DENTON, MARYLAND;

SATURDAY MORNING:::::October 14, 1869.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.—The Republicans of this county met in this town on Tuesday last, and nominated the following ticket to be supported at the approaching election in November:—

Republican Ticket.

ELCTION TUESDAY 2ND, NOVEMBER.

For Senate:
ROB'T J. JUNP.

For House of Delegates:
JOHN NICHOLS,
SIMEON N. WEST.

For Sheriff:
JOHNATHAN EVITTS.

For County Commissioners:
BENNETT TODD,
JOSEPH MOBRAY,
J. L. CLENDENNING.

For County Surveyor:
MATTHEW J. CLARK.

For School Commissioners:
J. P. FIEROE, 1st Dist.,
R. W. TODD, 2nd Dist.,
J. B. FLETCHER, 3rd Dist.,
J. H. WILLIANS, 4th Dist.

THE REPUBLICANS of New York State have nominated Gen, Franz Sigel for Secretary of State and Hon. Horace Greely for Comptroller.

EX-PRESIDENT PIERCE died at Concord, New Hampshire, on the morning of the 8th inst., from chronic inflammation of the stomach, aged 65 years.

THE would-be assassins of Officer Brooks, in Philadelphia whilst endeavoring to ferret out frauds on the revenue, last month, have been arrested and are in jail awaiting trial in default of the required bail.

CAPT. ALEX STEWART has been nominated as an Independent Candidate for the Sheriffalty by 86 of his fellow Democrats.—A card signed by that nnmber of persons appeared in the last Journal.

CHAS. B. LORE, Esq., has been appointed Attorney-General for Delaware. Can he not Lore (lower) some lore by which the minds of the good people of Delaware may be disenthralled from the political serfdom imposed by the "Family?" If he can and will do so he will be a lucky Lore (lower) for Delaware.

THE LIST OF DEFAULTERS to the State is we notice, published in both the Kent county papers. Why is this? Is there a surplus of money in the Treasury that the Comptroller desires to spend? or is it a dodge to support two Democratic papers in one county by State printing? The people has this money to pay out of their pockets, and they don't wish it wasted in any such manner.

ON TUESDAY LAST elections were held in the great States of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Iowa and Nebraska. Up to the hour of going to press we have no returns, but feel confident that our party has achieved a victory in all the states. We cannot believe that the people of these States can ever give their sanction to the base repudiating schemes of Pendleton and his coadjutors.—Almost any other ill is preferable to the violation of the Nation's plighted faith.

COL. LEVIN WOOLFORD, of Somerset, was nominated by the Democrats at their convention in Baltimore last week. He belongs to the "Old Hunker," or anti-progressive wing of the party—was nominated through the influence of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad monopoly and is, of course, opposed to a free railroad law granting to any man, or body of men, having the means, the right to build railroads in this State. Old fogyism has once more triumphed over progression, and a liberal public sentiment has succumbed to blind prejudice. Let the fact be proclaimed far and wide

BOTH HOUEES of the Virginia Legislature have ratified the Fifteenth Amendment to the National Constitution. The assent of but eight more States is necessary to engraft this Amendment upon our fundamental law, and this assent must be obtained from the States of Texas, Mississippi, Alabama, California, Delaware, Georgia, Iowa, Kentucky, Maryland, Minesota, Nebraska, New Jersey, Ohio, Oregon, Rhode Island, Tennessee and Vermont. There is no doubt but that the Amendment will receive the approval of the requisite three-fourths of the States ere the leaves of another autum wither and die under the touch of the Frost-king.

EVIDENTLY the editor of the Journat is not in statue quo with his party. In his last issue he attempts a defence of himself, and seems to be in a state of bewilderment over the imputations sought to be cast upon him. We think we can explain to the Doctor the cause of this lack of confidence, &c. He must know that his party in this State is divided upon the railroad question and the election of a State Treasurer, and that the lines of demarcation are becoming daily more and more distinctly drawn. The Doctor is evidently on the "Old Hunker," or anti-progressive wing, and this accounts for the lack of confidence entertained by the members of his party. A majority of the old line Democrats seems to be on the progressive side, and they find it difficult to realize the fact that he is not with them as in days of yore. We hope the editor will renew his faith, swear flatly by The Gazette, or "Brick" Pomeroy's Democrat, return to the fold from whence he seems to have strayed, and plead forgiveness of sins.

