Thursday Morning, Dec. 22, 1870.

Town and County Intelligence.

THE Orphans' Court for Caroline county will meet Tuesday, December 27th.

The Editor's Hash.

—The springs continue low.

—Next Sunday is Christmas.

—The sheriff's business seems pretty live- this week.

Geo. B. Krall, millwright, has re- to Denton.

—J. W. Bryant is repairing his old law ce for the use of Jump & Ridgely.

—Snow fell in sufficient quantity, on Saturday night last, to cover the ground.

—The Highland Light will discontinue her trips to this place after next Sunday.

—No exhibitions or other entertainments are announced anywhere in the county for Christmas.

—It is rumored that the P. W. & B. R. R. will shortly obtain the control of the Md. & Del. R. R.

—The new President of the Md. & Del. R. R.—C. W. Huntington—is a northern gentleman.

—A sett of nearly new harness was stolen from the stable of Mr. S. F. Liden one night last week.

—The opening of a new store in Denton has reduced the price of sugar, cheese and other articles.

—The officers of the Dorchester and Delaware R. R. were re-elected at the meeting on Wednesday last.

—The schools in the 2nd district closed on Saturday for the Christmas holidays.—Those in Denton still continue.

—Mr. Myers will remove his jewelry store to his residence, opposite the Journal office. He is not going to discontinue business here.

—No preparations have been made in Denton for Christmas. Perhaps our merchants are not aware that it is so near at hand.

THE YEAR 1871.—There will be fifty-three Sundays in the year 1871, the year beginning and ending on Sunday. It ought to be a good year and a happy one.

COW STOLEN.—A cow was stolen from the barn-yard of Mr. Wm. H. Price, residing near Denton, one night last week. The thief abandoned it after driving it away, and returned to its owner.

DISCONTINUES HER TRIPS.—The steamer Highland Light, plying between Denton and Baltimore, discontinues her trips on Monday next, when she will lay up for repairs. The Champion will make semi-weekly trips to Easton, Cambridge and Medford's wharf.

THE WILMINGTON Commercial, noticing the ing of a coon by Mr. Luther H. Gadd, near this place, last week, remarks—"his coonship exclaimed with his dying breath, killed, by Gadd." Oh! you naughty fellows! How profane you have grown of late. We'll report you to the meeting.

MAIL ROUTE CHANGE.—On route No. 02 0, Federalsburg to Harrison, J H. Moore contractor, it is ordered by Mr. Creswell to omit Federalsburg and extend to Crotcher's Ferry, increasing distance two and a-half miles, perfor two additional trips per week and add to contractor's pay $195 per annum, pro rata, from January 1, 1871.

S. MASTEN.—Our old friend Masten, who has been doing business at the corner of 7th and Market, Philadelphia, has closed business at that place, and is now at Oak Mr. Wanamaker. We recommend all our readers in want of clothing to Mr. Masten, and will assure them that they will obtain a good bargain.

MORE SERIOUS.—The burning of the sedge field over at Ridgely resulted more seriously than was reported to us. Nearly all the woodland as well as untilled fields, between the "Orrell" farm and the road leading from Boonsborough to Hillsborough, was burnt over. Mr. Thomas Dawson and Rev. G. W. Ridgely lost considerably in young timber, and over 3000 pannels of fence were consumed. The origin of the fire is a mystery though it is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

ALMOST A FIRE.—The granary of Capt T. . Case, at Greensborough, narrowly escaped destruction by fire recently. It seems that during the summer the employees of the Captain slept in the loft of the office, which adjoins the granary, and in the warm weather dragged the beds from their steads on the floor, some of them being in close proximity to the stove pipe, which runs through the room. Upon the kindling of a fire in the office a few days ago the bedding caught fire, but its early discovery prevented any conflagration. The granary was well filled with grain at the time.

SERIOUS MISTAKE.—An aged lady Fowler, residing in Greensborough, went to visit a next door neighbor in the town on Friday night last, but instead having made a serious mistake, her escape which with her life is most mi- Separating the two premises is a fence, and in the darkness Mrs. upon what she supposed was the she went to jump down she and until finally she took of the well. Fortunately the water in the well, and hurt by the fall, she was ence by her cries, when she rather damp condition.

