DENTON, MARYLAND:

Thursday Morning, August 31st, 1871.

Politicians at Work.

The boiling, seething political cauldron, is beginning to show signs of life and activity. The political scum is about to arise to the surface. A host of time-servers and tide-waiters are ready to step to the front of the stage, doff their beavers, and make their best political bow to the "dear people," whom they earnestly desire to serve. We really see but little difference between a Maryland politician of the first water, and a Southern carpet-bagger. They are both on the fence, waiting for something to turn up in their favor. It depends altogether upon contingencies, as to which way they fall. It may be Democratic side up, or it may be Republican. There is enough of this doughty class of politicians in this State to give the preponderence to either party. For years past they have controlled the Democratic party. During the war, they were in the Republican ranks, and as long as they had the control, all was right with them. As long as the Democrats will allow them and their friends to fill all the offices and control affairs, they will throw up their hats and shout Democrat as loud as anybody. The State nominations, on the part of the Democrats, have been made, and we believe the slippery, wire-pulling, juggling politicians, are pretty well satisfied with their nominees. But the tug of war is yet in the future. County offices are to be filled. County nominations are to be made. Members of the Legislature are to be nominated and elected—a United States Senator is to be elected by that Legislature. In this, petty politicians see a big job. Greenbacks, whiskey and champaigne, loom up in the distance, and the enchantment causes them to cast wistful glances toward the State House. Little knots of politicians crowd around the street corners of all the country towns and villages of the State. The cross-roads politician has grown considerable in stature of late, and his opinions must be consulted. Would-be-candidates are boring and button-holding every supposed friend, and importuning him for his influence to secure a nomination. Rings and combinations are being formed in almost every neighborhood, in the interest of some one, for some petty office. Such scenes and such conduct is a disgrace to the American character, and is disgusting to every sensible and intelligent mind. The good sense of the people should be brought to bear upon this political element, and the sober, thinking, honest masses of all parties, should frown down all attempts on the part of politicians to usurp the rights of the people and force upon them unworthy and incompetent officials.

The License Question.

We notice a call in the Centreville papers, signed by some of the most prominent citizens of Queen Anne's county, for a temperance Convention, to be held in Centreville next Tuesday. The object of the Convention is to act in concurrence with other counties to memorialize the legislature at its next session, to either prohibit the traffic in alcoholic liquors, or to pass a general law allowing the people of any incorporated town, city ward, or election district, to determine by ballot, whether liquors shall be sold within their limits for an purpose whatever.

There appears to be considerable feeling amongst temperance men upon this subject. In fact, there are many men addicted to habits of intemperance, seeing and feeling, too, the evils, are willing to remove them from their midst and beyond their own reach. A great many parents, whose sons are too often found under the influence of this stimulant, or in a state of beastly intoxication, are anxious and ready to sanction this movement as a means of curing this great evil, that is now blighting the fairest prospects of both parents and sons, for their future usefulness in society and the world.

Something should be done by legislation to check this curse. It is within the province of the law-making power of the State, to do something to regulate the wrongs resulting from such a source. Suffering humanity—the widows woe—the feeble wail of innocent orphanage, and a thousand other calamities that afflict our people, resulting from the immediate cause of an indulgence in this vice, demands that something should be done, and that speedily, to suppress this great and growing evil. Unless we are greatly deceived with reference to the feeling of the people upon this subject, a voice potential for good, will be heard by those invested with power at the State capital next winter, which will arouse them to action, and compel them to give to the people a law which is so reasonable and just.

Another Democratic Departure.

Notwithstanding all that has been said and written upon the departure of the Democratic party from the original faith of the fathers, the Democrats of Mississippi have departed widely from the faith held in this State by the great annointed of the Democratic fold. Those of Mississippi will, no doubt, be stigmatized by the Maryland Apostles of Democracy as black sheep. With many, however, even here, Democracy will whitewash a darkey and make him a good citizen.

Would our readers believe it? It is a truth nevertheless, that the Democrats of Mississippi, in convention, adopted a resolution to give to colored men, half the offices, and adjourned the convention until the 7th of September, to allow them time to consult together and determine upon the names of candidates they might present for nomination. Maryland Democrats, here is an example set for you to follow.

The Peninsular Press.

The Cecil Whig, of Saturday, contains three leaders bearing the caption, "Smoked out, or Shut out," "The Primary Meetings," and "Under the Doctors Hands." The first article is in reference to the Ring, said to exist in Cecil in the democratic ranks.—The second article alludes to the primary meetings, soon to take place. With a good ticket, and a reasonable degree of enthusiasm and organization, the Whig thinks the county can be redeemed from extravagance and incapacity, that exists in every department of the county service. The Whig, in its third article, thinks the democratic party, of Cecil, is sick and nigh unto death—that it requires the aid of a physician, and recommends that a careful diagnosis of the patient be made. It is of the opinion that it presents strong bilious symptoms; that it is affected with disease of the spine, and that Ring-worm has seized hold upon its vitals; all superinduced by riotuous living. The Whig presents a neat typographical appearance this week.

