We Want the Public to Know

That the UNION has now a circulation larger than that of any other newspaper published in this county, and its list of subscribers is steadily increasing. If this statement is questioned we are prepared to prove it.

The Orphans' Court of Caroline county will meet on Tuesday, 6th of April.

The Editor's Hash.

—Next Sunday is Easter.

—The Easton Ledger is offered for sale.

—The new parsonage at Union Grove appointment is near completion.

—Only eleven and a half dozen of Mens and Boys Hats, at 50 cents each, left at Rochester's.

—The colored schools of Caroline county will close on Friday, 2nd of April. [mar25 2w

—Mr. James K. Burnite, is lying very dangerously ill at his residence at Felton, Delaware.

—Your liver is out of order and you know it; so take "Sellers' Liver Pills." Sold by all druggists.

—The M. P. Annual Conference has returned Rev. W. J. D. Lucas to the Preston Circuit, making the fourth year at this appointment.

—Be wise; simply call on your druggist for "Dr. Sellers' Cough Syrup," when you have a cold or cough. 25c. a bottle.

—Harmony school, J. T. Blades, teacher, closed the winter term on Friday last with 62 scholars registered. The general average is about 43 scholars.

—The cold and blustry weather of last week has retarted fishing operations on the Choptank. But few herring and no shad have been caught for the last ten days.

—The Board of county commissioners will meet to-day, and again on next Tuesday, and every Tuesday thereafter until the close of the levy for this year.

—Mr. Thos. McCullough, residing near Henderson has lost two children from diphtheria within two weeks; Willie, on the 28th ult., and Freddie, on Saturday, the 13th inst.

—The number of pupils in attendance at the Elkton Academy during the present term is larger than for many years past. There are at present seventy-five names upon the roll.

—Work is piling up at the Elkton foundry. Twice the number of workmen engaged this time last year are now employed, with the business part of the spring trade yet to come.

—The congregation of Christ Church recently purchased of Prof. L. T. Vosmus, a very handsome cottage organ. It will be put in place during the week and will be used for the first time on Easter Day.

—Mr. J. H. K. Shannahan at Easton has laid in a caryo of ice for the approaching summer. Where did he get it? It didn't grow in this latitude. Is it an iceberg he captured away up about the North pole?

—Don't forget the entertainment to be held next Tuesday night, at the Court House. The dramatic talent employed is the best of our town and you may be sure of a good evening's amusement. Tickets at Rochester's.

—Frank Henry, colored, a servant of Dr. Alex. Hardcastle, died of consumpcion on the 17th inst. His faithfulness to his employer, and his honest dealings with all who had business with him had gained for him many friends.

—On Monday week, the 5th of April, the Circuit Court for this conty will commence its April term in this place. The most important trial at the approaching term will be that of J. L. Woodcock for arson, removed from Talbot county.

—The bill for indexing the records of this county was defeated in the Senate last week. It had previously passed the House and we have to thank the Senate for acting wisely in this matter and relieving our tax-payers of unnecessary burdens.

—A Clergyman's Opinion.—Having had an opportunity to test the excellent qualities of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, I hesitate not to say, it is the best remedy I have used in my family. Rev. Wm. Chapman, Pastor M. E. Church, Georgetown, D. C.

—Messrs. William Sedgewick and S. H. Smith have purchased the Adams farm, of 235 acres, in Caroline county, near this village. They propose to sub divide it into three or more farms, and improve it in various ways.—Federalsburg Courier.

—Kent County, (Del.) Levy Court adjourned on Saturday until April 6th, after having added 1447names; 737 white and 710 colored, to the assessment lists. This makes the total number of voters assessed in the county 6,150, of whom 1404 are colored.

—The Maryland Steamboat Company has, through its president, Gen. Howard B. Ensign, made an additional contract with the Government to bring the mail from Baltimore six times a week instead of three, as at present.—The new contract will go into effect the first of April.

