Thursday Morning, Sept. 7th, 1871.

☞ The Orphans' Court for Caroline county will meet on Tuesday, Sept 19th.

The Editor's Hash.

—Mr. J. B. Krall lost a valuable colt last week.

—The public schools for this county opened on Monday last.

—Look out for a heavy instalment of chills and fevers at this season.

—Our county has increased in population since 1860, 972—since 1790, 2,595.

—Summer has ended and we are approaching the days of the "sere and yellow leaf."

—Every citizen of Denton should cleanse and purify his premises if he wishes to avoid disease.

—Every householder should commence a war of extermination upon the weeds about his premises.

—Mr. Jas. Melvin, has turned over the mail route from this place to Ridgeley, to Mr. Jas. L. Pearce.

—The population of the nine counties on this shore foot up 157,317. Increase since 1790 50,728.

—The weather—dry—cool mornings and evenings—hot suns during the day—look out for the "shakes."

—The Highland Light has been substituted for the Massachusetts on the route between Denton and Baltimore.

—You are safe in d[illegible] at Oak Hall, for one of Wanamaker & Brown's fundamental principles is "no misrepresentations."

—The Sabbath School Committee will address the children at Concord on Sunday morning next, at 10 o'clock; and the children at Bloomery Church, at 3 o'clock, P. M., same day.

—All persons coming of age; those removing from other counties or States, or those removing from other election districts, should see to it, that their names are on the register. Three days; 18th, 19th and 20th, of Sept, is the time fixed for registration.

—Our readers must bear with us this week for lack of our usual quantity of reading matter. The county expenses has contracted our space, and the sickness of a part of our force engaged in the office, is a sufficient apology to our readers. We hope to be all right again after our next issue.

Answers to Business Correspondents.—S. M. Pettingill & Co., New York—There was no paper issued from this office Aug. 17th.

John M'Neese Menardsville; Texas—Your request will be complied with.

Wm. York, Camden, Onedia Co., N. Y.—Your paper is mailed regularly—It may be stopped at Camden, N. J. by mistake.

Accident.—Last week as Orlando Redden was returning home from Delaware, and when near Andersontown, leading a horse behind the carriage in which himself and a young lady was riding, a dog ran out from the road side and frightened the horse, causing him to run into the carriage. One of the wheels was torn to pieces and the carriage otherwise injured. Mr. Redden received some slight bruises, but the young lady escaped unhurt.

"The Universal Ayer."—On my way over the continent—through Turkey, India, China, Japan, Peru, Chili, Paraguay, Brazil and Mexico, and the United States—in them all to some extent and in some to a great extent, I have found the universal Ayer represented by his family medicines, which are often held in fabulous esteem. Whether they win their marvelous reputation by their cures, I know not, but I know they have it to such a degree that it frequently gave me a distinguished importance to have come from the same country. [Field's letters from abroad.]

The Rape Case.—Considerable interest and excitement was manifested in the upper part of this county, last week, by a portion of our citizens, in consequence of a report put in circulation, that a man named Gaffield, had committed a rape upon a girl residing near Greensboro'.—Gaffield had gone up the rail road and it was supposed was attempting to evade the officers of the law. Two men at Marydel, expecting to make a raise by his arrest, started in pursuit and captured Gaffield. He declared his innocence and avowed his determination to return with them again to Maryland. He said he had done nothing to violate the law, and the parties making the arrest finding there was more "smoke than fire" in this thing, informed Gaffield that for a small consideration they would give him an opportunity for escape. This he refused stoutly, declaring he was innocent. He was brought before Esquire Orrell, at Greensboro', and there being no evidence to support the charge, or to implicate him even in an attempt at rape, he was discharged.

Political Notes.—The democratic fever, in this county, has been raging for some time past and is getting a pretty firm hold upon those desiring to become the leaders and standard-bearers in the approaching fight. There is a good deal of coquetting, flattery, juggling, &c., going on under cover of night, around the corners, and in secret places. The old game of you "tickle me and I'll tickle you," is being practiced by the friends of each little handful of politicians. The importance of the approaching contest is dwelt upon and discussed in all its bearings. Before the minds of some of them, the Republican party looms up in mighty proportions, and the idea is held out to some of their aspirants for office, that the probabilities of an election is exceedingly doubtful. But whether this damper thrown upon their aspirations for future fame and rising glory, will cause them to wiltdown and disappear from the public gaze, time alone will tell. The contest for State's Attorney, lies between Mr. J. W. Bryant, who now fills that position, and Mr. P. W. Downs. At present, it is thought that Mr. Bryant has the inside track, and his bottom being good, it is believed he will outstrip his competitor in the race. For the position of Sheriff, the number though not so numerous as were the devils that entered into the herd of swine in the days of the Saviour, yet, they are all sufficient to represent the democracy of Caroline, and will give a good account of themselves before the nominating convention. Foremost, in this small army of political aspirants for this position stands our clever, genial friend, A. G. Roe, of the second election district. Should the democrats give him the nomination, neither party could not complain, should the people elect him. For various other places on the county ticket, we have heard a number of gentlemen spoken of, but as the contest is chiefly for State's Attorney and Sheriff, but little interest is manifested as to who shall be on the winning side for the other positions.

Orphans' Court.—Jas. R. Colescott, adm'r. of Stephen Colescott, dec'd., presented account of cash on hand. Presented second and final account of administration and distribution of personal estate.—Passed.

Jas. R. Manship, adm'n. of Chas. Peters, dec'd., presented account of sales. Passed.

A. J. Greenly adm'n. of Jas. Harris, dec'd., presented inventary and appraisement of said dec'd. real estate. Passed an order of sale, appointing A. J. Greenly Trustee.

R. C. Carter, Exec'r. of Thos. Roe, presented receipt and final release from Chas. E. Roe and Alex. Roe. Passed.

Thos. F. Corkran, guardian to Francis A. Roe, wife of Levi D. Roe, presented receipt and final release. Passed.

Wm. P. Richardson, guardian to Wm. A. Griffith, minor, presented annual rental valuation of the real estate of said minor. Passed.

The last will and testament of Thos. Harris, late of Caroline county, dec'd., presented and admitted to probate.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

NOTICE.

The unexampled satisfaction that NATTAN'S CRYSTAL DISCOVERY has given in this city, as evidenced by the repeated orders of some of the first Druggists, induce us to direct especial and particular attention to the great fact that by its use you gain all the advantages claimed for the many poisonous compounds in use, to wit: the restoration of the color and growth of the hair and the speedy removal of dandruff, without the least possible injury—as Crystal Discovery is positively warranted to contain no poisonous substance, neither Lead, Sulphur or Silver.

Is perfect cleanliness is a reason not lightly to be overlooked; it will neither stain the skin or clothes—in one sentence, it is exactly what has been wanted for a long while, a Restorer of the Hair that may be used without the fear that you are going to have Neuralgia, Paralysys, Lead Colic and various other complaints, the result of the use of lead preparations.

As simply a Dressing for the Hair, it has also been found to be unexcelled.

Letters in our possession might be published by the score, all recommending it in the highest terms, of which we promise to give you some in future.

By all means try it, as we are satisfied it will give you entire satifaction. Price $1 per bottle. For sale by druggists generally.
