COMPLIMENTARY.—The Cecil Democrat Published at Rev. E. J. Stearns' late home, speaks in the following complimentary language of that gentleman: Mr. Stearns has been in Elkton since last fall, officiating in Trinity Church in place of Rev. W. D. Mitchell, the state of whose health required him to spend the winter in Florida. He is a gentleman of great energy, a scholar of vast erudition, and a christian whose life and character are above reproach. Our friends at Denton may well value fortune in securing his services.

SIGNS OF THE ZODIAC.—A Philosopher in the West, grown into admiration of the Cherry Pectoral, writes Dr. Ayer for instructions under which sign he shall be bled, which blistered, and which vomited, and under which he shall take Ayer's Pills for an affection of the liver; also under which sign his wife should commence to take the Sarsaparilla for her ailment. He adds that he already knows when to wean his calves under Taurus, change his pigs in Scorpio, cut his hair in Aries, and soak his feet in Pisces or Acquarius as their condition requires.

Schoolmasters, start for Wisconsin, and visit Mr. Ham when you get there.—Lowell Daily News.
