DOMESTIC NEWS.

☞The Orphans' Court for Caroline county will meet on Tuesday, August 8th.

The Editor's Hash.

—This is real bilious weather.

—Peach shipments are rapidly increasing.

—Camp-meeting at Hurlock's next Sunday.

—The berry crops are about done for this season.

—The Harrington camp-meeting holds over next Sunday.

—The Massachusetts has superceeded the Highland Light on the route to Denton.

—The repairs of the Catholic Church are about completed, and it will be re-opened soon.

—Watermelons have come to Denton. But they are beyond the slim purse of a printer.

—Baltimore is said to be a better peach market this season than either New York or Philadelphia.

—Have we gone back to the Spring storms? That of Tuesday was equal in severity to the equinoctial.

—Our entire "travellers" guide presents a change this morning. Travellers will wisely consult it before starting.

—Coker has been astonishing the people of Easton by the peculiar and wonderful feats which he performs with fire.

—Thawley's M. P. Sabbath School will accept our thanks for a liberal supply of the cake from its exhibition of last week.

—We don't believe there is another town of the globe that has so many ., half-starved, roguish, ill-looking dogs as Denton. Is there no relief?

—We learn Mr. R. K. Richardson has purchased of Capt. Alexander Stewart the lease and good-will of the Choptank Hotel in this town, and will take possession in the fall.

—There are thirty newspapers on this Peninsula, independent of those in Wilmington, and almost every one claims to have the best office and largest subscription list!

—One hundred and six dollars and fifty-six cents were raised among the congregation of the Bethelite (colored) church on Sunday last to help pay off the church indebtedness.

—Rev. Howard Meeks, of Kent county, Md., filled the pulpit of the M. E. Church in this town on last Sabbath morning and evening, and of the "Goose Pond" Church in the afternoon.

—Daniel Fields, G. W. Goldsborough and J. W. Bryant were appointed by the late Democratic State Convention members of the State Central Committee of that party for this county.

—We learn that the potato bug has manifested itself upon the vines of some of the growers in this county. A friend of the editor of the Westminister (Md.) Sentinel says that coal oil will drive them away.

—The undergrowth which everywhere abounded in the grove in the lot which surrounds the Friend's Meeting House, over the Bridge, has been carefully cut out and the house covered by a neat coat of whitewash.

—Camp meeting people who are fond of good living will be pleased to learn that Mr. Samuel H. Fluharty, of Federalsburg, will keep a boarding tent at Concord this summer. He has also obtained a similar privilege at Hurlock's.

—The Easton Star says a citizen of this county has instituted a new name for soda water—"sweetened wind." If that "wind" had come from the neighborhood of the Star office the Carolinian would not have probably thought it was so sweet.

—One Philadelphia paper says: "Oak Hall is the largest Clothing House;" another says: "Oak Hall is the cheapest Clothing House;" still another says: "Oak Hall is the most Reliable Clothing House," and so on. They are all of them right, for the truth is it is the Largest, CHEAPEST and BEST.

—The Sabbath School committee will meet the school which assembles in the new school house, near Manlove Hutchinson's, on Sunday week. Jno. Nichols, Jno. H. Emerson, G. W. Collison, and perhaps others will be present. Parents, children and all lovers of the Sabbath School are invited to be present.

RAIN STORM.—We had another heavy rain storm on Tuesday night, which was accompanied by a heavy wind and vivid flashes of lightning. In some sections of the county, the growing corn was blown down and the blades very much torn.

THE ORPHANS' COURT.—Wm. Loockerman, guardian to John W., David B., Marcus H., Alfred, Martha E., Margaret A. and Laura H. Smith, minors, passed first guardian account.

Administration accounts passed: by J. W. Bryant, administrator D. B. N. of Jas. H. Fountain, third account; by William Phillips, executor of Margaret Sturgis, first and final account.

STEAMBOAT CHANGE.—A change took place in the running of the Eastern shore steamers of the Maryland Steamboat Company on Monday last, forming a daily line between Baltimore and all points on the Choptank below Hog Island. The Massachusetts has superseeded the Highland Light on the route to Denton, but makes tri-weekly trips, leaving Denton at noon on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Sundays. The Massachusetts leaves Baltimore at 9.30 o'clock P. M., for Denton, on Monday and Wednesday nights, and on Saturdays at 7 o'clock, A. M.

FINE PEACHES.—Mr. Daniel Zacharias left at our office on Tuesday some of the finest specimens of Troth's Early peaches we ever saw. They were unusually large, and beautifully mottled with red and white. He grew them on a small farm he owns near town, tenanted by Mr. H. A. H. Mason.

HOW IT STANDS.—As there is some dissatisfaction in regard to the location of the tent sites upon the Concord camp-ground, and as it is alleged that some of the appointments have more than their just proportion of tents on the front row, we submit the following statement, showing last year's proportion, for the benefit of the curious. We are indebted to a friend for the table. It might be well to add that the different appointments have about the same proportion this year.

