DOMESTIC NEWS.

☞ The Orphans' Court for Caroline Co. will meet on Tuesday, May 23rd.

The Editor's Hash.

—There are forty inmates in our County Almshouse.

—The work of repairing Denton Bridge has been begun.

—W. D. Kelly, of this county, sold strawberries in Easton last week.

—Don't neglect to read the pleasant little temperance story on our 4th page.

—Hezekiah Brindle's report of the Farmers' Club will be found on our first page.

—Rev. Jas. L. Rich filled the M. E. pulpit in this town on Sunday last, both morning and evening.

—A valuable steam saw mill, near Greensborough, is advertised in our columns this morning.

—The first quarterly meeting for Denton circuit will be held at Wesleys' on the 3rd and 4th of June.

—Mr. Frederick Fountain left Denton on Monday for Missouri, in which State he expects to make his future home.

—Prof. Pratt, the horse tamer, lectures in Denton to-day, and will give a free exhibition. Bring along your vicious horses.

—The freight train with passenger car attached on the Del. R. R. has been made a fast line and will be required to run on time.

—One of the four restaurants in this town is closed, and the proprietor has signed the temperance pledge—an act worthy of emulation.

—We ask attention to the card of the St. Clair Hotel, Baltimore. We are assured it is a very handsome, complete and comfortable establishment.

—A Camp Meeting for Harrington circuit will be held in James Anderson's woods, the same occupied for the two years past, to commence July 29th, 1871.

—The steamboat came no further up the river on Sunday than Potter's Landing.—These stoppages down the river are a great inconvenience to our citizens.

—The pulpit of the African M. E. Church in this town will be filled this conference year by A. Jones. Easton and Denton are in the same circuit.

—The engine recently put in the Enterprise Mills lacking power to drive the machinery will be taken out and another one of greater capacity be introduced.

—Mr. Montgomery is renovating the buildings and otherwise improving the "Carpenter Farm," near Boonsborough, since it has come into his possession.

—The clothes of an old and crippled colored woman at the almshouse caught fire on Saturday night, burning her flesh somewhat, but was extinguished before any serious injury was done.

—The best thing for cleaning tinware is common soda. Dampen a cloth and dip in soda, and rub the ware briskly, after which wipe dry. Any blackened or dirty ware can be made to look as well as new.

—The M. P. Church at Burrsville, which has undergone repair, will be re-dedicated next Sunday. Morning sermon by Rev. T. D. Valliant, from Centreville station.—Afternoon sermon by Rev. S. T. Graham, from Dorchester.

—Saturday, the 20th of May, has been fixed upon for the day of holding the strawberry and floral exhibition at the Court House. The committee of arrangements has decided to award premiums for the best specimens. Let there be lively competition for these premiums. The awards will not be limited to the members of the club, but will be given to those who really have the finest specimens.

ROBBERY AT MARYDEL.—The station house at Marydel was entered on wedesday night last, by some parties, and after forcing the door of the express and ticket office, the thieves helped themselves to all the change left in the drawer, amounting to about five dollars, broke the locks and entered all the drawers; examined all the express packages, took a revolver belonging to the agent, opened a box of shoes belonging to McIlvaine & Dunn, and took several pair; opened a barrel of crackers and helped themselves and then decamped.

M. E. TRUSTEES.—The Trustees of the M. E. Church of this town held a meeting on Monday last. Among other things they elected a new sexton and determined upon a fixed price for digging graves, viz: Three dollars for bricked and two dollars for unbricked graves. This will prevent cases of extortioning, which have happened in the past. Custom usually bestows grave-digging upon the sexton. Mr. William Norris is the sexton elect.

It was also determined to sell off burial lots in the yard wherever practicable. As the yard is pretty well filled up, no regular system can, of course, be arranged, but to those who have relatives or friends buried there the preference will be extended for lots adjoining such deceased persons. Parties interested will therefore make early application to the Trustees.

