Town and County Intelligence.

THE Orphans' Court for Caroline county will meet on Tuesday, November 16th.

WANTED—Those indebted to us to pay up at once.

COMPLETED—The new index for the county records.

COME—Cold weather, and with it the loafers to our office.

MOVED OFF.—The dwelling which adjoined the store of Mr. M. Chilton, at the bridge, has been moved off a few feet to the rear.

DISCONTINUED.—The steamboat between Crisfield and Norfolk, which was run in connection with the Delaware railroad, has been withdrawn.

SOME HOG.—Col. R. C. Carter has a hog, 28 months old, which weighs, on the hoof, 865 pounds. If any one can beat this hog, let them "put in an appearance."

SELLING OFF.—Miss Mollie Postlethwaite, intending to discontinue the millinery business in Denton, is selling off her goods at cost. Here is a chance for bargains.

A SUGGESTION.—We suggest that either the name of Marydel or Halltown be dropped, and that the town now known by both names be known only by one. Strangers are apt to be confused, and often put at a great inconvenience, by towns being known by two names.

THE "BALTIMORE."—The old locomotive "Baltimore," employed for so long a time in drawing trains, both passenger and gravel, over the Md. & Del. R. R., and which blew out some months since below Ridgely, has been repaired and taken over to the Kent and Queen Anne's road to be used once more in drawing construction trains.

OPENED.—The Dorchester & Del. railroad was formally opened on Monday last, and trains are now running regularly to and from Cambridge. We congratulate our friends in the lower part of the county upon the increased facilities for travel which this road affords, and trust its opening will date a new era in the history of their progress.

ICE.—Ice formed to the thickness of window glass on the ditches and ponds around town on Sunday night last. Monday being very cool, it thawed but little, and doubled itself in thickness the night following. At a late hour on Tuesday morning ice was quite plentiful along the river's edge. An early closing up of navigation is predicted.

LAND SALES.—The Mancha Bros. send the following:

The farm of Professor Vosmus, of 30 acres, near Denton, to N. Lord, of Sullivan county, N. Y., for $1,000.

Eben Wyatt's farm, near Templeville, containing 100 acres, to Joseph Hummer, of Chemung county, N. Y., for $2,900.

CRANBERRIES.—The cultivation of this crop is not wholly neglected in this county, though not so extensive as it might be. In the Third district are a few bogs, and these generally amply remunerate their owners.—Mr. Jas. Butler has a bog on one of the branches of Fowling Creek, and it has this year yielded a crop. Two bushels were sold in this town to Mr. Wm. Fell at $4.50 per bushel. This is what we call turning waste and untillable land to good advantage.

SIGNIFICANT.—An estimate shows that, from the 6th of November, 1867, to the 20th of October, 1869, the sum of $482,383.14 was sent over the Md. & Del. R. R. per the Adam's Express Company. Is it any wonder, then, that money is so scarce down this way? And yet this is but one medium by which money is sent away to other parts of the country. Could we give the exact amount sent away by the various mediums of transportation, we would present a most astounding aggregate. Is not the figures above given a most cogent reason why manufactories of different kinds should be established amongst us?

THEIR SINS HAVE FOUND THEM OUT.—Two colored men—Wash. Cummins and Major Smith—are in Denton jail, charged with the robbery of Mr. F. A. Sisk's restaurant and the butchering of Mr. Fred. Fountain's best porker, both of which have been noticed in these columns. Smith, however, is held only upon Cummins' evidence, which is worthless, and will probably be released in a few days. Nevertheless it is evident that Cummins was not the only actor in one case, and suspicion points strongly to other parties as accomplices, but whose arrest has been deferred that the evidence might be more fully developed. Since his arrest, Cummins has confessed to the killing of the hog, but stoutly denies any knowledge of the robbery of Mr. Sisk's restaurant. There is but little doubt of his guilt in this case, since the bottles, demijohn and a coat taken from the restaurant were seen by John Dyer, a colored man, to whose house the stolen articles were taken. Cummins desired to make this place his headquarters for the night, but being drunk this privilege was denied him, and Dyer was in the act of throwing out his sack when he espied the stolen articles. This discovery led to the arrest of Cummins.

AID FOR THE INEBRIATE ASYLUM.—Mrs. R. M. Tylor and Misses Rebecca A. Dunning and Rachael B. Satterthwaite have been appointed a committee to solicit subscriptions in aid of the Inebriate Asylum, of Baltimore. The object of this Asylum—the reformation of drunkards—is a most laudable one, and we trust that the appeal of the Directors for aid will not have been made in vain.

ANOTHER CHANGE.—On Monday next, another change will be made in the running of the trains of the Md. & Del. R. R. The road being in running order to Easton, trains will commence running to and from that point on and after that date, leaving Easton at 9 o'clock, A. M. For the present, connection with the morning train on the Delaware railroad, at Clayton, is abandoned, and passengers will be again subjected to a delay of two hours in going to, and one in returning from, the city. So soon as practicable, however, two trains will be put upon the road, and connection will be made with the morning train as formerly.

ORPHANS' COURT PROCEEDINGS.—The following business was transacted by the Orphans' Court at its session of Tuesday:

Letters of administration granted to Denward Hughes, colored, on the estate of Mary E. Webb, colored, deceased. Letters testamentary to Jno. W. Atkinson, on the estate of Thos. Atkinson, deceased.

Denward Hughes, guardian to Jas. R. and Francis Webb, passed 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th guardian accounts.

Lizzie B. Tilghman, administratrix of Tench F. Tilghman, passed 1st account of administration. This estate is solvent.

Jno. W. Scott, trustee for the sale of the real estate of Tench F. Tilghman, passed 1st and final account of trusteeship. Balance ordered to be paid to administratrix for the benefit of the creditors.

Anna Shields and Hy. Wilson, executors of Jas. Shields, deceased, passed list of spirit debts and 1st and final account of administration.

Accounts of sales passed—by Isaac Pool and Francis Friend on the estate of Gabriel Friend; and by Wm. H. Austin on the estate of John Parker.

Order to sell personal estate of Ezekiel Smith granted to Benjamin Conner, admr.

BEING DELIVERED.—The proprietors of the Choptank Nurseries are now, and have been for a couple of weeks, busily engaged in delivering the trees sold by their agents during the summer and early fall. So successful have these agents been that the greater part, if not all, of some varieties of the stock will be exhausted. The demand for apple and peach trees has been very great, and the smaller varieties of fruit have not been a drug on the market. This evinces a more wide-spread popularity than is usually attained by young nurseries, and is indisputable evidence of the honesty and fidelity which characterizes the proprietors in their business transactions. Great credit is due to Mr. J. W. Kerr, the junior member of the firm, especially, since it was mainly through his assiduous attention and judicious management that these nurseries have been elevated to the exalted standard they have.—Possessing a thorough knowledge of the business and a stout heart and willing hand, he has put his whole mind, time and strength into the cultivation and preparation of the trees, &c., for market, and to this source may be attributed the healthy and vigorous appearance which his trees present. We learn that it is the intention of the proprietors to engage in the business upon even a larger scale the coming year.

Marriages.