MR. GEO. W. BRYANT, in a card addressed to the editor of this paper, withdraws his name from the Independent Citizens Ticket which appeared in our last issue. We have been requested to substitute the name of Mr. John W. Temple, of the First district, and his name appears in its appropriate place.

Mr. Wm. B. Massey has also asked that his name be withdrawn from the ticket. Of course we can but comply, not knowing the paternity of the ticket, or who authorized its insertion.

STILL ANOTHER.—Another of the School Commissioners nominated by the 21st of September convention—Samuel Jarman—has resigned. If the entire ticket would do likewise it would be highly satisfactory to a large number of the members of the Democratic party. So great, indeed, is the anxiety for this general withdrawal that a proposition has been made looking to this end, and it finds many supporters—among the rest the editor of the Journal. Ticket No. 1, however, refuses to yield, and is holding on like "grim death to a dead nigger." Bully for ticket No. 1.

REVIVED.—The second number of the Cambridge Intelligencer, revived by the Intelligencer Company and edited by T. Burton, has reached us. Under the new management it promises to be of great service to the Republican cause in its section of benighted Egypt, inasmuch as its editorials are ably written and carry with them that weight of argument aimed at by so many country papers and attained by so few. It divests itself of all concealment of its real principles, and comes boldly, fearlessly and manfully to the work before it. We sincerely trust that it may be successful in dispelling the ignorant prejudice fed to the people of "old Dorset" by its two cotemporaries.

IN CONSIDERATION of the fact that "the year which is drawing to a close has been free from pestilence; health has prevailed throughout the land; abundant crops reward the labors of the husbandman; commerce and manufactures have successfully prosecuted their peaceful paths; the mines and forests have yielded liberally; the nation has increased in wealth and strength; peace has prevailed, and its blessings have advanced every interest of the people in every part of the Union; harmony and fraternal intercourse restored are obliterating the marks of the past conflict and estrangement; burdens have been lightened, and means increased," the President has set apart the 18th of November as a day of thanksgiving and prayer.

Have We a Democratic Party.

We trust our friends will not vote us a suitable subject for Mount Hope because we have asked the above seemingly absurd question. But if taken in its true sense and divested of all the charms which was thrown around it in the infantile days of the Republic—stripped of its texture of gauze—we shall find it but a party of contentious demagogues, bound together by the desire for public plunder, and advocating that which, in different sections of the country, is calculated to secure this end. The title is a misnomer, and its application to this mass of irreconciled and irreconcilable political impossibilities is but the veriest nonsense.

For instance, in Wisconsin it is the open and avowed advocate of manhood (or to speak more intelligently to that class) negro suffrage. So also in Minnesota, and some of the other Northwestern States. In Maryland, Delaware, and Kentucky, however, it would restrict the basis of suffrage to its narrowest compass, and deny to freemen that which is guaranteed them by the great charter of our liberties. In Ohio, the Pendletonian the cry of Repudiation finds favor with it, but in the New England States it would repudiate the Repudiators. In some of the Southern States its once magnetic and potent name has been almost discarded, and is likely to become obliterated from the page of present history. But here, in this benighted land of ignorance and prejudice, it fondly hugs the delusion to its bosom and marshalls its hosts under the banner which it delights to honor, and which it believes was inspired of God through Thomas Jefferson.

And so, view it where you will, the same incompatible relationsip exists. Its principles are but a jarring and conflicting mass of undefined theories, promulgated and approved as the exigencies of the case demand. Corruption is its handmaid, and vice its constant attendant.

A party to be a party must possess identity of interest throughout the realm where it professes to have an existence. This is one of the requisites to its being. Unconcerted and inharmonious action deprives it of all semblance of party, and presents it in the extremely ridiculous phaze of a conglomerated mass without any well-defined course of action or any common point to attain.—It is like a bubble on the waters, floating quietly adown their placid surface, and waiting patiently for a juncture with a neighbor, or else, failing in this, it bursts and vanishes away forever.

It is in this light that we regard the Democratic party of to-day—without any concert of action—without any well-defined principles, or without any definite goal.—Regarded thus, is it a party, national in its existence, and worthy the support of honest men?

JUDGE CATON, of Illinois, has declined to be a Democratic candidate for member of the State Constitutional Convention, on the ground that the Democratic ticket is a party ticket, and he thinks party is out of place in a Constitutional Convention. He will not refuse to serve the people if nominated and elected by the.