DECAMPED.—The Ridgely stage driver decamped one-day last week, taking with him $130 in money which Mr. R. C. Carter had given him to mail to the Easton Bank at Ridgely. He left the stage at Ridgely and walking to Greensborough took the second train for Philadelphia. It was at first thought that he had mailed the letter as directed, the postmaster averring that a letter corresponding with the missing one had been mailed on that day, but advices from the Bank state that no such letter had been received. This is the way the trick was managed: A few days before his leaving, Mr. Carter gave the driver three letters to be mailed at Ridgely, one of which was for the Easton Bank. He mailed two, but retained the one for the Bank until the morning of his departure, when he mailed it and held on to the missing letter. The letter mailed was received on the day the missing letter was due, and was several days behind time. It contained four hundred dollars, and Mr. Carter may consider himself fortunate that the letter containing the largest sum reached the Bank in safety.

THE MD. & DEL. R. R.—This road, or that portion of it between Easton and Clayton, has been turned over to and will, in the future, be operated by the Company.—Mr. Caldwell is retained as superintendent and this is well, since it has been mainly through his exertions that the road is what it is to-day. Mr. Jno. W. Scott is also retained in the capacity of secretary and treasurer. The people of this county have looked forward to this change with the hope of a reduction in the tariffs, but none have been made yet. This, we presume, will only be a question of time.

THE ORPHANS' COURT.—Saml. M. Carter, administrator of Saml. H. Carter, passed 1st and final account of administration.

Wm. F. Palmer, administrator of Thos. Palmer, passed list of debts due the estate.

J. W. Bryant, administrator D. B. N. of James H. Fountain, presented receipt and final release from Frederick Fountain.—Passed. R. C. Carter, guardian to R. C. Porter, also passed receipt and release from his ward.

The last will and testament of Dr. Henry Rousette was presented and admitted to probate.

Letters of administration upon the personal estate of Benjamin F. Kenney were granted to Mary A. Kenny and John W. Brown.

HONOR THE DEAD.—It is earnestly hoped that all those who have relatives or friends interred in the M. E. burial ground in this town will be present at the Church next Sabbath morning, when a collection will be lifted to clean up the yard and put it in thorough order. It presents a lamentable appearance at this time, and if it does not receive some attention before the summer months come on it will become a wilderness of weeds and bushes. Some pains used to be taken with this burial yard, but of late years it has been sadly neglected. Let us all assist in the work of thorough renovation.

The Catholic burial ground is even in worse plight than the Methodist. The fence which surrounds it is entirely gone in some places and cattle roam at will over the graves, while briars grow rank in several places and have even started to climb upon the sides of the church. Enterprising members of that denomination should exert themselves to repair the fence and put the ground in order.

"WORKINGS OF THE SPIRIT."—A few weeks ago one the strangest manifestations of the "workings of the Spirit" that we ever heard of occurred at a school-house near Templeville, in this county. We gather the following particulars from the Smyrna Herald: The teacher, Mr. James R. Dill, had returned to school after the noon intermission, and, on opening the door, was surprised at finding the whole school in tears. On inquiring the cause, his little daughter sprang up and exclaimed, "Oh! papa, we've had such a good time!" It appears that during the noon intermission Mr. Dill's daughter and another girl, aged about 14 years, both earnest, devoted young christians, had commenced singing hymns; the other scholars becoming interested, they started a prayer meeting, during which ten children became converted and professed their belief in Christ. Mr. Dill was affected almost beyond control. School was not to be thought of that afternoon. The spelling book was laid aside for the Bible, and a season of praise and prayer was enjoyed such as the old school-house had never before witnessed. In answer to his question as to how many would meet him at church the next Sabbath morning and make public profession of their faith, five of the older scholars expressed their willingness to do so. Thus were the humble efforts of two "earnest workers" rewarded by a result which cannot help proving a blessing to the community and an advancement of the cause of religion, while the old school-house is invested by an additional charm, which will forever render it sacred in the eyes of all christian people. Surely

"God moves in a mysterious way,
His wonders to perform."
