Thursday Morning, August 24, 1871.

☞ The Orphans' Court for Caroline county will meet on Tuesday, Sept 5th.

The Editor's Hash.

—Concord Camp closed on Saturday morning last.

—A marriage was celebrated at Concord Church, during Camp. The contracting parties were Rev. Mr. Duhadaway of the Wilmington Conference and Miss Hattie Corkran of this county. The Church was crowded to its utmost capacity by persons desiring to witness the marriage ceremony.

—The weather is very dry—we have had no rain for near four weeks. Late corn and vegetables are suffering severely.

—Denton was exceedingly dull during last week. A brick bat duel, between two of our citizens and the cutting of a colored woman's head by a white man,are the only two items worthy of notice.

—There was a pretty general suspension of business on the part of our citizens during the Camp. We notice the Loafer's Brigade is out on our street in full force.

—The public schools of this county will be opened on the 4th of next month.

—The attention of road supervisors is called to the condition of the public roads and bridges. Now is the time to put them in thorough repair.

—The members of the colored M. E. Church in this place intend holding a camp meeting about the 1st of September in the grove belonging to Mr. R. J. Jump, adjoining town.

Our county is entitled to two vacant scholarships in St. John's College at Annapolis.

—Capt. Willis has given the Schooner, Royal Oak a thorough cleaning and painting. She looks as bright as a new pin,and will be ready in a few days to receive freight for the city market.

—The first freight train left Centreville for Townsend on Friday the 12th inst.

—Alfred Jones, brakesman on the Del. & Md. R. R., became jammed between the cars and received serious injury in the head on the 15th inst.

—A mule belonging to Mr. Chas. Shields died in this place one day last week from being over heated.

—Mr. Jonathan Evitts was thrown from his buggy last week and sustained slight injuries.

—Robt. Thawley, Wm. A. Ford and Benj. Coursey give notice that they will apply to the Commissioners for a public landing on Tuckhoe Creek, at a place called "Doan's Landing." It is much needed and there is no doubt they will be successful in their application.

—Our farmers have commenced fodder-saving. The corn crop is earlier than usual.

—Fears are entertained for the late potatoe crops. The drought is so severe it is thought they will be almost an entire failure.

—Several of our peach growers have ceased shipping their peaches to market.—They do not sell for enough to pay freight. Some have turned their hogs into their orchard and by this means find a home market.

—"We had rather you would come yourself, for we would like to see you; but if more convenient, send us your measure and we will guarantee to suit you in every particular." So write Wanamaker & Brown to one of our neighbors.

RE-UNION.—In our last issue we briefly noticed the re-union of the surviving family of the late Short A. Willis of this county. Since that time we have been furnished with a more full and accurate description of the scenes and enjoyments of this festive occasion.

The surviving friends and relatives of the late Mr. Willis consist of three sons, Mr. A. J. Willis, P. J. Willis and Mr. R. S. Willis; the two last named residing at Galveston, Texas; a sister and a number of grand children, some of them residing in this county and others scattered over a wide district of country from Massachusetts to Texas.

The old homestead has been recently fitted up in hansome style by its present owner, Mr. A. J. Willis, at a cost of thousands of dollars, and the thought occurred to him that a re-union of a long and widely separated family beneath the parental roof of the old mansion would bring back and revive fond memories of childhood's hours, when in the May-day of their existence—in the morning of their youth—the rain-bow tints of joy and gladness spread out so beautifully before them, and they might here again for a short season live over again this life of love and recount the many little incidents of youthful days.

The 9th day of the present month was selected as the time for the re-union. Invitations were sent out over a wide district of country. Preparations were set on foot and extensive arrangements entered into on a large scale, and as all who have the pleasure of the acquaintance of Col. Willis, know that whatever he does he does it with all his might, must know that in this instance there was no failure. The day for the re-union arrived and the tables improvised for the occasion were loaded down with all the luxuries of the season. Fresh meats—canned meats—salt—meats—poultry of all descriptions and in abundance—fruits and vegetables of every variety—ice cream—lemonades—cider—brown stout—champaigne—beers and numerous other good things to regale and refresh the inner man, were present in profusion. The company assembled, was variously estimated at from six hundred to one thousand, and after this large crowd had partaken of all these creature comforts and satisfied the appetite, large quantities were left and given away to those who would call for them,

To facilitate the cooking operations a novel method was adopted by one of the Messrs Willis—a method which prevails in Texas at their barbacues. A large pit, 12 feet long by 3 feet wide was dug in the earth, across the top of which was placed iron bars. A large fire was built in the pit the day before, the coals thus made in the pit done all the cooking for this large party.

Two Bands were present and enlivened the occasion by furnishing excellent music. Altogether it was a lively time—the meeting of brothers and sister—of grand children and old and long tried friends around the old family hearthstone. It was a meeting of old schoolmates, after an absence of thirty years—who met—embraced and wept for joy. Old folk were made young again and joy filled their hearts. The sweetest moments of our lives is the hours spent in innocent childhood, and who is there who would not amid the rough and weary journey of life let memory, on all suitable accasions, revert back to those golden hours of our existence.

