Thursday Morning, Nov. 24, 1870.

Town and County Intelligence.

THE Orphans' Court for Caroline county will meet Tuesday, November 29th.

The Editor's Hash.

—Hog-killing is at hand.

—Muskrating has begun.

—Croquet is about "played."

—To-day is thanksgiving day.

Pork and sausage are in season.

—The Farmers' Club meets next Tuesday.

—Early sown wheat is slightly affected by the fly.

—Snow-squalls were the order of the day on Saturday.

—Snow fell here on Saturday, but in small quantities.

—Mr. Wm. Cohee trapped a coon in a rabbit-gum one night last week.

—Fox-hounds and coon dogs seem to be in great demand in this locality.

—The springs are so low in this section of the county that wells are drying up.

—The Easton Journal contradicts the rumor that the Md. & Del. R. R. is for sale.

—The Home for Friendless Children in Eastern Maryland will be opened on the 1st of January.

—The story about two dead infants having been found in the U. S. Hotel at Lewis is pronounced a hoax.

—The United States will declare war upon Turkey to-day, and, unless we are greatly mistaken, turkey will be devoured.

—The heaviest hog yet slaughtered in this community was killed by Mr. J. H. Emerson on Monday. Weight, 330 lbs.

—The new thing in dresses is "mitrailleuse" silk. When made up it has the appearance of a cloud of gun-barrels.

—A man giving the name of Perry Murray, and hailing from Easton, was committed to Denton jail on Wednesday last for assaulting Mr. Mitchell, of Greensborough.

—Rev. Jno. F. Meredith, who was born in this county, and who will be remembered by many of our citizens, is at present occupying a pulpit in Reading, Pa.

—The postmaster at Denton overslept himself on Saturday morning last and the driver went off without the mail. Consequently there was no mail from here that day.

—Butchers say that never before have they found the autumn fleeces of sheep and lambs in such splendid condition as at present, the wool being very close and heavy.—From this they predict a winter of unusual severity.

ARRESTED AND DISCHARGED.—Jonathan Williamson, well-known to many of our citizens in the upper part of the county, was arrested last week for complicity in the robbery of stores about Centreville, but the Grand Jury of the county failed to bring in an indictment against him on account of lack of evidence. He was discharged.

A SAD DEATH.—On Thursday morning last a cart, heavily loaded with wood, run over the head of a little son John Baynard, sawyer at Satterfield & Moore's Mill, near Greensborough. Dr. Betson was summoned, but found the little sufferer in the agonies of death. He only lived a few hours after the accident, his head being crushed by the weight of the loaded cart.

DESTRUCTION OF A SAW MILL BY FIRE.—Mr. Levin Pool's steam saw mill, located near Andersontown, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday night last. The fire is supposed to have originated from a latent spark, though the usual precautionary measures had been attended to before leaving the mill, and everything had the appearance of being all right only a few hours before the fire occurred. Mr. Pool estimates his loss at $1,200, upon which there is no insurance.

A BROOM MANUFACTORY.—It may not be generally known, yet it is a fact that there is a broom manufactory located near this town, which is capable of turning out brooms in quantities almost, if not quite, sufficient to supply the demand for our entire county. Mr. Jesse Lewis, with a commendable degree of enterprise, began to manufacture this indispensable article of household economy a few years ago, using up all the material he could obtain. At first his efforts were humble, but he has continued to increase his business as the growth of broom-corn was increased, until he has laid the foundation of an enterprise which might be made to yield a large yearly income to our county. We know not what Mr. Lewis' aspirations are in this matter, but we doubt not that, with a proper effort and manifestation of interest on the part of our people in the enterprise, he could be induced to enlarge his buildings and facilities and seek trade outside the county. Being a practical broom-makers his work is nothing inferior to city work in appearance and wear, as the experience of many good housewives hereabouts can testify. But to make the enterprise a greater success, our citizens must first grow the corn, and afterwards patronize the manufactory for their brooms. It is impossible to estimate the amount of money sent out of our county for this very article, but it must be enormous, as every family requires a broom within it. Let us keep all this money at home. We can do it with a proper effort, and not pay more for our brooms than we now do, but at the same time have a better article.