THE following is a copy of the resolutions passed by the late Colored State Convention. The late hour at which they appear may be accounted for from the fact that our columns have been under constant pressure for several weeks:

Resolved, That we sincerely mourn the early demise of the soldier-statemans, Hon. Secretary Rawlins, with condolence for the bereaved family.

Resolved, That we regard the administration of President Ulysses S. Grant as comprehensive in the nation's wants, economical in its monetary affairs, and that it has gained the admiration of its friends and challenges the respect of its enemies.

Resolved, That we reccommend to the colored people of the State to enter into the popular movement of forming labor unions and organizing in the counties co-operative protective labor and trade associations, which will add to the elevation and protection of the industrial classes.

Resolved, That we reccommend the 4th day of November in each year as an annual emancipation day, and request the colored citizens of the counties to meet with the citizens of Baltimore on Thursday, the 4th day of November next, to celebrate the grand, eventful day when the ligatures were stricken from our languishing limbs.

Resolved, That after a thorough investigation into the politics of the city and State we find no traces whatever of a "Chase movement," and therefore give to the public the benefit of our investigation, feeling that the report was merely created for political capital.

Resolved, That we warn the colored Republicans in the several counties of the State against the machinations and sophistry of those colored men who are busying themselves traveling through the State and speaking in order to disorganize and mislead the colored republicans. These disorganizers are not paid by a generous government to divide the ranks of colored republicans, but as servants to attend to its business.

Resolved, That we regret that the divisions in the white republican ranks still continue, and hope that some plan may be soon adopted which will make them a unit; and we exhort the colored republicans to a strict adherence to the advanced principles of republicanism, and to permit no divisions to enter their ranks.

Resolved, That it is the duty of every colored family in this city and the counties of the State to use every exertion in their power to send their children to day school, and we also strictly advise them to habits of temperance, industry and refinement as exceedingly necessary to respect and good citizenship, all of which qualify them to occupy future positions which may be opened to them.

Tribute of Respect.

At a meeting of the members of the bar, on Monday week, Hon. John M. Robinson in the chair, and Jno. D. Kemp, Esq., secretary, a committee, consisting of Robt. J. Jump, Saml. Hambleton and Geo. M. Russum, Esqs., was appointed to prepare resolutions expressive of their sorrow at the demise of D. Blocksom, Esq. The following are the resolutions:

Whereas, since the last session of the Circuit Court for Caroline County, it hath pleased an All-wise Providence to remove from among us our fellow member, David Blockson; And Whereas, the Court and Bar deem it proper to express their sense of the bereavement, therefore

Resolved, That the Court and Bar deplore the death of their esteemed brother, David Blocksom.

Resolved, That the strict integrity, kindliness and urbane conduct of the deceased during his association with them, greatly endeared him to his fellow members of the bar.

Resolved, That the members of this meeting deeply sympathize with the family of the deceased in their great bereavement.

Resolved, That the Court be requested to cause a copy of these resolutions to be entered on the minutes.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the said deceased, and that they be also published in the papers of Denton.

The Byron Scandal.

A CARD FROM MRS. STOWE—SHE WILL WRITE ANOTHER ARTICLE.

Mrs. Stowe has published the following in the Hartford (Conn.) Courant:

"Mrs. Stowe desires the friends of justice and fair dealing to publish for her this announcement: That she has kept silent heretofore in regard to the criticisms on her article on Byron, for two reasons: First, because she regarded the public mind as in too excited a state to consider the matter dispassionately, and second, because she has expected the development of additional proofs in England, some of which, of great importance, have already come to hand.

"Mrs. Stowe is preparing to review the whole matter with further facts and more documents, including several letters of Lady Byron to her attesting the vigor and soundness of her mind at the period referred to, and also Mrs. Stowe's own letters to Lady Byron at the same time, which were returned to her by the executors soon after that lady's death. She will also give the public a full account of the circumstances which led her to feel it to be her duty to make this disclosure as an obligation to justice, gratitude, and personal friendship."

