Thursday Morning, Dec. 15, 1870.

Town and County Intelligence.

THE Orphans' Court for Caroline county will meet Tuesday, December 27th.

The Editor's Hash.

—Christmas comes on Sunday this year.

—Last Sabbath was sacramental day at the M. E. Church.

—Mr. Richard Loockerman is this week opening a new Store in Denton.

—The Peninsular Fruit Growers' Association meets at Dover next Tuesday.

—Mrs. Henry Blackiston will accept our thanks for the nice lot of sausage sent.

—The last quarterly meeting for this circuit will be held at Denton on the 11th and 12th of February.

—The next meeting of the Wilmington Conference, M. E. Church, takes place at Dover on the 8th of March.

—A commission to examine and, if found necessary, to locate a new county road in the 1st district has been appointed.

—Mr. George A. Millington has removed with his family to Milford where he will take charge of the U. S. Hotel.

—Miss Mollie McCullough, formerly a school-teacher in this town, has been elected Grand Worthy Vice Templar, I. O. G. T., of Maryland.

—A collection to raise money to insure the M. E. Church in this town was lifted on Sunday last. A similar collection will be taken at Concord next Sunday.

—The colored people of Potter's Landing and vicinity will hold a fair and festival at Union Star school-house on the 26th and 27th of December inst.

—Mr. L. H. Gadd dispatched with a club a very large coon, one day last week, which a dog had discovered in a pile of brush in the rear of Mr. T. H. Kemp's dwelling.

—Capt. W. B. Stevens, of Burrsville, last week slaughtered 3 hogs, aged 10 months and 12 days, weighing respectively 395—335 and 328 lbs., making a total of 1058 lbs.

—The bright light North of town on Thursday night was caused by the burning of a sedge-field over about Ridgely. Several fence rails were burned, but beyond this no damage was done.

PROLIFIC.—Mr. Elias P. Hopkins, residing near Vernon, Del., has a cow which, one day last week, gave birth to twin calves.—Both are living and are finely developed.—The mother is very young.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE.—Mr. Thomas H. Kemp will deliver a temperance lecture in the M. E. Church, in Denton, on Wednesday evening, December 21st, 1870. No admission fee will be charged. All good templars and the public generally are invited to attend.

THEFT OF TOOLS.—Some thief recently entered the workshop of Mr. Jas. S. Rickards and stole therefrom several valuable and indispensable tools to the prosecution of his trade. There is in this case of thievery some small degree of compensation, since the presumption is that the tools were taken by some one for the purpose of using them in the providing of the sustenance of life, whereas thieves generally steal only that which they can convert into the "ready cash," or its equivalent, without further effort. Still, this is no apology for thievery; and we hope Mr. Rickards will yet be fortunate enough to bring the offender to merited justice.

THE ORPHANS' COURT.—This body was in session on Tuesday, and the following is a record of its proceedings.

Letters of administration granted to Wm. H. Watkins on the estate of Levin Hubbard and order to sell given.

A. B. Roe, executor of Moses Coker, passed first distribution and receipt and final release from Wesley W. and Moses Coker and Jeremiah Baynard.

Isaac Pool, administrator of Thos. Wright, presented list of sperate debts and third and final account of administration; also, third and final distribution.

Guardian accounts passed: by James L. Payne, guardian to John H. Reese, tenth account; same, to Annie E. Payne, 3rd, 4th and final account; same, to Jas. T. and Wm. F. Payne, third accounts.

Wm. Loockerman, administrator of Chas. Hickman, passed receipt and final release from Dorcas Cannon.

THE Venerable Archdeacon Scott, of Dunham, Canada East, says, that he suffered from Dyspepsia more than twenty-five years but that three weeks use of the Peruvian Syrup (an Iron Tonic,) has benefitted him so wonderfully that he can hardly persuade himself of the reality, and people who know him are astonished at the change.

BUY CHEAP—SELL CHEAP.—That is one of the reasons why Oak Hall clothing is so cheap. Wanamaker buys as much cloth as all the other retail clothing houses in Philadelphia, put together; and so buys much cheaper than others can.

Marriages.

ROBINSON—LOFTON.—In Easton, on the 1st inst., by Rev. J. L. Shipley, Mr. L. M. Robinson, of this county, and Miss Marietta Lofton, of Talbot.
