We Want the Public to Know

That the UNION has now a circulation larger than that of any other newspaper published in this county, and its list of subscribers is steadily increasing. If this statement is questioned we are prepared to prove it.

THE Orphans' Court of Caroline county will meet on Tuesday, 23d of March.

The Editor's Hash.

—A new cannning factory is to be started at Harrington.

—The editor of the Greensborough Free Press paid us a short visit on Tuesday last.

—Clover and Timothy seed for sale by Allen Moore at Greensboro' station. [feb19-4t.

—Workingmen! Look to your interest and save doctors bills by using Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

—The Preachers of the M. E. Church will leave Denton for the conference at Dover next Tuesday.

—Dr. Oakley, of Detroit, says: "'Sellers' Liver Pills' are admirably calculated for biliousness and headaches."

—H. Blackiston was elected at the last quarterly meeting a delegate to the conference of the M. E. Church at Dover.

—The Leadville fever has broke out in Milford and several citizens of that place intend visiting the mines to seek a fortune.

—I take "Dr. Sellers' Cough Syrup," and no one in the city keep a clearer of coughs and colds than I. Druggists sell it. Price 25 cts.

—A change has taken place in the proprietorship of the Baltimore Evening Bulletin—L. Jeff. Milbourne & Co. becoming the owners.

—Our farmers have about completed seeding the oat crop. Our gardens are being put in order for planting early potatoes and other vegetables.

—The farm of the late Joseph Barthel was sold by Rob't. J. Jump, trustee, on Tuesday for $1,800. Isaac M. Haswell, mortgagee, was the purchaser.

—The Stewards of the M. E. Church will meet in Denton next Monday morning at 10 o'clock A. M. A full attendance of the Stewards is requested.

—Mr. Jas. Hignutt, near 80 years of age, and for more than 40 years crier of the Circuit Court for this county, is confined to his room, suffering with the dropey.

—A stock law for the third election district of this county has passed the lower branch of our State Legislature. It has to receive the sanction of the Senate before it becomes a law.

—The Milford News and Advertiser will hereafter be conducted by Prettyman & Harris. They will have to move around right lively if they improve upon the past record of that journal.

—Georgetown, Del., is somewhat excited over the celebration of the coming anniversary of our national independence. They are in duty to get up a rousing boom for the 4th of July.

—A certain Mr. Stump who keeps the Riverview Hotel at Oxford was arraigned last week for selling liquor in violation of the local option law. He was held in $500 bail for his appearance at Court.

—Gardeners are busy in town and county with their early vegetable. Potatoes, peas and many other like vegetables have been planted. The soil is in excellent condition, and many farmers are plowing for their corn crop.

—Cambridge has forty street lamps, thirty-nine of which use coal oil and one is lighted by gas. It costs the town nearly twenty dollars per month to run the thirty-nine, and the county pays fifteen dollars per year for the one gas lamp.

—The shad and herring season has really commenced on the Choptank. From three to four hundred herring are caught a day; but few shad have yet been captured. Herring are selling readily at $2 per hundred and shad at 50 cents per pair.

—Homes have been provided for the ministers and laymen of the Wilmington Annual Conference which meets at Dover on Wednesday next. The approaching session promises to be the largest ever held since the division of the Philadelphia conference some years ago.

—The failure of Jas. S. Heverin at Dover, Del., and the transfer of his property to his wife, has created quite a flutter in the financial circles of this hitherto staid and quiet community, Mr. Heverin is strongly censured by his creditors and an almost interminable law suit is likely to result from his course of action.

—The steam saw mill belonging to T. S. Johnson, of Millsboro', was burned on Friday night last, with 7,000 feet of good seasoned pine lumber. Mr. Johnson intended to rebuild the mill until yesterday when he found the boiler so badly damaged that he gave up the idea of rebuilding.

