A RADICAL REVOLUTION

Has been accomplished in hair dyes. The horrible compounds containing LEAD, SALT and SULPHUR are discarded. The leading chemists implore the public not to use them, and Professor Chilton, whose reputation is second to that of no analytical chemist in America, has recommended as a PERFECTLY INNOCUOUS ARTICLE, which may be used without fear. Remember, it is the only one that has been analyzed and found wholesome. Its effects are instantaneous and the colors it imparts natural.

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye,

CRISTADORO'S HAIR PRESERVATIVE, as a Dressing, acts like a charm on the Hair after Dyeing. Try it. [mar17-1m.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the organs of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says Brandreth's Pills cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended Brandreth's Pills as a specific in Yellow Fever, that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities.

The Editor's Hash.

THIS is spring and spring weather.

GARDENING has been begun in this town.

THE colored people will hold a festival at Harmony on the 16th prox.

COURT begins on Monday week, but our need of money began some time ago.

J. W. BRYANT is building a balloon-frame tenant house on his lot near the Enterprise Mills.

THE fellow that sang, "Come, Gentle Spring," won't have to do so any more, as spring has come unbidden.

HENDERSON Lodge numbers 166 members, and is said to be the most flourishing lodge of Good Templars in the county.

THE Baltimore City Council has refused to endorse the bonds of the Queenstown & Harrington Railroad. Also the Kent Railroad.

THE NEW ORGAN for the M. E. church has been received, and it is expected will be in position in the Church in time for Sunday Mornings' services.

A CORRESPONDENT at Greensborough notices marked improvement in a young man who swallowed a cup a few nights ago while taking a dose of red pepper tea.

IT is a bad sign when a preacher tries to drive home his logic by thumping the desk violently with his clenched hand. His arguments are so-fist-ical.

[illegible]AKES have been driven along the side of the causeway. This has been done, we presume, to indicate the location of the causeway when the tide is over, which occurs quite frequently of late.

THE bill for the division of the Denton district into two has passed the lower House of the Legislature. Are our Democratic friends right sure that this division will not give the Black-Republicans a majority in one of the districts? Be careful!

A CHANCE FOR THE LADIES.—An opportunity is afforded the ladies on Monday next to procure dress goods at auction.—Messrs Garey & Millington have set apart that day for their especial benefit. See advertisement elsewhere.

ORPHANS' COURT PROCEEDINGS.—Mary Jane Hoff, executor of Wm. W. Hoff passed inventory of deceased's personal estate.

Chas. E. Jarrell, guardian to Luther T. Williams and Ella Williams, presented 9th account of guardianship.

M. P. CONFERENCE APPOINTMENTS.—The Annual Conference of the M. P. Church, which closed its sessions at Westminster on Thursday last, made the following appointments for this county:

Caroline Circuit—Saml. Clawson.
Choptank Mission—W. G. Holmes..

ALL the enterprising business men seem to be resuming "specie payments," and not wishing to be behind in anything having a progressive tendency, we propose to "follow suit," by making no difference between greenbacks and specie for subscription to the UNION. Those having doubts about our good faith need only try us to be satisfied.

PEACH PROSPECTS.—We have conversed with a number of peach growers who all represent that there is a prospect for an abundant crop of peaches this season. The buds are not only very plenty on the trees but so far have not been in the least injured. The late cold weather has so retarded the opening of the buds that but little danger is apprehended from cold late in the season.

WORK RESUMED.—Work has been resumed upon the new vessel at the bridge, the keel of which was laid during last year. The timbers are all fitted and in position, and soon the work of planking will be begun. We understand this craft is to be christened "Shoo Fly." The work is being done under the superintendence of that most skilled ship-builder—Thos. S. Marvel—and this is a guarantee of what the boat will be when completed.

A SAD AFFAIR.—We learn that the wife of Rev. Wm. McFarlane, of the M. E. Conference, late of Halltown, but at this time visiting her parents at Duck Creek, rose from her bed sometime on Wednesday night, and after wrapping up her child, with which she had been confined about a week, escaped through a window and wandered off in the direction of Duck Creek. She was found about 3 o'clock Thursday morning, thinly clad, lying against a log, in Denney's mill race, in a state of unconsciousness and her lower limbs frozen to the bone. She was at once tenderly cared for, but it is thought cannot recover.—Delawarean.

LEAGUE MEETING.—The various colored Loyal Leagues of this county will meet in County Meeting at Boonsville on Monday, the 18th of April next. Speakers from a distance will be present. The colored people everywhere are invited to be present; and a cordial invitation is extended to all white people, whose inclination or desires may prompt them to also attend.

A WORD WITH OUR PATRONS.—The spring term of our court will bring many of the citizens from different parts of the county, who are subscribers to this paper, to this town. We urge upon them the convenience and opportunity of the time to call and settle their several bills. If you cannot come yourselves, send by some one who is coming. We are greatly in need of money now, and will deem it a great favor if our friends will call and settle their bills.

