The Farmer's Column.

The Farmer Feedeth All.

My lord rides through the palace gate,
My lady sweeps along in state,
The sage thinks long on many a thing,
And the maiden muses on marrying:
The sailor plows the foaming sea,
The hunter kills the good red deer,
And the soldier wars without a tear;
But to fall to each whate'er befall,
The farmer he must feed them all.

Smith hammereth cherry red the sword,
Priest preacheth pure the holy word,
Dame Alice worketh braiding well,
Clerk Richard tales of love can tell,
The tap wife sells her foaming beer,
Dan Fisher fisheth in the mere,
And courtiers ruffle, strut and shine,
While pages bring the Gascan wine,
Man builds his castles far and high.

Where'er river runneth by,
Great cities rise in every land;
Great churches show the builder's hand,
Great arches, mountains and towers,
Fair palaces and pleasing bowers;
Great work is done, be it here or there,
And well men worketh everywhere,
But work or rest, whate'er befall
The farmer he must feed them all.

How the Sharpers Swindle Unsuspecting Farmers.

The Des Moines Register says that the farmers of that section of Iowa have been victimized to the tune of thousands of dollars, during the past year, by patent right swindlers; and, for the benefit of that class of our readers, and others interested in such matters, we deem it advisable to expose the fraud and modus operandi.

The patent right swindler drives along through the rural districts—avoiding towns and villages, as the jail-breaker avoids habitation and frequented roads—and stops at the house of a farmer, or visits him in the field, and engages in conversation, adroitly bringing in the subject of his patent right, and wonders whether his dear friend, the farmer, won't agree, at no possible risk to himself, to dispose of a few machines at a very large commission. Sometimes the farmer tells the swindler that his farm is about all that he can manage, and do it well; but too often the farmer thinks 'ah, here's a chance for me to make a few dollars without working hard for it,' and becomes interested. Thereupon the spider redoubles his efforts, speaks in glowing colors of the prospective fortune that is to be made out of the sale of his patent rake, or churn, or plow, or any one of the numerous subjects of these swindlers. The fly acceeds,a blank agreement is produced,likewise pen and ink, and if no better is at hand, the slanting back of a buggy makes an impromptu writing desk. The farmer carefully reads the agreement, finds it apparently simple and liberal, and signs his name to it; sometimes once, oftener several times, sometimes on both sides, usually on but one. And what has he done? He has opened a door, whereby knavery of the lowest order may creep in. He has unintentionally signed away what purports to be a promissory note, that has rested in the agreement in unsuspected innocence until the shears, or a cutting machine, let loose a negotiable lie, to be sold to some equally unsuspecting individual as the maker.—The following is the form of the note used in this case:

MANCHESTER, IOWA, Feb. 18th, 1871.
One year after date I promise to pay A. Stone or bearer ten dollars when I shall order, Two Hundred and Seventy-five Dollars worth of Seeding Machines for value recieved, at ten per cent. per annum, and ten dollars when due is payable at Manchester, Iowa.
CHAS. KIRK, Agent for A. Stone.
Witness: John Johnson.

On its face all seems fair, but in form only a common contract note, but as soon as he swindler has it in his possession he severs from the contract that portion found on the lower end, where a white space is seen, just after the word "or," and makes a sale of it to the next farmer he meets.

Besides the above, many other artifices are resorted to; double paper artfully pasted together; ink that can be removed, so that evidence of conditions to be fulfilled by the prayer before payment can be destroyed.

Look out, farmers, you are considered legitimate prey by these rascals; sign nothing that is presented to you for your signature by a stranger, or by any one in whom you have not the most implicit confidence.

MAKING POULTRY PROFITABLE.—The place to which young chickens retire ought to have a dry floor and be kept scrupulously clean, and as the floor is the coldest part of the room, their roosting-box ought not to be more than twelve inches high, and to be slanting, wich will keep the warm air in the roost. Setting hens can be cured by putting water in a vessel, to the depth of one inch, putting the hen into and covering the top of the vessel for about twenty-four hours. The vessel should be deep enough to allow the fowl to stand up. This is the best remedy we have ever tried.—Earth-worms are greatly relished by confined fowls. Take a spade once a day and turn over the ground for your hens. They will soon run after you when they see you with the spade, and will amply reward you for the extra trouble to accommodate them by an increased supply of eggs.

HOW TO TREAT HOGS.—An Ohio hog-grower says that the following treatment makes the biggest hog out of a pig in 12 months:—Take two parts of barley, two of corn, and one of oats. Grind them together, then cook and feed cold. He says it is the cheapest food, and that any pig of good improved breed can be made to gain a pound a day until a year old.

MEDICINAL.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.
Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this SARSAPARILLA: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.
Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long-continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

CLEAR AND HARMLESS AS WATER!
NATTAN'S
CRYSTAL DISCOVERY for the HAIR.
A perfectly clear preparation, in one bottle; as easily applied as water, for restoring gray hair to its natural color and youthful appearance; to eradicate and prevent dandruff; to promote the growth of the hair and stop its falling off.
It is entirely harmless and perfectly free from any poisonous substance, and will, therefore, take the place of all the dirty and unpleasant preparations now in use. Numerous testimonials have been sent up from many of our most prominent citizens, some of which are subjoined; in everything in which the articles now in use are objectionable, "Crystal Discovery" is perfect; it is warranted to contain neither Sugar of Lead, Sulphur or Nitrate of Silver. Clear and clean as water, it does not soil the clothes or scalp; it is agreeably perfumed, and makes one of the best dressings for the hair in use; it restores the color of the hair more perfectly and uniformly than any other preparation, and always does so in from three to ten days. Virtually feeding the roots of the hair with all the nourishing qualities necessary to its growth and healthy condition, it restores the decay and induces a new growth of the hair more positively than anything else. The application of this wonderful discovery also produces a pleasant and cooling effect on the scalp, and gives the hair a pleasant and elegant appearance.
Washington, D. C., July 25, 1870.
Mr. Arthur Nattans: Dear Sir—It affords me pleasure to say that I have used your Crystal Discovery with perfect success. Having tried many others, I find yours superior to any I have heretofore used, and I cannot too highly recommend it as a rapid promoter of the growth of the hair, and by a few applications restoring it to its original color. It is perfectly clean and free from any objectionable matter.
Very respectfully yours, R. W. SILVOY.
K st., bet. 4th and 5th. N. W.
We call especial attention to the fact that a limited number of trial bottles will be given away gratuitously to those wishing to try.—You will notice that in pursuing this course, our aim will be to convince by the actual merits of the article.