—Says the Cambridge Era: "Oxford, which already has two summer resort hotels, nine oyster packing establishments, a crab canning house, bone factory and brick kiln, is now seriously contemplating the establishment of an iron foundry. It also claims a population of over eighty hundred."

—Mrs. Lowdes, wife of Commodore Charles Lowndes, died at her residence on Miles river last Wednesday night. Mrs. Lowndes was a sister of the late Col. Edward Lloyd, and also to Mrs. Commodore Buchanan, and Mrs. Wm. T. Goldsborough, of Dorchester, both of whom survive her. She was well advanced in years. —Comet.

—The Conference Academy at Dover, is encumbered with a debt of $25,000 and threatened with seizure. An appeal was made to the Conference for a collection and $1,438 was subscribed but on the condition that they were not to be paid unless $11,000 could be raised to extinguish the floating debt.

—John L. White, aged eighteen, the son of Robert White, a farmer living near Frankford, Sussex county, was killed on Wednesday by the upsetting of a cart he was driving to get a load of fire-wood. The body of the cart became detached from the wheels, and falling upon him, crushed his skull.

—Ask the recovered victims of Fever and Ague, Bilious Sufferers, or Dyspeptics how their cheerful spirit and good appetite of renewed health came to them. They will tell you Laroque's Anti Bilious Bitters did it.—Try them. They give truly wonderful results. Manufactured by W. E. Thornton, Baltimore, Md. 25c. a package, or $1.00 per bottle.

—Robbers broke into the house of Nathaniel Meekins, in Back Creek Neck, Cecil county, on the night of the 12th inst., during that gentleman's absence. They attempted to reach the second story, where the family were, but a son of Mr. Meekins, who stood at the stairs with gun in hand, drove them back. Their object was to secure a sum of money supposed to be in the possession of the family.

—On the morning of the 14th instant a bagged fox was hunted near Pocomoke City, Worcester county, by nearly a hundred men and dogs. The chase was quite exciting, and continued until the best part of the afternoon was gone, when Reynard was uncaught, but those on foot were caught six miles from home, with a compulsory walk ahead.

—The Princess Anne, True Marylander says: We recorded last week the death of two of the daughters of Mr. Wm. Mitchell of Dublin district, from diphtheria. Since then he has lost his estimable wife This is a triple bereavement inside of eleven days and a sad series of casualties which fall to the lot of but few men. Mr. Mitchell has the warm sympathies of the entire community.

—It costs the entire property of Dorchester county to pay the taxes every hundred years, and every ten years a man lives he pays out one tenth he is worth for taxes. It takes one-fourth of all the exports shipped from the county annually, such as wheat, corn, potatoes, fish oysters, wood, wool, poultry and everything else, to pay taxes. Sleeping or awake, our taxes go on. Almost as soon as they are paid one year they are due for the next year, and sometimes a little sooner. When a man has a little money out that has a year to run, and he needs it badly, seems like it will never come due, but as for taxes they appear to be coming due all the time. Every sixteen years the people of the county must pay one million of dollars in taxes.—Cambridge News.

—The Wilmington Conference adjourned on Tuesday morning. At the time of going to press we have not received the appointments, but learn that the Rev's. Mr. Milby and Mr. Lindale are sent to Denton Circuit; Rev. J. E. Smith, to Greensborough; Rev. L. C. Andrews, to Camden; and Rev. E. P. Aldred, to Easton; Rev. Mr. Burke, to Marydel; Rev. Wm. Waiton, Federalsburg, and the Junior to be supplied; Rev. Mr. Kidney and A. Smith return to Dorchester Circuit; Rev. C. H. Hill, to Kings Creek; Rev. I. Jewell, to Queenstown; Rev. Mr. Rawlins, to Galena; Rev. Julius Dood, to Harriogto ; Rev. C. W. Prettyman, Lewes, Del.; Rev. E. Atkins to Galestown; Rev. Mr. Connot, to Shaptown; Rev. Mr. Barrett, Annamessex; Rev. W. L. Bain, to Pocomoke City; Rev. Mr. Martindale was elected Presiding Elder.

