We Want the Public to Know

That the UNION has now a circulation larger than that of any other newspaper published in this county, and its list of subscribers is steadily increasing. If this statement is questioned we are prepared to prove it.

THE Orphans' Court of Caroline county will meet on Tuesday, 22d of June.

The Editor's Hash.

—A new hotel is to be built at Cedar Beach.

—Salt is recommended as instant death to the army worm.

—A lady has been elected a member of the Delaware Medical Society.

—Gen. Garfield is a relative by marriage of Mr. F. A. Ellis, of Elkton.

—The first blackberries of the season were shipped from Laurel last week.

—Mr. Lewis Thomson has been re-appointed Collector of the port of Wilmington.

—The Kent & Queen Anne's railroad cleared $1,867 during the year that closed with May.

—Two thousand one hundred pounds of snappers were shipped from Milford last week.

—The pear slug is doing considerable damage to the pear crop in some sections in Delaware.

—The reason is plain why young ladies like horseback riding it leads them to a bridal path.

—The County Commissioners of Queen Anne's county have levied $14,429 for public schools.

—Last Thursday evening, Mr. Wm. H. Barton, Jr., of Cambridge, gave a party to 70 children.

—Prof. Wm. H. Dashiell, of the Crisfield High School, will make the tour of Europe this summer.

—The Courier says a drunken man in Fredericksburg would be as great a curiosity as a baby elephant.

—Queen Anne's county demands of her taxpayers over $14,000 for public school purposes for the next school year.

—The season has opened at Rehoboth. Hotels are open for guests and the most of the cottages are already occupied.

—Peaches were never known to grow as fast as they have this season. The prospect is that shipments will be made by the first of July.

—While Thomas Fooks was driving a colt on Sunday, three miles from Georgetown, the animal reared, fell back and broke his neck.

—The Baby's cries are its only method of letting you know that it suffers and needs Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup. Price 25 cents a bottle.

—The Quarterly Conference for Denton Circuit will be held at Bloomery on Friday, June the 25th, commencing at 3 o'clock, P. M.

—"Not guilty, but don't do it again," is the interpretation the Snow Hill people put upon the verdict of the court in the Polk-Aydelotte scandal.

—Lowery at Milford has a cabbage patch containing 7,000 plants. He has given away the present season 2,300 heads of this early vegetable.

—Wm. M'Kenney, the largest wheat grower in Queen Anne's county, expects to raise on his farms, this year, from 40,000 to 50,000 bushels of wheat.

—Clayton if to have two or three drying machines erected for the peach crop. They are to be removed from Milford on account of scarcity of fruit in that section.

—The wheat crop in this county is all harvested and in a few days our farmers will commence threshing the grain for market. Harvest is a week or ten days earlier than usual.

—Jas. Hitch, an employee of a Milford blacksmith shops, was severely injured one day last week. A large timber wheel fell on his right leg, cutting and mangling his leg and foot.

—Willie Hayward, aged 4 years, son of Col. Wm. Hayward at Easton, was so badly gored by an infuriated bull one day last week that he died in a few hours after receiving the injuries.

—Mr. Saulsbury Hobbs, ex-County Commissioner, it is said is now the owner of the first wheat reaper ever introduced into this county. It is an old M'Connick and still does good work.

—WANTED IMMEDIATELY, Two Salesmen, thoroughly acquainted with the Dry Goods business. No others need apply.
J. J. JUMP & Co.,
jun17-2w. Easton, Md.

—Hope Caldwell, son of Rev. Mr. Caldwell, of Wilmington, received the highest honor this year at Dickerson College. Mr. Caldwell is the youngest of his class. He is not yet 20 years old.

—Brother Sullvane of the Cambride Chronicle, has recently made a trip through Tuckahoe Neck, and says it is the finest country on the Peninsula, except some portions of New Castle County.

—A hurricane passed over Middletown, Del., Saturday, unroofing several houses, interrupting telegraphic communication and delaying trains. It is thought the peach trees were seriously damaged.

—Prof. P. W. Hochkeppel, of Wilmington, will deliver a lecture on the subject of Education and the Languages at the Academy in Denton on Monday evening next, commencing at 7½ o'clock. Lecture free.

—We should be sory, says the Wilmington News, to believe that any large or respectable class, in any decent community takes pleasure in following, from day to day, or week to week, the intricacies of a newspaper quarrel.

—Talbot county this term of court sends a delegation of six colored men to the penitentiary, viz: Ben Scott, 18 months; Joseph Skinner, 3 years; Danl. Johnson, 3 years; Vance Johnson, 3 years; Joseph Johnson, 3 years; and Charles Howard, 4 years.

—The motion for a new trial in the case of John W. Turpin, convicted of murder in the second degree for the killing on Wednesday last overruled. Sentence was suspended until the Court of Appeals shall determine upon the exceptions taken at the trial in May last.

—On Monday John Selby, colored, was persuaded to jump into Bull's mill pond, near Laurel, for a bath. He did so, although unable to swim, and came violently in contact with a snag. He almost immediately sunk, and before aid could reach him he was dead.

