Thursday Morning, November 16, 1871.

☞ The Orphans' Court for Caroline county will meet on Tuesday, Nov 28th.

The Editor's Hash.

—The Democratic majority in this, county, on State ticket, is 68.

—Our farmers are busy preparing their corn crop for market.

—A regular old fashioned North-east storm raged here on Tuesday evening and ... last.

... lowed freely in this place last ... -ness was the order of the day.

—No man who will debauch and demoralize a voter should hold any office of honor or profit.

When will our public roads and bridges be repaired? Will our road supervisors take a hint.

—Thursday week is thanksgiving. Who, hereabout will observe it?

—A talking machine is on exhibition at Wilmington. They are quite numerous here.

—Mr. Jude W. Field advertises lumber for building purposes in our columns.—Having purchased Mr. T. W. Fountain's interest in the business, Mr. Field will hereafter conduct it in his own name, and offers inducements to purchasers.

—Rev. Mr. Harding will preach at the M. E. Church in this place on Sunday evening next. Services at 7 o'clock.

—Mr. H. Blackiston has repaired and fitted up, in a neat and tastey manner a snug little residence on Mill street.

—Mr. R. C. Carter, as adm'r., sells all the personal property of the late Jos. Pearson, on Thursday 23d inst.

—Dr. J. A. McLean sells a lot of stock, tools, wagons, carriages, boat, household furniture, &c., to morrow.

—For two evenings last week we had a brilliant display of northern lights. The scene was grand and beautiful.

SUPPOSED TO BE DROWNED.—Ned Brown, a colored man belonging to this place, was hired a few days previous to the election to take the place of a white hand on board of the schooner "Union," went to Baltimore, is missing, and it is supposed he is drowned. The last seen of him he was standing on the wharf at Baltimore, the day before the schooner left. Nothing has been heard from him since.

NARROW ESCAPE.—On Thursday last, Messrs, R. J. W. Garey, of this place and W. J. Hignutt, of the 5th District, while out gunning for patridge, and while in the act of loading the gun which had just been discharged, the powder ignited, as is supposed from a portion of the wad left in the gun, and communicated to the powder flask containing about half pound of powder in the hands of Mr. Hignutt, which exploded. Mr. Garey was burned rather badly about the face and neck—Mr. Hignutt was burned but slightly. It was certainly a narrow escape from almost certain death.

Without Competitors—Wanamaker & Brown, in prices and goods.

ELECTION INCIDENTS.—The effort put forth by the Democrats at the recent election in this place, were such as those of men who looked upon the success of their cause as hopeless, and with a courage of desperation, they were determined to resort to every means to carry a vote. At an early hour of the morning, although the law expressly forbids either the sale or the giving away of spirituous liquors on election day, one of the candidates, with open doors, admitted all who choose to enter, and bribery, corruption and drunkenness, the great curse of our free institutions, held high carnival over the moral sense of every upright citizen. Such scenes are a disgrace to our civilization. How men can aspire to become the administrators of the law, and yet break it with impunity while standing at the very threshold of the temple of justice, is to us an inexplicable mystery. We know there are some persons who will be ready to condemn our motives in speaking thus publicaly of these political sins, which are festering sores on the body politic. But as a public journalist, desiring the welfare of this community, and regarding sacredly our own interests, we feel it our duty to enter our solemn protest against such conduct and such scenes as were enacted under our own observation. When the morals of the community are so outraged—the laws of the land set at defiance, and the dirty stench and filth of political corruption, turned lose upon society, it is time that every virtuous man should rise up and enter his protest against this great public wrong, inflicted upon society. We want a law, submitting the question of liquor license, to a vote of the people. We must have it, for nothing less than this, will check this increasing tide of evil.

Another incident of the late election, and a very striking one too, and which even drew remarks from the Democrats, was that during the day no colored man was bribed to vote against his sentiments, nor yet demanded money to vote his sentiments. On the other hand, white men were openly in the market, and we learn, were publicly bid for by their own party. It is said that one man received $80 for his vote, and another $40. Passing along the street in the afternoon, we saw a "doubtful," with three or four others, lecturing them stoutly for their lack of shrewdness and for not knowing how to take care of their own interests, and drawing a roll of greenbacks from his pocket, called out, see here!—"there is $25—I received and I am to have next years house rent free." There are several other incidents of this kind we might name, but we let them pass without notice.

One other circumstance came under our observation which is worthy of notice.—About noon, a wagon load of white men, drove opposite the Court House and raised a shout for the white man's party, making quite a display of Democratic tickets. In this crowd, seated in the wagon, we noticed an old colored man, named Jim Wisher, who we suppose was included in this white man's party, Jim having been whitewashed because of having a Democratic ticket in his possession. Jim seemed to be the lion of the crowd and marched with them to the polls and voted with his new made friends. It has been stated that the colored men threatened him with violence. Such is not the fact.—Some few of the colored people were angry at his course, but those who were more calm, advised moderation and in a few moments more, Jim was shaking hands with his colored friends and the best of feelings seemed to exist, they no doubt thinking it best to conciliate him with kindness.

IT IS SAID that if a puff of air were to be blown into a vein of an animal, death would instantaneously follow, because circulation is stopped. The blood makes the entire circuit of the human body every seven minutes, and whenever this circulation is impeded or if any of its channels are clogged by impurities which ought to be carried off, disease follows—fever or a disorder of liver or kidneys, or scrofula, or dyspepsia. To get at and remove the source of the difficulty use the old and infallible blood purifier, DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS. 4w

A Great Corner—6th & Market Sts., Phila., W. & B's. Oak Hall.

SHORT VOTE—ILLEGAL VOTERS, &c.—The whole registered vote in this (third) district is 1086. The entire vote polled at the late election was 857, leaving 229 short of a full vote. Of the 857 votes cast, six of them are illegal, being cast by persons residing in Delaware, but whose names appear on the Registry list. It is said that twelve illegal votes was cast in the second district, the parties residing also in Delaware, and their names appearing on the Registry list the Judges of election could not refuse their votes. It is said they all voted the Democratic ticket. There is a law against illegal voting and no matter what ticket they voted, the officers of the law should keep a sharp look out for these parties, and if caught this side the line, they should be dealt with as the law directs.—It is also said that about forty colored persons did not vote in this district. They were paid $5 to stay at home and work or to go gunning. Had the Republican vote of the county been cast the entire Republican ticket would undoubtedly been elected. The Democrats rallied almost to a man.

THE NOVELTY CLOTHES WRINGER.

Nothing, except the Sewing Machine, has ever been invented which so much relieves the labor of the household as the Wringer.—But its usefulness does not end here. The saving of clothing is of much greater importance. It is often remarked that articles of fine texture, last twice as long when wrung in a Wringer as when wrung by hand. The NOVELTY has Cog-wheels on both ends. * * The rolls are allowed to separate freely at either end. These, besides other advantages which it contains, seem to be indispensable to a practical wringer.—New York Independent.

THE NOVELTY WRINGER.—Has become an indispensable institution in thousands of families. And we believe its great and increasing popularity is fully merited—for the Novelty evidently possesses all the requisites of a first-class, practical machine. Indeed, after using one for many months in our own family, we are prepared to indorse the Novelty as unsurpassed (the laundress says unequaled,) by any of the several wingers previously tried.—Moore's Rural New-Yorker.