Concord,	10	Wesley's,	1
Denton,	7	Bloomery,	1
Potter's Landing,	7	Harris' Chapel,	1
Harmony,	3	Trinity (Del.),	1

LEE'S CHAPEL.—An effort was inaugurated, several months since, to rebuild this time honored place of worship. After quiet, but earnest labor, a sufficient sum has been subscribed to justify the commencement of the work. Instead of building on the site of the old chapel, a spot has been selected at the intersection of Horsey's lane with the road from Greensborough to Burrsville.

While loosing the shade of the venerable trees which adorned the old site, an advantage, as regards congregation and prospective usefulness, has been gained by the chapel. We notice that the foundation is already laid, and the major portion of the frame ready for raising.—Journal.

GIVEN UP THE PRIVILEGE.—Mr. Jas. H. Moore, of Federalsburg, who purchased the privilege of the bread tent at the Concord camp-meeting has given it up on account of the restrictions imposed by the Committee. New bids will therefore be received by the committee; and in view of the prospective meeting for this purpose, a petition is in circulation for signatures asking the Committee to remodel the location of the entire ground. The locating of the tent sites has, as is the case every year, created dissatisfaction, and it is proposed to settle all disputes in this way. Favoritism is bound to manifest itself when the sites are placed at the disposal of a committee, and entire satisfaction is therefore impossible. The allotment of the tent sites by a drawing is the only impartial manner in which it can be done with satisfaction to all. When this plan is adopted, if Mr. A or Mr. B draw sites on the back row, they cannot charge unfairness, and are in honor bound to "accept the situation." If the Committee shall deem the petition worthy of a hearing and agree to alter the location of the ground (though we think it would hardly be advisable this year) we suggest the propriety of the drawing scheme, believing it to be the only method by which favoritism and partiality can be defeated.

Peninsular Jottings.

KENT COUNTY, MD.

The grand tournament at Still Pond took place yesterday.

Lawrence M. Strong, well known in the county, died suddenly of heart disease on Monday night week.

KENT COUNTY, DEL.

Peter Freeman, a colored boy, 18 years of age, was arrested last week for a deadly assault with intent to commit a rape upon Mary A. Townsend, a white girl of the same age.

The Camden camp meeting begun yesterday.

WICOMICO COUNTY.

Marion, son of Levin Townsend, fell from the roof of Mrs. Williams' saw mill, in Salisbury, on Tuesday week and fractured his leg.

D. J. Holloway has been appointed constable for the Salisbury district, and Anthony Crouch fills his position as bailiff of the town.

Robt. Parsons' dwelling, 4 miles from Salisbury, took fire a few days ago and was burned to the ground. Loss, $1,000; insurance, $700.

CECIL COUNTY.

Capt. Jno. Davidson's house in Elkton, was robbed by a sailor, on Wednesday night week whom he had kindly consented to take care of for the night.

Jas. Andrews was arrested and lodged in jail last week for attempting to commit a rape upon a married woman near Chesapeake City recently.

A match splint machine with a capacity for making 20,800,000 splints in ten hours, has just been put in Hill & Alexander's mill, in Elkton.

SOMERSET COUNTY.

A white man was discovered one night last week in the house of a widow lady—Mrs. Dougherty in Princess Anne. Upon being discovered he hastily decamped. Such offenders are common, says the local press.

The True Marylander, of last week, has some advice for the ladies in its local columns. It recommends them to use Hostetters' Stomach Bitters. "Du tell!"

The potato bug is stripping the potato and tomato plants of their leaves.

The Western estate, of 1050 acres was lately sold at public sale to E. B. & Henry C. Cooke, of Philadelphia, for $15,100.

SUSSEX COUNTY.

The "black glanders" has appeared with fatal effect among the horses in parts of Broad Creek hundred.

Two churches on Millsboro' M. E. Circuit are being repaired.

A daily boat is now running between Lewes and New York.

The Seaford Record might exchange with us at least once a month.

A correspondent informs the Milford Mutual Friend that a young girl is missing from Lewes and that foul play is suspected.

Fishing is forbidden at Lewes on Sunday under a penalty of $50.

Ex-Senator Polk, of Missouri, is visiting Milford.

NEW CASTLE COUNTY.

It is said that Mr. W. T. Croasdale, at present local editor of the Commercial, will start a new daily in Wilmington about the 1st of September.

Work has been begun on the new Wilmington & Western R. R.

Wm. Brady's barn, which, with its contents, was worth about $2,500, was burned recently.

The Wilmington & Reading R. R. has completed its track to the Christiana and nearly finished its wharf.

Wilmington is said to have the best natural scenery for a park of any city in the United States, and yet the City Council stupidly refuses to purchase it.

