoughby's. He was present at their meeting on Friday morning, quietly observing what was transpiring around him, when two young white men entered the preacher's stand, and, drawing their bottle, proceded to take a drink. This added fuel to the flames, and a crowd immediately set out after these offenders. Some of the croud fell upon Mr. Willoughby, accusing him with being one of the parties, and beat him over the head and body most unmercifully. One blow knocked him senseless to the ground. When consciousness returned he found himself surrounded by the crowd, and recognizing many of them had fifteen arrested. All but two succeeded in proving their innocence. The guilty ones had doubtless fled. After freeing himself from the crowd, Mr. Willoughby started to return home, but was met at his gate by one of the party of colored men who presented a pistol close to his head and dared him to enter his own gate. This whole afair is a most dastardly one, clearly without provocation, and we sincerely trust the guilty wretches may yet be made to feel the extremist penalty of the law. Mr. Willoughby is recovering from his wounds.

Deaths.

EMERSON.—At the residence of Mrs. J. Stewart, in Gloucester county, N. J., on Monday last, Lizzie Roberta, only child of J. Marion and Lizzie S. Emerson, aged 1 year, 1 month and 23 days.

COLLINS.—At his residence, on Sunday last, Mr. Abram Y. Collins, in the 48th year of his age.

PECULIAR ADAPTABILITY.
Brandreth's Pills.

Their peculiar adaptability to all constitutions as cleansers of the bowels and the blood has established their great merit. They restore the liver, the spleen and even the heart to healthy action when other remedies have been used without producing any benefit. They do not expose those who use them to any danger being as safe as salutary.

Extract from a Letter to Dr. Brandreth, from C. J Fay, Esq., P. M., Hammonton, N. J.

"In 1838 I was in poor health, and my friends as well as myself supposed that my earthly voyage would soon terminate. But after taking one box of Brandreth's Pills, I began to feel better. Well, sir, when I used up twelve boxes I was a well, healthy man—my weight having gone from 131 pounds to 152 pounds. I then ordered a supply, and between that time and the present I have retailed three thousand dollars' worth of these invaluable pills, and am quite sure that I have thereby been instrumental in saving thousands of lives.

"Yours, truly,
C. J. FAY, P. M."

Sold by all Druggists. Observe my name in white letters in the government stamp.
