We Want the Public to Know

That the UNION has now a circulation larger than that of any other newspaper published in this county, and its list of subscribers is steadily increasing. If this statement is questioned we are prepared to prove it.

THE Orphans' Court of Caroline county will meet on Tuesday, 2nd of March.

The Editor's Hash.

—Smyrna has contributed $125 to the Irish sufferers.

—Denton needs a shoe-maker. There never was a better opening than at the present time.

—Clover and Timothy seed for sale by Allen Moore at Greensboro' station. [feb19 4t.

—The citizens of Salisbury are endeavoring to organize a National Bank, with a capital of $50,000.

—Col. George A. Hansan, of Kent, lawyer, editor, and author, died on Friday of last week, in his 50th year.

—Butter is very scarce in Denton at 25 cts. per pound, and one half of it is good wheel grease at that.

—Several barrels of herring—a month ahead of time—were caught in the Indian river during the last week.

—Rev. J. B. Merritt, of Still Pond, who has been quite sick, is recovering, and expects to be out again soon.

—Captain Joshua Irons, of Millsborough, one of the newly-appointed Republican supervisors for Sussex, is dead.

—"Sellers' Liver Pills" are working more real good in one year than all other proprietary medicines. 25c. per box.

—Mr. John W. Temple, Esq., our late clerk, was in town the early part of the week. We are glad to see him looking so well.

—Seaford's case of yellow fever was a false alarm, and the old darkey whose death from the disease was announced is up and around.

—Crumpton is having a large revival. On Friday night last 36 persons united with the church, and on Sunday night 25 were at the altar.

—The peach crop for next season promises well. Owing to the mild winter thousands of old peach cans have lately sprouted new labels.

—The Methodist Confenene, which will be held at Dover on the 17th of March, is expected to be much larger than any ever held on the Peninsula.

—Never let a cough, cold, or croup go too far. On the first symptoms send to your druggist for "Dr. Sellers' Cough Syrup." 25c. per bottle.

—Herring in small quantities have made their appearance in our market. A few days ago at Stevens' fishery, near town, fourteen were caught at one haul.

—Dr. Benj. F. Gootee died at his residence in Smyrna on Saturday last. Dr. Gootee had a great many friends in this county. He was in the 49th year of his age.

—Hon. T. F. Garey and Hon. Wm. Massey of Maryland Legislature, and S. N. West, Esq., of Baltimore Custom House, were in town on a short visit on Monday last.

—After all, the Supervisors will benefit Delaware, as the number of assessables added to the lists because of the excitement will add materially to the revenues of the counties.

—North East iron workers are now paid as well as the Wilmington men, their wages having been advanced—those of forgemen from $4 to $4.75 a ton and those of the puddlers from $3.75 to $4.75.

—The schooner Joseph N. Biddings, Capt. T. D. Case, collided with the draw of Denton Bridge one day last week. The only damage to the bridge was the breaking of one of the iron posts in the railing of the draw.

—The Milford News says that the Greenback leaders are talking of a State Convention to send delegates to Chicago. The Greenback men profess to believe that they can carry Sussex county, but their faith also appears to be inflated.

—The Democrat is in error when it says: "Denton has thus far contributed about $000,-000 to the Irish relief." We know of two well-to-do gentlemen that contributed twenty-seven cents and hadn't their big pocket books along either.

—Do not fail to attend the Concert of Philip Phillips and son at the M. E. Church this (Thursday) evening. Mr. Phillips has a world-wide reputation as a singer. The Easton Star speaks in a very complimentary manner of the concert given by them in that town a few days ago.

—On a flat in Chincoteague Bay there is now a geese roost upon which a half million wild geese pass the night. They seek the island shortly after dusk and remain until daylight, cackling so shrilly and continually that the fishermen on the shore find it difficult to sleep.

—The Chesapeake and Delaware Railroad bridge over Tripples creek has been completed and the road in a month will be finished to Oxford. The company has bought 40 acres of land at Oxford lying next to the river, which will become valuable when the road is fully in operation.

—The Governor has made the following appointments of Justices of the Peace for Caroline county: First district, James N. Smith; second, Robert J. Orrell; third, Wm. Lockerman, Thos. Melvin, Thos. A. Smith; fourth, M. B. Hutchinson, W. W. Williamson; fifth, W. H. Watkins, Wm. H. Bullock.

—The Cambridge Era says that the local optionists from all parts of the State are pouring into the legislature petitions praying to be allowed to vote against the sale of intoxicating liquors. About 13,000 local option petitions have been presented from Baltimore city, and 10,000 from the counties.