RUNAWAY.—Whilst Mr. Chas. Shields and his brother-in-law, Mr. Irons, of Church Hill, were proceeding homeward on Saturday afternoon last, their horse became frightened and shyed to the roadside, throwing Mr. Shields from the buggy. The horse then started off in a run, and Mr. Irons jumped out, leaving the horse to go whithersoever its inclination might lead it. The buggy was very badly damaged, but neither Mr. Shields nor Mr. Irons were hurt.

ARM BROKEN.—A little boy, son of Mr. Jesse Collins, was riding on Tuesday afternoon of last week on the front of a wagon, drawn by a pair of mules which, becoming frightened, shyed to the road side. The front wheel of the wagon coming in contact with a stone, the boy was thrown forward in the road, and one of the wheels passing over his arm produced a fracture of the bone.—Dr. Hignutt was promptly summoned and rendered the necessary surgical assistance.—The little fellow at last accounts was doing well.

DISLOCATED SHOULDER.—John Raughley, son of Mr. Robert Raughly, Kent County, Del., while practicing some equestrian feats on his young horse on Tuesday of last week, was suddenly and violently thrown to the ground In the fall he attempted to save himself by his right arm. This, receiveing the force of the fall, was dislocated at the shoulder joint, Dr. Tarr was called and the dislocatio reduced. John seems to be unlucky in respect to accidents of this characr, the same shoulder having suffered injury on two former occasions.

COLORED SABBATH SCHOOL.—The colored M. E. Society of this town have a very interest sabbath school. It assembles weekly in their church, and numbers some fifty members. Although organized in November last it has a very good library, and the scholars manifest considerable proficiency in reading. We learn that the other branch of the colored people—the Bethelites—will open a school next Sunday. The hours of meeting are the same as the white people's, and the ringing of the bell on the M. E. Church is the signal for the opening of the school.

RUNAWAY AND ACCIDENT.—On Thursday last, whilst Messrs. Geo. M. Russum and A. J. Gadd were riding along the road in the direction of the railroad, one of the horses, driven by Mr. Gadd, to whom they belonged, became frightened at a lime car and by a sudden jump broke the leather which supports the pole, thus permitting it to fall to the ground. The horse then began to kick, when the occupants of the carriage jumped out. Mr. Russum was kicked upon the hand, but beyond this no injury was sustained by either of the gentlemen named. The horses then ran off, but not until they had freed themselves from the carriage, and badly shattered it by their kicks.

WESTWARD BOUND.—According to the representations of a citizen of Pippin's neighborhood, there is a general exodus of people, both young and old, from that part of the county. Our informant furnishes us with the names of the following persons who have left that neighborhood since the 1st of February, and who have settled in the State of Indiana, Ohio and Minnesota:

COLORED EDUCATIONAL SOCIETY.—The colored people of the 3rd, or Denton, district met at their school house in this town on Thursday last, and proceeded to form an educational society for the district. Richard J. Potter was elected President. Several addresses were delivered by both white and colored people, and we feel assured that such an impetus was given to the cause of education as will bring forth fruit. Heretofore only those children who paid a stipulated sum each month could attend the school, but this was overcome by the meeting of Thursday, and the school is now thrown open to all colored children. The rules of the Kent County, Md., society were adopted, and the association is directed by the Society for the Moral and Intellectual Advancement of the Colored People, of Baltimore city.

THE CHOPTANK NURSERIES.—The advertisement of these nurseries, elsewhere published, is of special importance to the readers of THE UNION at this time. The encroachments of itinerant tree venders upon their trade and the misrepresentations resorted to by such persons has brought forth an advertisement from the proprietors which we hope none of our readers will fail to notice. They have materially reduced their prices upon the leading stock, and it is now within the reach of all. And beside the price, there is another matter of deep consideration to those who desire to purchase fruit trees, viz: that in buying from this nursery no dealing is had with deceptious and irresponsible parties. The junior member of the firm has devoted his entire life to this business, and everything in the nursery is propagated in the most approved manner, and with the greatest care, under his personal supervision. They procure none but reliable agents, and our friends at a distance may rely upon getting just what is represented to them. Buy once, and we feel sure you will never leave these nurseries to buy at any other.

GENERAL STAMPEDE.—A returned Minister from the Conference at Port Deposit informs us it was currently rumored there that there was a general stampede of the chickens, turkeys and other fowls from Cecil county into Pennsylvania when that body assembled. The fowls are represented as running with heads down, and crape upon their tails. A laughable incident is related, though in this case the poultry did not leave the premises, owing, probably to the fact it had no means of escape except into the Susquehanna. A half-dozen preachers put up at the house of a gentleman whom we will call Mr. A——. As soon as the preacher's set foot upon the premises, the entire flock of poultry darted under houses, hid in woodyards, and wherever else shelter was afforded. Soon, however, the ministers were summoned to attend Conference, and as soon as they were fairly out of the house, one old rooster returned cautiously out, and after peering around him flapped his wings and jubilantly exclaimed: "The preachers have gone! The preachers have gone!!" An old gobbler then stepped out, and looking all around, and as if divining the preachers would return, dolefully sung out, "Doubtful! doubtful!!" and darted under cover again.

