We Want the Public to Know

That the UNION has now a circulation larger than that of any other newspaper published in this county, and its list of subscribers is steadily increasing. If this statement is questioned we are prepared to prove it.

☞ The Orphans' Court for Caroline county will meet on Tuesday, July 6th.

The Editor's Hash.

—To make a good broil; leave a letter for one of your old sweethearts where your wife can find it.

—It won't require much to make the political pot boil over this hot weather. Keep cool! The country is safe.

—The tax collector of Seaford threatens to jail those personf who fail to pay their town taxes this week.

—The taxpayers of Caroline county are to hold a meeting at the Court House in Denton on Tuesday next, 6th inst.

—A young man at Milford, name not given, attempted suicide at Milford on Thursday last, by swallowing two ounces of laudanum.

—The Centreville Silver Cornet Band have disbanded. What has become of the Denton Cornet Band? Have they done likewise?

—Our farmers are nearly all done machining and are now busily engaged in shipping their wheat to market while commanding good prices.

—The deadening preparations of Opium for the Baby are rapidly disappearing before the use of Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup. Sold by all Druggists.

—Frank Davis, Esq., of Shelltown, Md., seeded fifteen bushels of wheat and threshed out 430 nearly 29 bushels to one seeded. Hard to beat.

—Prof. Vennor predicts the warmest days of the summer from the 25th of June to the middle of July, but cooler weather after that time, with perhaps slight frosts towards the end of July.

—Owing to the scarcity of harvest hands and the dryness of the crop, some of the farmers in the vicinity of Elkton cut most of their wheat at night.

—Capt. Wm. B. Stephens, residing at Bursville, seeded 27 bushels of wheat and realized therefrom 705, a little over 26 bushels for one. Who can beat it?

—Punching holes in coins is a state prison offence. The fine for mutilating our currency is a sum not exceeding $2,000, and it might not be much less, so don't punch.

—Wherever God erects a house of prayer.
The devil always finds a worship near;
And 'twill be found, upon examination,
The latter has the largest congregation.

—Miss Lou Bracco, formerly of Easton, was so badly burned by her clothing taking fire recently, in Baltimore, that death relieved her of her sufferings in a few hours after the accident.

—The population of Chestertown has increased in the last ten years from 1,870 to 2,360. The census enumerators says it is remarkable what an immense number of young ladies there are who are just seventeen.

—Frederica post-office is soon to be made a money-order office—a convenience long needed by the citizens of that town. A postal agent has been there, and after an examination is satisfied as to the feasibility of the change.

—The nobby youths around town goes to the barber shop and allows the baber to run his lawn mower over his cranium until you can't tell their heads from a small sized pumpkins, and their ears loop up like the wings of a flying machine.

—A basket pic-nic will be held at Chestnut Woods on Saturday next, the 3d of July.—Able speakers have been engaged for the occasion and a pleasant time is anticipated. Confectionaries will be furnished by Mr. M. L. Sullivan.

—The citizens of Oxford are petitioning the Postoffice Department to extend mail facilities from Easton to that place. Now that the cars on the Delaware & Chesapeake railroad are run regularly to that place, it will give them a regular daily mail.

—Mr. Samuel Jones, of Somerset county, with an ambition to ship the first peaches to New York, sent a crate thither last week.—They were not ripe, however, and he has receievd word that such stock was usually seized by the Board of Health.

—Don't forget the pic-nic at Wesley's on Saturday next. Able speakers will be present and all necessary arrangements have been made to make it a pleasant day for all who may attend. Mr. Chas. H. Blackiston will be on hand with refreshments.

—If you have goods to sell, advertise. If you can't afford to advertise, sell out to somebody that can and go and hide yourself; or, take Horace Greeley's advice and go West, where, if you go into business, you will have to advertise or end in being sold out.

—The Fultz wheat near Pleasantville, Md., has been badly injured by rust and is broken down. Not more than a third or half crop will be made, and probably much of it will not more than pay for harvesting. The red wheat is good, and a fair crop is expected.

—An editor up in Delaware has received $2 in an envelope, with no writing except the words "conscience money," written in a trembling hand, as though the writer was about to die. The editor don't know which of his subscribers to give credit to for the two dollars, and he has decided to give his two hundred delinquents credit for one cent each.

—The first peaches of the season passed over the Delaware R. R. Wednesday, on conductor Hawkins' train. The peaches were of the early Beatrice variety, and consisted of eight baskets, consigned to a gentleman in Philadelphia. They were shipped from Canterbury.

—S. Collins Wright, a farmer near Centreville, was jostled from his seat on a reaper while at work last week and fell in front of the knives. Fortunately he kept his grasp of the reins, and stopped his horses immediately. He escaped except that a finger was nearly severed.

—A strange fish has made its appearance in the Choptank river. It is called the 'Turbot.' It is described as 16 inches long and 10 inches wide, mouth small, filled with sharp teeth, round at the end of the nose, while on the top of its head is a sharp thorn about three inches long.

