J. H. EMERSON, Editor.

DENTON, MARYLAND:

Thursday Morning, Sept. 28th, 1871.

The Peninsular Press.

The Cambridge Democrat thinks that all the complications and bickerings in the Democratic ranks in that county is at an end and that the sore-heads have accomplished nothing. It exhorts all true party men to stand by the nominees, and with united effort, they can carry the county.—It betrays some misgivings on this subject, and it is evident from the tone of the Democrat that its assurances are not well grounded.

The Cecil Democrat is out in a second article, of near two columns length, in a personal attack upon the private acts and character of Hon. Jacob Tome, the Republican candidate for Governor. The Democrat has certainly adopted the most ready means to unite the friends of Mr. Tome and to make him friends. Personal attacks and the vituperation and calumny heaped upon a man occupying the position that Mr. Tome now does, will recoil upon the head of the traducer and work great mischief to the party that resorts to such means to destroy a political opponent. The Democrat, as he seems to speak from the book, has been acquainted with Mr. Tome's private character for years past, why has he not heretofore arraigned him at the bar of public opinion, if he is as bad a man as it now represents him to be. It is plainly evident, from the savage attacks of the Democrat, that Mr. Tome is a candidate of no mean pretentions, and possesses such an amount of strength as to throw doubt and distrust into the ranks of the opposition as to the election of the Democratic nominee. We hope there is no conductor of a Republican newspaper in Maryland, who will so far forget the dignity of his position, as to resort to such means of electioneering and decend to such low scurrility as that of defaming and blackening the private character, or entering into the domestic relations, of a political opponent for the purpose of securing party triumph.

The Cecil Whig has an article upon the county ticket nominated by the Republicans of Cecil on the 19th. The Whig pronounces the candidates men of irreproachable character, combining ability and integrity. It is pronounced a good ticket and the Whig claims the support of every upright and conscientious man in the county. who profess a desire to see the laws administered in the interests of progress, justice and christian liberality.

The Kent News is deeply exercised over the Senatorial question; the Centreville Observer having thrown a hot shot into the ranks of Senator Vickers friends by urging the name of Hon. R. B. Carmichael, of Queen Anne's as the next United States Senator. The News labors hard to throw cold water on the little Carmichael flame which has began to show itself and has done its best to put an extinguisher upon it, but with what success remains to be developed. Judging from the grasping disposition of that party on the Western Shore, these small fry politicians on this Shore had as well keep quiet. The next United States Senator is to come from Baltimore city. so the wringers in and wire pullers, located way down here in lower Egypt, need not commence a quarrel over that bone so soon.

The Somerset Herald has an article in its last issue on the subject of the "Negro." It declares that the negro now contends for existence, not simply political but actual. Such has been the status of the negro in all our history of the past. In the days of slavery he existed politically and actually in the person of his master in all respects but one. In the matter of taxation he lost his indentity. As to representation he presented a bold front and stood out conspicuous. We can see no difference in being represented by proxy or being represented in person, except in the case of the negro in the past his opinions and wishes were not consulted, now he exercises the privilege of free citizenship and chooses for himself his own course of action. Now, if he acts the part of wisdom and faithfully discharges all the duties and obligations of a good citizen, the law which is intended only for those who violate it, reaches him not. But if he violates the law he is punished by the law. He rises to the dignity of the law, and not as formerly a mere chattle, and is held responsible for his own violation as all other citizens are.

The Easton Star speaking of the probabilities of the success of the democratic party in Talbot, declares that unless the nominating convention nominate a ticket that will harmonize the party, there is a strong probability that they will lose the county. It further declares that it will not do for men to control the action of the convention who are governed by personal feelings; if they do, the ticket will unquestionably be defeated. The Star claims only one hundred majority for the democrats and pronounces affairs in a critical condition. So, according to their own admissions, grave doubts, as the success of the democracy in Talbot, are entertained by their leaders.

Whose Man is He?

Paymaster Hedge, has stolen nearly a million, and is now a prisoner in Fort McHenry.—Balto. Gazette.

Yes, but whose man is he? You would have the public believe he was a simon pure Republican and a thief, as you choose to designate him, and, the whole Republican party should be held responsible for his acts. But it is your bull that is gored—not ours. Paymaster Hodge turns out to be a regular Democrat—was appointed to his ... as Paymaster in the army by Andrew Johnson—and it is a well known fact that Mr. Johnson appointed none but Democrats to office. The Gazette should know its friends.

