Town and County Intelligence.

THE Orphans' Court for Caroline county will meet on Tuesday, June 21st.

The Editor's Hash.

—Cherries are on hand.

—Strawberries are about "played."

—Garden bugs and humbugs are thriving.

—The schools close to-morrow until October 1st.

—If you would thrive in business, advertise.

—The causeway was entirely under water on Monday.

—New potatoes are among the delicacies of the season.

—Some of the earlier varieties of wheat are ready for the reaper.

—Capt. Alex. Stewart will move into the new hotel about July 1st.

—The Denton post office has been converted into a money order office.

—A new apportionment of salaries has been made by the School Board.

—Carpentering is carried on over one of the school rooms in Federalsburg.

—Nasby's first letter since his "taking up" at Masten's Corner is published on our first, page.

—J. W. Bryant proposes to build a new residence on the corner of Gay and Second streets.

—The society of Southern Methodists have erected a tent at Boonsborough, which was dedicated on Snnday last.

—Fifty cents will be credited on any subscriber's account who will furnish us, in good condition, a copy of the THE UNION of Dec. 9th, 1869.

—Dorchester says it isready to build a new school-house at Federalsburg whenever the authorities in this county will assist in the enterprise.

A FACT.—Wanamaker and Brown have spent more money and labor on their present stock than any previous one, and yet they manage to keep the prices down.

ABSENT FROM HIS POST.—The editor started yesterday, by invitation, to attend the celebration of the opening of the new Wilmington and Reading Railroad. He will be absent but a few days.

MISSTATEMENT.—Mr. Wm. H. Charles desires us to say that our statement that he had been appointed crier to Esquire Evitts' court was unfounded, and that he would not accept an office under Democratic rule.

HARVEST.—Some of our farmers began cutting their wheat yesterday, but the general harvest will not be on until next week, or the week following. A full crop is despaired of, the late rains having greatly interfered with its maturing.

EXHIBITION.—The Sabbath School connected with the colored M. E. Church will give an exhibition in aid of said church on Wednesday evening next. Tickets of admission, ten cents. A cordial invitation is extended to both white and colored people to be present.

THE QUESTION SETTLED.—Those eminent men, Dr. Jas. Clark, Physician to Queen Victoria, and Dr. Hughes Bennett, say that consumption can be cured. Dr. Wistar knew this when he discovered his now widely known BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, and experience has proved the correctness of his opinion.

CUT HIS LEG.—Whilst a son of Mr. Chalkly Kirby was skinning a log, on Wednesday last, to be used in the frame of a new dwelling, the axe slipped and inflicted an ug'ly wound on the tibia of one of his legs about five inches below the knee. The wound was dressed by Dr. Booth, who pronounces it nothing serious with proper care.

CHICKENS vs. EGGS.—Whilst a clerk in one the stores of this town was engaged in his daily routine of duties last Monday, his attention was attracted by the peeping of a chicken beneath the counter. Search was at once instituted, but no chickens could anywhere be seen. But upon examining a box of eggs which was sitting under the counter, one of the eggs was observed to be slightly broken. This waswrapped up in flannel and put in the sun, and after a short season his chickenship came forth, clad in all the beauty of a fine young chick. The little fellow was at once placed under the charge of a kind nurse, and is doing remarkably well. The egg from which this chicken was hatched was brought into the store on Saturday, after, one would naturally conclude, it had been cast aside by some matron who had despaired of its value. Can anyone tell who was the mother of that chicken?

ODD FELLOW'S CELEBRATION.—Kindred Lodge, 27, and Richland Lodge, 109, have united in a celebration to come off at Greensborough on the 4th of July. Distinguished speakers have been chosen, and a band of music provided. A handsome ring will be voted to the lady who receives the highest number of votes, who will be crowned queen of love and beauty. Cakes with rings will also be sold by the slice. The occasion will be one of great pleasure, and all Odd-Fellows in good standing, all ministers and the public generally are invited. See handbills, printed at this office, for further particulars.

ANTS.—As the ant season is at hand, housewives and others who are troubled with them may probably use the following trap to advantage: Procure a large sponge, wash it well and press it dry which will leave the cells quite open; then sprinkle over it some fine white sugar, and place it where the ants are troublesome. They will soon collect upon the sponge and take up their abode in the cells. It is only necessary to dip the sponge in scalding hot water, which will wash them out dead. Put on more sugar and set the trap for a new haul. The process will soon clear the house of every ant.