—A colored woman at Centreville, who had by some means obtained a key of the jail, opened the door on the night of Valentine Day and allowed all the tenants—four in number—their liberty. One of the jail birds returned; and, as he exposed the name of his liberator, she is now behind the prison bars herself.

—At the close of the week of prayer January 11th, Rev. W. H. Hutchin, pastor of the M. E. Church at Odessa, began a series of extra meetings, which are still in progress. As a result seventy have professed faith in Christ.—Between fifty and sixty have united with the church. Odessa has not been so favored, religiously, for years.

—On Monday evening a daughter of Wm. H. Warren of Spaniard's Neck, near Centreville, turned down the wick of a coal oil lamp preparatory to leaving the room, when the lamp immediately exploded, scattering the burning oil over the young lady and the table. She ran into the next room to her mother, who succeeded in extinguishing the flames before much injury was done. Mrs. Warren's hands were burned, as well as some books and other articles on the table.

—The Centreville postmaster fancied that there was a thief about his office because of the frequent disappearance of letters. It was discovered, however, that letters, when slipped into a small slit in the door made to receive them found their way into a crack between the panels. When the discovery was made fifty letters had thus accumulated.

—As our reporter came along Water Street last night, shivering with the chill night air, and drawing his overcoat tightly about him, he thought, "now is the time for colds and coughs, "but if poor mortals only knew what a certain cure Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is, how few would long suffer, and then it costs only twenty five cents.—Sandusky (Ohio) Register.

—Mr. Henry Cook Tilghman died suddenly at his residence on Hunting Creek, in Miles River Neck, last Thursday morning. Mr. Tilghman was 72 years old. Considering his advanced age, he had been enjoying very good health up to the very minute of his death. After breakfast Thursday morning, he walked out on his porch, and while standing there fell from the porch, dead in an instant.

—Messrs. George Redden and Frank Redden, formerly of Delaware, but now residents of this county, some time ago invested $1000 in the "Little Annie Consolidated" silver mine, Arizona Territory. A few days since they received word that the mine promised a rich yield and they expect to start there about the 15th of March to look after their interests in the new bonanza. They expect to reap a rich return from their investment.

—On Tuesday night, 17th inst., about 12 oclock, at the residence of Richard Golt at Downs' Chapel, Del., the stable, containing two valuable horses, was set a fire had gained considerable headway, and with much difficulty the horses were saved. A lot of corn, provender, farming implements, &c., were destroyed, amounting to three hundred to five hundred dollars. No insurance. The incendiaries are suspected.

—The Dover Sentinel says: "We understand that the committe appointed to secure homes for the Ministers and Laymen in attendance upon the session of Conference soon to be held in this town, have completed their labors, and homes have been provided for all.—This will be the largest Conference that has been held upon the peninsula. Already active preparations have been made by the church authorities to provide every facility for the dispatch of the business of the Conference.

—At the last Quarterly Conference of Denton circuit the following ladies were appointed "a committee on parsonage" for the ensuing conference year: Denton, Mrs. Sarah Pearson and Mrs. Ida Wilson; Potter's Landing, Mrs. Elias Williamson; Concord, Mrs. Wm. Morgan; Bloomery, Mrs. D. Adams; Sheppard's, Mrs. Downes Cranor; Wesley's Chapel, Mrs. Ferdinand Baynard; Harris' Chapel, Mrs. Josephine Downes. These ladies are respectfully requested, without further notice, to meet at the Parsonage in Denton, at 2 o'clock, P. M., Tuesday, March 2nd, 1880.

—The Liver being the controlling organ of the system, it is important that it should not be disturbed in its proper action. The digestion of food, the brain and nervous system are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. How important it is then that we should carefully guard it from harm. It has been satisfactorily proved that J. M. Laroque's Anti-Bilious Bitters are unequaled in curing all cases of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, and all the numerous diseases that are the direct result of an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sold everywhere at 25c. a package, or $1 a bottle. W. E. Thornton, Baltimore, Md., Proprietor.

—A large number of business men who are in favor of the Choptank route for the Peninsular ship canal are taking time by the forelock and procuring the necessary State legislation for the consummation of the project. Senator-elect Gorman has introduced into the Maryland Legislature a bill to incorporate the Choptank and Delaware Ship Canal Company, among the incorporators being Congressman Martin and Ex-Governor Ponder, of Delaware. If cut as proposed, the canal would strike the Nanticoke at Walnut Landing and cross Sussex county to Broadkill creek and the Delaware Bay. Only one lock would be necessary, and that lock would be on the Delaware Bay side, salt water flowing thence to the Chesapeake.