What a Change.

What the country is most interested in just now is getting rid of Radical Republican misrule, of the corrupt men who fill the high places in Federal government, and a complete clearing out of equally corrupt and corrupting Federal office-holders of every degree.—Dover Deltawarian.

The country is interested in no such thing. If the editor hadsaid that the democratic party were interested in trying to get rid of the Republican party by driving them from power he would told the naked truth. But suppose the democrats could clear out these "corrupt and corrupting Federal office-holders," in what would the people of the country be the gainers? We can only judge of men or parties by their past acts. Wherever the Democrats have had the power in the past, corruptions of the rankest kind has stained and sullied and blackened that party until decent men have blushed with shame for the atrocity of the crimes that have been perpetrated in the name of Democracy. The present democratic history of fraud and corruption which is daily being unfolded by the Courts of New York city, is a withering disgrace to any party. In this Democratic city the democrats steal by the hundred million, and the thieves roll in affluance and ease; live in gorgeous palaces, defy the law, and are even courted and flattered by their adherents and friends. Democrats steal the public funds with impunity and go unpunished.

Should a change be effected to suit the views of democratic politicians, and that party were to steal at Washington in the same ratio that they have stolen in New York, there could scarcely be numerals sufficient to count the sum. About the worst calamity that could befal this nation, at this juncture of affairs, would be the ascendency of the present democratic party to power. In every State in the Union—in every city and county where they have controll,—so far as we have information on the subject—the taxes of the people have been nearly, and in many instances, more than doubled, and complaints are loud and deep of fraud and peculation of the public funds. Then, what is to be gained to the people, by ousting from public position, men who for the most part, have been faithful and honest public officers, and letting in upon the public treasury a set of unscrupulous public leeches, who would steal from the Government all her treasure and leave her bankrupt? No! it would be useless to look for honesty amongst those who rule and control the democratic party of the dresent day. Those who pull the wires and munipulate the party machinery have sunk too low in the pit of corruption to be trusted with the great interest of a vast nation.

Fraud in Maryland.

While the people in New York and other places are unearthing frauds of the most stupendous character, wou'd it not be as well for our own people to investigate the great Militia swindle that has been practiced on the people of Maryland. The people ought to know what equivalent Mr. Weathered of Baltimore county, Duncan McPherson, of Baltimore city, and Trimble & Co., of the same city, have given for the large sums of money appropriated by the legislature and which passed into their pockets. Were they not the stool pigeons of the party and the medium by which a large amount of these heavy appropriations were used to demoralize the voters of the State and influence them to support the Democratic ticket? The people should also know how many thousands of dollars was appropriated from the State Treasury in the summer 1870 to defray the expenses of the Fifth Maryland Regiment in a little pleasure trip to Cape May? They should also know what amount was abstracted from the Treasury at Annapolis during the past summer to defray the expenses of this same Regiment while it played soldier at Frederick city? These questions ought to be answered. Who will do it.

Female Suffrage.

Judge Underwood, United States District Judge has written a letter in which he declares that the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, together with the Enforcement act of May 3d, 1870, has secured the right to vote of females as fully as is now enjoyed by male citizens.

In Philadelphia, last week, Miss Carrie Burnham, went before the board of Assessors and demanded to be registered and assessed, claiming to be a citizen of the United States. The Canvassers being satisfied that she was justly entitled to all the privileges of citizenship, she received her certificate of assessment and was duly registered. Philadelphia will have, at least, one woman voter at the next election.

After the Colored Vote.

It is currently reported around, that a portion of the gentlemen on the democratic ticket, in this county, are going it strong for the colored vote. Who are they?—Come out in the light, gentlemen, and stand up to Sambo like men. None of this electioneering round corners, in dark alleys, or under the cover of darkness. Bring your deeds to the light that they may be seen of men.

Singular Coincident.

A FATHER AND DAUGHTER DIE ALMOST SIMULTANEOUSLY IN SEPERATE PLACES.

The Dover Delawarean records the following striking coincident:

John Viney, an aged colored man, formerly in the service of the late Hon. Martin W. Bates, was struck with apoplexy, or paralysis, on Wednesday, while filling his bucket with slop in Mr. Hillyard's yard, and died the same evening. He had attained his seventy-fifth year. We are informed that some of old Jacob's friends telegraphed to Wilmington for his daughter to come down and attend to her father's burial, when a return despatch informed them that she was also dead and that her remains were about to be sent to Dover. The daughter owned some property in Wilmington which she devised to her father; he owned some property here which he left to his daughter.