A WINDFALL.—Mr. Ruth, a carpenter in this place, has recently fallen heir to an estate in Wilmington valued at about $77,000. His uncle recently died there leaving an estate valued at $700,000, of which our young townsman gets one-ninth.—Centreville Observer.

—The dwelling house of John W. Clark, Esq., of Tuckahoe Neck, was struck by lightning, on Friday of last week. The electric fluid entered by the chimney and passed out the parlor chamber window, and did no damage other than to knock off several square yards of plaster and demolish the ornaments on the mantel in the parlor chamber.

—Mr. Chas. Stevens, our druggist and postmaster, has just repainted his drug store and otherwise improved the post office arrangements. This transformation of things has put a new face on the internal appearance of the establishment and make it look as neat and bright as a new pin.

—On Friday afternoon of last week a boy named Charles Swigget met with an accident near Smyrna which resulted in his death the following Sunday. He had been cultivating corn, and on hitching up again attempted to get on the mules back. He failed but hung to the gears, the mule starting into a run, dragging the boy a considerable distance and kicking him at every jump until the animal reached he stable. The boy was 13 years old.

—The Wilmington Dailey News, has reports from various points on the Peninsula giving accounts of the peach prospects. Port Pen reports half a crop, Odessa reports the best crop for the past five years; Smyrna reports the trees as bending under their load of fruit; Camden reports plenty of Hale's and Troth's Early, other and later varieties scarce, except in a few localities. Other points report crop short and in some places scarcely fruit sufficient for home consumption.

—A little boy living near St. Michæls attended one of our Churches a few Sundays ago, and the pulpit was occupied by a strange minister. After the little fellow had returned home, and while sitting at the table, he suddenly dropped his knife and fork and exclaimed: "That preacher that preached to-day don't know how to preach." Upon being asked the reason, he replied: "He didn't beg once during the whole sermon.—Comet.

A Fatal Accident.

John Melvin, aged 22 years, son of Thomas Melvin of this place, who for several months past has been employed at the works of Jackson, Sharp & Co., Wilmington, on Saturday morning last about one o'clock fell from the third story window of his sleeping room to the pavement below, a distance of about 25 feet and was so fatally injured that he died on Sunday morning about 4 o'clock. He had frequently been warned by his room mates of the danger of sleeping with his head partly out of the open window, but he heeded not their warnings. He was a young man of a genial disposition and a favorite with his companions. His body was brought to his home on Monday and intered at the M. E. Church yard in this place on Tuesday morning last.

A Linguist in Caroline County.

Prof. P. W. Hochkeppel of the Wilmington Athenæum, of Wilmington, Del., a young gentleman, who at present is spending his vacation on a farm near Greensboro, has been persuaded by his friends, to give private lessons for the next 3 months to the young ladies, gentlemen and (children over 10 years,) of Caroline and the neighboring counties in the ancient and modern languages, viz: Latin, Greek, Hebrew, German, French, Spanish and all English Branches. Prof. H. made all his studies in Prussia, Germany, which has the most eminent schools in the world and he is highly reccommended in Wilmington, especially by Hon. Thos. F. Bayard, U. S. Senator, in whose family he taught. It would therefore be the greatest chance ever offered to the young folks of Denton, Greensboro, Ridgely, Hillsboro and the surrounding country, and they ought to make good use of this rare opportunity. He will visit those places 2 or 3 times a week and guarantees a fair knowledge in either language within 3 months. Each one may be taught privately at his or her house if desired and at a time convenient to them.—Terms very reasonable and within the reach of all. Three or four of the same family will be taught for almost the same price. Let all applications be made immediatly as there is no time to be lost. For reference call on R. J. Jump, Esq., of Denton and at this office. I shall be in Denton as soon as applications shall have been made by letter. Young ladies and gentlemen, gather all your friends and make immediate application to Prof. P. W. Hochkeppel, P. O. Greensboro, Caroline county, Md. See advertisement.

A Peninsula Storm.

A Special dispatch to the Wilminton Daily News, dated at Middle-town on Sunday last, gives an account of one of the severest storms that has visited the Peninsula for years past. The dispatch says "it swept over the town with disastrous effect. It tore about one-half of the roof from the freight house at the depot. The entire roof of the National Hall was lifted from the walls and carried a half a mile away, into the fields, damage $600. The machine shop of W. L. Buck & Son was very badly injured, the walls being blown in; loss, $1,000. The property of E. R. Cochran, the recently appointed Clerk of the Peace for this county, seemed to bear the full force of the hurricane. The orchards were badly stripped. His barn, in which was sheltered his cattle, was totally destroyed, and some of his horses and mules crippled; damage, $5,000.

In the town trees and awnings were blown down. The agriculture warehouse of Foard & Comegys, was damaged to the extent of $300. Other places injured were A. T. Bradley's grocery store, $100; the Woodall factory $100. The total loss amounts to over $7,000. Nothing is known of the lose further down the Peninsula. It is stated, however, that the damages to the orchards is considerable."