Preston Items.

PRESTON, June 10th.

Things in this locality look very promising. Crops of wheat and corn are looking very nice; fruit is generally plentiful.

We have had an abundance of wet weather, and farm operations have been considerably backened by it.

A fair and festival came off at Marsh Creek on the 6th. It was gotton up by the colored people of this neighborhood in aid of their school. Everything was conducted in a good and becoming manner. Quite a number of white gentlemen and ladies were present. Eloquent addresses were made by Col. J. M. McCarter and Jno. Nichols, Esq., urging the colored people to be faitnful to the many duties which have lately devolved upon them; to continue in their good and manly conduct and live as a God-fearing people. Addresses were also made by J. R. Webb, Josiah Adams, W. W. Webb, E. Adams and others, urging the colored people to shake off the sleepy lethargy of slavery and idle habits and make themselves good and useful citizens: to lead sober and industrious lives, and observe that respect which is due their white friends. It has been said, Mr. Editor, by some that the colored man's brains are all in his heels, but if you were to visit this section you'd not think so.

PENSTOCK.

First District Items.

HENDERSON, June 11th, 1870.

Lack of news alone accounts for my long silence; and if I were to wait forsomething of a stirring nature, I am not sure but that a stratum would form over my ink, and my pen become encased with an oxide of steel. So, to prevent such a calamity, I will give you a few local items that have come under my observation since last I wrote.

Just in the immediate vicinity of Henderson, at this time, the principal topic is the probability of crops of wheat, rye and corn being small, owing to the abundance of rain during the last of May and the early part of the present month. For about twelve or thirteen days the rain fell incessantly.—Old Sol scarcely deigned to show his face, and of course corn-fields are beginning to look green—with weeds and grass.

Capt. J. L. Clendenning returned home on the 3d inst from his western tour. He speaks very highly of the section of country through which he passed. He contemplates moving his family out to Illinois in the spring of 1871. This will cause much regret in our midst, as the Capt., by his urbane and gentlemanly deportment, has made many friends in this section. While out he meet with many from old Caroline; among them was Jacob B. Melvin, Wm. D. Roe, Benson Dill, Wm. Dill and others, all of whom he says are doing well. This I am sure their friends will be glad to hear.

Times are somewhat lively at our station, owing to the strawberries being shipped to different markets. I believe that Mr. Thos. Gough is about the most extensive shipper at our place, and, indeed, he has a fine variety of berries. Sold at our station they bring about nine or ten cents a quart.

By-the-by, Mr. Editor, (though a little digression) I have a sentence to give for the benefit of grammarians. I heard it quoted by a gentleman in Marydell a few days ago. He said it was the language of the bible. I thought it strange language, yet, as his remarks were not directed to me, I refrained from saying anything, though I must confess that I wanted to. Here is the sentence: "And he called their name Adam." He said it was a correct and complete sentence. So you see we have some biblical scholars in our neighboring towns—(wonder what version the gentleman uses?)

The Quarterly Association of Good Templars of Queen Anne's county met at Templeville, June 9th. I was present at the public meeting held at night, and had the pleasure of hearing Revs. Aldred, Riday, Duhadway, and Dr. Reynolds, of Hillsboro, as they, in eloquent strains, proceeded to speak in behalf of the temperance reform.

I noticed that corn was looking well in the vicinity of Templeville; Mr. John Daily's is the best I have seen this spring.

On the 9th inst., the heaviest rain of the season passed over our section. Indeed, some think it the heaviest that hasfallen since 1859 or 1860. I, in passing through the neighborhood on the 10th, noticed that many bridges were gone and fields literally flooded.

Mr. Wm. H. Thompson, the very efficient agent at Marydell, contemplates leaving soon for a more lucrative situation in Queen Anne's county, and, of course, speculation is rife as to his successor, though the wish of the community seems to be that Mr. R. F. Ross shall be the successful aspirant. So mote it be.