—This is the season for manufacturing voters in Delaware for the county election next fall. Those who fail to get on the assessment lists and pay their taxes are disfranchished. As our laws only require that the name of each voter shall be found on the registration lists, is perhaps, the reason so many Delaware residents vote at our polls.

—Read advertisement in another column of J. W. Cheezum & Co., Easton, Md. They are offering great bargains in Cassimeres, Ladies Dress Goods, Worsted and Wool Coatings, Cheviots, Domestic Dry Goods, &c. Their goods were bought before the advance, and they can sell you bargains. Call and see for yourselves.

—Miss Fannie Schofield of Greensborough, christened the new ferry boat built at the Harlan & Hollingworth yards in the city of Wilmington, which was landed on Saturday last. She is owned by the Potomac Steamboat Company and will be used in transfering cars between Locust Point and Canton, near Baltimore. She is named the Canton.

—Laroque's Anti-Bilious Bitters, manufactured by W. E. Thornton, Baltimore, Md., contain important tonic properties. They will be found a prompt and effectual cholagogue, and invaluable in malarial or bilious climates, conjointly with their efficacy upon the Liver. Thus they have blended in their composition two invaluable properities—a certain, prompt anti-bilious and a powerful tonic principal. 25 cents a package, or $1.00 per bottle.

—The ardent temperance people of Iowa propose a new method to decrease internal revenue receipts from whiskey. A bill is before the Legislature of that State to make "treating" a punishable offense. It is supposed that such a law will materially diminish the number of drinks taken between drinks. And it is argued in behalf of the proposed law that if an individual still persist in making a beast of himself he should be prohibited from insisting that his acquaintance shall play swine with him.—This latter argument would be a strong one in the several States where it is deemed a downright insult to refuse a 'treat'—an insult that has frequently been promptly wiped out with the revolver or bowie-knife.

—The wheat fields in Tuckahoe Neck present a beautiful prospect. The crop is more than a month in advance of former seasons.—The wheat fields of Capt. Emerson, Col. R. C. Carter and others presents a growth that is usually witnessed about the first of May. Mr. Geo. W. Spurry, residing in the same neighborhood furnished us with at his wheat on Saturday last which measured 17 inches in height. Should the mild weather continue we may look for wheat harvest this year about the first of June.

—The Wilmington Every Evening says:—"A social explosion at Dover, growing out of a scandal that has long been the town talk at the State capital. For some time past a bitter feeling has existed between Joseph Wharton, a farmer of the Dover neighborhood, and Wm. H. Dyer, of the firm of Dyer & Carson; the cause being a married woman, with whom, it is said, both have been criminally intimate.—On Friday afternoon the two men met, and although Mr. Dyer wore his arm in a sling, it having been lately broken, Mr. Wharton attacked him and gave him a severe flogging with a whip stock. Dyer, it is said, will bring suit for $5,000 damages, and it is believed, the trial will lay bare a vast amount of scandal."

—The Maryland Steamboat Company held its annual meeting last week and re-elected its present officers. Mr. Ensign, who has been for ten years President of the company, is now considered one of the most capable steamboat line managers in the city. Certainly his management of the Maryland Company, under all the difficulties with which it has had to contend, has been marked by rare tact and ability. The Highland light, thoroughly repaired and repainted, is now making three trips a week to Medford's Wharf—extending Saturday's trip to Denton. About the last of this month the Enoch Pratt will again be put on, when the Highland Light will resume her tri-weekly trips to this place.

—The report of Major Craighill, of the engineer corps, of examinations and surveys of rivers in Maryland, has just been made to the Secretary of War. The report shows that the Nanticoke river needs little or no improvement except in the vicinity of Federalsburg, where an increase of depth to seven feet is desirable, and for which an estimate of $10,000 is made. Broad creek is described as a prong of the Nanticoke river from its mouth to Laurel, Delaware, and the estimate for its proper improvement is $60,000. Tuckahoe creek rises in Queen Anne's couty, near the head waters of Chester river, and emptics into the Choptank about 8 miles below Denton. The survey of the creek extended to Hillsborough, in Caroline county. The estimate for the improvement is $41,250. For Slaughter creek, which forms the southern limit of Taylor's Island, Dorchester county, the estimate is $7,250.—For Cabin creek, in Dorchester county, no estimate is made, as the survey demonstrated that rhe navigation seems to be sufficient for present needs.