The Cecil Democrat contains an article on county nominations. It seems considerably exercised upon this subject, and is very careful how he touches the subject.—We should judge, he was afraid of treading on somebody's toes, and hence feels his way as he moves along. We think we can see what's the matter with the Democrats in Cecil. There is not offices enough to satisfy the voracious appetite of the Cecil Democracy.

The True Marylander contains an editorial in reference to the late State Convention, asking "was it a Paddlock Convenvention?" To the people it is a matter of little concern whether the members of the Convention were padlocked or not. Party platforms, in these times, amount to nothing, if either party have no principles to enunciate, why, we say, keep mum. Strict party men go it blind.

The Cambridge Chronicle contains a leader on our school system, and argues in favor of the present law, with slight modifications; the system is firmly rooted in the affections of the people and the editor thinks it would shiver, like glass, any political combination that would attempt its overthrow.

The Centreville Observer has a leader on the Constitutional amendments, intended as a reply to a New Orleans correspondent of the Chestertown Transcript. The editor comes far short of meeting the arguments of the writer. His bare assertion of fraud and violence need the confirmation of truth, and requires evidence to support his statements. His other gratuitous statements of "force," "unlawful means," "government mobs," &c., are not supported even by reason, much less by documentary testimony. The New Orleans correspondent, evidently has the argument all on his side.

The Centreville Citizen discourses on the plans and purposes of the democracy, and thinks their cherished hope is the establishment of a "Southern Confederacy." In support of this idea, he quotes from Toombs, Jeff. Davis, and other leading democrats at the South.

Our space, this week, being limited we cannot persue the leading thoughts of our Peninsular exchanges farther.

Wilmington.

This beautiful little city, nestled quietly away among the hills of the Brandywine, with a population of thirty-five thousand souls, containing all the germs of future greatness and rising glory; where energy and industry thrive and prosper—where the intellectual and the beautiful are so aptly blended, and where nature has so profusely poured out her richest treasure; is destined to become, at no distant day, the emporium of this entire Peninsula.—Situate on the Delaware river, bold and navigable for largest class ships; beautiful and picturesque scenery; extending her rail road facilities in all directions; a thrifty, prosperous and enterprising people, thronging all the busy marts of life; she cannot remain stationary, or take a retrograde movement. Excelsior is her watch-word—progress is her motto—upward and onward her course, and twenty years to come this city, we predict, will be a star of the first magnitude.

County Nominations.

The time is rapidly approaching when each of the two great political parties in this State will make their nominations for county officers We do hope that both parties will select only the best men to fill every position. If this is done, it will be a matter of but little importance to the masses of the people, what party obtains the power. What an already tax-ridden and overburdened people need just now, is honest, faithful and efficient officers.—The politicians have controlled the people long enough. They have nominated, and the people have elected incompetent officers, until public affairs are about to reach a crisis which demands that the mere politician shall take a "back seat." Now is the time to correct this evil, and we do hope, that each party in this county, will take pride in making their nominations this fall, and give us a ticket composed of the best men in our county.

Another Railroad Slaughter.

Another frightful rail-road slaughter occurred on Saturday night last, near Boston. The Bangor express train ran into the rear end of another passenger train, while at full speed, and death in all its fearful forms ensued. Twenty-four persons were killed, and a number horribly wounded. The conductor and engineer, on the express train, are held responsible for the accident.

Spiritualism.

A company of Spiritualists held a camp meeting at Oakinton, Harford county, last week. About two thousand persons were in attendance, drawn thither more from curiosity than from motives of religious worship. The services consisted of instrumen- and vocal m- spiritual

The Wisconsin Democrats Accept the 15th Amendment—A Strong Resolution.

The following is the New Departure resolution adopted by the Democrats of Wisconsin, at their recent State Convention. It will be seen that it is unusually positive in its approval of the principles of the 15th Amendment:

Fifth—That as the late amendments to the Constitution have been declared by the properly constituted authority to be part of the fundamental law of the land they are binding upon the people; that the democratic party, now, as in the past, know no higher law than the Constitution; that the time-honored principle of strict construction applied by its framers and accepted by the wisest statesmen and jurists of the country should be observed in all legislation by Congress relative to the constitution and its amendments; that the democratic party are opposed to the withdrawal of civil and political rights from any class of people, and that we demand the removal of all political disqualifications.