W. M. KENNARD.—We direct the attention of all wanting dry goods, &c., to the mammoth advertisement of W. M. Kennard. Mr. K. has laid in a large supply of goods to meet the requirements of his trade, but as the season is now far advanced and the goods remain unsold on his shelves, he has determined to run them off at a sacrifice.—Read his advertisement and see what bargains can be had at his store, in Wilmington.

HORSE AND CARRIAGE STOLEN.—One morning last week Mr. Esma Lowe drove over to Greensborough and left his horse and carriage standing in front of one of the stores while he was transacting his business elsewhere. When he returned for his horse and carriage they were gone. Some one had stolen them. So, procuring another horse, Mr. Lowe started in pursuit, and found his horse covered with foam and perspiration hitched to a fence near Whiteleysburg.—Suspecting the guilty party, Mr. L. went to his house, where he instituted a search and recovered the purchases which he had left in the carriage and which the thief had stolen. Mr. Lowe had seen the man in Greensboro' that evening and suspected him of the theft as soon as it was discovered.

PETTY MEANNESS.—Poultry, at this season of the year, is in great demand, and poultry venders resort to every expedient to increase the weight of that which they have to sell. The latest dodge which has come to our knowledge is that of filling the inside of the poultry with the offal, and selling it along with the poultry itself at the full market price. A friend of ours purchased a goose at one of our stores the other day in which had been stuffed five gizzards, three necks and the extremities of several wings. Now this is downright cheating and rascality, and the merchant who sold the goose, if he knows from whom he purchased it, ought to expose the penurious wretch. Gizzards and wings and necks are all very good in their place; but when it comes to paying full price for the offal it is outrageous. What will not the sordidness of some individuals lead them do?

PENINSULAR JOTTINGS.

DORCHESTER COUNTY.

—A Bank is talked of in Cambridge.

—J. W. Lord, near Vienna, killed two hogs last week, weighing 872.

The Seaford Record improves in appearance.

QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY.

—Chas H. Martin and Jno. T. Hand have associated themselves into a partnership for the prosecution of the real estate business.

—Jas. T. Taylor has been appointed a justice of the Peace for Queenstown district.

NEW CASTLE COUNTY.

—The removal of the courts to Wilmington is asked for on the ground that the business is increasing so fast that the hotels are inadequate to furnish comfortable lodgings to those compelled to attend them. Would Wilmington hotels furnish better accomodations?

—Wilmington has been designated as a station for the storm signal service.

—W. T. Jeandell, a Wilmington journalist, died at the almshouse a few days since.

—Again there is talk of dividing New Castle co., and Middletown is aspiring to be the county seat of the new county.

TALBOT COUNTY.

—At a meeting of the Stockholders of the Md. & Del. R. R. Co., held at Easton on Wednesday of last week, C. W. Huntington was elected President and Dr. G. W. Goldsborough, Treasurer. Directors—Wm. —Stephen J. Chilcott, son of Mr. John Chilcott, of Talbot, died at Ashland, Va., last week.

CECIL COUNTY.

—A small child of Noble T. Biddle, State's Attorney for Cecil county, came to its death by swallowing a small quantity of concentrated lye, one day last week.

—A colored boy 8 or 9 years of age had his throat cut last week by a German lad, 18 or 19 years of age. Some trifling disturbance is said to have been the cause for the rash act. The colored boy is still alive.

—The dwelling house of Robert Thackery, in Elk Neck, with nearly all the furniture, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday night of last week.

—Messrs. Jno. Vannort and Jas. W. Reynolds have succeeded in recovering their horses which were stolen the 2d of last July. The thief had sold them in New York city.

WICOMICO COUNTY.

—Mr. Thos. Dryden's residence at Salisbury was destroyed by fire last week. Loss $400. The fire originated from a defective chimney.

—The residence of Purnell Johnson, four miles from Salisbury was totally consumed by fire, with about two thirds of his household goods on Sunday of last week. Loss $3,500.

—The residence of John Anderson near Salisbury was burned to the ground on Thursday night, together with everything in it, Mr. Anderson saving only what clothing he had on his back.

—The citizens of Salisbury are somewhat exercised in mind concerning the building of a Town Hall at that place.

—Mr. F. C. Todd designs leaving Salisbury and locating in the South.