Preston Festival.

The festival held last week by the Union Grove congregation in the new academy in this place passed off very pleasantly, indeed, so much so it continued over Saturday afternoon and evening, closing about half past ten o'clock at night. The ladies and friends of Preston and Bethlehem as well as at the two appointment manifested their kindness in providing cake and other necessaries for the occasion. There was a large turn out of friends from the several neighborhoods each evening. On Thursday and Saturday evenings the house was crowded, so much so as to make it very uncomfortable standing, as the seats were removed to give standing room for the attendants. Oyster suppers, ice cream, lemonade, oranges, bananas, peanuts, cake, candies, and various other kinds of confectionaries were to be had each evening, thus making its luxuries very palatable to those who did not neglect to have the wherewith to participate in its enjoyments. A large pyramid cake baked by the ladies of Preston was provided for the purpose of running ladies as candidates, the one receiving the highest number of ballots, was to receive the cake as a present. The ballots were fixed at five cents each and five ladies were chosen candidates, namely: Miss Lizzie Willoughby, of Union Grove; Miss Jennie Pritchett and Miss Orra Gale, of Preston; Miss Susie Laing, of Bethlehem; Miss Pheno Coulbourn of Zion. The candidates were busily engaged each evening electioneering among their friends, although there was not much excitement until the last evening when every one was interested for their favorite candidates.—The polls were announced to be closed at half past nine o'clock sharp, at which time there were many anxiously waiting to hear the results read out by the judge. They were as follows: Miss Willoughby received 99 votes, realizing $4.95; Miss Pritchett receiving 147 votes, realizing $6.35; Miss Gale received 60 votes realizing $3.00; Miss Laing received 391 votes, realizing $19.55; Miss Coulbourn received 320 votes, reiizing $16.00; the whole aggregate realized $50.85. Miss Laing received the cake amid the applause of the house, for which she gave a public invitation to all friends who had labored for her success, with all the candidates, to attend a reception at her house the following Wednesday evening, at which time the cake would be cut. There was a great deal pleasure manisested in the festival, post office especially by the young. The festival proved a successs financially as they realized about $75.00 clear of all expenses, the proceeds to go towards furnishing the new parsonage. P. S.

PRESTON, March 9th, 1880.

Letter from Henderson.

HENDERSON, March 6th, 1880.

Mr. Editor:—Noticing communications from different points of the county I thought one would not be amiss from 1st district as there to be few of late.

Our merchants are doing a thriving business. She store formerly occupied by Pratt & Ford, but now by B. F. Ford is doing an excellent business, also the one kept by S. J. Tarbutton is doing a good business.

Our farmers are busy now preparing to sow their oats and breaking ground for corn.—Wheat in this section never was better this time of the year than at present. The latest sensation is the elopement of Miss Annie M. Gibson with Harry W. Hynson, (the silent man;(better known perhaps as being the legal adviser of Judge Bond in the Hackett vs. whiskey case.

I have noticed a communnication in the Democrat from Goldsboro', signed "Daniel Quilp," and as he personates the Hendersonians, will glance at his communication and correct some errors he has made. It must be gratifying to the citizens of Goldsboro' that such an illustrious person was the founder of that little village; also, that it now has as a citizen the present Post Master (who is an energetic man,) and will soon we learn, start a paper at that place to be called the Goldsboro Advertiser. We wish him success in his new undertaking and no doubt it will be a success, as his ability is great. Being that 'Mr. Quilp' resides so near to Sandtown, (a place famous for brandy and fights,) we think he must have imbibed a great deal of the fiery liquid and it has been the means of magnifying, to a certain extent, his mind, otherwise, how could he give such a brilliant description of that village. We have visited the place, or rather have seen it in passing, and it almost makes one sick to behold such a demoralized place. We heard a gentlemen assert who resides at Goldsboro', and whose veracity for truthfulness cannot be doubted, that there was nothing went there in the way of trade but rail road ties. Therefore Mr. Quilp must have received an erroneous impression of the business done there, as we would think a place hidden by rail road ties would not improve its beauty nor add much to the wealth of the place. Suppose, Mr. Graham to receive 5000 rail road ties annually, it would only amount to $1400, which I suppose you deem an immense business.

