—The names of Thos Jewell, Alex. Russell, Wm. P. Stafford, E. W. Moore and John Russell were inadvertently omitted from our list of road supervisors for this district, published last week.

—The St. Michaels Comet is ahead of time in announcing the hanging of Lawrence to-morrow. The record in his case did not leave this town until Tuesday last, and the Governor has not yet appointed a day for his execution.

—If persons wish their marriages or the deaths of their friends published in this paper they must send them in. We are not ubiquitous, and cannot be in every part of the county at the same time. Marriages and deaths are inserted free.

—So anxious are the people of Oxford, Pa., for a cheese factory that a lot is offered gratuitously to any man who will undertake the enterprise. This is what we call fostering an enterprise, and the citizens of this town would do well to imitate the example.

—We have just issued from our press a neat 34-page pamphlet catalogue of farms for sale by the Mancha Bros., real estate agents at Ridgely. We are at present engaged in getting out a similar catalogue for H. P. Chambers, real estate agent at Federalsburg.

—An exchange, discussing kerosene lamps, says that if the wicks are soaked in strong vinegar for twenty-four hours and thoroughly dried before being used, all smoke will be avoided, the wicks will last twice as long, and increased brilliancy will be obtained.

Leg Bail.—As the morning train on Tuesday week was slowly leaving the station at Goldsborough, and before it had cleared the woods in which the station is located, a man was seen to jump from the cars and run at full speed into the woods. Pursuit was at once made by those who witnessed the singular act, but being more fleet of foot the stranger eluded his pursuers. We have since learned that the party who jumped from the train was from Talbot county and was giving leg bail to his bondsmen who had entered for his appearance at the next term of the county court.

Adjournment of Court.—The Circuit Court completed its sittings for the April term on Friday. The jury was discharged the day previous. We conclude the record of cases disposed of, as follows:

State vs. Jos. Haight; presentment for selling liquor to minors on Sunday. Not guilty. Russum for traverser.

State vs. Reyner B. Downes; presentment for having wilfully withdrawn a deed for file in the Clerk's office. Not guilty.—Keating for traverser.

State vs. Jas. Booker; presentment for feloniously robbing G. W. Buck of a lot of fur. Not guilty. Russum for defendant.

Wheat.—A few days ago we took a ride through a portion of the Neck and had an opportunity to view the growing crop of wheat. Almost universally it looked well, and some of the fields were as fine as we ever saw at this season. Robert Thawley, Chas. E. Jarrell, Capt. Emerson and Wm. Wilkinson have remarkably fine fields—as fine as are to be found anywhere in the county and, perhaps, on the Shore. We are informed that Mr. Wm. A. Ford also has a field of wheat equal to any of those named, but his farm did not lay on our route and we did not see it. If the growing crop escapes the many enemies which beset it at each stage of its growth it will be one of the heaviest harvested in this county for several years.

New Mail Route and Post Office.—Some time during last October service was increased on the Preston mail route between Denton and Potter's Landing three times a week, affording the citizens of Potter's Landing daily mail facilities. Laboring under a misapprehension of the schedule by which the mails were to be run, the postmaster here merely sent an extra mail on alternate days to Potter's Landing. This continued until a few days ago, when he was instructed to send the mail daily from Denton to Potter's Landing at 4 o'clock, P. M., leaving the offices below to be supplied with their mails as heretofore, except that the stage started from Potter's Landing early in the morning instead of Denton.—Since the arrival of these instructions, we observe in The American that a new office has been opened at Andersontown, and that the mail carrier must perform tri-weekly service between Denton and that office, omitting and equivalent number of trips between Denton and Potter's Landing each week. This will restore the old tri-weekly route between Denton and Preston, or Bethlehem we believe the terminus now is.

Applications for License.—Applications for license under the Internal Revenue law to sell tobacco and spirituous liquors, all other licenses having been stricken out by late acts of Congress, may be made at this office, the assessor, Mr. Graham, having left blanks with us for that purpose.—All persons who intend to sell liquors or tobacco had better call and renew their licenses before the 1st of May. Similar blanks have been left at the Clerk's office and application may also be made there.—Blanks for succession and legacy returns have been left at the Register's office, and returns will be taken by Mr. Loockerman.

Admitted to Bail.—On the night of the 8th of April inst., the barn of Henry Taylor, a colored man, residing near Burrsville, was burned, it was supposed at the time, by incendiaries. There was no positive proff of this, however, and all was dark as to the origin of the fire until a few days ago, when Taylor adduced proof enough before Esquire Lowe to cause writs for the arrest of Jas. T. Webber and Wm. S. Webber, white, neighbors to Taylor.—In fact, the two farms was originally in one tract. On Tuesday last they had a hearing before Esquire Lowe, who held them in $150 each for their appearance at Court.

The Fire King.

HE IS VISITED AT HIS HOME BY THE JUDGES OF THE COURT.

After the adjournment of the Court on Thursday, Judges Wickes and Stump, accompanied by Sheriff Richardson, proceeded to Mr. Wm. P. Richardson's, in the Neck, with whom Nathan Coker, the fire king, lives, to witness some of his remarkable performances with the element which ordinary men dare not touch. The object of the visit being made known to Coker, he forthwith heated an iron and began the performance of such feats as he has been accustomed to perform for years, the licking of hot iron with his tougue, the handling of it with naked hands, &c. Of course the Judges were surprised as well as delighted with the performance.