CENTREVILLE, MD., FEB. 23d, 1880.

Editor American Union:—One of our esteemed papers of this town is again honored with a correspondent of Templeville, who, by his extensive quotations and intimacy with the former correspondents of that place, will, if he doesn't weary in writing newspaper literature gain undying fame as a prosaist.

As the correspondent to whom I alluded in my former letter made some grave mistakes, and, also residents, as we presume, of his native town, he wishes to cover up and somewhat ameliorate their respective epistle. This is very humane, when he choses to act thus; but when "Corsica" attempted something on the same order (before Saladdin gave it thought) he was inspired by "Corsica's" pen to do almost exactly what "Corsica" had done previously, but he was a little behind time.

We are extremely grateful that such a one as "Saladdin" should bow in gratitude before the word "decent." He seems highly elated that his town should be adjectived by this word.—Sorry we can't speak more complimentary of the village, but can't say so much for the recent newspaper correspondent. There is not much danger of its ever becoming the county town, so, therefore Saladdin, keep cool and do not go off in a paroxysm of grief. Saladdin will please pardon Corsica in that he stated an assault was committed upon Duroc by Ex-Animo, when it should have been by Sancho Del Toboso.

Perhaps Saladdin likes fowl and consequently presumes that f-o u-l, should always be spelled f-o-w-l. Well, we do not wish to chide Saladdin for liking this particular kind of flesh; as every one may cater to their own taste, provided their pockets can afford it.

It seems that my "crabbed pen" (as Saladdin describes it) has awakened his dormant powers and thereby prevented them from remaining quiescent the remaining portion of his days. This is something accomplished by Corsica that others have failed to do. What a shame it would have been had this genius of intellectual ability suffered his abundant knowledge to remain undivulged to the public. Saladdin should thank Corsica for this also, as well as, complimenting the village.

Saladdin also refers to Corsica's juvenility, in a manner which far surpasses Shakespeare, and would make him blush for shame were he to happen around and see the issue of Feb. 17th, of the Observer. He also must be very corpulent and must cover a tract of territory as he represents himself as being the public.

No doubt Saladdin's head has been paining considerably of late on account of its pent up faculty. Oh, what a comfort to Corsica to know that by his wielding of the pen this aching has been removed and Saladdin will be able to hurl forth his literature becomingly!

CORSICA.

For the Union.

Cheating.

What a dreadful ado man makes when he finds that some one has cheated him. Language is not strong enough to express the disgust of the wretch who dared to do the deed, but that some man who vents his spleen so freely is just as jolly when he makes a sharp bargain in a horse, watch, or any other trade, a bargain is a bargain is then the cry. The pound of flesh is taken if it can be had by any possible means.

With some sharp bargaining has been reduced down to mathematical correctness, anything that the civil law don't say is stealing; why of course it must be the correct thing, especially if one gets the best end of the bargain. We are such a moral christianized people that the laws of the land tolerates anything that looks fair on the face. Just so it looks fair we can buy and sell with impunity. Just keep out of the clutches of the civil law and you are all right, no matter if you take the last penny your fellow man owns, if it has been a legal bargain you have nothing to fear this side of the grave. PARGETTER.

Be Wise and Happy.

If you will stop all your extravagant and wrong notions in doctoring yourself and families with expensive doctors or humbug cure-alls, that do harm always, and use only nature's simple remedies for all your ailments—you will be wise, well and happy, and save great expense. The greatest remedy for this, the great wise and good will tell you, is Hop Bitters—rely on it. See another column.

Montreal Heard From.

R. L. Mosely, of Montreal, Canada, certified Sept. 27, 1879, that he had suffered terribly from dyspepsia, and was completely cured by taking Warner's Safe Bitters. He says: "My appetite is good, and I now suffer no inconvenience from eating hearty meals." These Bitters are also a specific for all skin diseases.

A Rochester's Physicain's Experience.

R. Caulkins, M. D., of Rochester, N. Y., certifies Oct. 6th, 1879, that he has used the Safe Kidney and Liver Cure in his practice for diseases of the kidneys and liver, and the result has been satisfactory in the extreme. He says: "I would now prescribe the same remedy to all similarly afflicted, and you are at liberty to so state in your testimonials."

Deaths.

JEWELL.—At the residence of her father in Federalsburg, on the 23d inst., after a short illness, Miss ANNA JEWELL, aged about 32 years.
