Town and County Intelligence.

THE Orphans' Court for Caroline county will meet Tuesday, November 15th.

To Our Patrons.

In a few weeks we expect to sever all business connection with this paper and to leave the State. In order that we may close our business before leaving, we send this week to every one indebted to us a statement of his account and ask that it be settled at once. For the accommodation of those who are unable to pay up at once we enclose a note, payable in three months, which we wish all such to sign and return. Be sure to either send the money or note before the 20th inst. Our business must be settled; if not by us, by some one else. We prefer, however, to do it ourselves.

The Editor's Hash.

—Butter is selling at 40c.

—The springs are very low.

—The election passed off quietly.

—Quarterly Meeting next Sunday.

—Mr. Jewell launched his oyster boat on Saturday.

—Drunken men were scarce in town on election day.

—Work on the railroad progresses slowly but steadily.

—Sale bills printed at this office are universally admired.

—The real estate of Robt. E. Hardcastle is advertised at public sale.

—Mr. Chalkly Kirby lost a valuable mare on Tuesday week by disease.

—The Democrats fired the cannon on Tuesday night in honor of their victory.

—Prof. L. T. Vosmus organized a singing school in this place on Monday evening.

—The coming year will witness a great change in the business firms of this place.

—The shells, &c., from the Democratic oyster feast yet lie upon the public square.

—Mr. W. P. Stafford has purchased the mail route between Burrsville and Denton of the contractor.

—Why cannot the causeway be raised on both sides and logged so as to prevent spreading? It needs it.

—A. B. Roe, Esq., is our agent at Greensborough. He is authorized to receipt for all sums paid him for this office.

—Mr. Conner's school, in Denton, is closed, that gentleman being absent on a visit to his father, who is in very feeble health.

QUARTERLY MEETING.—The third quarterly meeting for this circuit will be held at Bloomery on Sunday and Monday next, the 13th and 14th of November. The usual quarterly services will be held.

CONVENTION.—A Peninsular convention of the Methodist Episcopal Church will be held in Smyrna, on the 15th, 16th and 17th of the present month. Railroad tickets will be issued at reduced fare. A numerous attendance is expected.

TO EDITORS.—A journeyman printer of ten years practical experience desires a situation as foreman in a country newspaper and job office. First-class references given if required. Address PRINTER, UNION Office, Denton, Md. [no10-2w.

DEDICATION.—That wing of the colored people known as the "Bethelites" will dedicate their new Church, in this town, on Sunday next. Bishop Wayman, assisted by two colored ministers from Washington, will officiate. The occasion will doubtless be one of interest.

EXPRESS TRAIN.—The Milford Mutual Friend learns that arrangements have been made to run an express passenger train from Chrisfield, Md., to Wilmington Del., connecting with through trains to Baltimore and Philadelphia. Daily travel will be resumed to Norfolk and the extreme South by steamers Sue and Vanderbuilt from Crisfield.

CANAL BOAT.—Some weeks ago the canal boat built at Greensborough by Satterfield & Moore for parties in New York was launched, and on yesterday morning left the bridge for that city. It was heavily laden with railroad ties, &c., and was taken in tow by a tug which had come here for the purpose. The canal boat is a large one, of several hundred tons register, and is a fine piece of mechanical skill. D. E. Sawyer was the builder.

ACCIDENTAL DROWNING.—George, a son of Caleb Satterfield, colored, was drowned on Saturday afternoon last in the Choptank, near the Stakes, by falling overboard from a boat in which he was crossing the river.—He was standing up in the boat sculling it across the river, when his oar slipped and he was precipitated into the water, and before assistance could reach him he was drowned. His body was recovered the following morning, and a jury of inquest was summoned for the afternoon, which jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the above facts.—The deceased was aged abont ten years.

Letter from Sussex County, Del.

SEAFORD, Nov. 5th, 1870.

Two Republican meetings were held here last week. The first was addressed by lawyer Moore, of Georgetown, and Mr. Heald, the candidate for Congress. A great deal of enthusiasm prevailed, and the large crowd appeared to be delighted with the elegant words of these gentleman. At the second meeting, Dr. Davidson, of Milford, delivered an able address. The Republicans are hopeful, and expect to poll a large vote on the 8th.

At the last election there were about 60 colored men who voted. They can poll about one hundred votes. At the little election it was arranged for them to vote in a body about noon. This, no doubt, was the best way, producing a good effect on the opposite party. Their conduct was admired by all who looked upon the grand scene.

The Oyster business is becoming quite lively here now. Some four or five houses are occupied, and a goodly number of hands employed. All the mechanics are busy at present. Some twelve or fifteen houses are going up now. The Parsonage of the M. E. Church is nearing completion, and when finished will be a respectable addition to the town.

EPSILON.

W. M. KENNARD, 306 Market st., Wilmington, Del., is selling the best 4-4 bro. muslin at 12 ½ cts. [oc27-4w.

PENINSULAR JOTTINGS.

SUSSEX COUNTY.

—Ben. Johnson, under sentence of death for rape, made an unsuccessful attempt to escape from the Georgetown jail last week.

KENT COUNTY, DEL.

