DOMESTIC NEWS.

☞The Orphans' Court for Caroline Co. will meet on Tuesday, June 27th.

The Editor's Hash.

—The wheat harvest will end with the present week.

—The Highland Light has resumed her Sunday trips to Denton.

—Rev. Robt. W. Todd is on a visit to his friends in this county.

—We hear of a number of hogs dying from an unknown disease.

—The sacrament was administered at the M. E. Church on Sunday last.

—If our paper is dry this week may it not be attributed to so much temperance?

—The Highland Light will not come any further up the river to-morrow than Cambridge.

—Mr. Josiah White made his first shipment of raspberries on Monday—300 quarts.

—Selby's mill has been purchased by Mr. Jno. T. Sangston and put in thorough working order.

—Wm. E. Todd is building a new two-story dwelling for Collison Waddell on his farm near Preston.

—Early corn is silking, and one instance of roasting ears several inches in length has come to our knowledge.

—We understand that it is proposed to place an iron fence in front of the Court House by private subscription.

—A minister's horse with a fowl stomach devoured several young chickens for Mr. Thos. Andrew on Tuesday.

—Partridges are plentiful, and our sportsmen are felicitating themselves upon an abundance of shooting this fall.

—Huckleberries have come. Mr. W. J. Wilkinson made the first shipment (28 quarts) to Philadelphia on Monday.

—The Rev. E. J. Stearns will preach in the P. E. Chapel in this town on Sunday next, 18th inst., at 10½ o'clock, A. M.

—No camp-meeting will be held this year at Hubbard's woods, the quarterly conference having so decided last week.

—Dr. Stiles Kennedy, formerly of Marydel, has been appointed resident physician to a health-seeking summer resort in Michigan.

—Some of the M. E. ministers on the Peninsula are "talking up" Rev. Dr. Eddy, of Baltimore, as one of the candidates for Bishop.

—The conviction of Fred. Lawrence cost Talbot county $872.00. The expense incident to his execution will swell the sum to over $1,000.

—Amy Tilghman, a colored woman 65 years of age and residing in the 5th district, was found dead in her bed on Sunday morning last.

—The excursion over the Md. & Del. R. R. last Thursday was a paying affair.—There were ten cars in the train, and every car was packed to its utmost capacity.

—Several acres have been put down in peanuts by farmers in this county. Those who are fortunate enough to grow a good crop will be likely to make, since the crop is pronounced a failure at the South.

—Capt. Saml. Thomas, of this county, was drowned at Cambridge on Monday week. His vessel sunk at her moorings, and it is supposed he rolled from a pad upon which he was sleeping into the hold and was drowned.

—We neglected in our last issue, when we spoke of Mr. Lowe's appointment as agent of the Cecil Fire Insurance Company, to state that Capt. Alex. Stewart, the former agent, had resigned the position.—Capt. Stewart filled the office very acceptably.

—Amos Ridge's case came up before U. S. Commissioner Johnson, of Washington, on Thursday afternoon last, but was postponed until Tuesday last in order to summon the mail contractor on the Ridgely route and the cashier of the Easton bank, since which time we have no intelligence of any further proceedings.

—A wedding was solemnized on the excursion train from Oxford last Thursday night just beyond Marydel. The license had been procured before leaving in the morning with a view to being married at Oxford, but finding that the license would not permit the marriage outside the limits of Delaware, it was postponed until the Delaware line was reached, when the ceremony was performed while the train was in motion.

—We send to our subscribers in town this morning, as a supplement to the paper, a large and handsome lithographic engraving of Wanamaker & Brown's Oak Hall Clothing House, Philadelphia. The engraving is a fac-simile representation of the building. The postal regulations forbid our sending this gift of Mr. Wanamaker's to our subscribers through the mail, but they can secure it by calling at our office.

TIMBER LAND.—We call attention to the valuable tract of timber land offered at private sale by Philip W. Downes, Esqr., It is represented as being one of the finest timber sections in the county, and the moderate price at which it is held must prove an inducement to purchasers.

THE WHEAT CROP.—The taking down of the wheat has enabled our farmers to form some more correct idea of the probabilities of the crop. Some fields, but these are exceptional cases, have been slightly damaged by the fly and other enemies, but not sufficient to materially lessen the crops. The damage is confined almost exclusively to the white variety, while the red is pronounced better than any crop for the past ten years. We sincerely hope these flattering reports will not be dissipated by the threshing out of the wheat.

THE HAY CROP.—The hay crop in this county this season is very poor, on account of the protracted drought. Many of our farmers will not be able to cure enough for their own uses, and will be compelled to fall back on fodder. But we are no worse off here than are the farmers at the North. The drought has been almost universal, and the hay crop in some sections is almost an entire failure.

FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION.—The Harmony Sabbath School will celebrate the 4th in an appropriate manner. Extensive preparations are being made, and we have no doubt the celebration will be a pleasant affair. Ex-Governor P. F. Thomas, Rev. Col. McCarter, Rev. S. T. Gardner, Wm. S. Ridgely, Esq., and other distinguished speakers have been invited and are expected to be present. We also understand that the Lyceum of the same place will celebrate the same day. The School and Lyceum had better make a joint affair of it.

STRAWBERRY STATISTICS.—We have only partial data upon which to approximate the amount of relief afforded by the strawberry crop in this vicinity, but would not suppose it would fall short of $3,000 or $4,000. One man alone netted nearly $1,000 while other larger growers realized handsome sums. We have but few extensive growers around Denton, although there are many small beds, but the fruit from these is retailed amongst our own citizens. The crop was blighted by the frost, and one of our largest growers informs us that he only picked about one-third what he otherwise would have done had the season been favorable.

STORE ROBBED.—Mr. Chas. H. Ringold's store, at Hillsborough, was entered by burglars on Thursday night last, shortly after it was closed, and goods amounting to about $200 taken away. Being detected by "Dutch Miller," who ocupies a prat of the building in which the store is kept, they hastily decamped with their booty, saluting Miller with several pistol shots as they departed. We learn that a portion of the goods have been recovered, having been found at the house of a colored man in Queen Anne's, and that the plot is about to be unraveled. Considering the boldness of this robbery and the other attempts lately made in the same town, we hope the thieves will all be apprehended and receive that punishment which the nature of their offence merits.

THE ORPHANS' COURT.—Jas. R. Manship, administrator of Chas. Peters, passed inventory and appraisement.

Guardians appointed: Robt. J. Jump, guardian to Wm. W. Collins, son of A. Y. Collins, and Jas. M. Jones, guardian to John R. Chatham and Lucinda Towers, children of A. Towers.

Administration and other accounts passed: W. H. Watkins, executor of Peter Jester, passed interest account, 1st and final account of administration and final distribution; Jno. A. Dillen administrator of Wm. Andrew, final accounut of administration; Jas. E. Douglass, administrator of Susan A. Green, final account of administration; Eliza Nicholson, executrix of Nehemiah Fountain, account of sales, list of sperate debts and 1st and final account of administration, and Chas. W. Carroll, administrator of Isaiah Cannon, first account of administration.