LABOR UNION.—We learn that the colored people contemplate the formation of a labor union for this county with headquarters in this town. A meeting for the purpose will shortly be held. The object of such an union we are not prepared to state, but are assured by some of the colored people that it will not conflict with any relationship existing between them and the white race.

The long and deep-rooted antipathy existing in the breasts of a certain class of white people against the colored people should constrain the latter to act cautiously in all things touching the relationship they mutually bear to each other. It would require but little to cause old prejudices to break forth anew, and that would be most deplorable now when that prejudice is fast dying out. Nor is there any one point upon which that class of men are so sensitive as upon that of wages. They are a class of men generally whose feelings and sympathies are measured by the extent to which their pockets are affected. Hence it will be seen that the favors of such men should be a little courted rather than turned aside. The only thing to be guarded is in the establishment of a rate of labor, if that be one of the objects of the union. Wages must decline; gold is tumbling in price, goods are falling in price in the city, and although our merchants at home may keep up the price of goods for a season, they must soon fall in with the "good time coming" and mark down their prices to gold values.—Hence the colored people will have to be careful about establishing a rate of labor—not get their rate too high. Farm labor never did command the wages of factory labor, and of course as much must not be expected now.

We hope the union contemplated will prove of incalculable benefit to those who are originating it and not to them only but to all their race. We trust that their expectations that they will be able by this means to procure themselves homes will be realized, and that the entire thing will ultimate in good.

From Greensborough Sabbath School.

GREENSBOROUGH, March 21, 1870.

The painful incidents of yesterday (Sunday) has cast over our Sabbath School a cloud thick with sadness and sorrow. Death has robbed us of one of our brightest jewels, and, this morning, silently and peacefully she sleeps in the tomb. The burial of our dear sister—LAURA LETTY—was conducted under the auspices of our Sabbath School, the minister and superintendent leading the procession; next the class to which she belonged, draped in mourning; then the corpse, followed by the sorrow-stricken relatives, the remainder of the school taking the rear, making one of the largest and most imposing processions ever witnessed in our town. Short addresses were made by Rev. R. H. Adams, R. Plummer, Superintendent, and R. J. Orrell, her class leader. Almost every eye in the large assembly was bedimned by the tear of sorrow. In recounting the loss we had sustained in the death of one who, by her acts of kindness, love and affection, had won a warm place in the hearts of us all, tears unbidden filled our eyes as we bent over the casket saying, "Farewell, sister Laura, thou wert too sweet a flower for earth; to bloom in immortal youth, God hath seen fit to transplant thee in the garden of Paradise, where no night distills its dews on the air, or frosts yellow the leaves of the tree of life."

Oh! how our hearts go out in sadness as the memory of her life comes back to us—to know with us she is no more! never again will her voice be heard in our Sabbath School. Around the fireside at home her seat is vacant. But, thank God, amid this cloud revelation throws a light that enables us to say, "Her coffin does not contain her; the form we love is there, but the spirit is hovering above us." This we know, that the God who gave her to us for a time has her in his holy keeping, and is pouring on her the boundless riches of his grace.

Though on earth we meet no more,
Yet there is a brighter shore
Where we rest from toil and pain,
There we all shall meet again.

Let us, as a school, aspire to receive the falling mantle as she ascends to glory. While our hearts are torn and bleeding, we would tender the sympathies of the Sabbath School to the afflicted parents, and our prayer is they may realize with us,

Another hand is beckoned on,
Another call is given;
And glows once more with Angel step
The path which leads to heaven.

No paling of the cheek of bloom,
Forewarned us of decay;
No shadow from the silent land,
Fell round our joyous way.

The light of her young life went out,
As sinks behind the west
The glory of a setting star,
So, she retired to rest.

As pure and sweet her fair brow seemed,
As the untrodden snow,
And like the brook's low song, her voice,
Still lingers here below.

We deemed in death she heeded not,
The changing of her sphere,
To give to heaven a shining one
Who walked an angel here.

The blessings of a quiet life,
Fell on us like the dew;
And good thoughts where her footsteps pressed,
Like fairy blossoms grew.

Sweet promptings unto kindest deeds
Were in her very look;
We read her face as one who reads
A true and holy book.

We bow unto our Father's will;
One thought has reconciled;
That He whose love exceeded ours,
Hath taken home his child.

Fold her, O, Father! in thine arms,
And let her henceforth be,
A messenger of love between
Our human hearts and thee.

And grant that she who trembling here,
Distrusted all her powers,
May welcome to her holier home,
The well beloved of ours.