—The corner stone of the new Catholic Church, at Dover, was laid yesterday.

—The Quarterly Association of the Good Templars of Kent meets at Camden next Wednesday.

CECIL COUNTY.

—After blind Tom comes a menagerie to Elkton.

—Levi O. Cameron has been awarded the contract for building a parsonage near the Zion M. E. Church.

—Cornelius Fliun's stables, in Elkton, were consumed by fire on Tuesday week. There was an insurance upon the building for $80.

KENT COUNTY, MD.

—The registered vote of Kent lacks but one of four thousand.

—The tin wedding of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Corbaley was duly celebrated by about 40 of their friends.

—Daniel Smith and Susan Chamberlain were each sentenced to the penitentiary for 14 years at the late term of the Court for attempting to take the life of Mrs. Smith by poisoning her.

SOMERSET COUNTY.

—There are 2847 registered voters in Somerset.

—Cattle and sheep are being shipped in large droves from Princess Anne.

—A valuable cow belonging to Miss Virginia Brown was so severely injured by the cars recently that it had to be killed.

—Fred Comins and Severa Armstrong, for larceny, and Wm. Dashiel, for assaulting Lillie Stevenson, with intent to commit a rape, were all committed to jail last week.

NEW CASTLE COUNTY.

—Wilmington has St. Crispins.

—Delaware College opens with twenty students.

—The new depot building at Middletown has been finished and occupied.

—Capt. Pennington's bay mare, which was stolen a week or two since from his pasture, has been recovered.

—A grand poultry show is to come off in Wilmington in January under the auspices of the Delaware Poultry Association.

—Mrs. Lucy Stone and Mrs. Julia Ward Howe are to deliver addresses on the Woman Suffrage question in Wilmington next Saturday.

TALBOT COUNTY.

—An effort is being made to resuscitate the Easton Brass Band.

—The steamer Kent Island has been withdrawn from the St. Michaels and Wye river route.

—Mr. Stitchbery's store, at Skipton, was broken into and robbed of between $300 and $400's worth of goods on Saturday night week.

—John Cluster, one of a party of three who had been sent ashore on Tilghman's Island from an oyster boat to procure provisions on Monday week, but had become drunk, was almost killed by having his skull crushed in with an axe in the hands of Nathan Vinson. Cluster, in company with his comrades, had called at Vinson's house to get something to eat, for which they offered to pay, but upon being refused, Cluster's comrades started off a little ahead of him but were summoned back in a few minutes by his cries of distress. Vinson denied all knowledge of the affair, but his face, hands and clothing were bloody. A bloody axe was also found under the house.

IN MEMORIAM.

At a regular communication of Bridgetown Lodge, No. 72, I. O. G. T., held Oct. 19th, 1870, a committee was appointed by the W. C. T., to draft resolutions relative to the death of brother James Legg, and the following preamble and resolutions were reported and adopted.

Whereas, It has pleased the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, in His infinite wisdom, to remove from our midst our dear friend and brother, Jas. Legg, and

Whereas, It becomes us as a fraternity to bow meekly and submissively to the decrees of the Great Disposer of events, however painful the dispensation may be, and while bowing in humble submission to the inexorable mandate, we look forward with hope to the time when we shall all assemble in that Grand Lodge where our Heavenly Father will be the G. W. C. T.

Resolved, That in the obit of brother Legg we have lost a noble and virtuous citizen, a true friend and a kind and affectionate brother, and we will ever kindly cherish his memory and association with us in the past.

Resolved, That we, as a Lodge of Good Templars, do feel deeply the loss of our brother, whose seat in this Lodge is now vacant, and whose voice will be heard no more among us; and while we thus deeply feel the loss of a faithful brother who has been stricken down by the relentless hand of death, we also deeply sympathize with the entire domestic and social circle in which he moved, in the loss of a faithful and dutiful son, a kind and affectionate brother and a good citizen.

Resolved, That we tender to the relations and friends of our deceased brother, and especially to his parents, our kindest sympathies in their hour of trial and affliction, for the great and irreparable loss they have sustained in the removal from them of a devoted son.

Resolved, That as a token of our respect and esteem, and of our deep sorrow at his decease, fitly becoming us as a fraternity, that we wear our usual badge of mourning twenty days, and that our regalia and other symbols in and about the lodge be draped in mourning for the same period, and

Resolved, That this preamble and resolutions be published in the "Denton Journal" and "American Union," and that a copy be sent to the family of our deceased brother.

JACOB E. GIBSON,
Committee.

THOUSANDS OF PROMISING YOUTHS, of both sexes, go down to untimely graves, from general debility and weakness, who might be saved by fortifying their systems with Iron. The Peruvian Syrup is an Iron Tonic prepared expressly to supply this vitalizing element, and is the only preparation of Iron that will assimilate at once with blood.

"A WONDER OF MEDICAL SCIENCE," may well be applied to Dr. Wistars Balsam of Wild Cherry. It is nearly half a century since this remarkable remedy was introduced to the public, and yet the immediate and enviable reputation which it gained by its wonderful cures of coughs, colds, whooping cough, sore throat, influenza, consumption, and all bronchial complaints, is to this day fully sustained.
