...ickory.

J. W. Forney tells the ...ry of ...ickory:

"...one of these dinners I heard Old ... repeat this story of General Jackson, probably for the hundredth time.

"Shortly after Mr. Buchanan's return from Russia in 1834, to which he had been sent by President Jackson in 1832, and immediately following his election to the Senate of the United States by the Legislature of Pennsylvania, to fill the unexpired term of Wm. Wilkins, resigned, who, in his turn, was sent to succeed Buchanan in the same foreign mission, Buchanan called upon Old Hickory with a fair English lady, whom he desired to present to the head of the American nation. Leaving her in the reception-room down stairs, he ascended to the President's private quarters, and found General Jackson unshaved, unkempt, in his dressing gown, with his slippered feet on the fender before a blazing wood-fire, smoking a corn-cob pipe of the old Southern school."

"He stated his object, when the General said he would be very glad to meet the handsome acquaintance of the new bachelor Senator. Mr. Buchanan was always careful of his personal appearance, and in some respects, was a sort of masculine Miss Fribble, addicted to spotless cravats and huge collars, rather proud of a small foot for a man of his statue, and to the last of his life, what the ladies would call 'a very good figure.'"

"Having just returned from a visit to the fashionable continental circles, after two years of thorough intercourse with the etiquette of one of the stateliest courts in Europe, he was somewhat shocked at the idea of the President meeting the eminent English lady in such a guise, and ventured to ask if he did not intend to change his attire; whereupon the old warrior rose, with his long pipe in his hand, and deliberately knocking the ashes out of the bowl, said to his friend: 'Buchanan, I want to give you a little piece of advice, which I hope you will remember. I knew a man once who made his fortune by attending to his own business. Tell the lady I will see her presently.'"

"The man who became President in 1866, was fond of saying that this remark of Andrew Jackson humiliated him more than any rebuke he had ever received. He walked down stairs to meet his fair charge, and in a very short time President Jackson entered the room, dressed in a full suit of black, cleanly shaved, with his stubborn white hair forced back from his remarkable face, and advancing to the beautiful Britisher, saluted her with almost kindly grace. As she left the White House she exclaimed to her escort, 'Your Republican President is the royal model of a gentleman.'"

Cultivate Flowers.

I would cultivate in children a love for flowers, and give them one to tend and care for, as soon as they are capable of doing it. It is a work that tends to beget kindness and tenderness of feeling, and will lead them to seek to be good and lovely, tender and gentle in word and deed. Who would indulge in anger among flowers?

Every farmer's wife should have a few plants, one at least, to cherish and love. It would lighten her harder labor, and receive her great care, and often sooth her perturbed feelings, to give it merely a look, a thought, a draught of water in its need—to watch its growth and catch the fragrance of its opening petals. Perchance I hear one say, "I have no time to spend in that way. I h... from morning ...ch left ...oesn't ...ork, or how ...e truely dosen't ... is not likely he ever ... and this sin of ignorance in ...ter be winked at than fretted ...im, I say, cultivate plants and ...t no day pass without listening, attentively, to their whispering ...d in your silent communings with ...arn to

"Bless God for flowers,
Bright, gentle, holy thoughts they ...athe
...ut their odorous beauty, lake a wreath
Or sunshine to life's hours."

I Was There.

"Why did you not pocket some of those pears, Julius?" said one boy to another; "...body was there to see."

"...s there was—I was there to see myself. I don't ever want to see myself do... thing." Now, wasn't Julius a ... sensible boy? He did not ... wake what was not his. What if no... see him? What if no one but ... hit the boy with him ever knew it, ... It was but a small theft, but ... always know that he did a ... Whenever he sees pears they ... him of the wicked deed he ... sees the man from whom he ...rs, he will run round the cor... out of his sight; but the boy ... pears will always be with ... never get out of the company ... looks in the glass, and the ...ttles looks him straight in the face. ... rushes off to the woods, goes to parties, ...bs, to schools, to church, and there goes the thief.

Don't steal little things, boys, then you will not steal larger ones. Be always honst in small matters; keep on the best of ...rms with yourself; know positively th...ou are in good company when you are ...th yourselves; be always able to say, "...e was an honest boy; I was there."

MEDICINAL.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cures them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends; and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel nor any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar-coating preserves them ever fresh, and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach, and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

CLEAR AND HARMLESS AS WATER!

NATTAN'S

CRYSTAL DISCOVERY for the HAIR.

A perfectly clear preparation, in one bottle; as easily applied as water, for restoring gray hair to its natural color and youthful appearance; to eradicate and prevent dandruff; to promote the growth of the hair and stop its falling off.

It is entirely harmless and perfectly free from any poisonous substance, and will, therefore, take the place of all the dirty and unpleasant preparations now in use. Numerous testimonials have been sent up from many of our most prominent citizens, some of which are subjoined; in everything in which the articles now in use are objectionable, "Crystal Discovery" is perfect; it is warranted to contain neither Sugar of Lead, Sulphur or Nitrate of Silver. Clear and clean as water, it does not soil the clothes or scalp; it is agreeably perfumed, and makes one of the best dressings for the hair in use; it restores the color of the hair more perfectly and uniformly than any other preparation, and always does so in from three to ten days. Virtually feeding the roots of the hair with all the nourishing qualities necessary to its growth and healthy condition, it restores the decay and induces a new growth of the hair more positively than anything else. The application of this wonderful discovery also produces a pleasant and cooling effect on the scalp, and gives the hair a pleasant and elegant appearance.

Washington, D. C., July 25, 1870.

Mr. Arthur Nattans: Dear Sir—It affords me pleasure to say that I have used your Crystal Discovery with perfect success. Having tried many others, I find yours superior to any I have heretofore used, and I cannot too highly recommend it as a rapid promoter of the growth of the hair, and by a few applications restoring it to its original color. It is perfectly clean and free from any objectionable matter.

Very respectfully yours, R. W. SILVOY,
K st., bet. 4th and 5th. N. W.

We call especial attention to the fact that a limited number of trial bottles will be given away gratuitously to those wishing to try.—You will notice that in pursuing this course, our aim will be to convince by the actual merits of the article.

ARTHUR NATTANS,
Inventor and Proprietor, Washington, D. C.

$2.00 EACH!

Although they are really worth $5.00 each.—They are 19x24 inches, and each is a gem of art.

LURLEY:

A legend of the Rhine. A female of rare beauty sits on the shore of the river, where the rocks are the most dangerous, and with her song and music charms the unwary sailors to near her, when they meet a watery grave.—The subject is full of life, full of emotion, and is altogether a success.

THE DISINHERITED!

A young man, through the wiley influence of some one of the household, is deprived of a share in his father's house. Having but sorrow as his lot, he departs, and from a neighboring hill he takes his last look and farewell to the scenes of his younger and better days. The heart fills with deep sorrow in examining this subject so well drawn.

THE CHILD CHRIST!

A child with human body and dress, angelic face and divine eyes, is represented so well that words cannot tell half its worth.—We do not think that any engraving has yet reached the excellence of this, in touching the heart and lifting it away to a higher world. The eye never tires to look. The more it is seen, the greater the desire to look again and again.

Also a correct lithograph likeness of