We would not omit to state that Major Dickerman and his estimable lady presided on this occasion and in a pleasant and agreeable manner provided for the wants and entertained the guests in a most polite and agreeable manner.

CONCORD CAMP.—This camp, held under the auspices of the M. E. Church, at the old camping ground, commenced its services on the 12th inst., and closed its labors on Saturday morning last. The grove in which it was held is a pleasant place on ordinary occasions, but in this instance, the unprecedented dry weather, together with the intense heat and the thousands congregated there, produced thick clouds of dust which made the encampment unpleasant and at times almost unendurable. And to add to discomfort of the tent-holders, the foolish practice which prevails here to a greater extent than elsewhere, of the young folks promenading around the circle, covering themselves and others in the dust, was a nuisance that should have been dispensed with.

The plan of the camp was entirely changed from that of former years. Broad avenues, five in number, were laid out, affording ingress and egress to the inner circle of the encampment to the thousands who attended religious worship. The attendance of ministers, though not as large as upon former occasions, was of that class of earnest workers in the "moral vinyard," who go forth to battle manfully for the right and who labor zealously for the promotion of the kingdom of Christ on earth. Their labors have not been in vain.

The meeting, we believe, was a success up to Friday night. This being the last night, the rowdy element predominated.—Two or three fights occurred within four or five hundred yards of the encampment.—Whiskey and Apple Brandy flowed freely, and it was stated that about three hundred men were intoxicated on the the outskirts of the encampment. This number we think greatly exaggerated. It may be truthfully stated that one hundred were under the influence of King Alcohol. We are sorry to state that our town furnished her full quota to the Bacchanalian revelry.

CLOSE OF THE COLOED CAMP.—The colored camp held near Potter's Landing closed on the 12th inst. It was well attended and the best of order observed.—There was no fights or disturbances during the continuance of the camp and no drunkenness. A white man named Spence, residing at or near Burrsville, prompted by motives of gain, appeared on the ground provided with a large supply of Whiskey and Apple Brandy for retail purposes, but was caught—the jugs and contents cofiscated by some colored men and the would-be vender of the ardent sent home minus his spirits. Since the close of the camp, we learn, the jugs and contents have been returned to the owner. What a contrast may here be noted in the conduct of the whites at Concord and the colored men near Potter's Landing.

A MONUMENT TO THE DEAD.—About the first of August a handsome monument was erected at the old homestead over the remains of the late Short A. Willis and wife. The monument which is of the best Italian marble and finished in handsome style, bears the motto—"WHO BEARS THE CROSS SHALL WEAR THE CROWN." The base of the monument weighs over one ton and the whole is said to cost near $2000.

SUNDAY SCHOOL COMMITTEE.—The Sunday School Committee of Denton Circuit will visit the various schools at the following times and places:—

WHO CAN BEAT IT?—We were shown on Tuesday last a Cantaloupe, of the nut-meg variety, which weighed 18 lbs., and measured 22½ inches in circumference. It was grown by Mr. Thos. L. Dawson, at Boonsboro'.—We ask, who can beat it?

COUNTY LEVY.—The levy list for Caroline county is in the hands of the printer. The levy for 1871, is upon $4,0494,23, and requires 84 cents on the $100 for county purposes—19 cents for State—making a total of $1,02 on the $100 to meet the current expenses of the present year.

TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.—A County Temperance Convention will be held at Hillsboro' on Thursday, 7th of September next. The friends of the temperance cause are desired to be present. Speakers will be present to address the meeting.

AT HIS OLD QUARTERS.—Mr. Isaac A. Kirkman, formerly of this place, is back again at his old quarters at the Mansion House, corner of St. Paul's and Fayette Sts., Baltimore. This old and favorite resort of our citizens, when on a visit to the city of monuments, is ever open, night and day, for the accommodation of guests.

The unexampled satisfaction that NATTAN'S CRYSTAL DISCOVERY has given in this city, as evidenced by the repeated orders of some of the first Druggists, induce us to direct especial and particular attention to the great fact that by its use you gain all the advantages claimed for the many poisonous compounds in use, to wit: the restoration of the color and growth of the hair and the speedy removal of dandruff, without the least possible injury—as Crystal Discovery is positively warranted to contain no poisonous substance, neither Lead, Sulphur or Silver.
Its perfect cleanliness is a reason not lightly to be overlooked; it will neither stain the skin or clothes—in one sentence, it is exactly what has been wanted for a long while, a Restorer of the Hair that may be used without the fear that you are going to have Neuralgia, Paralysys, Lead Colic and various other complaints, the result of the use of lead preparations.
As simply a Dressing for the Hair, it has also been found to be unexcelled.