Another dispatch to the same paper dated at Riverton says.' The trees were bent and twisted like saplings. The large buildings being built to the beet sugar works sustained the greatest damage. A portion of the walls was demolished and the heavy girders that had just been placed in position, came crashing to the ground. The scaffolding was also blown down. The contractor, William Pierce, of this city, estimates his loss to be between $300 and $500.

THE NEGRO.

Now don't get the fidgets. Why not say a word or two about him as well as the thousand and one things mankind write about. But you don't like the "nigger." Who said you should like him? yes, and I look upon him as an inferior race. Do you? Well, if you do then don't show your well bred spleen in using the contemptuous term "nigger." By doing so you only show your fear that the poor despised being will some day in the future rise above his present down trodden position and carve for his race a name. Oh! ye negro haters; look back over the history of the past if you dare, read your Bible with care, and then answer deep down in your own minds whether this deep rooted prejudice against a people is not born and bred in a spirit of malevolence, tinctured with splenatic spite, and a willful disregard of the true principles of philosophy. Is it not a defiance against Him who has declared that of "one blood all the nations of the earth were created," or will you in face of facts which nature's God has so constructed that the most obtuse can see, or will you, lawyer like, quibble over details in which there is not a shadow of evidence, barring that of a vitiated morbid desire of belittling all save that which you in your egotism have built up as truth. The truth of life is not to depress or repress the weak, but to elevate them, and there are more than one who call themselves Christian gentlemen who would profit by it in the great hereafter to bear this truth in mind, and were they more circumspect in this matter they who give tone to society, their influence would be far more reaching, more beneficial to their own race and kind; would elevate the character and morals of those who are looked upon with contemptuous indifference. But man scarcely dare look truth in the face least he find a weak point in his dear egotistic self, and there is nothing under the sun that hurts worse than wounding one's own vanity by a thorough examination of self. It is a knife that goes deeper and deeper, till one feels sore all over the body. PARGETTER.

For the Union.

A DELAWARE NOVELTY.

FRIEND EMERSON: In a recent issue of your excellent paper I noticed a reference to the Sussex Journal, published at Georgetown, Del. It is said that "it has two editors, represents both political parties, if not through its columns, at least in the editorial sanctum. How would it do to devote one side of the sheet to Democratic and the other to Republican politics?"

The proposition is undoubtedly a novel one in these days of political chicanery, and suggested in a playful or ironical mood; but to our mind the practical effects of such a plan would be eminently desirable. The great bane of American politics to-day is the ignorance that the constituency of one party has of the other. The "rank and file" of the one know little or nothing correctly of the opinions of their opponents. And the cause of this is to be traced to the fact that they hear and read only their own side of the question. Their daily or weekly newspaper is a bigotedly partisan sheet. It falsifies its opponents by garbled or partial statements; so that but half the truth, or a partisan view of it, really makes it a lie, and the reader's mind is at once unjustly prejudiced. Let us have the light! Publish both views of the leading questions of they day in such shape as that the reader can know and judge for himself. And if in order to do this it becomes necessary to have two editors, each representing a different political party—so let it be. Anything that will break down this damnable bigotry, the offspring largely of a biased or one-sided education. Let us have opposing parties; not the stagnation of a homogenious political faith. "Variety is the spice of life," and may prove its salvation; and agitation tends to purification, not only in the natural but political world. Let us know and understand each other and be thus prepared to act intelligibly. Let us have "the truth, the WHOLE truth, and nothing but the truth," as to the tenets of political partics; let all the people in all parties know this entirety of creed and policy, and then shall we have a purer and better spirit in the politics of our land; and the end come, it is to be hoped, of this everlasting scramble for the "loaves and fishes," at the sacrifice of truth, virtue, manhood, and all that is elevating and ennobling. If not this, or some equivalent, the bigoted partisan spirit will rule to our ruin. Nothing will tend more largely to secure the desired result than for the newspaper press to be lifted out of the dirty pool of partisan politics, as we have to-day, and give a full, fair, impartial statement of both sides of the leading questions of the hour.

Yours truly,
June 9, 1880. TRUTH.

Feeble Ladies.

Those languid, tiresome sensation, causing you to feel scarcely able to be on your feet; that constant drain that is taking from your system all its elasticity; driving the bloom from your cheeks; that continual strain upon your vital forces, rendering you irritable and fretful, can easily be removed by the use of that marvelous remedy, Hop Bitters. Irregularities and obstructions of your system are relieved at once, while the special cause of periodical pain is permanently removed. Will you heed this?

Unquestionable.

The Herald, Detroit, Mich., says of Warner's safe Liver and Kidney Cure: "Its efficacy in kidney, liver, and urinary disease is so fully acknowledged that it is not worth the questioning. Bona fide testimonials from well known citizens in public and private life are evidences strong enough to convince the most stubborn doubter."