HEAVY STORM.—A driving, north-east storm prevailed here throughout Tuesday.—The wind blew strong and the rain fell in moderately heavy showers, but we have heard of no damage wrought by the storm. Our town was almost deserted and business was extremely dull. The rain happened at an opportune moment for farmers, millers, &c., inasmuch as the drouth was as long protracted as at any time during the summer, and the springs fully as low. But although a "soaker," unless succeeded by frequent showers it will fail to render that relief which is needed and desired.

A RABBIT CHASE IN TOWN.—The dull monotony of our unpretending little town was temporarily broken on Monday by a rabbit chase on the green, in which men, boys and "dorgs" participated. Mr. Joel Atwel had brought a bag of life rabbits to town to sell, and a purse was made up to purchase one which was to be let out for a chase. The dogs being held, the rabbit was give a few yards start and the dogs turned loose. At times the chase was quite animating, but was of short duration as the rabbit was soon overtaken and captured by the dogs and boys. Being too tired for a further race, the first rabbit was returned to Mr. Atweil, unhurt, and a second one obtained, which was also turned loose for a chase, but, like the first, the race was short. This was kept up until the strength of four rabbits had been exhausted, when night put an end to the fun, and the gathered crowd dispersed to their homes.

THE FARMER'S CLUB.—The next regular meeting of this club takes place on Tussday, the 29th inst. It is earnestly hoped that a greater number of our farmers will be present than at former meetings. The leisure season is now at hand, and farmers cannot better employ their time than in intermingling with each other in the friendly relations which the Club throws around them, relating their several experiences in the cultivation of this crop and of that, and in approving and condemning that mode of agriculture which is the best calculated to advance or retard the interests of the farming community. Let the people come out on Tuesday and manifest by their presence that desire which they profess to have for the success of the club. Words of encouragement amount to but little unless some tangible evidence is given that your heart is in the cause. Come out from the 1st district and the 5th, from 2nd and the 4th—come from all over the county, and let us give this enterprise such a push forward as that it shall not retrograde. The meeting will be held in the afternoon, and farmers at a distance can return to their homes at an early hour in the evening. Come!

ORPHANS' HOME.—The managers of the Home for Friendless Children on the Eastern Shore, intend to open that Institution on the 1st of January, 1871. It may not be generally known that other contributions beside money will be acceptable. Let it be born in mind, that in opening The Home, the house is to be furnished. They therefore solicit donations of every kind; house-furnishing articles of every description, dry goods, groceries, meat, meal, vegetables, wood, &c.

Will not housekeepers, those especially who are breaking up and selling off their furniture, look over their houses and see if they have not some articles they can do without and send to The Home? Will not merchants and dealers generally spare something from their stores, and farmers from their granaries, poultry yards, and other produce of their farms, in addition to their contributions in money, to this object?

Is it necessary, in order to stir you up to acts of beneficence on this behalf, to remind you of the design of the Institution? It is to gather little ones bereft of parental care into a home, where they will be sheltered and protected, watched over in health, carefully tended in sickness, educated, taught the means of self-support, and, more than all, instructed in the Word of God, and brought up in His fear and service.

Help, then, in every way you can, to establish and sustain such a charity, remembering whose Word assures us, "There is that giveth and yet increaseth."

All donations to be sent to MRS. ELIAS O. DAWSON, Easton, Talbot County, Md.

GOES TO THE BOTTOM.—This Fall the prices at Oak Hall do beat all. Fine Suits from ten to twenty-five dollars; Overcoats, heavy and strong, from eight to thirty dollars; and all other things in proportion.

IT IS NO WONDER that invalids lose faith in all specifics, when so many worthless medicines are advertised for the cure of various diseases; but which, when tried, are "found wanting." We have yet to learn, however, of the first failure of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, to cure coughs, colds, and pulmonary disease.

Deaths.

TALBOLT.—At Hillsborough, on the 16th inst., Mr. John Talbot, aged 66 years.