THE WILL OF SECRETARY RAWLINS.—The will of General John A. Rawlins was proved and and admitted to probate on Saturday, in the Orphans Court at Washington. President Grant and Mrs. Rawlins, the executors named in the will by the late Secretary of War, appeared and gave bond in the sum of $20,000 for the faithful execution of its provisions. The will is brief. First, he bequeaths to his wife and children the house and lot in Washington; second, certain lots of land in Cheyenne and Golden City, Wyoming Territory; third, he gives his law library to his son, James Bradner Rawlins; fourth, he bequeaths to his father and mother certain lots of land in the town of Guilford, Illinois, to be used by them as a home during their natural lives, and at their death it is equally divided between his brother and sister. He appoints President Grant and Mrs. Rawlins guardians of his children during their minority. The will is wittnessed by General John E, Smith, Hon. Eli S, Parker, and Hon. J. D. Cox. The President and Mrs. Rawlins gave bond in the sum of $20,000 as executors with Messrs. John H. Johnson and L. G. Hine as sureties. The executors are appointed guardians of the children.

Colored Children Recognised as Heirs of a White Man—$100,000 Involved.

Before Judge Bramhall, of the Hustings-Court, yesterday, Samuel Shippen, Esq., of the Philadelphia bar, moved that Lee George, of Philadelphia, be allowed to qualify as administrator of the estate of the late Wm. O. George, of Richmond, who died in September last. Lee George, who was present when the motion was made, is an intelligent and well educated colored man, apparently about twenty-three years of age and claims to be the son of the deceased by Caroline Jackson, a colored woman, born out of wedlock, but subsequently legitimized according to the laws of Pennsylvania, and recognized as a child.

Mr. George was a well known citizen of Richmond, who died intestate, owning at the time real estate in the city valued at about $100,000. The petitioner claimed that the deceased had two children by his connection with Caroline Jackson—himself and a sister named Adelade George. Wishing her to be better provided for than she could be at the South, and desiring to give his children a complete education, he took them to Philadelphia several years before the war. There they have since resided, and been well cared for at an expense of about one thousand two hundred dollars per annum to Mr. George, and receiving constant proofs of his affection, not only on the occasions when he went North to visit them, but also by a correspondence almost uninterrupted. It is also claimed that in April last the deceased put into execution a long-cherished plan of marrying the mother of his children, and claiming them publicly as his own, and that since that time he on various occasions acknowledged the near relationship.

In support of these claims and the motion referred to above, Mr. Shippen and his legal associates, Messrs. Holladay and White, presented a certificate in the form prescribed by the laws of Pennsylvania, and signed by a Philadelphia alderman duly authorized to perform the ceremony, setting forth that on the 21st of April, 1869, William Orville George was legally married to Caroline Jackson, a woman of color, particularly described as being very dark.

William Johnson, who has known Mr. George in Richmond and Philadelphia, was then called, and testified that he was present at the marriage on the 21st of April, of Adelade, and Mr. Willemer on the 22d.—He also identified a portrait exhibited in court as a likeness of Mr. George.

Lee George was also sworn, and testified that he was present at the marriage. Mr. George lived with his mother at various times before and after the marriage, and always recognized the witness and his sister as his children. Witness had a child named after him. William Orville George.

At this point the counsel were about to introduce other letters, but the Court said further evidence was unnecessary, and ordered that Lee George be allowed to qualify as the administrator (his mother having resigned the right in his favor), and fixed the penalty of the bond at $3,000

It is understood that the title to the real estate of the deceased will be made a subject of the suit at law.

HON. HORACE GREELEY AND THE NEW YORK COMPTROLLERSHIP.—Horace Greeley, as has been heretofore stated, has been nominated by the Republicans of New York for Comptroller of the Treasury of that State.—In his letter accepting the nomination Mr. Greeley says:

You do not need to be told that I did not want the nomination any more than I expected it, and that I do not desire the office. But I clearly comprehend that political life has its responsibilities and its duties as well as its opportunities and its honors, and I accept without hesitation, thanking you for the faith you have evinced in my devotion to the Republican cause. I trust that some friend may be able to say with truth at my grave that my political friends never were asked by me for any favor, and never required of me any honorable service that I did not cheerfully render.

HOW TO BE NOBODY.—Young man, it is easy to be nobody. Go to the drinking saloon to spend your leisure. You need not drink much now, just a little beer, or some other drink. In the meantime play dominoes, chequres, or something else to consume time that you will be sure not to read any useful book; or if you do read, let it be the "dime novels" of the day. Thus go on keeping your stomach full, head empty, and yourself playing time-killing games, and in a few years you'll be no-body, unless you should turn out a drunkard or a professional gambler, either of which is worse than to be nobody.

CONVICTED AND SENTENCED.—Wm. Coleman, who recently robbed the dwelling of Postmaster Creswell, in Cecil county, Md., was tried at Elkton last week, convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for ten years.