We merely mention this to convince the doubting Thomases that we have such an individual in our midst, and to record the evidence of such honorable gentlemen as were the visitors to Coker on Thursday.

Temperance.

Denton, April 14th, 1871.

According to previous notice, a meeting was held at the room, formerly occupied by the order of Good Templars, for the purpose of organizing a temperance society in this place. On motion Rev. Mr. Gardner was elected chairman and T. Wirt Fountain, Esq., Secretary.

After considerable consultation and debate, it was determined to open a public temperance society. On motion, Rev. Mr. Gardner, Messrs Emerson, Booth, Myers, Rev. Mr. Harding, Mrs. R. M. Tylor and Miss R. Satterthwaite were apppointed a committee to draft a constitution and bylaws for the government of the said society, to be submitted to the next regular meeting for adoption.

On motion Mr. Myers was requested to organize a "Band of Hope" in this place and Mrs. M. Tylor requested to assist him.

On motion these proceedings were ordered to be printed in the newspapers of this town.

On motion society adjourned to meet again next Friday, P. M., at 7½ o'clock.

A Hoax.

A CORONER'S JURY SUMMONED TO INVESTIGATE A SUPPOSED FOUL DEED.

Intelligence of the death of a woman of unenviable notoriety named Prettyman, commonly known as "old Mrs. Purt," reached town on Saturday, and the vague and indefinite accounts of the manner of her death and burial creating a suspicion in the minds of our States, Attorney, a coroner's jury was summoned and on Sunday morning last proceeded to the residence of her husband, near Wilkinson's mill, to investigate the case. Upon arriving at the spot, however, the neighbors informed the jury that the woman died from natural causes, and had been under the care of Dr. Reynolds for several days previous to her death.

It seems that the woman was sunken as low in the scale of human degradation as it is possible to conceive and was addicted to habits of excessive dissipation. Only a few days before her death she was engaged in one of her accustomed saturnalias in which it is supposed the seeds of death were sown. Bearing such a character as this, the neighbors naturally shrank from all intercourse with her, and when she died no one of them would assist in her burial.—Her husband, therefore, made a box and with his own hands dug her grave and buried her in the lot which surrounds their home.

The singular manner in which this simple narrative was told led to the summoning of the jury, but when the facts in the case became known the jury returned to town without disinterring the body or making any examination.

Fred. Lawrence.

HIS CONDITION—A PARTIAL CONFESSION.

It was not until after the sentence of the court had been pronounced aganist him, and he had been left to sober reflection within the dismal walls of his cell, that Lawrence began to realize his situation, or to give any outward expression to a disturbed mind within. The harrowing thoughts, however, of death upon the scaffold, and the impossibility of escape from such a sad ordeal, has wrought an entire change upon his mind and actions; and while be seems to be devotional, he shrinks with apparent dread from all visitors.

Since the passage of the sentence of the court upon him, the ministers of the town, both white and colored, have visited him and prayed with him, and on Monday evening some colored people held prayer meeting in his cell. Baptism was performed on Sunday.

He has made a partial confession of his guilt, admitting the killing of Emeline Handy, but denying it to have been wilful. He says that on the fatal Sunday morning he went into Mr. Wright's kitchen and was splitting kindling with the axe, in a stooping attitude, and when he raised himself to an erect posture, with the axe still drawn over his shoulder, he accidentally struck her on the head, knocking her senseless against the stove, by which fall the gash in the side of her head was made. He says she then rolled under the dresser, where she was found. Upon being interrogated as to why he had never made this statement before, he said be was so scared he did not know what to do, and that his counsel never asked him anything about it. His statement, of course, will not bear its own weight, for it is hardly probable that he would be spliting wood in the kitchen in such manner as to cause him to bring the axe over his shoulder with sufficient force to crush in a human skull. This is the only explanation he gives, but as he is always visited in crowds he seems intimidated. We believe that he will yet make full confession, but it will be to some of his spiritual advisers while they are alone.

He bitterly protests against being taken back to Easton and desires to be hung here. We understand that he has made such request to Judge Wickes, and that the Judge has promised to intercede with the Governor in his behalf.

Mite Society.—A mite society to promote the interests of the M. E. Church in Denton has been organized with Mrs. J. W. Bryant, President; Mrs. W. T. Willis, Vice-President; Mrs. Dr. Booth, Treasurer; Mrs. Edgar Harris, Secretary; Miss Allie D. Newman, Financial Secretary, and a commiteee of seven to await upon the people to solicit contributions. The society meets the first Tuesday in each month.

For Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Bilious Affections, Sick or Nervous Headache, Costiveness, etc. Purely Vegetable, containing no Mercury, Minerals or Deleterious Drugs.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. The Catawba Grape Pills, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. 50 cts. per box.

in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change of diet, no inconvenience and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire and gives strength to urinate, thereby removing obstructions, preventing and curing strictures of the urethra, allaying pain and inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the Poison has, by the use of powerful astringents, been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after marriage

Use Helmbold's Extract Buchu for all Affections and Diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. $1.50 per bottle.

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH

cannot be surpassed as a Face Wash, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of cutaneous affection. It speedily eradicates pimples, spots, scorbutic dryness, indurations of the cutaneous membrane, &c., dispels redness and incipient imflammation, hives, rash, moth patches, dryness of scalp or skin, frost bites, and all purposes for which salves or ointments are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin H. T. Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to unbounded patronage by possessing qualities which render it a toilet appendage of the most superlative and congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, safety and efficacy—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a preservative and refresher of the complexion.
