—A valuable horse belonging to Mr. David Lank, of South Milford, died in Greensborough on Wednesday night last. The horse was driven from Milford to Greensborough that day.

LARGE APPLES.—We have received from Mr. J. W. Bradley, of Preston, two very fine apples, weighing respectably 18 and 17 ounces. We do not know the variety, but it must be an excellent one. The apples are perfect in shape, and as beautiful as any we ever beheld.

WE ARE GLAD TO SEE THAT PEOPLE in our county can appreciate real merit. Mr. Patroni has found himself ever busy in disposing of the American Sewing Machine, having sold twenty-nine during the last month in this county alone. We advise all our readers to take this chance for furnishing themselves with a Sewing Machine.

SAD DETHRONEMENT OF REASON.—Wm. T. Sorden, a young man of good moral character and generous disposition, son of Mr. William Sorden, residing near Townsend's X Roads, one of our oldest and most respectable citizens, became partially deranged on Thursday last, since which time he has continued to grow worse, and fears are entertained lest he become hopelessly insane.—For a number of years Mr. Sorden has been a consistent member of the Methodist Church, and on Wednesday night last he was attending a revival meeting at Wesley's, taking a conspicuous part in the exercises, where he overtaxed his physical ability, thus superinducing the sad calamity which has befallen him. Throughout the next day he complained of feeling very badly, and the following night he grew worse, alarming the family with whom he resided—Danl. Jump's—who sent for a physician. Drs. Tarr & Straughn applied the usual remedies, but he continued to grow worse, his strength all the while failing him, until Monday, when his muscles relaxed and his strength began to return. But his reason was still dethroned, without the least indication of a return at any future time. He is perfectly docile in his derangement, and evinces no desire to harm or molest any one. This is a sad case of mental dethronement, and we, in conjunction with our whole community, deeply deplore the affliction which has come upon his gray-hired and venerable sire and REMOVAL.—It will be seen by reference to his advertisement that our friend, Mr. Cassidy, jeweller, has removed his store from 12 South 2nd street to No. 8 South 2nd st., only a few doors below Market. His stock of jewelry and silverware is very large and beautiful, and his prices are very moderate. Call and see him.

ATTEMPTED OUTRAGE IN DORCHESTER COUNTY.—The Baltimore papers make mention of a case of attempted outrage upon the person of a young white lady, aged about 17 years, the daughter of one of the most respectable citizens of the county, residing near Crotcher's Ferry, by a colored man named Lewis, alias William Cornish. The villain was caught in the lady's room, tied and conveyed to Cambridge, where he was securely imprisoned in the county jail. It is said this is the third attempt of the kind this monster has committed.

COLORED VOTE OF THE COUNTY.—The following table exhibits the total number of colored voters in this county as registered last week:

1st	District,	100
2nd	"	187
3rd	"	291
4th	"	146
5th	"	56
Total vote		780

The above is very nearly the full number of colored voters in this county. Some few failed to regester, by reason of their own negligence, but this number would not swell the aggregate much over 100.

REMEMBER!—The committee to draft a constitution and by-laws for the government of the Farmers' Club, about to be organized for this district, will meet at 10½ o'clock, A. M. on Saturday next, and the committee on permanent organization will meet at 1½ o'clock, P. M., the same day. The members of the first mentioned committee are T. H. Kemp, Wm. S. Ridgely, C. S. Dickerman, Dr. C. E. Tarr, Jas. E. Hignutt, Elias Williamson and Josiah White; of the second committee, J. W. Bryant, J. W. Saulsbury, Sylvester Smith, Thos. Butler, Moses F. Towns, Robt. J. Jump, J. W. Kerr and Josiah White.—We hope all these gentlemen will be present punctually at the time named, and will discharge the duty assigned them before the hour of meeting shall arrive. Let life and energy actuate each member of the committees, as well as each member of the association, and the future usefulness and success of the association is assured.

THE LAPIERRE HOUSE.—For several weeks past this house has been undergoing repairs, alterations and additions, but the work is now about completed and the improvements are noticeable. Two porches, one at the front and one at the side, with brick floors, have been added to the building, which relieves it of a portion of the architectural nakedness which it presented on its completion. It has also been thoroughly repainted, which gives it an air of comfort and cleanliness. The dining room has been constructed so as to make room for the kitchen, which has been removed from the basement and now adjoins the dining room. Mr. Fell, the gentlemanly proprietor, seems to have an eye to the comfort of his guests, as well as to his own convenience, and we compliment him upon the marked improvement which his house presents. Having evinced a spirit of enterprise, he should be liberally sustained by the county that that enterprise may be still further manifested in other directions.

The Farmers' Club.

TEMPORARY ORGANIZATION—PERMANENT ORGANIZATION NEXT SATURDAY.

In obedience to a call issued through the county papers of last week, a meeting of the farmers of the Third election district was held at the Court House on Saturday last to organize a Farmers' Club for said district. Josiah White was elected temporary chairman, and J. Marion Emerson, temporary secretary.