Middletown is going to build a new Episcopal Church.

The Hale's Early peach is becoming very unpopular in the county. Growers around Middletown call it the "Devil's Early."

DORCHESTER COUNTY.

Court at Cambridge this week.

The News thinks there is a wonderful amount of poetical talent about Cambridge. It is very strange it don't have more of it in its columns.

Elijah Ellis and Pat. Riley, both colored, engaged in a stabbing affray last week in which the latter was so badly cut that the doctors say he can't live.

WORCESTER COUNTY.

The M. P. congregation which worships at Wesley Chapel, near Newtown, is preparing for a grand festival on the 3rd of August.

The corn crop is said to be very promising.

The Accomack Baptist Association will hold its next annual meeting in the Modestown church on August 17th

QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY,

Jacob Stewart was lodge in the Centreville jail last week for stealing the pocket book of another colored man.

The first locomotive reached Centreville last week.

Court begun at Centreville last Monday, it having been adjourned one week in order to allow the lawyer politicians of the bar the privilege of attending the Democratic State Convention.

The Coppage Woods camp begins to-day.

There is now a daily line of steamers on Chester river.

TALBOT COUNTY.

Nearly $800 was raised at the dedication of the M. E. Church at St. Michaels to assist in the building of it.

The Gazette consumes a column and a-half of space in trying to find out whether the people of Talbot are civilized or not. And then it don't say whether it is satisfied.

A little daughter of Bishop Lay's was kicked and severely injured by a horse on Thursday last.

Jas. C. and Saml. Norris have engaged in the grocery and liquor business in Easton.

Mr. Wrightson fell through an opening in the loft floor of Mr. F. G. Wright's stables whilst hunting for a man supposed to be secreted therein on Friday last and injured himself fatally, it is feared.

The St. Michael's Comet has put on a new dress. By the use of a little better paper the new dress would show to better advantage.

The Bay Side camp-meeting begins to-day.

St. Michaels is endeavoring to start a circulating library.

Western Maryland Gleanings.

—Car building is carried on in Westminster.

—The mortuary report of Baltimore for the past week shows 155 deaths.

—The post office of Boonsboro' is to be made a money order office on the 31st inst.

—It is said that 15 miles of the track of the Potomac R. R. has been laid about Annapolis.

—That prize fight in Allegany county has been abandoned and the trainers have gone home.

—Wm. M. Isaac has been appointed school commissioner for the 2nd district of Baltimore county.

—The First National Bank of Frederick pays a dividend of 12 per cent. per annum to its stock holders.

—An effort is being made to create a new county in Western Maryland with Oakland as the county seat.

—Baltimore is building a new city railroad up Lombard and thence northwardly towards Lafayette Square.

—The Democrats of Carroll county rigidly adhere to their old line of opposition to the accomplished results of the war.

—Wm. H. Hoffman's paper mills, in Baltimore county, exploded recently, working damage to the extent of $5,000.

—A man named Dulaney residing in Allegany county recently attempted to murder his mother-in-law—Mrs. Mary Baxter.

—The late John V. L. McMahon has bequeathed a handsome legacy to the "Protectors of St. Mary's Orpheline School of Baltimore."

—It was confidently expected that the track of the Frederick & Pennsylvania Line R. R. would be completed to Taneytown by Saturday last.

—The third annual fair of the Maryland State Agricultural and Mechanical Association commences at Baltimore on Tuesday, the 3d of October.

—A colored man named Geo. Williams, aged 76 years, died at Frederick last week.—He left an estate worth $8,000 or $10,000 which he had acquired by his own industry.

—A man named Saml. Hull, formely of Carroll county, was lately convicted of bigamy in the Criminal Court for Baltimore city, but was declared insane by the jury.

—A conscience-stricken inmate of the Towsontown jail aroused the people of that town one night last week by cries of murder, declaring the devil was after him. He is in jail on a charge of rape.

—The American says it is currently reported that a prominent official of Baltimore was recently caught in the act of stuffing the ballot-box, and excused himself by saying "everything is fair in politics."

—A few days ago the foot of a Mrs. Miller, of Carroll county, became sore in a place where a needle had been run into the foot some 5 years ago and by poulticing the needle was extracted. Strange to say Mrs. M. had felt no effects from the needle before.

—A will was recently filed in the office of Register of Wills for Allegany county, in which the testator bequeathed "$100 to St. Peter's Catholic Church of Cumberland," and the remainder of his property to the "Holy Mary, mother of Jesus Christ." That man was evidently bestowing his property to some one outside of his own family.

—Danl. Lauman, of Ellicott's City, recently started for Baltimore early in the morning in his wagon for supplies, and was set upon by highwayman, but defended himself with his pistol. Whilst relating his encounter to some friends later in the day and showing them how he used his pistol it went off, the ball entering the palm of the hand and coming out at the wrist.
