DOMESTIC NEWS.

☞The Orphans' Court for Caroline Co. will meet on Tuesday, June 27th.

The Editor's Hash.

—Farmer's Club next Saturday.

—Early apples are quite palatable.

—A fine rain on last Saturday night and Sunday.

— Corn is small, but has a healthy appearance.

—The Democratic managers are becoming more active.

—Some of our farmers have begun to thresh out their wheat.

—Mr. R. J. W. Garey has lost thirteen game chickens from the cholera.

—Wm. R. Hynson has been appointed collector of State and county taxes for the 1st district.

—Alcaid Dawson, Esq., for many years a citizen of this county, died at Seaford on Tuesday week.

—The papers say that great preparations are being made at Wanamaker & Brown's for the coming Spring.

—The post-office at New Hope, in this county, has been re-established, with Mr. Jas. T. Kenney as postmaster.

—Capt. Robt. R. Emerson, one of our largest farmers and wheat-growers, says his wheat is turning out badly.

—The Wilmington Commercial says "Denton dogs are dying from an unknown disease." Would that such were the case.

—Several colored men are in durance vile at Centreville, charged with the robbery of Mr. C. H. Ringold's store, at Hillsborough.

—In the immediate vicinity of Denton there are but few peaches upon the trees, but reports from the country continue flattering.

—Last Thursday was pay day on the Md. & Del. R. R., and the employees along the line of the road were made glad by the prompt payment of their month's earnings.

—Mr. White's first shipment of raspberries was 600 quarts, instead of 300, as was stated by us last week. He has shipped upwards of a thousand quarts since then.

—The Sunday School committee will meet at Wesley Church on Sunday next, at 10 A. M., to address the school at that place, and at Harmony on the following Sabbath at the same hour.

—A general meeting will be held in the grove at Concord on Monday next, at 2 o'clock, P. M., at which arrangements for the coming camp-meeting will be made.—All interested had better attend.

—The committee to consider the advisability of holding an agricultural exhibition this fall failed to meet on Tuesday, and we suppose this will be the last of it. How provokingly slow some people are.

CALLED.—Rev. E. J. Stearns, of Elkton, has been called to the rectorship of St. Mary's White Chapel Parish. The reverend gentleman has accepted the call, and is now located in our midst. He preached in a very acceptable manner to his congregation on Sunday morning last.

CHANGE OF CONDUCTORS.—Mr. A. C. Collins having resigned his position as Ticket and Express agent, at the Easton Depot, Wilton Powell, Conductor of the freight train, has been assigned to duty at the depot in Mr. Collins' place, and Mr. Eugene Arringdale has been appointed Conductor in the place of Mr. Powell.

THE FARMERS' CLUB meets again on Saturday next, and we hope our farmers generally will attend. Many have assured us of their sympathies with the purposes and objects of the Club, but these sympathies have never yet been strong enough to draw them to any single meeting. We do trust they will encourage this enterprise by their presence, and will turn out in full force on Saturday.

EXCURSION.—The Hillsboro' M. E. Sabbath School will make an excursion over the Md. & Del. R. R., from Clayton to Oxford and return, on Thursday next. The arrangements for the accomodation of the excursionists are ample, while the charges are exceedingly moderate. Persons wishing a pleasant day's recreation at the bay shore may obtain it by accompanying the excursion. For time table and fare see large bills, which were printed at this office.

THE NEW ROUTE TO NEW YORK.—We have heretofore regarded the construction of a railroad between this Peninsula and New York across the soil of New Jersey and then up the Jersey coast as a visionary scheme of some erratic individuals in the Metropolis, but it seems that these individuals were sincere in the belief that they had discovered a more practicable route than all existing ones, and are working away in good earnest to put in successful operation their road. From a Vineland paper, the editor of which last week passed over the completed portion of the road, we learn that the work is progressing rapidly, and that iron in sufficient quantities to lay the track to Vineland is already purchased and paid for and is being delivered daily in quantities of one hundred tons. It is expected that the cars will be running to Vineland in about two month's time. We also learn that work will positively be begun on that part of the road on this side of the bay on Friday next, and will be pushed forward as rapidly as possible. The route on this side of the bay is from the Northern terminus of the Md. & Del. R. R., at Clayton, to Bombay Hook. It would therefore seem that the Peninsula will soon have another avenue to New York, and probably that great chimera of a "through route between New York and New Orleans, via the Md. & Del. R. R.," of which so much has been said, will yet be in the no distant future.

FOURTH OF JULY EXCURSION.—We notice by handbills that an excursion will be made over the Md. & Del. R. R. on the 4th of July to Oxford to witness the great regatta which is to come off at that place on that day. The race promises to be one of no ordinary interest, as some fleet-sailing crafts have already been entered, and the accompanying ceremonies of the occasion will be novel to our citizens. The train will run down early in the morning and back in the evening.

A GONG TO DRIVE AWAY RATS.—When Capt. Alex. Stewart first opened the Choptank Hotel, in this town, he was greatly annoyed by house rats, as those who had occupied the building before him had been. But soon after he had been installed as mine host, and his gong had begun to emit its deep, rumbling sounds, the rats began to disappear until the last one had departed and no traces of them are now to be found. He says he has made no effort to rid himself of these pests, and can account for their total disappearance in no other way.—Couldn't that gong pass from house to house until there was not a rat in the town?

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. Jacob Whitaker, formerly a citizen of this county, but for several years past a resident of Kent Co., Del., died at his residence, in Farmington, on the 15th inst. His illness was of but four day's duration, and his disease being of the most malignant form of billious dysentery, notwithstanding he was a man of powerful physique and enjoyed general good health, he was hurried out of existence with but little notice of his approaching end. Mr. Whitaker was in his 61st year, and leaves an amiable wife and six children, with a large circle of friends to mourn their loss. His dwelling on his farm, near Farmington, was burned some two months ago.

TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.—The general topic of conversation which now seems to engross public attention in this community, is the subject as to the best means of regulating the license system for the sale of alcoholic liquors. So great has the interest in this subject become that a public discussion at the Court House in this place has been had for two evenings in as many weeks. These discussions have been continued until 11 o'clock at night, and still the subject appears fruitful. At the last meeting, on Friday night, it was agreed to hold a County Convention, and a committee of ten was appointed to carry out the objects of the meeting. Quite a number of our citizens took part in the discussion of this subject, at the two past meetings, and when the County Convention comes off we may expect a report from some of the larger guns, who, it is hoped, will be full charged and primed for the occasion.—Keep the ball rolling. The cause has our sympathy and support. The temperance cause will not suffer by agitation. Like pure gold, the more you rub it the brighter it will shine. The following gentlemen constitute the committee above referred to: Dr. C. E. Tarr, Jno. H. Emerson, Thos. H. Kemp, Hy. Blackiston, J. W. Bryant, Dr. P. S. Reynolds, Wm. S. Ridgely, R. H. Loockerman, Dr. M. A. Booth and Jno. A. Todd.