TO CURE A COUGH, to relieve all irritations of the throat, to restore perfect soundness and health to the most delicate organizations of the human frame—the Lungs,—use Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which is still prepared with the same care in the selection and compounding of its various ingredients as when it was introduced to the public by Dr. Wistar, over forty years since.

THE N. Y. TRIBUNE. 1871.

Through struggle and suffering, at the cost of multiform agonies, bereavements, devastations, the American Idea embodied in the preamble to our fathers' Declaration of Independence approaches its complete realization.—The noble, inspiring assertion that "all men are created equal," and endowed by their Creator with inalienable rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, is no longer a glittering generality, a poet's fancy, a philosopher's speculation, but the recognized base of our political fabric. The benign Revolution which dates from the Boston Massacre of 1770, finds its logical completion, just one century later, in the XVth Amendment, which gives to the equal political and civil rights of every man born or naturalized in our Republic the shield and defense of the National Constitution. The billows of Caste and [illegible] may roar and rage around that [illegible] insiently seem on the point [illegible] but its foundations are [illegible] and the breakers of [illegible] every are hurled against and [illegible] their spray over it in vain.

We do not underrate the forces of Prejudice and Aristocracy. We do not forget that a very large minority of the American People still hold in their inmost hearts that Blacks have no rights which Whites are bound to respect. We fully appreciate the desperation wherewith all the warring elements of hatred to Republican achievement will be combined and hurled against the battlements of Republican ascendency in the Presidential election of 1872. We do dot doubt that local successes, facilitated by Republican feuds and dissensions will inspire the charging host with a sanguine hope of victory, such as nerved it to put forth its utmost strength in the earlier stages of the contests of 1864 and 1868. Yet our faith is clear and strong that the American People still bless God that, on the red battle-fields of our late Civil War, the Union was upheld and Slavery destroyed, and will never consciously decide that the precious blood thereon poured out was lavished in vain.

The Tribune believes in the prosecution of the great struggle by legitimate means to beneficent ends. To State Sovereignty, it opposes indissoluble National Integrity; to Slavery for Blacks, Liberty to All; to Proscription, Enfranchisement; to Popular Ignorance, Universal Education; to intensity and eternity of wrathful Hate, universal and invincible Good Will. It would fain do its utmost to hasten the glad day when the South shall vie with the North in exultation and gratitude over the disappearance of the last trace or taint of that spirit which impelled Man to exult in the ownership and chattlehood of his fellow Man.

Profoundly do we realize that the contest is not yet ended—that Millions mourn, more or less publicly, the downfall of the slaveholders' Confederacy, and rear their children to hate those by whose valor and constancy its overthrow was achieved. If we ever seem to differ essentially from other Republicans, our conviction that magnanimity is never weakness, that vengeance is never politic, and that devils are not cast out by Beelzebub, must serve to explain alleged eccentricities whose perfect vindication we leave to Time and Reflection.

The Tribune has been, is, and must be, a zealous advocate of Protection to Home Industry. Regarding habitual idleness as the greatest foe to human progress, the bane of human happiness, we seek to win our countrymen in masses from the ensnaring lures of Speculation, of Traffic, and of always overcrowded Professions, to the tranquil paths of Productive Industry. We would gladly deplete our overcrowded cities, where thousands vainly jostle and crowd in misguided quest of "Something to Do," to cover prairies and plains with colonies absorbed in Agriculture, Mechanics and Manufactures, and constantly projecting into the blank, void wilderness the homes and the works of civilized Man. Holding the protection of Home Industry by discriminating duties on imported Wares and Fabrics essential to the rapid, beneficent diffusion of Production in all its phases and departments, and so to the instruction of our people in all the gainful arts of Peace, we urge our countrymen to adhere to and uphold that policy, in undoubting faith that the true interest, not of a class or a section, but of each section and every useful class, is thereby subserved and promoted.

The Tribune aims to be preeminently a Newspaper. Its correspondents traverse every State, are present on every important battle-field, are early advised of every notable Cabinet decision, observe the proceedings of Congress, of Legislatures, and of Conventions, and report to us by telegraph all that seems of general interest.—We have paid for one day's momentous advices from Europe by Cable far more than our entire receipts for the issue in which those advices reached our readers. If lavish outlay, unsleeping vigilance, and unbounded faith in the liberality and discernment of the reading public, will enable us to make a journal which has no superior in the accuracy, variety, and freshness of its contents, The Tribune shall be such a journal.
