Brutal Murder—A Woman's head Split open with an Axe.

On Sunday morning, about 7 o'clock, a negro woman named Emeline Handy, living with Mr. F. G. Wright, was found weltering in a gore in the kitchen, where she was engaged in preparing breakfast for the family. The deed was done with an axe or hatchet, and two blows on her head split her scull from front to back, and she must have died in a few minutes after receiving the wound.

It appears that she had been living as wife with a negro man named Frederick Lawrence, but had refused longer to live with him, and on Saturday night ordered him out of the house. He was heard to threaten her life, and told James Hinson that he would kill her. Lawrence was seen by Mr. C. Elliott to go into the kitchen, and in about 15 minutes after he heard the report that Emeline was murdered. When he arrived on the spot she was still breathing, but was speechless. Ann Howard, colored, living with Mr. Elliott, saw Fred go into the kitchen and in a few minutes after heard the children screaming there; had seen Emeline a few minutes before Fred went in. He was seen to leave with a covered basket, which he left at Henny Hughes. Robert Stanton and Daniel Walley, colored, heard of the murder, went in search of Lawrence, found him at Hetty Dickenson's arrested him and delivered him to Constable Larrimore. Justice Stewart held an inquest, and after hearing the evidence the jury rendered a verdict:

"That the said Emeline Handy, colored, came to her death from a blow or blows by a deadly instrument, believed to be an axe or hatchet, in the hands of a certain Frederick Lawrence, colored man, on the morning of Sunday, October 2d, 1870, in the kitchen of Mr. F. G. Wright, in the town of Easton."

Lawrence was committed to jail to await trial for the murder. He is about 45 years of age, and was formerly a slave of Mr. W. H. Harrison, but has been living in Easton for the past five years.

LOBSTEIN'S

QUINTESSENCE OF

Jamaica Ginger.

This much esteemed and truly valuable preparation is warranted to possess, in a concentrated form, all the active properties of pure white Jamaica Ginger (the best variety.) Thus prepared, the Quintessence will be found, on trial, an excellent Family Medicine at home or abroad, being put up in a very portable form. It is unequalled in purity and strength, and superior to any Ginger in the market.

An admirable remedy for Indigestion, Flatulence, Colic, Cramp and Dyspepsia; an excellent Tonic to persons recovering from fever and other diseases; for a languid or depraved condition of the system during the summer months, and, in southern climates, it will be found invaluable, deserving the favor of travelers as a preventive and dispeller of Sea-sickness, Nervous Headache, Giddiness and Exhaustion arising from excessive fatigue or heat; also, preventing the deleterious effect so often caused by a change of water or diet. The Inebriate, who wishes to reform, will find in this a most valuable aid, as it allays the craving desire for liquor, giving tone to the digestive organs, and strength to resist temptation.

Prepared only by
J. F. D. LOBSTEIN,
Druggist and Pharmaceutist,