On motion a committee of five, consisting of J. W. Bryant, J. W. Saulsbury, Sylvester Smith, Thos. Butler and Moses F. Towns, was appointed to select permanent officers and report the same at the next meeting.—Robt. J. Jump and J. W. Kerr were subsequently added to the committee.

A committee to draft a constitution and by-laws for the government of the club was then appointed, which said committee consisted of Thos. H. Kemp, Wm. S. Ridgely, C. S. Dickerman, Dr. C. E. Tarr and Jas. E. Hignutt. Elias Williamson was added as a member of this committee.

Josiah White was also added to each of the above committees as ex-officio president of the meeting.

A desultory discussion of the merits of a Farmers' Club for the district and an Agricultural Society for the county was then engaged in between Messrs. Kemp, Tarr and Bryant on the one side (that of a Farmers' Club) and Mr. White on the other, but, without coming to any definite conclusion, the whole matter was referred to the Committee on Constitution and By-laws.

Robt. J. Jump was invited, by a unanimous vote of the meeting, to deliver an address at the meeting next succeeding the meeting of Saturday next, the 1st of October.

The capacious medical office of Drs. Tarr and Straughn, as also the Clerk's office, was kindly tendered for the use of the organization, the former of which was accepted.

On motion the meeting adjourned to meet at Drs. Tarr and Straughn's office on Saturday next, at 2½ o'clock, P. M.

JOSIAH WHITE, Pres't.
J. MARION EMERSON, Sec'y.

The Easton Riot.

FULL PARTICULARS OF THE AFFRAY—NO ONE SERIOUSLY HURT.

[From the Easton Gazette.]

On Monday last there were a large number of colored persons in town for the purpose of getting registered, and everything passed off quietly until late in the afternoon, when, about 5 o'clock, a disturbance broke out at the north end of the town between a crowd of some fifty or sixty from miles River Neck and one or two colored, residing in Easton. The crowd having partaken very freely of whiskey, a terrible excitement and furor soon ensued. The baliff attempted to quell the riot, but it had assumed too formidable dimensions for his capacity, and he went for the Sheriff. The Sherff, as he passed along the street, summoned a small posse to assist him; but the crowd was so furious, brought about, we learn from very reliable sources, by some three or four colored men from Easton, who appeared to be determined to provoke a rencounter. After accomplishing their object they left, and it was the object of the Miles River men to punish these parties, for their taunts and jeers, and started in pursuit of them the second time, about the time the Sheriff arrived. The first time they started, by the kind advice of a gentleman who knew one of the most prominent of them, they were dissuaded from their intention, but the effort was renewed and the Sheriff endeavored to prevent it, and a collision took place. The Sheriff took one of the Miles River men under arrest, when his friends made an effort to rescue him, and sticks and bats were freely used upon those having him in charge, and one attempted to use a knife. By this time the posse got in possession of several revolvers and used them pretty freely. At length they reached the jail door, but before the Sheriff could get the door unlocked the man in custody was taken and borne off. About this time a colored man drew a pistol but was shot at with a gun—but we believe with no serious effect. Several shots were fired at them as they passed up West street, in the direction of Miles River road. Another of the party, who is said to have resisted the Sheriff, was afterwards arrested and committed to jail.

We are happy to state that no one was seriously injured.

THE HEARTH AND HOME, a finely illustrated family journal of high character has been sold to Messrs. Orange Judd & Co. publishers of the American Agriculturist, New York.—The new publishers announce a reduction of terms to $3 per year. The change will not at all affect the American Agriculturist, which will continue on independently as heretofore. The illustrations and reading matter of the two journals will be entirely different. Either of the journals will be furnished from now to the end of 1871 (15 months), at the yearly subscription rate, viz: the Weekly Hearth and Home, at $3; the Monthly American Agriculturist, $1.50; or the two for $4.

"HEALING ON THE WINGS," say all who have made use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and by such use been cured of coughs, colds, bronchitis, sore throat, influenza or consumption. The prudent will always keep this standard remedy by them.

And as for beauty—there is nothing in the market to compare with Wanamaker & Brown's Summer Suits. The prices range from $4.00 up, and are warranted the very lowest in the market.

LOBSTEIN'S
QUINTESSENCE OF Jamaica Ginger.

This much esteemed and truly valuable preparation is warranted to possess, in a concentrated form, all the active properties of pure white Jamaica Ginger (the best variety). Thus prepared, the Quintessence will be found, on trial, an excellent Family Medicine at home or abroad, being put up in a very portable form. It is unequalled in purity and strength, and superior to any Ginger in the market.

An admirable remedy for Indigestion, Flatulence, Colic, Cramp and Dyspepsia; an excellent Tonic to persons recovering from fever and other diseases; for a languid or depraved condition of the system during the summer months, and, in southern climates, it will be found invaluable, deserving the favor of travelers as a preventive and dispeller of Sea-sickness, Nervous Headache, Giddiness and Exhaustion arising from excessive fatigue or heat; also, preventing the deleterious effect so often caused by a change of water or diet. The Inebriate, who wishes to reform, will find in this a most valuable aid, as it allays the craving desire for liquor, giving tone to the digestive organs, and strength to resist temptation.