—The following appointments were made last week by the Baltimore Conference of the M. P. Church, for sub-division No. 2.—Chairman, Wm. M. Strayer; Caroline, J. M. Elderdic; Preston, Wm. J. D. Lucas; Dorchester, G. Q. Bacchus and T. C. Colburne; Cambridge, unsupplied; Seaford, H. E. Miskimmon; Milton, D. A. Shermer; Milford, unsupplied; Laurel, J. E. T. Ewell, Sussex, J. L. Leillich; Whalesville, A. D. Dick, W. F. Roberts; Salisbury, J. M. Sheridad; Union, J. L. Straughn; Quantico, D. N. Gilbert; Somerset, J. M. Holmes; Snow Hill, W. M. Strager; Franklin City, W. G. Halmes; Pocomoke, W. T. Valiant; Pocomoke City, S. A. Hoblitizel; Chincoteague, unsupplied; Accomac, F. H. Mullinaux

A Token of Respect.

On my return to Denton from Conference I wended my way to my studio, and there, to my surprise, found a handsome studying habit, which was left there by the kind sisters of the church for me, for which I extend my thanks.

Rev. L. C. Andrew.

For the Union.

Preston Letter.

Robert P. Taylor, Esq., of this district has the good luck to be the owner of an animal of the Sow genus—in unpolished words—a brood sow. Something over three years old, that, for a year past, has been engaged in the pork producing business to some purpose. Her first remarkable feat in this line occurred on March 12th, 1879. On that day she dropped a litter of fifteen pigs—strong, healthy grunters. On the 8th of August of the same year, fifteen more corn crackers made their appearance; and on the 6th of February, 1880, she became the mother of twelve more, making in all a family of forty-two, within less than eleven months. The sow is of choice breed, and the pigs, at six weeks old were worth, at moderate figures, two dollars each. Allowing half for care and feeding, his profits amount to the neat little sum of $42.00 in one year, from one hog. If Mr. Taylor's other stock should increase in the same ratio, he will soon be the owner of the cattle "on a thousand hills;" and if his profits from grain raising should keep pace with those arising from his porcine investment, his wealth in a few years, will be like Tom Bradford's—"only one end to it—and that the eend he is spendin' on.

A petition, numerously signed, has been forwarded to Mr. Cox, our member of the House of Delegates at Annapolis, asking for the passage of an Act of incorporation for this village. It is hoped, desired and almost daily prayed that the town council (if the bill is passed) will prohibit cattle and hogs from roaming about our streets, and thereby be enabled to keep them in a fit condition for ladies to walk on, or in—whichever is good grammar. I always like for everybody to have a choice.

Another petition has been circulated for signatures, and has or will, this week, be sent to Annapolis, asking for an additional voting place in this election district. The voting population has increased very rapidly of late years, and now numbers about 700—perhaps a few more—manny of whom live remote from the present polling place, and, as a matter of convenience another voting precinct at Preston is desirable. I have found but one man in the district that opposes the measure. His objection is on the score of increasing the taxes.—There is such a thing as stopping the spile hole and pouring out at the bung.

Why don't the Russian Nihilists build a steam saw mill and putt a buzz saw in he can walk to it while in motion? It would be a cheaper and less risky method of getting him across the gloomy old Styx, than by electric wires; and the mill would be useful after he was out of the way. I don't charge anything for the suggestion.

Joseph C. Clark, a grandson of Capt. Joseph Mobray, who has spent the last two winters in Baltimore attending lectures at the School of Medidine, in the University of Maryland returned home on the 10th inst., a full fledged M. D., and, of course, gratified at the successful ending of his course of study. His appearance indicates that he has consumed no little midnight oil. At the solicitation of a number of his friends, Joe (it doesn't seem nat'ral to call him Doctor yet, but we shall all have to come to it) has located in Federalsburg, and from his urbanity and general popularity, it is safe to predict for him a reasonable share of patronage. No young man in the county deserved success more than Doctor Joe Clark.