Concerning the lyceum at this place I wil only say that we think we have some oratorsl that can handle any subject the conceited Goldsborites may suggest, and if they wish to test our oratorical powers and give vent to their knowledge, we would politely request them to visit us and name their subject and we will discuss it to their soul's content, for fear I am encroaching too much on your patience I will stop writing. Before so doing I would advise Mr. Quilp to put aside his bottle and magnifying glass and behold Goldsboro as it is.

History of a School House,

AND THE IMPROVEMENT IT MAKES IN A NEIGHBORHOOD.

The aim and object of life, is to rise in fortune and prosperity, and the star that month after month, year after year, guides the ship of life, is the star of improvement. For the past year improvements in this neighborhood have been continually going on, and now a few words from this vicinity would perhaps be interesting to some of your many readers. Accordingly, about twelve months ago the people of this neighborhood, standing badly in need of a school house, conceived the idea of building one, and being men who, when beginning a thing are determined to carry it through, the school house was soon erected. It is situated near Townsend's X Roads, and is now known as "Wyatt's" school house, or ludicrously as "Possom Hollow." The first day that school opened there were registered about 30 scholars, 20 of them I think came from three families, and from that day to the present there has been a large, but well conducted school, which is one of the late marked improvements of the neighborhood.

Now, school opened about the first of January, and as the coming winter nights proved to be very long, and as socials were exceedingly scarce, its people determined to organize a lyceum, and each Friday night thereafter, was discussed at the school house, some profound as well as interesting questions, which was always attended by a large, but orderly audience; and 'ere the winter closed the debate proved to be as profitable as it was entertaining.

When spring came the churches around began organizing their Sabbath schools; but as this neighborhood is so unfortunate as not to be within three miles of a church the people thought it wise to organize a Sabbath school at the school house, which, sometime in the month of May was done. The first Sunday the attendance was large, in fact more than the house would comfortably seat, and continued so throughout the season. In order to carry on a first-class Sabbath school it was thought that it would be necessary to have preaching. Accordingly the services of Rev. J. Irving was secured, and then we had Sabbath school every Sunday, and preaching every other Sunday.—The old as well as the young seemed to take a special interest in the Sabbath school, and it was concluded to have a pic nic, which came off in August and was very successful. The congregation steadily increased, and the school house being small, many at times were obliged to stand outside.

Now, the neighborhood after fully considering the matter, have determined to build a church, which from present prospects will go up as successfully as the school house—a part of the lumber being already upon the ground. A majority being in favor of an M. E. Church it is determined to build one for that denomination, and for that reason, and that alone, Mr. Irving resigned preaching to the M. E. Church. Now we have services every other Sunday at the school house conducted by the Rev. Mr. Rich.

The lyceum was again organized about three weeks ago, and every Wednesday night since we have had an interesting as well as an exciting debate. In the meantime wishing all other neighborhoods as much prosperity as this, I am

Wicked for Clergymen.

"I believe it to be all wrong and even wicked for clergymen or other public men to be led in to giving testimonials to quack doctors or vile stuffs called medicines, but when a really meritorious article made of valuable remedies known to all, that all physicians use and trust in daily, we should freely commend it. I therefore cheerfully and heartily commend Hop Bitters for the good they have done me and my friends, firmly believing they have no equal for family use. I will not be without them."—Rev. ——, Washington, D. C.