ENGLISH ROOFING FELT

Is found to stand well in all climates, being extensively used for Roofing Houses, Out-Buildings and Sheds; for Laying Flat Roofs, Gutters, Lining Granaries, Storehouses, or Walls, (either outside or inside), and for placing under Slates or Tiles. It is also a cheap and effective Ceiling on the underneath side of rafters of a Slated or Tiled Roof, and as a Ceiling to Iron Roofs, counteracting Heat, Frost, and Condensation of Moisture.

The English Felt is put up in rolls of 25 yards in length, by 32 inches in width, and containing a surface of 200 square feet.

THREE-PLY FELT,
FOR ROOFING.

In Rolls, 26 inches wide, by 50 feet in length; each roll will cover a surface 10 feet square, or 100 square feet.

It is to be laid across the roof, shingle fashion, with a lap of two inches, and secured by nailing the edges with 3d nails and tin caps.

When laid, the Felt is to be painted with Mastic Roof Coating, and Sanded. The Mastic Roof Coating is mixed, ready for use, and is applied with a brush.

Tarred Roofing Felt.

Used extensively for Sheathing Houses, and for Tar and Gravel Roofing, also for placing under Slate, Tin and Shingle Roofing.

It is used in packing Woolens and Furs to protect them from moths.

Put up in rolls weighing 45 pounds each. 15 pounds Felt will cover a surface of 100 square feet.

TWO-PLY FELT,

For Sheathing Houses, Roofing Temporary Buildings, making Water Tight Floors, and for placing under Slate and Shingles.

In rolls, 26 inches wide by 50 feet in length. Each roll will cover a surface 10 feet square or 100 square feet.

For Sheathing it can be nailed upon the studding, making a perfectly air Tight sheathing, and sure protection from dampness. Rats, mice or vermin will not go near it.

Mica Canvass Roofing,

In rolls containing 250 square feet. Is to be laid across the roof, and lapped shingle fashion with a lap of two inches, and secured by nailing the edges with 20 oz. tacks.

This is the only Composition Roofing that does not require a finishing coat of paint or cement.

Untarred Sheathing Felt,

For Carpet Lining, Deafening Floors, and for putting under Slate, Tin and Shingle Roofing.

Put up in rolls weighing 100 pounds.

10 pounds Felt will cover a surface 10 feet square, or 100 square feet.

Strong and Pure Rich Blood—Increase of Flesh and Weight—Clear Skin and Beautiful Complexion Secured to All.

DR. RADWAY'S
SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT

Has Made the Most Astonishing Cures; so Quick, so Rapid are the Changes the Body Undergoes Under the Influence of this truly Wonderful Medicines that

Every Day an Increase in Flesh and Weight is Seen and Felt.

THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

Every drop of the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT communicates through the Blood, Sweat, Urine, and other fluids and juices of the system the vigor of life, for it repairs the wastes of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Syphilis, Consumption, Glandular disease, Ulcers in the throat, Mouth, Tumors, Nodes in the Glands and other parts of the system, Sore Eyes, Strumerous discharges from the Ears, and the worst forms of Skin diseases, Eruptions, Fever Sores, Scald Head, Ring Worms, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Acne, Black Spots, Worms in the Flesh, Tumors, Cancers in the Womb, and all weakening and painful discharges, Night sweats, Loss of Sperm and all wastes of the life principle, are within the curative range of this wonder of Modern Chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to any person using it for either of these forms of disease its potent power to cure them.

If the patient, daily becoming reduced by the wastes and decomposition that is continually progressing, succeeds in arresting these wastes, and repairs the same with new material made from healthy blood—and this the SARSAPARILLIAN will and does secure—a cure is certain; for when once this remedy commences its work of purification, and succeeds in diminishing the loss of wastes, its repairs will be rapid, and every day the patient will feel himself growing better and stronger, the food digesting better, appetite improving and flesh and wight increasing.

Not only does the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT excel all known remedial agents in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitutional, and Skin diseases; but it is the only positive cure for Kidney and Bladder Complaints, Urinary and Womb diseases, Gravel, Diabetes, Dropsy, Stoppage of Water, Incontinence of Urine, &c. fje22-1y.

Grinding by Steam.

BRING ALONG YOUR GRIST.

THE ENTERPRISE MILLS, near Denton, is now in full operation and runs constantly, the motive power being furnished by a steam engine. Wheat and corn ground at short notice, no matter how dry the season; so bring along your grain.

I guarantee to give you as many pounds of flour to a bushel of wheat, and of as good quality, if not superior, as any mill in the county.

A trial is solicited.