The Louisville Courier Journal, the deepest toned organ in the South, of the Democratic persuasion says: "Samuel J. Tilden was elected President of this glorious Union in 1876, but was cheated out of the office by the henchmen of Mr. Hayes." That is rather humiliating admission for one of the chivalry to make. Our southern gentlemen being equal, yea, superior to five yankees, it "had n't ought to have been so." The common people—farmers, mechanics, merchants, blacksmiths, lawyers, doctors, preachers and nearly all of us—think that a man that is not sharp enough to prevent being cheated is not sharp enough for a President. "A man that has n't spunk enough to hold on to an office after being elected, is n't fit for the office, and no business with it," is what a man voted for Tilden in '76 said in my hearing a few days ago. I guess he was not far out of the way.

But Sammy knew he was not elected. He knew but for rifles and shotguns, that Georgia, Alabamma and Mississippi would have been certainly republican as was Massachusetts.

"Thus concience did make a coward of Uncle Sammy."

A good man democrats, as well as not a few democratic organs, small and great, laud Senator Bayard to within three inches of the skies for his statesmanship. "Mr. Bayard," they say, "is a statesman with few equals and no superiors in this whole country." I would like to see or hear the evideuce upon which the assertion is based. I have known Senator Bayard ever since he entered the political arena, and am compelled to say, for the respect I have for the truth, that I cannot now recollect a single public measure that has, in the smallest degree, been beneficial to the nation at large, of which he is or was the author. He, like most full grown politicians, has occasionally differed with the majority of his party, and been soundly abused therefor, by the leaders thereof, and "damned with faint praise" by his opponents, which is about the sum total of his claims to the statesmanship. If he is a statesman, statesmen are altogether different from what they were in the days of Clay, Benton and Webster, and the woods is full of 'em.

But just what the above two paragraphs have to do with a local newsletter, I would like for somebody to inform me. I don't know; and I (there is a fearful number of I's getting into this thing) don't believe any one else does.

But "What's writ is writ—Would it were worthier. Let it stand, Mr. Editor; and if I can, I will do better next time. You, at least, have variety in this letter. Norwood.

For the Union.

Keep your Eye on your Neighbors.

Take care of your neighbors; do not let them stir without watching; they may do something wrong if you do. To be sure you never knew them to do anything very bad, but it may be on your account that they have not.

Perhaps if it had not been for your kind care they might have disgraced themselves and families a long time ago. Therefore do not postpone any effort to keep them where they ought to be. Never mind your own business; that will take care of itself. But just see that your neighbor's affairs are all attended to, and when that is done, there will be music in the air.

There goes a man passing along—be on the alert for him, perhaps he contemplates stealing one of these dark nights; there is no knowing what queer fancies he has got into his head.—If you know of any one passing out of the path of duty, tell every one what you see, and be particular to see a great many. It is a good way to circulate such things—though yourself nor no one else derives any benefit from it, but just simply to have music in the air. Do keep something going—silence is a dreadful thing; though it is said there was silence in heaven for the space of half an hour; do not let such things occur on earth; it would be too much like heaven for this mundane sphere.

If, after all your watchful care, you cannot see anything out of the way of any one, you may be sure it is not because they have not done anything bad; perhaps in an unguarded moment you lost sight of them—throw out hints that they are no better than what they ought to be—that you should not wonder if the people found out what they were after a while; that they may not carry their heads so high.

Keep it going and some one may take the hint and begin to help you after a while; then there will be music and everything will work to a charm. A Lover of Peace.

by its policies insuring Buildings, Furniture, Merchandise, Grain and other contents, Live Stock, and other insurable property, also covering Buildings during erection.

ANNUAL PAYMENTS OF PREMIUMS

are made in advance to pay the losses and expenses of each year, but such payments do not indicate the actual cost of insurance, as the large dividends paid attest, amounting to over $105,000 00, and yet leaving to the credit of its members over $96,000 00.

The Strictest Mutuality

is observed throughout, every member while having the advantages arising from a large Mutual Association is still dealt with in an individual capacity, and at the close of each year the balance due each is shown on our books.