A Sensation Story Spoiled.

A very unlikely story has been going the rounds of the press of the submerging of a whole county in Florida, and strange to say there were a number of incredulous people who believed the whole story. The State Engineer of Florida has spoiled the story by declaring it a pure fabrication. Florida is still above the waves of the Atlantic.

The North Carolina Trials.

A dispatch from Raleigh, N. C., 22d instant, gives the very remarkable harangue of Judge Brooks at the sentencing of the men convicted of belonging to the "invisible empire," in the course of which he said that their organization attracted posterity by treasonable acts, with a view to destroy a government which has never punished, but protected them. Its purpose, as stated by a majority of the witnesses, was to put down the radical party and raise up the democratic or conservative party. We regard, as of terrible significance, the fact that all of the leaders of these bands are of one of the great political parties of the country, and their acts are directed against those who act and sympathize with the other of these political parties. The prisoners have complained that the jurors were not democrats. They would probably have complained of any who were not conspirators, like themselves. We believe that the jurors are honest men, and not hostile in their feeling to the government or the unfortunate parties accused.

Judge Bond then pronounced the following sentences, the prisoners being called seperately and in the order given: R. A. Shotwell, six years' imprisonment, with hard labor, and a fine of $5,000; Alexander Defriest, two years and $500; Ames Evans, six years and $5,000; George Holland, two years and $500; Wm. Teal, three years and $500; David Collins, four years and $500; Wm. McIntyre, two years and $500; Spencer M. Moore and D. H. Fortune, six months' imprisonment each.

This closes the first Ku-Klux trial. The next case called was the United States vs. S. C. Withermore and 4 others, on a charge of assaulting, on the 10th of May last one Aaron Biggerstaff, his wife and daughter, while on their way to testify as witnesses under process of law before a United States commissioner, snd with intimidating said Aaron Biggerstaff in the exercise of his political rights. Three of the defendants pleaded guilty and the other two went trial, but at the close of the testimony Judge Bond advised the district attorney to submit to a verdict of not guilty as to the two on trial. Judgment will be passed at once in the case of those who submitted.

A Good Temperance Story.

Good temperance people will be shocked to learn what a sot—no milder term can be used—the mocking bird makes of himself in Florida. His special weakness is the burry of the Pride of china tree, upon the juice of which he becomes as drunk as a lord. A flock of tipsy mocking birds is a very funny sight. They fly around in the most comical manner, hic-caughing, and staggering like real men, mixing up all sorts of bacchanalian songs, and interrupting each other in the most impudent manner not at all like well-behaved birds. It is even said that they will fly out promisciously, intrude on domestic relations, forget the way home, and get into each other's nests and families, just like the lords of creation. It is not improbable that also, like the lords of creation, they become very penitent after the season is gone and the yearly frolic is over, and that they make many good resolutions, join the temperance society, and keep sober till the next season comes around, and the berries are ripe once more. As they are "mocking-birds," it is not out of the way to suppose that they are only imitating men.

The Debt of New York.

While there does not seem to be any very extraordinary energy in the measures taken against Tammany by the people's representatives, still the progress of unearthing the thieves of New York is fair, and makes some show, day by day. It is now ascertained that the debt is ninety-seven millions of dollars! This is exclusive of accounts in process of settlement; of bills contracted, but not sent in; and of contracts made which will cause new expense. How much these are and will be cannot be ascertained!

Now, furthermore, the debt has increased, as follows:

Jan. 1, 1869, it was	$36,293,929.
Jan. 1, 1870, " "	48,033,741.
Jan. 1, 1871, " "	73,373,552.
Sep. 14, 1871 " "	97,287,585.

Was ever such prodigious growth in a city debt, known? Observe, that in eight months, it increased very nearly twenty-four millions! The frauds, the robberies, the speculations concealed there, are unexampled in the history of municipal scoundrelism.—Wilm. Commercial.

A Wonderful Man.—the Havre de Grace Republican says.

A black man,—said to be of Moorish blood, a native of the city of Rome, Italy,—has been for the last few days, exciting the wonder of our physicians and anatomists, by the singular construction of his whole internal arrangements. He appears to have two complete setts of ribs, and his heart, stomach and intestines, periodically revolve outwardly twenty-one times and then revolve back again the same number of times, and his heart is almost instantly thrown from its proper place in the chest to the lower part of the abdomen. He is small of stature, but powerful in muscular development.
