DENTON, MARYLAND:

THURSDAY MORNING:.....January 13, 1870.

THE LEGISLATURE of New York has withdrawn the assent of that State to the Fifteenth Amendment, given by a former legislature, the record of which is on file at the department of the Secretary of State at Washington. Of course this action of the Legislature amounts to nothing, although Democrats pretend to believe that it will annul the previous action of the Legislature. The whole matter will be settled, however, upon the reassembling of Congress by the passage of Senator Williams' bill, expressly declaring the inability of any State Legislature to withdraw the assent of such State to the ratification of a Constitutional Amendment when that assent shall have once been obtained.

THE FIRST MESSAGE of Gov. Bowie to the Legislature was sent into that body immediately after its organization. The document is exceedingly lenghty, able in some respects and very weak in others. The crowded state of our columns excludes the message, or even a synopsis of it. The most important feature in it is the finances, and this can be briefly told. The aggregate revenue of the State is $3,484,641.59, and the disbursements are $3,039,301.18, leaving a balance in the treasury of $445,340.41. This amount, however, is not in the treasury, since the Baltimore & Ohio R. R. has refused to pay over to the State the amount claimed as capitation tax on passengers over the Washington branch of said road, and the Governor has had to borrow $200,000 to pay current demands on the State.

The funded debt of the State is stated to be $12,692,938, but the State holds stocks and bonds on which interest and dividends are realized, to the amount of $7,228,413, leaving an actual debt of $5,464,525.

THE LEGISLATURE convened at the State Capital on yesterday week, but nothing was done beyond the organization of the two houses and the reading of the Governor's message to each. The House adjourned on Thursday until Tuesday and the Senate on Friday until the same day.

The following is a list of the officers of each house:

SENATE.—President—Barnes Compton, of Charles.

Secretary—Augustus Gassaway of Anne Arundel.

Reading Clerk—W. Hiss, of Baltimore city.

Door-keeper—Jno. Williams, of Washington county.

Sergeant-at-arms—Col. J. Blackiston, of St. Mary's.

HOUSE.—Speaker—Frederick C. Latrobe, of Baltimore city.

Chief Clerk—Milton Y. Kidd of Cecil.

Sergeant-at-arms—Chas. G. Worthington, of Howard.

Door-keepers—Jas. Stanton, Baltimore city; Saml. Robinson, Baltimore county.

A RE-UNION of the Methodist churches seems to be by no means improbable at an early day. The decided action of the Methodist Episcopal Church last year with reference to the laity question, and the extinguishment of slavery, has removed the cause of the scisms, and nothing now remains to bring about a consolidation of all the Methodist Churches except a forgetting and forgiving spirit, and a disposition on the part of the extremists to harmonize the elements they have so long kept at variance. The New York Methodist truly says: "They who went "from us preach the same word which we "preach; have the same evangelizing spirit; "use the same appliances and rejoice in the "name which is common to us all. In order "to union no doctrinal disputes have to be "composed—no new definitions of articles of "faith to be made. We have only to forget "and to forgive." Could this spirit but be infused into all Methodists, we should soon witness a re-union more grand than that effected by the Presbyterians last year, and one calculated to be more beneficial to the world inasmuch as this denomination is more numerous and influential.

ON the 21st of December, the House promptly settled the Georgia question, by passing the bill as it came from the Senate. The decision of Congress, in a nutshell, is this: It recognizes the present Governor of Georgia. It recognizes the Legislature of Georgia elected under Gen Meade's proclamation of June 25, 1868. It ignores the action of that Legislature subsequent to the admission of members who failed to take the Test Oath, and the exclusion of legally elected members because of color, and requires a reorganization on the basis originally prescribed—all members being compelled to take the Test Oath, the exclusion of any on account of race or color being expressly forbidden, and proper penalties being provided for perjury in the one case, or violence in the other. Beyond this, the measure only requires that the Legislature shall ratify the Fifteenth Amendment proposed to the Constitution of the United States, before Senators or Representatives are admitted to seats in Congress. This action we may now look for speedily, and it is not too much to hope that within the next two months, or even less time, Georgia will be again represented in both branches of Congress.

—The Message of Governor McClurg to the Missouri Legislature recommends the removal of political disabilities, the submission to the people of a negro suffrage proposition, and the striking out of the State Constitution what is known as the double liability clause.

IN his message to the Legislature, Gov. Bowie announces to the world that there is not enough money in the State Treasury to meet the expenses of the Legislature, and that that body will have to provide the means for the payment of its members.—Broke again! Some day maybe the people will perceive the necessity of expelling the Democratic cormorants from power. This is the only course for the salvation of the State.

THE AMERICAN FARMER for January comes to us changed in form from an octavo to a quarto, and greatly enlarged. Its proprietorship is also changed, Mr. Frank Lewis being now its sole owner and manager. The Farmer has been published since 1819, and its usefulness is therefore attested by half a century's prosperity. We wish it the continued success its merits deserve. Published in Baltimore, at $1.50 per annum.

—Cambridge wants a daily boat to Baltimore to run in connection with the cars.

CECIL COUNTY.

—Extra meetings are in progress at the Elkton M. E. Church.

—Mrs. Heath, living near Elkton, was robbed of $100 on Thursday last.

—At the railroad meeting in Elkton last week a draft of the charter of the new railroad was submitted and approved, and instructions given to lay the matter before the Legislature at an early day. Nothing further can be done until the charter is obtained.

He estimates that his scheme would add about 25,000 persons to the population of Nevada.

—Brigham Young is very much excited about the proposed action of Congress concerning the Mormons. He is reported as advocating armed resistance should Representative Cullom's bill become a law.

—Hon. Onslow Stearns has been nominated by the Republicans of New Hampshire for Governor of that State.

EXECUTIVE MANSION.—The new Mansion was occupied by the Governor and family on Tuesday last. The few private rooms ready for immediate use have been furnished mostly by the furniture formerly in use in the old Governor's Mansion, which was sold to the United States for the use of the Naval Academy. The building and grounds have cost some $141,000. The iron railing, etc., will be an additional expense, while an appropriation by the State will be required to furnish the public apartments of the house and meet the expenses already incurred, as the former sum appropriated was only $100,000. The mansion, both in its surface and inside appointments, without exhibiting extravagance, is in keeping with modern taste, improvements and ideas, and is highly creditable to the public spirit of the State, and is, in point of attraction, an addition to the city of Annapolis, of which its citizens may well be proud of.—Annapolis Republican.