—About all the Democratic newspapers of the country have hoisted General Hancock at their mast head. Only a few years ago they would have buried him deeper than they did Horace Greeley; but now he has been washed in the Democratic pool, and his character is with out a stain.

—Hillsborough circuit, M. E. Church will celebrate the 4th of July on the 6th' at Wye camp grounds. Speaking by the Revs. J. E. Smith, J. E. Mobray and A. W. Lightbourn. Music by bands, dinner 50 cents. A side-table of refreshments. Exercise to commence at 10 o'clock A. M.

—Georgetown is preparing for a grand time on Saturday next. They expect all the brass bands in the county to be present, have engaged the Milford band, will have a street parade on horseback, speaking in the afternoon, and a general display of fire works at night. We wonder if Denton will be able to get up a dog fight.

—On Saturday last a little son of Mr. Joseph Blaine residing about 2½ miles from Easton on Dover road, and aged about 10 years, was handling a pistol, when the hammer accidentally fell, exploded the cap and the load passed through the right hand. The wound was very painful, but his condition is very good at this time.

—Capt. Zeb. Hutchinson requests us to announce to the public that the schooner Royal Oak has gone through a thorough repair, and will be ready to resume her regular trips from this place to Baltimore in about a week.—Capt. Hutchinson is a clever and accommodating young man and deserves a liberal share of the public's patronage.

—Some days ago a young lady of Greenwood, Del., despite the entreaties and commands of her parents, eloped with the man upon whom her affections were centered. Her departure was made in such haste that she went barefoot, carrying her shoes under her arm, and even the shoes were not mates, one belonging to a younger sister. The couple is supposed to have come into Maryland and been married.

—A colored man employed in a corn-field in what was formerly Baker's Woods Camp Grounds, turned up a gold ring. Not knowing its value, he offered it for sale for $2, but it was recognized as a ring belonging to Mrs. James Alfred Pearce, of Chestertown, by the initials engraved upon it. She lost it six or seven years ago, while at the camp. It was restored to the owner, and the finder received $10 as a reward.

—Thomas Carmine, a son of Mr. Thos. Carmine of Easton, aged about eleven years, went in bathing on Saturday at Deep Point, near Easton, with several other boys. He could not swim, and the others left him on a swimming match across the river. They were absent about an hour, and on returning discovered that Carmine was missing. It is supposed that he attempted to follow his comrades and drowned without their knowledge during the excitement of the race. His body was recovered.

The Salary of the Enumerators Changed.

It has been generally understood that the enumerators of the census would receive two cents per name registered, but instead of this they will receive forty cents for each hour engaged in performing their duties. The enumerators ought to have known this before they commenced work. It will be hard for them to know exactly how many hours they have been employed, because all of them have not worked constantly day after day in the prosecution of this work, consequently they cannot present an accurate account of the time they are employed. We gather the above information from the following item clipped from the Wilmington News:

"Yesterday morning Supervisor of Census, Wm. G. Whiteley, received word from Washington him to notify the enumerators under him that instead of their receiving two cents per name they are to charge time, or 40 cents per hour. In some instances where the officers has been active, this makes a very material difference; but in most of the accounts there will be little or no charge."

As such will be the rule of action on the part of Delaware enumerators we very naturally infer that the enumerators of other States will be required to conform to the same rule.

Garfield and Hancock.

Though the nominations are over and the battles of Chicago and Cincinnati fought, there is still time enough to take private lessons in one of the useful languages. Classes have so far been formed in Greensboro', Hillsboro' and Denton very successfully, and all ladies and gentlemen who wish to join a class, can still do so with great advantage. Young folks, from the country who cannot conveniently come to class may be taught at home, if they apply. The Professor will make no charge for the first week. Any pupil who intends to go to college next September may also receive the proper preparation for it in any branch. He will teach at the academy in Denton every Tuesday and Friday night, in the school room at Hillsboro' every Wednesday and Saturday, and at Greensboroug school housch every Mondly and Thursday nights, and during the balance of time he will teach at private residences in the country. The Professor annouces that all applications should be made until the 10th of July, either to the Rev. Mr. McCurley of Hillsborough and Ridgely, or Rev. Mr. Smith of Greensboro', or Rev. Mr. McFaden of Denton, (all three of the clergymen are pupils of the Professors in Greek and Hebrew.) or directly to P. W. Hochkeppel, Greensboro'. See advt.

Unquestionable.

The Herald, Detroit, Mich., says of Warner's safe Liver and Kidney Cure: "Its efficacy in kidney, liver, and urinary disease is so fully acknowledged that it is not worth the questioning. Bona fide testimonials from well known citizens in public and private life are evidences strong enough to convince the most stubborn doubter."

A Lady's Wish.

"Oh, how I do wish my skin was as clear and soft as yours," said a lady to her friend. "You can easily make it so," answered the friend. "How?" inquired the first lady. "By using Hop Bitters, that makes pure rich blood and blooming health. It did it for me, as you observe." Read of it.