The Good Templars' will soon take steps toward preparing for the Quarterly Association, which meets in July, at Pippin's M. E. Church. I hope that all the Lodges in our county may be represented, and, Mr. Editor, if you can make it convenient, I extend to you a cordial invitation to be present and partake of the hospitality of the people of Henderson's community.

Letter from Federalsburg.

FEDERALSBURG, June 13th, 1870.

Mr. Editor:—

As I was passing Chestnut Woods schoolhouse, yesterday afternoon, the sabbath-school at that place was holding an out door session. I stopped, and after listening to their really excellent vocal music, invited them to unite with us in a grand sabbath-school pic-nic, to be held at Hurlock's station, on the line of the Dorchester and Delaware R. R., on the coming Fourth of July. After some consultation among the elders, our invitation was accepted. There, in a beautiful grove, the sabbath-schools from Seaford, Wheateley's, Galetown, Cannon's Ferry, Cokesbury, Federalsburg, Bloomery, Concord, Harmony, Preston, Friendship, St. Paul, Washington, New Market, Salem, Cambridge, and others are cordially invited and will doubtless assemble. Good speakers have been secured, and a band of music will be in attendance to enliven the occasion.—Let us heed the old maxim that "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," and give the little folks and grown up toilers in the vineyard a day of rational recreation.—Come out with badges and banners, if you have them, and especially with baskets of good things—ham, bread, cake, etc., etc., and we will shake hands, compare notes and exchange greetings this side of the river.—If the day proves fine the attendance will be large.

To return to Chestnut Woods. This neighborhood is improving rapidly. Many industrious and good citizens from the North have settled here, and harmonizing with the natives, thus mutually modify each other's views. An improved civilization has resulted. Evidences of rapid improvement in the agriculture and manners of lhe people are visible. They evidently heed the admonition, "work while it is day, for the night cometh when no man can work."—Your correspondent recalls to mind the state of things twenty years syne. The primitive habits of the people; the absence of good public roads; the blind, muddy ways over which we floundered, got lost and stuck fast; the creaking old gates which beset our way at every turn and at which we shivered on cold, rainy days, uttering maledictions upon their authors, aiders and abettors. To the enterprise and energy of the present Register of Wills, Mr. Wm. Loockerman, this neighborhood and the public generally are largely indebted for the many new roads which have been built in the region under consideration. He built the most of them and for small compensation, encountering much opposition. He, nevertheless, in the language of Mr. Lincoln, "kept pegging away," and behold the result—a neighborhood accessible to mills, churches, villages, post offices, schools, &c.

In this connection I will remark that those croakers who oppose public roads are mistaken men, to say the least of it, and richly deserve being colonized to themselves, where they could enjoy the luxuries of gates, deep ruts and mud to their heart's content. I should enjoy seeing them "heaving a strain," as the sailors say, to get out of a miry puddle immensely. Let them cease their unreasonable clamor and be more public spirited, lest they receive marching orders for the new colony of old fogies.

MORE ANON.

Tribute of Respect.

HENDERSON LODGE No. 66, I. O. G. T., June 11th 1870.

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God in his infinite wisdom to remove from our midst our dear brother Zebedee Morgan, who was a faithful laborer with us in the Temperance reform, be it therefore

Resolved, That, while bowing in humble submission to the inexorable decree, we will cherish the hope of meeting with our brother beyond the "rock waste and the river."

Resolved, That in the demise of Bro. Morgan our Lodge has lost a kind brother and the community an esteemed citizen.

Resolved, That, as a token of respect, we will drape our Lodge in mourning, and the members wear the usual badge, for the space of 20 days.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the relatives of the deceased, and one to the Editor of the "American Union" and "Denton Journal" for publication.

NOTICE.

At a meeting of the board of School Commissioners, May 31st, it was ordered that the Public Schools of the county be closed from June 17th till October 1st.

The Board deeply regret this suspension of the schools for one month and a half, but the want of means to carry them through this period of time is their apology. It is hoped the patrons of the respective school districts will endeavor to keep their schools open until the close of the summer term. The arrangement of the terms for the year is:

Fall	Term from Oct. 1st	to Dec. 15th.
Winter	" " Dec. 16th	to Feb. 28th.
Spring	" " Mar. 1st	to May 15th.
Summer	" " May 16th	to July 31st.

The District School Commissioners will be mindful to employ teachers for the fall term.