Capture of a Murderer.

George Thomas, the colored seaman who recently murdered the captain and cook and very nearly killed the mate of the schooner Mignonette in the James river was arrested last Saturday at Havre de Grace, while trying to make his way to New York disguised as a woman. Thomas boarded the train at Middle River, about 18 miles east of Baltimore and acted in such a manner as to excite the suspicion of Conductor Slater, who telegraphed to Havre de Grace, and when the train arrived there, the negro was arrested by an officer. He was subsequently identified by W. W. Selby, the mate of the schooner Mignonette, whom he had assaulted and nearly killed at the time he murdered the captain and cook. He was committed to Bel Air jail to await a requisition from the Governor of Virginia. His motive for the commission of the crime is believed to be traceable to the fact that he had shown a mutinous disposition, and was fearful that when the schooner arrived at Norfolk he would be handed over to the authorities of that city.

Public Schools.

Before the investigation in regard to the management of our public schools, now being urged through the public prints is turned over to the Committee that will be appointed at a meeting of Taxpayers in Denton, on Tuesday, 6th prox., I desire to call the attention of the public, as well as that of the committee, to a few facts, that as yet have not have been given sufficient prominence in my former lettera.

First: The impression seems to be quite prevalent that the official acts of but one member of the School Board has been called in question. This is not the case. I have heretofore and do now, in the most emphatic manner charge the entire Board of School Commissioners of this county, with something more and something worse than extravagance in their expenditures on account of School books. Within the last ten years, more than Ten Thousand Dollars of the pubjic school fund—the children's heritage—has been spent for books. The county has, at least, lost that much, whicl. is a large sum of money—but those same books had to be purchased again by the public before they could find their way to the school room, with a fair profit added, and yet, the county has only realized a fraction over three thousand dollars, during that time, an account of the sale of books. Could one member of the Board gobble up six or seven hundred dollars a year out of the receipts for books sold, and the other two be ignorant of the transaction. Will the Committee have a special eye to the book business, and inquire if the amount reported have been purchased, at what per cent above cost they have been sold, and also the value of stock now on hand.

Second: Will the committee inquire into the alledged ignorance of the commission of the third district in regard to the cost of books, and also of furniture in Hillsborough school as well as to his ignorance in regard to the discrepancy in the amount charged, and the amount received by Mr. Henry Irwin, for the school house built and seated by the said Irwin.

Third: Will the Committee ascertain why the people of this county have never been furnished with copies of the Report of the State Board of Education? Inquire if the whole Board or only one member is responsible for darkness, that has been caused by the absence of said reports.

Fourth: Let the committee inquire if all the teachers in the county were instructed to in their reports with the column for fuel and incidental expenses blank; or only those in the 4th and 5th districts.

There are many other matters to look after, but the above will remind those who take charge of the investigation, that it is a deep pool, and much mud will be found at the bottom. Time presses. X.

For the Union.

"Men will wrangle for religion,
And for it their lives will give,
Write and fight to help maintain it,
Anything—but for it live."

Just so; the one who wrote the four lines knew how to tell the truth. Had the author added the Bible to the lines, the whole truth would have been told.

Religion to be worth anything must have something more in it than a writing, fighting, talking life; a shouting church going life will not answer. It must be a square life, based upon the commands of the Jehovah; no other will do. This boosted up religion which preachers talk so glibly about is all well enough in its place. It is better than none at all. It kind'o keeps us from running down hill faster than we otherwise would, but it is about the kind of religion we wrangle, fight, and write about. Just let some one in a crowd, deny the truth of this preached up religion, or declare that he does not believe the Bible to be that which it represents itself to be. You raise a storm of indignant words and looks that will make your heart quail, especialy if your bread and butter comes from the community; but you can talk to the same crowd by the hour about the teachings of the Bible, and for every Bible truth you utter, they will find fifty good excuses for the non performance of them. If you fasten on to the teachings of Mosaic times they will grunt out, oh! but that is the old dispensation; the new has done away with all that; if they find themselves about to be cornered with the truths of the new they will fly off to the Apolcalypse; if beaten there then they intrench themselves behind the early church fathers or any shelter that ingenuity can invent. PARGETTER.

All Indorse It.

The Recorder, Americus, Ga., says:—"Clerks, Senators, Representatives, Doctors, Lawyers, Citizens, in public and private life, are testifying by the thousands, and over their own signatures, that a remedy has been found for Bright's disease of the Kidneys and for Diabetes; these are respectively known as Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure and Warner's Safe Diabetes Cure." She assured her weeping friends of her readiness to depart and be with Christ, and while her strength lasted, would at intervals sing of "The sweet bye and bye" when she and the loved ones would "Meet on that beautiful shore." She was quiet and unobtrusive in life, peaceful and triumphant in death. "Let me die the death of the righteous."
